

Chapter 586

The little girl was sitting on the sofa in the lobby. Such a little girl who suddenly came to look for her father made the reporters sense the new topic, and all of them focused at the little girl.

When they heard that the little girl said her father's name was Henry, the title of illegitimate daughter president Lin's husband had already been thought about in the minds of these reporters.

With a "Ding", the elevator door opened.

Henry, Sylvia, and the secretary, Cathy, emerged from the elevator.

At the moment when they saw Henry, countless reporters rushed up.

"Mr. Zhang, is this your illegitimate daughter?"

"Having a mistress and a three-year-old illegitimate daughter. Is there anything else you want to hide from President Lin?"

"Mr. Zhang, please answer..."

The reporters' voices rang in Henry's ears.

As soon as Sylvia got out of the elevator, she saw a little girl sitting on the sofa. The little girl had a pair of big black eyes, which were particularly shiny. Her eyebrows were curved, like the crescent moon hanging on the stars. Her clothes were a little dirty. She sat there with a well-behaved look, which made people want to hold her in their arms at first sight.

At the same time, Henry also saw the little girl sitting there. "Lisa?"

Henry subconsciously called out the little girl's name.

The little girl sitting on the sofa heard Henry's voice and immediately looked over. When she saw Henry, her round and lovely little face immediately showed an intense joy. She jumped out of the sofa and strode toward Henry. She said in a childish voice, "Daddy

Henry."

Henry understood what was going on the moment he saw her.

Lisa was the kid from Spring Residential Home. When Henry went to visit them, other kids always called him Brother Henry. However, Lisa always called him daddy.

At that time, Henry asked why she called him daddy.

Lisa answered, "Only my father would be so good to me."

When Sylvia heard Henry calling out the little girl's name, she looked at Henry with a puzzled face. "Do you know this little girl?"

"Yeah." Henry nodded. When he was about to explain to Sylvia Lisa's identity, he heard a voice coming from the door of the Lins Group.

"It's him! He threatened me in my office yesterday! Let me see what he wants to do to me!"

This shout immediately attracted the attention of most people. The person was the director whom Henry met at Yinzhou University yesterday.

The teaching director strode into the office building of Lins Group and shouted, "Dear friends from media, I am the teaching director at Yinzhou University. I come here today to tell you how shameless this man is!"

As soon as the director said this, countless cameras immediately pointed at him.

"This guy surnamed Zhang, was hiding the truth about his marriage, deceived our student and got her pregnant. This matter had happened long ago and had been concealed by him. If I hadn't found a friend from the hospital, this matter couldn't be revealed now. Also, Henry Zhang came to my office yesterday and threatened me. He told me clearly that if I continue to investigate this matter, there will be no way for me to survive in Yinzhou!"

The director's words were so forceful that they sounded it really happened.

Of course, the media on the scene would not miss out on such a piece of news.

"Mr. Zhang, why did you do such a shameless thing?"

"Mr. Zhang, do you have anything to say?"

"Mr. Zhang, what do you want to say about having an affair?"

"Why do you hide the fact that you're married?"

The media fired questions like bullets.

"Why? He has such a bad character. What else can he do?" In the crowd, a reporter sneered. This man was specially arranged by the Zhao family. "This Zhang is arrogant and unruly. He not only seduces female students but also has an illegitimate daughter. And this Lins Group is under his command. How good can this enterprise be!"

As soon as the man's voice fell, someone in the crowd echoed, "That's right! In my opinion, Lins Group is not what we think."

"Boycott Lins!" Someone shouted, and there were countless such voices in the crowd.

Standing in the hall of Lins Group, Ingram looked at this scene with a sneer. "Sylvia, you b*tch, this is the what you get for offending me!"

At the scene, the provincial media, who had just arrived, were all arranged by Ingram.

At this moment, an elevator from the top floor descended to the first floor. When the door opened, Jenny came out from inside. Just now, Jenny also heard about Henry's illegitimate daughter, so she quickly ran down. After all, Henry was still in Jenny's heart.

When Jenny saw Lisa in Henry's arms, she made an unexpected sound. "Lisa? Why are you here?"

"Mom!" Lisa's big eyes were cutely narrowed into a thin crack, and she called Jenny.

It completely stunned Sylvia, including Cathy and the media who were present, and some of them didn't know what to say.

She was the illegitimate daughter of the president Lin's husband, and she called President Qin from Hengyuan her mother. Was there any relationship between these two people?

All the reporters present showed excitement on their faces. This was big news. It was absolutely possible to make the headlines!

Sylvia's eyes were fixed on Henry. Now she urgently needed an explanation to why Jenny and Henry would have a daughter!

"As you can see, this is Henry. He has an affair with Jenny Qin from Hengyuan!"

"Jenny is not a good person. I have seen her hanging out with President Lin, but she is a vixen who seduce other people's husbands secretly!"

"She's also a bi*ch!"

In the crowd, there were constant voices like this. These were all arranged by the Zhao family.

Although today's appearance of this little girl was purely an accident, and no one had expected it, it was exactly for their benefit!

The sneer on Ingram's face became more serious. "Interesting, really interesting."

With a snap of his fingers, a man standing beside him hurried up. "Master Wei, what can I do for you?"

"Tell the media to start the live broadcast. I want Sylvia, the bi*ch, to be completely unable to recover!" There was a hint of hatred in the eyes of Ingram. Just now, in front of so many people, Sylvia's words made him feel extremely embarrassed. For so many years, no one dared to speak to him in such a tone and attitude!

The people around Ingram nodded repeatedly and immediately ordered the media to start the live broadcast. Everything that happened now would be on the TV screen. Even if Sylvia wanted to turn the situation over later, she would not be able to do it!

Chapter 587

All kinds of abuses, doubts, reporters' questions, and the "truth" mentioned by the director put Henry in a very unfavourable position.

Even Sylvia looked at Henry suspiciously. Henry's daughter, who suddenly appeared, called Jenny mother, which made Sylvia completely stunned. Was she really Henry and Jenny's daughter? Did they have a relationship before she met Henry?

No matter how smart one woman was, when she was in love, she would go crazy. This matter was connected to Sylvia's feelings, which totally messed with her head.

Ingram asked the reporters to start the live broadcast, so everything that happened in Lins Group now would appear on all the platforms.

An illegitimate daughter, threatening other people's safety, having an affair with university students, and then making them abort. Those were all the titles of the videos.

Shocked! The president of Lins Group let the wolf into the house and her good friend was her husband's ex!

Such a title immediately attracted countless people to click. When people learned the cause and effect of the matter, those who were sitting in front of the computer screen or holding their mobile phones and watching the live broadcast also started swearing.

Henry turned into a scumb*g and a piece of trash in an instant.

Therefore, Hengyuan was also affected. Jenny was given the titles such as the vixen, the third wheel, and so on.

"The person in charge of the Lins Group is such a bad person. What kind of people do you think work in Lins Group?"

"That's right. As a leading enterprise in Yinzhou, every move of the Lins Group represents Yinzhou."

"Boycott Lins Group!"

"Zhao's Group is not bad. I hope Zhao's Group can replace Lins Group." Such a message stood out in a series of comments.

"Yes, we should support Zhao's Group and boycott Lins Group!"

"I support Zhao's Group!"

This message immediately attracted the attention of countless people, and it could directly affect people's mind. Once everyone disliked Lins Group in their hearts, no matter how hard the Lins tried, it would be useless!

At this time, Sylvia's phone was constantly being called by the board members. Lins Group was affected by so many negative messages, and it was inevitable for the stock to decline, which would directly affect the board members' interests.

Sylvia didn't answer these calls at all.

At the same time, the secretary Cathy, as well as the company's reception, also received a call from the board of directors!

"Henry Zhang, do you have anything to say?" A reporter arranged by Zhao's Group loudly questioned Henry. This was in order to beat him into the abyss completely. If Henry did not make any reasonable explanation at the moment, everything would be confirmed.

At this moment, Henry's cell phone rang. It was a message. Henry took out his mobile phone and looked at it. A smile appeared on his face. He had to admit that this message came in time.

Henry took a deep breath, looked at the camera, and was about to speak.

"Excuse me, please. Please." An old and weak voice sounded in the crowd.

There was some disturbance in the crowd, but because of this voice, they all made a way.

An older woman with grey hair and a slim figure walked out of the crowd. Her face was full of wrinkles, which made her look very old. Her eyes were full of kindness, which made people feel comfortable when they looked at her.

A group of twittering children, between three and five years old, were all following behind the older woman. There were more than a dozen of them.

"Lisa!" As soon as the older woman appeared, she shouted at the girl in Henry's arms.

"Grandma!" Lisa greeted the older woman.

The older woman came forward and looked at so many reporters. She smiled apologetically at Henry. "Henry, I have brought trouble to you and Jenny. You know, this child is very clever. Today, I just brought them out, but when she passed by here, she ran in."

"Dean, it's not a problem at all. I'm so happy that she could find me." Henry put Lisa on the ground.

"Honey, this is..." Sylvia looked at the older woman with a bunch of children, and the doubts in her heart became deeper. Lisa called this woman grandma, and Henry called her dean?

"Honey, let me introduce him to you. This is Dean Cui." Henry introduced the older woman to Sylvia. "She is the Dean from Spring Residential Home."

"Spring residential home!" Sylvia was shocked. "Honey, you mean, this little girl..."

Sylvia looked at Lisa who standing next to Dean Cui. She held a woman's leg and opened her mouth widely, looking very happy.

"Yeah." Henry nodded. "They are all orphans."

Hearing this, Sylvia's heart was suddenly filled with infinite apologies, but there was still a question in her heart. "Why did she call you Dad and President Qin..."

"Haha, you must be Ms Lin, Henry's wife." Dean Cui laughed.

"Yes." Sylvia nodded. "Hello, Dean."

"You are a good girl and so beautiful. No wonder Henry likes you so much." Dean Cui looked at Sylvia and nodded with satisfaction. It could be said that she had watched Henry grow up until Henry left Spring residential home secretly. Dean Cui was Henry's most respected elder. She also regarded Henry as her own child.

Dean Cui said to Sylvia, "Henry has been helping Spring residential home all the time. So did Jenny. They often come to visit these children. You know, the children have been alone since their childhood. Henry and Jenny have been there for so many times. Naturally, these children regard them as their parents."

"I... I see." Sylvia's face was a little dull. Just now, she really doubted the relationship between Henry and Jenny. But now when she heard these words, she realized how narrow-minded she was.

Henry subsidized Spring residential home and often went to see the children. Why he never mentioned it?

Sylvia looked at Henry. When she saw Henry looking at the children with deep love in his eyes, she found that she had not really understood this man yet.

Not only was Sylvia a little stunned by Dean Cui's words, but the media and the people watching the live broadcast were also a little stunned because of this reversal.

The girl, who they thought was Henry's illegitimate daughter turned out to be a child from Spring residential home.

This child called Henry father and Jenny mother, not because they were her parents, but because they often went to Spring residential home to visit the child.

It had never been heard that the Lins and Hengyuan subsidized Spring residential home. Could it be that these things were all done secretly?

If that was the case, President Qin was not a vixen at all. She was just a charitarian. She did not ask for any reward or attention!

Chapter 588

Now, there were too many people in this world who did give some money to charity just to get some attention.

As time went by, the charity began to be hated by others. But now, what Henry and Jenny had done completely refreshed many people's understanding of charity.

There had never been a media report about them sponsoring Spring residential home!

If it were another company, they would let everyone know.

This changed many people's view of Henry.

The rumour about Henry's illegitimate daughter was also broken.

Moreover, because of this reversal, the people who were watching online began to doubt whether what the title of the live broadcast said was true or not. Would a person who secretly did charity and did not ask for anything in return have an affair and make a student pregnant?

The public, which was initially unified against Henry, was divided into two sides now.

Henry looked at the reporters and said, "Everyone, I have a video that I want to show you."

Henry raised his mobile phone and played a video.

At the same time, the cameras of those reporters were all aimed at Henry's mobile phone screen.

In the first half of the video, there was a scene of Henry taking Lam to the hotel that night and that scene was taken secretly by someone. This was only the first half of the video. The second half of the video was the monitoring of the hotel. Initially, it was deleted by someone with intentions, but Henry was still able to find it. It could be seen that he had sent Lam to the hotel and left and that Henry did not spend the night in the hotel.

"Who are you lying to? This video is obviously edited, and that girl is pregnant. It is impossible that you had just taken her to the hotel and left."

"Yes, it's obviously fake!" The person arranged by Zhao's Group began to quibble in the crowd.

Hearing their words, Henry chuckled and said, "Haha, everyone, don't worry. There's another one."

Henry clicked several times on the screen of his mobile phone, and another video popped up.

In the video, there were two people. One of them was a stranger, and the other one was the person all the people present knew, the teaching director from Yinzhou University.

"You have taken five hundred thousand yuan before, and this is the other five hundred thousand yuan. Tomorrow morning, you will go to the Lins. You don't need me to teach you what to say, do you?" In the video, the stranger put a few piles of money in front of the director.

"Of course, I know what to say." The director accepted the money with a smile on his face. "I will say the girl in our school is pregnant. Don't worry. I've prepared the hospital report! Your Zhao's Group will see a good show tomorrow."

The video was not long, and there were only two people who had a short communication. But when this video was released, both the people present and the people watching the live broadcast couldn't calm down.

As the director of the student affairs office of Yinzhou University, how could he have made such a false testimony? What he just said was not only irresponsible to his own school and smearing Lins group, but also that girl's life was likely to be ruined. It was evident that she did nothing wrong, but still, the fake news about her abortion spread out. After all, public opinion in society could make some people hurt themselves!

"What he has done is totally a sin!"

"Such a person should get arrested!"

People on the Internet started cursing the director.

Although the director couldn't see the comments on the Internet, the moment he saw Henry play the video, his face became extremely ugly. He made this deal with someone before he came. How could it be photographed?!

Playing these two videos, as well as the appearance of Dean Cui of Spring Residential Home, completely changed the situation.

In the video, the sentence where the teaching director mentioned Zhao's Group also attracted everyone's attention.

"The money was given by Zhao's Group? Is it all Zhao's Group's trick?"

"It's very likely. As the second- largest company in Yinzhou, once the Lins fell, they would be the biggest beneficiary!"

"Is Zhao's Group trying to make use of everyone to help them take down Lins Group?"

"Zhao's Group is too disgusting!"

Sentences like this did not only appear on the scene but also on the Internet.

In the crowd, the people arranged by Zhao's Group had never expected that things would turn out like this. The transaction was photographed, but they had received the money, so they couldn't just sit there and watch things develop like this.

"I seriously suspect that this video is made up. Why would Zhao's Group attack Lins Group for no reason? Was this directed and acted by Lins Group? Was it deliberately framed Zhao's Group?"

"That's right!"

As soon as the voice of doubt came out, everyone looked at Henry again, waiting for his explanation.

Henry did not speak. He played a video again. This video was the one when he went to Luohe city to find a foreman to settle scores. Henry got this video when he was there.

In the video, the one who found the foreman was the public relations manager of Zhao's company. Many media people present could recognize his appearance at a glance. The public relations manager asked the foreman to start a project on the construction site of Lins Group. All of these were recorded clearly.

Once this video came out, even if Zhao's Group wanted to whitewash, it couldn't be done. After all, their public relations manager was in the video. Moreover, some time ago, Lin's project was secretly launched, and the village wanted revenge. Although the media didn't report it, many people saw it. It was impossible that it was the Lins directed this plan and acted, wasn't it?

Sylvia looked at the videos that Henry took out one after another and smiled slightly. Sure enough, she never needed to worry about his ways of dealing with things.

There was no need for more explanation. These videos were the most advantageous evidence, which could explain everything!

The media who were present and the people who were watching the live broadcast also understood at this time that everything was done by Zhao's Group, which made everyone feel that they had been fooled! They all vented their anger on Zhao's Group.

As for the Lins, because of what happened this time, people realized that the Lins disdained arguments, which made everyone's evaluation of the company higher.

Looking at the comments on the Internet that had full of praises for Lins Group, Ingram's face was extremely ugly. Initially, he wanted to destroy Lins Group, but he didn't expect to bring benefits to them. All the things were streamed live. Even if he were to pull his connections later, it would not affect Lins Group!

The people arranged by Zhao's Group saw that things had developed in this way and could not be reversed, so they left gloomily. Some media, who were standing in a neutral position, began to interview.

Of course, the Public Relations Department of Lins Group would not let go of this opportunity. They stood up and answered the media's questions. A crisis that would have caused Lins Group to lose a lot was reversed entirely just because of Henry's actions!
