

After thinking for a while, Joshua still chose to give in for the time being.

Joshua's attitude made all the underground forces happy. Radiant Island was still the same island. It was so powerful that it could make the clans raise the white flag.

At the same time, the underground forces were also wondering why the Zhu clan had said such words. Were the rumors in the outside world fake? But the rumors were true. Even the kings of Radiant Island had made it clear that the Emperor was killed by the Zhu clan.

Joshua was willing to admit defeat, but now in his current state, Wade could not listen to what he said at all. In Wade's heart, he only wanted to kill the person in front of him.

"Your Zhu clan has killed my big brother. Today, you must pay with your blood. Our Radiant Island has never spared any enemies!" Felix roared. A red-colored bloody claw appeared in front of him and directly killed a disciple from the Zhu clan.

Joshua immediately understood. It turned out that all these people were from Radiant Island. It was somewhat hard for him to believe that an ordinary underground force could be this powerful.
