

Chapter 592

Henry smiled helplessly, closed the door, and deliberately coughed.

As soon as Sylvia heard Henry's cough, their eyes met. At the moment when Lisa saw Henry, she jumped off the sofa and ran to Henry.

"Daddy, you're back."

Lisa had been calling Henry her daddy for a long time, so he had already been used to it.

Henry picked Lisa up. Seeing that she resumed her lively and lovely behaviour, he was happy from the bottom of his heart. "Lisa, did you bully your mommy?"

"She is not my mommy." She hugged Henry's neck. "I want mommy Qin."

Hearing this, Sylvia rolled her eyes at Henry. She had been telling Lisa since she came back from the hospital that she would be her mother in the future, but Lisa didn't buy it at all.

Henry rubbed Lisa's little head. "Be good Lisa. Mommy Sylvia is also your mommy."

"No!" Lisa, he puffed out her cheeks and said in a childish voice.

Although she was young, she was very intelligent and only recognized Henry and Jenny.

Seeing that Lisa was like this, Henry had no choice but to make an expression of helplessness, which made Sylvia understand that Lisa should slowly develop feelings for her from now on.

How could Sylvia be angry with such a little girl? She walked over and grabbed Lisa's hands. "Okay, Lisa, how about you go to buy some new clothes with aunty?"

"New clothes!" When Lisa heard these three words, her big black eyes almost lit up.

Children living in Spring residential home were extremely eager for the new clothes. It was not because they loved new things very much, but because this made them feel no different from other children with parents. This made them comfortable and companied. Although children could not express these words, everyone had their own instinct, regardless of age.

"Yes, new clothes, Lisa, do you want to go with aunty Sylvia?" Sylvia deliberately pointed at her clothes.

"Let's go!" She answered firmly with a cheerful voice.

Sylvia smiled and took Lisa from Henry's arms. "Let's go Lisa. Auntie will take you to buy clothes."

"Honey, wait for me. I'll change my clothes and go with you." Henry immediately said. The clothes on his body had just witnessed the murder. Although Henry was not a superstitious person, he thought it was better to put on a new one when he was with the child.

Sylvia shook her head. "You don't have to go. Daisy called me a while ago and said that she had something urgent to talk to you. She asked you to go to school. Your mobile phone was turned off. It must have something to do with Daisy's friend."

Henry took out his mobile phone and found that it was really turned off.

"Okay, honey, thank you for your help."

"Not at all," Sylvia glanced at Henry and said, "I'll take my daughter to play. Just wait and see. From now on, she'll only get closer and closer to me. As for you, you'll be forgotten sooner or later."

After saying this, Sylvia put on her shoes and went out with Lisa.

Sylvia didn't drive because Lisa couldn't sit in the passenger seat at her age. She didn't have a baby car seat in her car, so she just took a taxi.

After Sylvia left, Henry went back to the bedroom and found the charger. As soon as the phone was turned on, Daisy called him.

He picked up the phone. Before Henry could say anything, Daisy's voice sounded anxiously from the phone. "Brother-in-law, you're finally home. Did my sister tell you?"

"Yeah, what's wrong?" Henry asked.

"Something happened to Lam. Hey, I can't make it clear over the phone. Come to our dormitory quickly. Auntie is here too."

Hearing Daisy's voice on the phone, Henry knew that it was not convenient for her to speak, so he quickly hung up the phone, picked up a power bank and went to Yinzhou University.

Henry and Sylvia's relationship was strong, so the luxury cars in the yard were casually driven by Henry. Henry picked up a car key from the shoe cabinet casually, went out and picked a Ferrari, then drove out of the yard quickly.

When Henry drove the supercar, it took him the shortest time to come to the gate of the university. At this time, even if the world's top racing drivers came, they couldn't surpass him.

Henry knew where Daisy's dormitory was. At that time, it was he who helped Daisy to move her belongings.

An exaggerated Ferrari drove through the gate of the university, which immediately attracted everyone's attention. Henry did not pay attention to this at all. After parking the car in front of Daisy's dormitory building, he rushed upstairs.

Before he arrived at the door of Daisy's dormitory, Henry heard the howling sound from the corridor.

"It's all my fault, it's all my fault!"

Henry immediately realized that the howl came from Lam's stepmother.

Henry came to Daisy's dormitory. The door was half-closed. When he pushed the door open, he saw Lam's stepmother wiping her tears. Lam sat next to her stepmother, constantly comforting her.

Daisy, Amy, and Wade were all sitting in the dormitory.

When they saw Henry opening the dormitory door, everyone stood up.

"Brother-in-law, you are here." Daisy nodded to Henry.

"What's going on?" Henry looked around and asked.

"This... Lam, she..." Daisy was just about to speak when she was interrupted by Lam's stepmother's voice.

"It's all my fault." Lam's stepmother cried. "Before, Lam's father cooperated with others on a project. He borrowed more than two million yuan from others, but it ended up to be a fraud. That person ran away with the money. Lam's father was chased because of the debt and was detained. That person's background is very strong. Lam's father owes 1.5 million yuan to that person. If they don't get the money, they won't let him go."

When Lam's stepmother said this, she subconsciously glanced at Lam next to her and continued, "At that time, I was forced to do that. Lam's father was beaten every day, and I couldn't bear it. So I arranged the marriage for Lam. We are from the same village, and they like Lam very much. Also, they are rich, so I asked for 1.5 million as a bridal gift..."

After Lam's stepmother finished speaking, she didn't say anything.

Henry frowned slightly. "Does Lam know about the marriage you mentioned?"

Lam's stepmother looked up at Henry and then shook her head slightly. "No."

Henry looked at Lam sitting there and sighed helplessly. He had seen what kind of person Lam's stepmother was when they met in Luohe city last time.

"Do you mean that the other party is pushing her to get married?" Henry asked.

Lam's stepmother opened her mouth but said nothing.

"It's more complicated than this." Daisy continued, "Brother-in-law, Lam's fiance died. Now his family insists on carrying on this arrangement."
