

wrapped around the white-head tiger, and it would not break no matter how hard it bit. At the same time, it formed a large net and covered Aaron in it.

Aaron tried to get rid of it, but he couldn't do anything about it.

Barry sent Qi to the disk while sneering, "Aaron, even if you can step into the Divine realm, so what? You are not really the Divine realm expert. How could you break the net? Let's see who will run out of the Qi first!"

The large blue net covered Aaron, trapping him in it and preventing him from using any effective means to attack. Barry and the other three people stood there and couldn't attack because they were constantly injecting Qi into the disk. The two sides were at a stalemate for a short time, and only the three big clans were still fighting.

"Okay, let's see who dies first!" Aaron snorted. Anyway, Wade and others had left, and he had nothing to worry about. Even if he was delayed, today's first purpose had been realized. All the major underground forces would get familiar with the Qi from today on.
