

Chapter 682

Hearing Sarita's words, the young man smiled slightly and said, "Sarita, I'm really happy that you care so much about me. But now, it's not the time to think about me. Your father's safety is the most important thing. We can't delay this any longer. Since you said that the person arranged by Carlos has come, it must be that Carlos will give us a deadline until tomorrow. Tomorrow morning, I will go to you."

"Okay." Sarita nodded.

After Sarita and the young man had finished chatting about some details, she left.

After Sarita left, the young man sneered, took out his phone, and dialed a number. "Hello, Mr. Cao, it's me, Connor Tang. I've solved the problem here for you. You can make at least five hundred million yuan this time. In that case, you have to give me 30%."

Connor was talking on the phone, so he didn't notice that there was a man standing outside the wall where he was standing.

Henry was listening to Connor's words. In this way, there were many people who knew about this stone mountain. Which family was that Carlos from?

Of course, Henry would not think that any financial group would come to take over this stone mountain. For a long time, the clans were not really isolated from the world. They just did not show up in public. Just like the Zhao Clan, they lived among the crowd. There must be more clans watching over Yun Province.

Now, this stone mountain was targeted not long after it was discovered. If it weren't the clan, Henry couldn't

Henry saw that Connor had finished talking and was lying there comfortably to rest, so he left quietly. Today's discovery made Henry decide to observe things more. He wanted to guarantee that this incident would not be known to others. This was also why Henry did not bring Stone King with him this time, but limited his movements.

Henry left Stone King on the island and forbade him from communicating with the outside world. First, he was worried that Stone King would spread this news. After all, it was of great importance.

The second was to deliberately create a mist to make all the people related to this matter show up so that he could deal with them one by one.

After leaving the teahouse, Henry contacted the person in charge of Radiant Island's office in Spring City and learned that the mountain was still under good surveillance.

A night's time had passed quietly.

In the next morning.

A red Ferrari was driving on the streets in Spring City. Sarita was driving with one hand and holding a mobile phone in another. "Have you figured it out?"

"Miss, we've found out that Carlos Cao did collect a deposit of 100 million yuan from a mysterious buyer, and that's for the mountain."

Hearing the message from the person on the phone, Sarita nodded, then hung up the phone and went straight to Stone Temple.

Stone Temple was located on the outskirts of the city. It was a place of more than three hundred square meters. Although it was not very large, the stones stored inside were all of the highest level. The people who had come here to open the stone were all willing to gamble each time they swung their blades.

Sarita stopped the car at the entrance of Stone Temple. She casually threw the key to a person at the entrance and strode inside.

At this moment, there were already many people in Stone Temple who had come to gamble with stones.

Sarita's gaze swept the inside of Stone Temple and finally locked onto a person. She frowned, "Why are you here?"

"I came to look around." Henry, who was standing not far from Sarita, shrugged his shoulders and said, "And you didn't give me your contact yesterday, so I had to come here to find you."

Sarita didn't look pretty. Just as she was trying to find an excuse to ask Henry to leave, she heard a voice coming from behind her. "Sarita, I'm sorry. I'm late. I'm late."

Connor Tang cheerfully ran in from the entrance with sweat all over his face.

Connor was surprised to see Henry standing next to Sarita as soon as he entered. "Sarita, who is this?"

"Oh, I'm here to sign the contract with her," Henry said to Connor with a smile.

"Sign a contract?" There was a flicker of haze in Connor's eyes, but it quickly disappeared. He said to Henry, "Sorry, I am Sarita's boyfriend. I have something urgent to talk to her about."

As Connor said this in excitement, he went to Sarita's arm and prepared to walk to the second floor.

"Talk about private affairs later. Let's talk about business first." Henry followed up with big steps.

Sarita suddenly turned around and looked at Henry. "I don't want to talk business now. Do you understand?"

Looking at Sarita's unhappy face, Henry stretched out his hand and said, "Okay, let's talk later."

Sarita and Connor went upstairs.

The second floor of Stone Temple was a private area. The largest office was the place where Stone King normally stayed.

Sarita and Connor walked into the office. Sarita cautiously closed the door, squatted in front of a safe at the corner of the office, and kept operating something.

Soon, a transparent folder was taken out by Sarita and placed in front of Connor.

At the moment Connor saw the folder, he showed a trace of greed in his eyes, but soon he covered it up.

"Sarita, is this the document regarding the mining rights of that mountain?" Connor tried to calm down his tone as much as possible and asked.

"Yes." Sarita nodded. "As long as someone has this agreement, he has the right to that mountain."

Connor held back the urge to snatch away the documents from Sarita's hands and said, "Sarita, you can make a statement now, saying that the documents are in my hand."

Sarita nodded and handed the agreement over to Connor.

Looking at the agreement that was getting closer and closer to him, Connor was so excited that he couldn't help but tremble.

With a loud bang, the office door was kicked open.

Sarita subconsciously retracted her hand and looked towards the door.

Connor also turned around abruptly. It seemed that the matter was about to be settled. Who was it?

Henry stood at the door and showed an angry expression. "Well, we have made a deal. How dare you give this agreement to someone else?!"

"I..." Sarita's eyes revealed a look of panic. After all, she knew very well that her father was still in the hands of the other party.

Connor was not very flustered. He didn't care about Stone King's life. He said, "Boy, of course, we're doing business. Who offers the highest price, he..."

"What are you talking about?!" Henry impatiently interrupted Connor's words, strode in, and said to Sarita, "Hurry up, give me the agreement, or I'll kill your father!"

Sarita knew that her deeds had been exposed, so she couldn't continue. She could only reach out her hand and hand over the agreement to Henry.

"Sarita, you can't give it to him!" Connor became anxious and reached out to grab the agreement from Sarita.

Seeing that Connor's hand was about to touch the agreement, Sarita quickly withdrew her hand. Then she looked at Connor's hand warily. "What do you mean? My dad's life is in their hands. You don't want me to give it to them?"

Chapter 683

"I..." Connor opened his mouth and wanted to explain, but he didn't know what to say. He secretly hated that he was too impulsive.

Though Sarita was a woman, with years of training and exercise, Sarita's body function was much stronger than the average person. Even if Connor wanted to use his strength, he might not be a match for Sarita. That was also why Connor had been waiting for Sarita to take the initiative to hand it over to him.

"Sarita, I'm afraid that if you give me the agreement, they won't let your father go!"

"Do I have any other choices?" Sarita asked with Connor.

"Sarita, we can think of a way to negotiate with them. The most important thing is uncle's safety. Now, if you give him the agreement, he will no longer have anything to worry about!" Connor said desperately requesting for Sarita to put the agreement behind.

Henry sneered. "I'll count to three. If you don't give me the agreement, I'll tell people to kill Stone King now! One!"

As soon as Henry said that, Sarita immediately handed over the agreement.

"You can't give it to him!" Connor sprang to his feet again in an attempt to grab the agreement.

Unfortunately, Sarita managed to prevent him again.

The wariness in Sarita's eyes became more and more intense. She took two steps back and stared at Connor attentively.

Connor attempted and failed again. He looked at Sarita and said gently, "Sarita, don't make trouble. Just give me the agreement. Be obedient. I'm doing this for your own good."

"Connor Tang, stay away from me!" Sarita roared at Connor. Now she felt more and more that Connor's interest was not right.

"Hahaha!" A burst of laughter came from outside the office.

A middle-aged man in a black suit with a beard appeared at the door of the office.

"Carlos Cao!" The moment Sarita saw the middle-aged man with a big beard, she said his name.

"Ha ha, my niece Sarita is getting more and more beautiful." Carlos laughed, and then his eyes fell on Connor, "Connor Tang, fortunately, I have backup plan. Otherwise, if I let you deal with this matter, it would really be a mess. It seems that you can't earn that 30%."

"What?!" Sarita's face changed, and she looked at Connor in disbelief. She gritted her teeth and said, "You two are in cahoots!"

Connor, who was standing there, had no intention of continuing the show after seeing that the situation had come to this point. He sighed and said, "Sarita, why are you so cautious? Five hundred million yuan. Thirty percent is one hundred and fifty million yuan. Who doesn't want that money?"

Sarita's eyes swept between Connor and Carlos. Finally, she turned around and focused on Henry. "If they are together, then you..."

Henry shrugged his shoulders and said, "I told you yesterday."

"Yesterday!"

Sarita suddenly remembered what Henry said in the car yesterday. He was protecting her father. If that was the case, then her father would not be in Carlos's hands! Connor just wanted to know where the agreement was!

Carlos crooked his finger at Sarita and said, "Sarita, my niece, listen to me and hand over the agreement to me."

"In your dreams!" Sarita clutched the agreement in her hand.

"Sigh." Carlos sighed. "Sarita, you are forcing your uncle to do something to you."

Carlos snapped his fingers and immediately, two sturdy men walked out from behind him.

Henry quickly said, "Mr. Cao, shall we have a discussion? I just heard that you can make 500 million yuan in this project. How about this, I give you 600 million yuan and you let me take this project?"

"Hehe." Carlos laughed twice. "Young man, it's not a matter of money. Let alone 600 million, even if you give me 6 billion today, you can't get this project!"

"Oh?" Henry asked with interest, "Mr. Cao, so you work for others?"

Carlos grinned. Instead of answering Henry's question, he waved his hand. The two strong men behind him strode into the office.

At the same time when Carlos grinned, Henry's mouth curved into a smile.

Just now, when Henry proposed the six hundred million yuan, he deliberately observed Carlos's expression and found that Carlos did not show any interest in his eyes, which indicated that he did not care about the six hundred million yuan. But why would Carlos be hostile because of those five hundred million yuan? This immediately gave Henry an answer, which was that Carlos had been serving others from beginning.

Upon hearing this news, Henry felt much more at ease. If it was not for money, it could be proven that Carlos did not spread the news about the incident on the stone mountain.

Before Henry came here, he had been afraid that someone would spread the news everywhere, and it would be too late for him to stop the news. But now it seemed that the matter was developing in the simplest direction, and only one clan knew the news.

Of course, that clan didn't want this news to spread.

In this way, it would be easier to deal with this matter.

Henry stretched.

The two strong men approached Sarita slowly.

Sarita kept stepping back to the corner.

"Bang bang!"

Two dull thuds rang out.

The two brawny men sent out by Carlos were sent flying backward like a cannonball.

Curling in the corner, Sarita looked at Henry in front of her. Henry's body was not strong, but how could it contain so much power? His two punches just now, each of them had the power to directly knock away the sandbag.

Henry turned his head. When he saw Sarita's eyes, he smiled bitterly and said, "Beauty, since Stone King has asked you to give this mountain to me, you have to believe in my strength, don't you?"

After Henry finished, he looked at Carlos and said, "Mr. Cao, can we leave now?"

"Leave?" Carlos laughed. He didn't feel too surprised. From the day Stone King disappeared, he knew that someone was secretly protecting him.

Carlos, who was standing at the door of the office, took the initiative to move out of the way.

Two figures appeared at the door. They were two young men in their twenties. They looked somewhat alike. As soon as they showed up, they looked at Henry with disdain and said, "Where did you come from? You even dare to meddle in the affairs of our Huang Clan!"

"The Huang Clan?" Henry smiled gently.

"What are you laughing at?" A young man scolded Henry. The smile on Henry's face made him feel a kind of provocation.

"I knew that you would mention the Huang Clan as soon as you opened your mouth. It seems that the actions of the clan are really restrained everywhere." Henry shook his head. "I think that if you hadn't been restrained everywhere, you wouldn't have tried your best to get mining rights for this mountain."
