

Along the way to the top of the pagoda, even though he was strong, Henry couldn't help gasping.

The space at the top of the pagoda was not big. It was a dark and circular hall. At this moment, a beautiful figure was lying in the centre of the hall. Besides the beautiful figure, there was a figure sitting cross-legged.

"You're slower than I thought."

The seated figure gradually rose to his feet and let out a low and deep voice.

"Do you know that our Zhao clan has been preparing for 21 years for this day!"