

Chapter 662

What?!

Keaton, as well as the other seven members of Bryce's team, were all shocked.

Bradley said that Sylvia was the wife of the King of Hell, which meant that her husband, Henry, was the King of Hell!

This answer appeared in the minds of Keaton and the others, but they did not want to believe it.

Henry was the King of Hell! That man who was known to be the strongest in the world!

The person from the Hidden Assassins said, "Keaton, you're the first person I've ever seen who dares to steal something from the owner of King's Ring. I admire your courage, but your strength and your courage are too far from each other."

"The King's Ring!" Keaton thought of Future. In his mind, she was just a little girl who had just grown up. He didn't expect... that she was the owner of the King's Ring! Henry was really the King of Hell!

Keaton looked back. The seven members of Bryce's team were also looking at Keaton. The eight of them all had fear in their eyes. Each of them had been clamouring with Henry.

Keaton, Noelle, and Bryce had once threatened Henry with their words! Threatened the Lord of the Underworld!

The calves of the three people were shaking.

"Keaton, do you know what would happen if you take this piece of Fire Crystal to the capital city?" Bradley asked.

"Consequences..." The originally arrogant Keaton's lips trembled at this moment. If he were to hand over the Fire Crystal, would the authorities accept it after they knew that the Fire Crystal were from Radiant Island?

The answer was definitely not. If the authorities accepted it, it would mean admitting something. But they could not accept it. The Fire Crystals were the things that each country kept an eye on. In the end, only Chinese authorities had it. Would other countries be happy about it? The consequences would be too much for him to bear!

Thinking till here, Keaton's back was drenched in a cold sweat. He looked at the small piece of Fire Crystal in his hand. It wasn't a treasure at all. It was clearly just a hot potato. Apart from Radiant Island, no one else could touch it!

Keaton was frightened. All of his arrogance disappeared after he got heard about Radiant Island.

"Captain Wang, this... this..."

Bradley coldly snorted, "The Conqueror lend the Fire Crystal to you for fun. Quickly return it!"

After hearing this, Keaton immediately understood what Bradley meant. He nodded and said, "I'll go now. I'll do it now!"

Keaton said as he rushed to the helicopter.

Bradley looked at the members of Bryce's team who were still standing here and shouted, "You should go with him."

The seven people didn't dare to hesitate and quickly ran to the helicopter.

After the eight people left, Bradley looked at the forces of various countries present and said, "Everyone, my vice-captain brought here a Fire Crystal. It was just a joke. I will assume that you came here today because you wanted to mess around. Now that you've finished joking, shouldn't you leave?"

The faces of other forces were full with tacit smiles. Without saying too much nonsense, they turned around and left.

Henry, who was in Yinzhou, was sleeping comfortably on the bed at this time.

When Henry woke up, he saw that the sky was still bright and he was a little stunned. After looking at his watch, he found that it was already 10 o'clock the next morning. This made Henry feel incredible. Yesterday he arrived home in the afternoon and fell asleep. Did he sleep sixteen or seventeen hours? And now he still had a feeling that he hadn't slept enough.

Henry got up from the bed and came to the living room. He found that the three women had left, leaving two fried eggs in the thermal container.

A trace of warmth passed through Henry's heart. He put the fried egg into his mouth, washed his face casually, and went out. This morning, there was a big autumn job fair to hold. As soon as Henry went out, he saw eight people standing in front of his door in a row, some of them were still wearing bandages.

These eight people were Keaton and others who rushed here from the Sharp Knife's headquarters yesterday.

When they saw Henry going out, Keaton and the other three subconsciously stood straight and looked at Henry with awe in their eyes. Before, they only thought that Henry was a businessman with a little ancient martial arts strength and did not put Henry in his eyes. But now, they dared not think so. This man was the lord of the whole underground world!

Keaton, standing at the front, flattered Henry with a smile and said, "Mr. Zhang, I hope you had a good rest."

Last night, Keaton and the eight people came. As a result, they heard from Sylvia that Henry was resting, so the eight of them stood in front of Henry's house and waited for a night.

Henry looked at the eight people and said doubtfully, "What, do you still think that what belongs to our Lins Group should belong to you?"

Henry said as he pouted his lips towards the courtyard of the villa. "Take whichever one you like. The sports car, the bike, it all up to you. Lins Group doesn't dare to fight against the Sharp Knife."

Henry shook his head and walked out of the courtyard.

"Mr. Zhang, Mr. Zhang." Seeing that Henry was going to leave, Keaton quickly ran to Henry and took out the Fire Crystal. "Mr. Zhang, look at what you said. How dare we take your things? It was just a joke. I want to return the Fire Crystal to you."

"Return?" When Henry saw Keaton's attitude, he knew that the other party must have known who he was. After all, he had received the news that half of the Sharp Knife's team had been destroyed by various forces from different countries. He glanced at seven people from Bryce's team. When his eyes swept over Bryce and Noelle, both of them put on an embarrassed smile. On that day, they shouted the most fiercely and spoke the most harshly to Henry.

"Yes, yes, yes." Keaton nodded repeatedly. "Return this Fire Crystal to you. It was just a joke. I hope you don't mind."

"Ha." Henry chuckled. "Interesting. When you asked for Fire Crystal, you threatened me with all kinds of threats. You scared me so much that I called people from afar and gave the Fire Crystal to you. Now you're saying it was just a joke. Do you think I'm easy to bully?"

Henry stared at Keaton.

Under Henry's gaze, Keaton felt as if he had fallen into an icehouse, and his whole body was steaming with cold. "Mr... Mr. Zhang, that's not what I meant, I..."

"What? It was you who wanted the Fire Crystal, so I gave it to you. And now you want to give it back? Looks like you don't respect me at all." After saying that, Henry directly threw his hand away.

Originally, Henry thought that the Sharp Knife would put up a small fight. After all, China was the territory of the Sharp Knife. Unexpectedly, the head of the Sharp Knife did not give him any chance to take advantage of them. He sent the Fire Crystal back immediately. He did not care about his face at all. This respect was not for Radiant Island, but other organizations that were equal to the Sharp Knife.

The actions of the Sharp Knife caught Henry off guard, because it did not achieve the effect he wanted.

"Take the Fire Crystal, I don't want it." Henry waved his hands and left.

Chapter 663

When the members of the Sharp Knife saw Henry shaking his hands and walking away, they suddenly panicked and quickly strode to catch up with him.

"Mr. Zhang, please take it back."

"No!" Henry did not turn his head.

"Mr. Zhang, we failed to recognize you. Please forgive us. Don't be like this. Mr. Zhang, Mr. Zhang..." Keaton followed Henry and kept saying.

Henry, who was striding forward like a meteor, suddenly stopped and turned around to stare at Keaton.

At this moment, Keaton felt that he was targeted by a prehistoric giant beast that just woke up. The pressure, like a mountain falling down, made him unable to breathe, but he couldn't spit it out, and his legs couldn't help but tremble.

Henry looked at Keaton and said word by word, "I said no! Don't take my words as a joke!"

After saying that, Henry turned around and left.

As soon as Henry turned his head, Keaton's legs went soft and he fell to the ground. He gasped for air and looked at Henry's back with awe. Was this the real Devil? Just one look alone was enough to make him unable to breathe!

"Keaton, what should we do now?" Bryce came forward with a sad face.

Keaton shook his head. There was nothing he could do about the current situation. Under Henry's gaze, he did not even have the courage to face Henry again. "Report to Captain Wang."

Seven people all look at each other. Their eyes were full of complex emotions. If it weren't for the lot of things they had done, there wouldn't be so much trouble now.

Henry had no interest in what the people from the Sharp Knife would do. He hummed a tune and came to Yinzhou Convention Center.

This exhibition centre was usually the place where cars were held. It covered an area of 160,000 square metres and was divided into five exhibition districts, each of which had two floors. The autumn recruitment fair was held here, so it could be said that it was very large.

Cathy, the secretary, told Henry that this was the biggest recruitment fair this autumn.

When Henry arrived, the whole hall centre was already crowded with people. People who applied for jobs were ranked from graduates to people in their 40s or 50s. They all took their resume to find the most suitable position for themselves.

And the companies who were recruiting were big and small, including the Lins Group, the Chows', Hengyuan, as well as the ordinary hotels and restaurants.

The place occupied by a large enterprise like the Lins Group was the most prominent place in the hall centre, and also the place with the most applicants. The reputation and treatment of the Lins Group in Yinzhou was way above other companies.

"Mr. Zhang, you are here."

When Henry came over, the people from Lins Group and Hengyuan were all greeting Henry.

"Yes." Henry nodded and asked manager Chen from HR department of Lins Group, "Where is my exhibition stand?"

Manager Chen pointed to place in a very prominent position with the words "Collier Security" written on it.

Henry took a look at it. Collier Security's recruitment stand was almost one-third of the whole Lins Group. It was a bit wasteful. You know, in this exhibition centre, except for some free exhibition displays, the rest of the exhibition was worth a lot of money. Money should not be wasted like that.

"Manager Chen, I'll recruit only one person, so I don't need such a big exhibition stand. You arrange for other people to use it. I'll find a place myself." Henry told Manager Chen. Then he went over, put the exhibition shelves and chairs prepared by Secretary Lee on the table, and carried them to the side.

Manager Chen didn't say anything more to Henry. They were all from the same company. He arranged for someone to use the position that was meant for Henry.

Henry held a table and looked around. Finally, he saw a free booth and sat down.

Anyway, he was just recruiting a receptionist, and it was okay to sit anywhere.

However, Henry found that he had somewhat underestimated the temperament of young people nowadays. He offered a monthly salary of 3,500 yuan, sat for two hours, and no one came to ask about the job.

Originally, Henry thought that things could be solved fast, but he didn't hire anyone until lunchtime.

Cathy, the secretary, originally intended for Lins Group to recruit a person and send him to Henry. However, Henry did not agree. His Collier Security was different from ordinary security companies. The person must at least have a good mind. In this respect, Henry was going to test that person personally.

When it was lunchtime, there were quite a few people in the hall centre. Henry waited for a whole afternoon. Several people came to him. They were also interested in the salary of 3,500, but they were all rejected by Henry.

Henry's request regarding education was above the postgraduate level.

"Are they crazy? Which postgraduate would work as a receptionist? Are people in Lins Group and Hengyuan crazy?"

"That's right. I think they are crazy. It's like using six hundred yuan to buy the Benz S600. It's wishful thinking."

"Let's see what they're going to do. Only a fool would go there!"

Those who were rejected by Henry spoke loudly in front of Henry's table.

Listening to these people's words, Henry did not refute. He also knew that the salary of 3,500 yuan was low for a master's degree. Henry did not offer this salary randomly. There was a reason why he placed the salary this low.

Henry had participated in many big and small job fairs. He had seen too many talents in this world. His purpose was to find some unique talents.

In Henry's eyes, the receptionist of this company was not just an ordinary front desk job. The Yinzhou branch of the Collier Security would become a leader sooner or later in Yinzhou. The receptionist at that time would have a great ability.

The talent was never recruited wantonly but explored and accumulated during life, which had always been Henry's habit of doing things.

Until four o'clock in the afternoon, there were lots of candidates in the exhibition centre. Everyone knew that there was a security company named Collier Security who recruited a receptionist with a graduate degree for a salary of three thousand and five hundred yuan. Anyone who knew this news would mercilessly scold them for being fools.

Henry looked at the time. There was an hour before the end of today's job fair. He shook his head. It seemed that there was no talent he needed in this job fair.

Just when Henry was going to let it go today, a somewhat timid boy with a wrinkled resume that he pinched in his hand came over with his head down.

"He... Hello, are you recruiting people?"

Henry looked at the boy's movements and glanced at his resume. The corner of his mouth was slightly lifted. It seemed that he had found the person he was looking for.
