

Chapter 584

Ingram got up from the sofa and slowly walked to Sylvia's desk. He stared at Sylvia's beautiful face with aggressive eyes and said, "The second request, Sylvia. Don't you think that if our two families merge, we will get a great advantage?"

Sylvia's face suddenly cooled down. "Ingram, if you come to talk about business, we can talk about business. If not, you can get lost."

She directly used the words without hesitation.

Hearing this, not only was Ingram not angry, but he smiled even more brightly. "Sylvia, I believe that you should think about my proposal carefully."

After saying that, Ingram posed as a winner and left Sylvia's office slowly.

"President Lin, the latest report is out, and the situation is not optimistic. I asked someone to buy a few media. The Zhao's Group is adding fuel to the fire." Cathy put a report in front of Sylvia.

"Except for the Zhao's Group, who else is so eager to destroy our company?" Sylvia smiled slightly. She didn't look at the report Cathy brought. She already knew what was written on it.

"President Lin, the board of directors jointly requested to initiate the meeting. This matter..."

"Tell them that I'm not feeling comfortable. We'll talk about it when I'm better." Sylvia waved her hand and interrupted Cathy.

Cathy nodded and said, "Understood. Should I arrange a public relations team for Mr. Zhang? Now there is negative news about Mr. Zhang everywhere. The matter at the university has been completely exposed."

"No." Sylvia shook her head. "He has his own way of dealing with things."

"But if this matter continues ..." Cathy was about to say something, but she stopped on second thought.

Sylvia said affirmatively, "I have confidence in him."

Yinzhou City was a small city. Once there was any gossip, it would spread across the whole city. The news that President Lin's husband had threatened other people's safety and had had an affair was the central topic. Many people had nothing to do and would gossip about this.

"Sylvia is a gorgeous woman. Why would her husband still have an affair?"

"Probably the wild and fresh women are better."

"Oh, my god, I'm so jealous."

While the scandal was circling around the city, Henry himself was still in the park in the suburbs. He slowly practices his moves. He found that when he was practising his fists, it seemed that his anger could be reduced a lot. All kinds of negative news made him have an impulse to go to Zhao's Group to kill people.

What Henry could do now was to wait. Once he saw Zhao's Group exposing its flaws, he would completely destroy the entire Zhao's Group!

Henry stayed in the park in the suburbs for a long time. He didn't go home until it was getting dark.

When he arrived home, Sylvia and Jenny had already come back. The two women were sitting on the sofa and watching the variety shows on TV. Sylvia's face was indifferent as if she didn't care about the current affairs at all.

Henry specially picked up some food. As soon as he entered the door, he went into the kitchen. Soon, the aroma filled the air.

"Two queens, let's have dinner." Henry called out to the living room.

Hearing Henry's voice, the two women got up from the sofa and came to the table. The food on the table was so delicious that it made people's appetite increase. It was the first time that Jenny had tasted Henry's food. She just took a bite and felt that she couldn't stop.

"Henry, I finally understand why when you were not at home, President Lin couldn't even eat, haha."

A blush appeared on Sylvia's face.

Henry subconsciously looked at Sylvia, and the woman rolled her eyes at him.

After the dinner, Henry was cleaning up and washing in the kitchen, and he saw Sylvia coming in.

"Honey, didn't you start watching your TV show? Why did you come here?" Henry asked curiously.

"Honey, I... I want to..." Sylvia blushed and pursed her lips. She didn't dare to look at Henry with her beautiful eyes.

"What's wrong?" Henry was confused.

Sylvia took a deep breath, plucked up her courage and said, "Honey, why don't we stay together at night? President Qin is staying here. If she finds out that we live separately..."

"Oh, it's about this matter." Henry smiled slightly. "Jenny figured it out yesterday."

"Ah!" Sylvia was like a frightened little white rabbit. She reached out to cover her mouth and could not help but turn her head to look at Jenny in the living room. "This... this..."

"It's okay, honey." Henry turned around and patted Sylvia on the shoulder. "I personally respect your decisions. It's not a big deal to live separately for the time being."

"All right." Sylvia's face showed a sense of loss, then she turned around and went out of the kitchen.

At the moment when she went out of the kitchen, Sylvia stamped her feet and whispered, "Damn Henry, what do you mean you respect my decisions? Can't you, a grown man, take the initiative? I just mentioned it, but you still act like this. I'm so angry!"

Henry, who was washing dishes in the kitchen, heard

Sylvia's muttering sound. He smiled bitterly. Even he himself didn't understand his current situation. He couldn't control his emotions at all. He didn't want to lose control suddenly and hurt Sylvia. If that happened, he absolutely wouldn't forgive himself.

One night passed quietly, and the trivial matters became the past.

Early the next morning, Henry was woken up again by the sound of decoration from the opposite side. The annoyance in his heart did not diminish at all. Instead, it was even worse than yesterday. Henry learned from yesterday's lesson. He waited for a few minutes in the room before he opened the door.

Today, Henry planned to go to the company with Sylvia. If he didn't show up all the time, Zhao's Group would continue to attack them. Every day, it would cause a lot of damage to Lins Group. If he wanted to solve this problem, he had to show up.

A lot of reporters gathered around the entrance of the Lins Group early in the morning. The first-hand news was an essential part of their jobs. When Henry appeared, he was surrounded by countless reporters.

"Mr. Zhang, may I ask how are you going to kill us? Did you hire the members of the mafia? Or the killers from the movies?" A reporter's words immediately caused a burst of laughter. Everyone could tell that the reporter was teasing Henry.

"Mr. Zhang, you appeared at Yinzhou University yesterday. Did you go to threaten anyone's safety?"

"Does the police of Yinzhou know that you are so arrogant?"

Questions from the reporters were sharper than before. Facing these questions, Henry did not pay attention to them at all.
