

Chapter 595

Being gripped by Henry so suddenly, Zora's face instantly turned blue. She barely shook her hand, causing the phone to play a harsh ring tone.

When the phone rang, Henry loosened his grip.

"Whew! Whew!"

Zora stretched out her hand and patted her chest, gasping for breath.

"I..." Henry saw the red mark on Zora's neck and looked at his own hands. He didn't know what had happened and why he had attacked Zora.

The feeling was like when he first returned to the Lins Group and shouted at those reporters. He was completely out of control. Anger was boiling inside of him and he had to act.

"I'm sorry," Henry whispered to Zora.

Zora shook her head indifferently. "My lord, I tried to annoy you on purpose just now. You got angry easier than I thought. I'm afraid that you should look for my teacher."

Henry gave a wry smile and said, "I'm afraid that old guy is not willing to see me."

Zora's teacher, at the same time, was also Cesia's teacher. Once Zora's teacher had told something to Henry. At that time, Henry was young and arrogant. Henry did not believe what Zora's teacher had told him and he had a quarrel with him.

But now thinking about it, Henry found that Zora's teacher was right. It was just that his knowledge at that time was not great.

At that time, Zora's teacher told Henry about a case of spiritual division. He clearly told Henry that a patient who suffered from spiritual division had two spiritual sides inside of himself. One side would be weak, and the other side would be strong. Everybody had their good and bad sides. If the technology was developed enough, these two sides could be completely separated from each other.

At that time, Henry was dismissive of such a theory mentioned by Zora's teacher.

Hearing Henry's words, Zora also expressed her helplessness. "Teacher's temper has always been very strange and unpredictable. Maybe he doesn't remember what happened before?"

"Hey, if there's a chance, just ask him." Henry sighed. "It's time for dinner. Let's have dinner together."

"No." Zora waved her hand. "My lord, you know, the teacher likes to arrange many tasks. I can't bear his anger if I don't finish these tasks on time."

"Thank you for coming this time."

After they left the room, Zora said goodbye to Sylvia and Jenny and left.

Henry, on the other hand, went to a restaurant with two women and a little girl, so they could celebrate Lisa's arrival to the family.

During the meal, Henry told Sylvia that he would go to Meng Province tomorrow.

"Leaving again?"

Sylvia and Jenny almost looked at Henry at the same time and said.

Then Jenny realized that she seemed to be a little too affected. She lowered her head and stopped talking.

"Yes." Henry nodded. "There are some things I have to deal with."

Sylvia never asked much about Henry's business. She knew Henry's identity and knew that some things could not be exposed to a woman like herself. He had his own power and responsibility. Many people had to be led by him.

Sylvia had never thought of tying Henry to her side. Although she admitted that when Henry left, she missed him a lot, it was not realistic to make Henry stay with her forever. Any man should have his own career, and his own things to do, especially if he is someone with Henry's status.

"How long will it take you to come back this time? The weather is good recently, and I want to take Lisa on a trip. You are her father, you should come with us." Sylvia said.

Henry thought for a moment and said, "It won't take long. A week."

The Zhao clan's man died four days ago, so the marriage should be held in three days. It would not take too long to deal with this matter.

"Okay, then we'll wait for you to come back." Sylvia raised her glass.

Sitting on the side, Lisa also raised her cup and touched Henry's cup.

Henry smiled slightly. "There are still people waiting for me at home. How can I leave for too long?"

After dinner, they returned home and Lisa hugged Jenny with all their might and went to sleep with her.

Sylvia smiled helplessly. She thought that she had a good relationship with Lisa today. After rolling her eyes, she went back to her room.

Henry returned to his bedroom. He didn't have anything to tidy up. After thinking for a while, he packed the two tubes of blue liquid that Future had prepared for him. These two tubes of blue liquid contained huge power.

After midnight, Henry quietly left home and closed the door.

A second after Henry left, the curtain in Sylvia's bedroom was opened with a thin crack. Sylvia stood behind the curtain and looked at Henry's back as he gradually walked away. A trace of worry appeared in her eyes.

Although Henry was the king of hell, and he was called the most powerful man in the world, the enemy he faced was not ordinary at all. On Radiant Island that day, the scene of countless fighter jets hovering in the sky still emerged in Sylvia's mind. Every time Henry went far away, although she said nothing, she was very worried. So when Henry went out to handle affairs, she never contacted Henry, for fear that Henry would be distracted. Even if Henry contacted her, she would make an excuse to reduce her contact with Henry and quietly waited for Henry came back.

After Henry left home, he went directly to the airport. He did not intend to go with Lam and her stepmother. If the other party was really a member of the Zhao clan, then Lam would naturally be followed along the way. Henry planned on going to Meng Province earlier and personally check out the situation there.

A helicopter had been waiting for Henry at the airport for a long time.

After getting on the plane, Henry went straight to the cockpit.

"Boss, what's the big task this time?" In the pilot's seat, Wade was leisurely sitting with a cigar in his mouth.

"Have you ever heard of a clan?" Henry sat next to Wade and made himself comfortable.

"A clan?" Wade frowned. "Boss, are we going to fight against a clan this time?"

"Have you heard of it?" Henry was a little surprised.

"Yes." Wade nodded. "Boss, our Temple Guardians are from a clan."

Henry patted his head. He tried his best to understand the clan. When he went to the Tang clan, he was acting. Unexpectedly, there were members of a clan in front of him!

"Boss, Alex told me that you've arranged a group of people surnamed Tang to live on the island. Are they from the Tang clan?" Wade looked at Henry and asked.

"Yes." Henry nodded. It seemed that Wade knew quite well about the clans.

"F**k, boss, the Tang clan's current ranking is bad. It is estimated that they will soon drop to the fifteenth place. It is estimated that in a few years, they will not even be qualified to be called a clan."

Henry heard a hint of disdain in Wade's words. He asked, "What about you? What is the ranking of your clan?"

"Thirty-nine," Wade answered naturally.