

Chapter 619

Hearing the voice coming from the office, Anna's face suddenly became very ugly.

In the office, Barret sat on a chair and said to the people around him, "Everyone, I'm telling you this not because I want you to judge me. We're all here to make a living. After tomorrow's ranking, even if we don't want to leave, Collier Security Company will be forced to fire us. At that time, we won't be able to stay. Now, follow me to Guineay Security Company. The treatment there will definitely be much better than here."

"Barret, why do you say that the company will be forced to fire us after the grading tomorrow?"

"Exactly."

"Why?" Barret smiled. "The news has just come down. President Jiang is going to be the judge for tomorrow's grading. Who do you think will participate in the competition? Why do you think that the government have arranged things like this? After tomorrow's grading is over, the question is whether Collier Security Company will be able to reach three stars. I'm just here to tell you that. Whether you want to go with me or not, it's up to you!"

As soon as Barret finished speaking, several people in the office looked back and forth.

"Barret, are you telling the truth? Will President Jiang really be a judge?"

"If that's the case, tomorrow's grading will be very dangerous."

"Of course it's true. What's the benefit of using this to fool you guys? Rather than waiting for being fired, why don't you come with me to Guineay Security? The treatment will be better than this!" Barret said with confidence.

"D*mn it, I'll go with you!" A man who was about the same age as Barret said, "We have to train every day here. We are exhausted to death, and we can't make any money. Let's go to Guineay, and get better tasks. We can eat and drink with our employer every day, and that will be enjoyable!"

"I'll go with you!"

"I'll go!"

One person took the lead, which immediately made several people doubt their decision.

"Barret, I'll think about it. I'll reply to you tonight, okay?"

"Okay, reply to me tonight. Tomorrow, I can't guarantee that I will be able to give you such good treatment."

Barret waved his hand.

Anna, who was outside the door, felt sad when she heard what was said in the office. She was training them and giving them a salary. It was for everyone's good. If they practised more, there was a higher probability that they would deal with task easier. This was from her own experience. But now, she was ridiculed by others. They thought that the training was tiring and the salary was low.

"In fact, this is also one of the drawbacks of your company, but I don't know how to explain it to you."

Henry said beside Anna, "Fifty percent of your company is too young. Their understanding of this world is too idealistic. They think that being a security guard is just a job. I just noticed that most people are passive in training. This is not a good sign."

Anna looked lonely. "I often tell them that there may be dangers during carrying out the task, but..."

"No matter how well you educate them, it's better to let them see the reality." Henry said. His way was the latter.

A few days ago, the big battle with the Zhao clan was a life- and- death battle. No one could say what would happen next second. Henry still wanted Future and others to fight against the Qi-controlling masters without helping them, because Henry was very clear that a person's strength was not given by others. Only when a person saw the strength of his opponents and realized the cruelty of the world could they spontaneously strengthen themselves.

Anna stood in front of the door of the office for a while, but she didn't push the door and did not go in. If everyone wanted to leave, and they really made up their mind, whatever she said couldn't change their decision.

Anna finally shook her head and continued to go downstairs. Henry did not say anything.

Along the way, Anna found that there were a lot of people in the company looking at her in an indescribably strange way, and there seemed to be something hidden in their eyes.

"President Jiang, something's wrong, something's wrong!" The middle-aged captain shouted and ran over from behind Anna.

"What's wrong?" Anna turned around and asked.

"The gate!" The middle-aged captain pointed to the entrance of the company and said, "There are a lot of recruiters in front."

"Recruiters?" Anna frowned and walked towards the door of the company.

As soon as she walked out of the company's door, she saw more than ten people standing in front of the company. Each of them was holding a sign saying "Recruiting". There were a few people, and they even set up hiring desks at the company's entrance.

Behind the desks, there were two companies' names written. One was Guineay Security Company, which Barret just mentioned, and the other was Superstitious Security Company.

Henry followed beside Anna. With his experience, he could figure out that these two companies were the competitors mentioned by Anna without thinking much.

"It seems that these two companies are full of confidence." Henry said with a smile.

Anna shook her head. "They deliberately arranged for me to be a judge and prepared all of this. Of course, they have done their part. How can they not be confident? It's a pity that they will be disappointed tomorrow."

"Let's go. You have to tell me the rules for grading. Otherwise, it will be problematic if someone finds out that I am breaking the rules tomorrow." Henry shook his head and did not take the two companies' public recruitment seriously at all.

This didn't mean that because Collier Security Company wasn't his company, so Henry didn't care. But Henry clearly knew that no matter what the two companies did today, once it was Collier Security Company who won the grading tomorrow, everything these companies did would be useless. If they didn't pass the grading, it would be meaningless to say anything. In this world, one had always to depend on strength.

Anna was still driving the silver Volkswagen.

When she drove out of the company, she saw a black Audi A3 driving out of the company parking lot at a high speed with a horn.

At this time, Anna's car had already arrived at the entrance of the company. This black Audi didn't slow down and rushed straight to the entrance.

Anna quickly stepped on the brake. The Volkswagen braked and stopped in front of the entrance.

The Audi coming at a high speed also slowed down at the gate.

The Audi window was rolled down, and the driver was Barret. Looking at the silver Volkswagen parked at the door, Barret said discontentedly, "Do you know how to you drive? Do you think that just because you are the president of this company all the roads belong to you? Drive carefully!"

After saying that, Barret took a look at the place for recruiting people at the entrance of the company. One of the people over there gave a thumbs up to Barret. What Barret did was specially orchestrated by him in order to let the rest of the employees see that he, Barret Yu, no longer cared about Anna. Collier Security Company was going to be ruined!
