

Chapter 802

Sylvia's red Benz was parked in the parking lot. Seeing this car, Henry felt a sense of intimacy.

He skillfully opened the door, got in the car, and started.

When they drove out of the parking lot, the parking fee of nearly 3,000 yuan made the people in charge of the parking lot a little stunned.

Sylvia had been away from Yinzhou for nearly two months. The car in the past two months had been parked at the airport. The parking fee at the airport was not cheap.

Hearing the co-driver's giggle, Henry knew that Sylvia deliberately asked him to drive.

Three thousand yuan was nothing for both of them. It was just a couple who liked playing games with each other.

After paying the parking fee, Henry couldn't wait to step on the gas and drove to the home that he had not been back for a long time.

On the way to downtown, Henry accidentally saw the former site of the Spring residential home, which made Henry's face freeze for a while, but it soon returned to normal.

Henry shook his head. After such a long time, he had not blamed Sylvia for demolishing the Spring residential home and the pavilion.

"Honey, what's wrong?" Sylvia asked when she saw that Henry looked a little strange.

"Nothing." Henry shook his head. "How are Dean Cui and the others now?"

"The new Spring residential home has been built. I'll take you to have a look tonight."

"Okay." Henry nodded. He moved his gaze from the old site of the Spring residential home and drove home.

The car drove into the Luxury Village. When Henry slowly drove the car to the courtyard of their own villa, a wooden pavilion in the courtyard appeared in front of Henry's eyes.

At the moment when Henry saw the wooden pavilion, he was stunned. He subconsciously slammed hard on the brake, and the red Benz suddenly stopped in place.

"Honey, this..." Henry looked at the pavilion placed in the courtyard and opened his mouth.

Sylvia covered her mouth and laughed. "Didn't you build it together with our mom? The Spring residential home was going to be torn down, so I moved this pavilion to our home."

A warm current flowed through Henry's heart. The words "our mom" that Sylvia said touched the soft spot in Henry's heart.

Henry had never mentioned his family to Sylvia. In the will of Henry's mother, her last wish was for Henry to repay family Lin for their kindness.

Now, Sylvia took the initiative to call her "their mother". If Henry's mother knew, she would also smile.

Henry grabbed Sylvia's small hand and stared at her, "Honey, thank you. I thought that day..."

"It's okay." Sylvia stretched out the other hand to cover Henry's mouth. "You called me honey, so you don't have to thank me. Compared with what you did for me, what I did is insignificant. Any woman can do this for her man."

Henry nodded and didn't say anything more. Since they were already a family, it would be too polite to say thank you again.

Back home, the home was very neat and tidy. There were several large plush toys in the living room, and one of them was still on the chair next to the dining table.

"Lisa wanted all of these." Sylvia pointed to the toys in the living room. "You haven't come back for a long time. She calls for Dad every day. President Qin and I bought these toys for her and told her that you have sent them. Every day, this girl would sit next to you when she eats."

As Sylvia spoke, Henry thought of Lisa's lovely appearance and gave her a smile.

"You haven't come back for so long, take a bath, and then I'll take you to see President Qin and Lisa. They will be very happy when they hear that you are back." Sylvia walked into the bedroom and took out a casual suit. "I've bought all clothes for you. You should have a try, it should fit you."

Henry did not reach out to pick up the clothes that Sylvia handed over. Instead, he looked up and down at Sylvia.

Sylvia's face turned red from Henry's stare. "What are you looking at me for? Go take a shower."

Henry stepped forward to Sylvia and then kissed her on the cheek. Then he took the clothes from Sylvia's hand and scratched her nose. "Honey, I find that you are more and more like a wife."

"She's becoming more and more like a wife?"

Sylvia looked at Henry again. Henry had already turned around and ran to the bathroom.

Sylvia's face was flushed red from embarrassment. She stretched out her hand and touched the side of her face, which was a little hot. She muttered, "Am I really becoming more and more like a wife?"

After muttering, Sylvia suddenly stamped her small foot and snorted, "Well, Henry Zhang, do you mean that I didn't act like a wife in the past?"

Half an hour later, Henry finished washing and changed into the casual clothes prepared for him by Sylvia. The clothes were all made of cotton, which made him look very energetic and not bloated at all.

"Let's go." Sylvia also changed her clothes and sat on the sofa waiting for Henry. After Henry changed his clothes and came out, Sylvia raised the mobile phone in her hand. "I've been in touch with President Qin. She is hanging out with Lisa. I didn't tell them that you're back. I want to surprise them."

"Honey, this clothes of yours..." Henry looked at Sylvia's clothes.

The clothes on Sylvia's body were just like the mini version that Henry was wearing now. It was just that there were some dark blue lines on Henry's clothes, and when they went to Sylvia, they became light pink. The clothes that Sylvia chose for Henry and the clothes on her body were obviously a couple's clothes.

"Why do you ask so many questions? If you don't want to wear it, just take it off!" Sylvia rolled her eyes, put on a pair of white shoes, pulled the door open, and went out.

Henry followed her and smiled. He put on the shoes that Sylvia had prepared for him in advance and followed her out.

They drove all the way to the business district and parked the car in front of a shopping mall.

"Let's go. There is a children's entertainment area up there. President Qin is there with Lisa." Sylvia naturally held Henry's arm and pointed at the mall.

Henry could clearly smell the fragrance of the woman next to him. He smiled slightly. He admitted that he enjoyed this feeling very much.

The two of them walked a few steps and just as they were about to enter the mall, they heard a loud scolding from the parking space next to them.

"I'm telling you, even if I bury you here today, no one would care. You b*tch, how dare you hit my son! Do you want to die?"

The abuse came from the side, which made Henry and Sylvia subconsciously look over there.

The scene made Henry suddenly full of anger.

It was a middle-aged man who just cursed, but the people who were scolded by the middle-aged man were Jenny and Lisa.

At this moment, Lisa was holding Jenny's hand and stood on the side with a look of fear on her face. Jenny's face turned red and her whole body was trembling.

Chapter 803

"Sir, I'll repeat it again. It was your son. He hit my daughter first. Your son took my daughter's stuff and pushed her down. My daughter just took back her own stuff!" Jenny said in a very loud and clear voice.

The middle-aged man glanced at Lisa, who was held by Jenny. He sneered and said, "Who is my son? And who is your daughter? How dare she touch my son? B*tch!"

As he spoke, the middle-aged man raised his hand and slapped toward Lisa.

Jenny didn't expect that the middle-aged man would suddenly hit her. She was a woman, how could she react?

Seeing that the middle-aged man's hand was about to hit Lisa's face, Sylvia rushed over from the side, grabbed the middle-aged man's wrist and shook off his hand. "You are an adult. Do you want to hit a child?"

During this period of time, Sylvia had been staying with the clan and had more or less come into contact with some things related to ancient martial arts. Although she was not very strong, she was still much more powerful than ordinary women.

"Sylvia!" Jenny exclaimed in surprise when she saw Sylvia, who had suddenly appeared.

"Mom Sylvia!" Lisa threw herself into Sylvia's arms, with tears swirling in her big eyes.

Sylvia looked coldly at the middle-aged man and asked, "What's going on?"

"That child took Lisa's things and Lisa took them back." Jenny told Sylvia roughly the cause of the incident.

Lisa was playing upstairs, but the middle-aged man's son came to grab the toys in his hands and pushed Lisa down. Lisa just stood up to take her things back. As a result, the other side's child was not happy and shouted that Lisa had hit him.

Sylvia glanced at the son of the middle-aged man, then took out her mobile phone and made a phone call. "Manager Wu, find the video from the children's area and bring it to me. Be as fast as possible!"

The middle-aged man looked at Sylvia for a while and then said, "Hey, little girl, I didn't realize that you know Manager Wu."

Sylvia glared at the other party and did not say anything.

The son of the middle-aged man looked about six years old. He wore a school uniform and kept waving his fist at Lisa.

"Young ladies, let me tell you, if you don't give me an answer today, no one will be able to leave!" The middle-aged man pointed at Sylvia and the other two.

Sylvia said, "I've already told someone to bring the surveillance video down. If my daughter is wrong, we will naturally apologize to you. But if my daughter is not wrong, then you won't be able to leave today!"

In terms of business, Sylvia was a very strong-willed person. During this period of time, she had experienced the matters of the clan, which further magnified her strong personality.

If it had been a few months ago, Sylvia would have called the police and asked them to deal with these things. But today, she told this man directly that he could not leave.

"Fu*k!" The middle-aged man shouted loudly, "You won't let me go? Little b*tch, do you know who I am? How do you dare to talk to me like this?"

As the middle-aged man scolded, his son suddenly spat toward Lisa. Fortunately, Jenny was quick and she pulled Lisa up, otherwise, the spit would be all over her face.

After spitting out the saliva, the middle-aged man's son looked at Lisa with a swaggering face, and then lifted his leg and kicked toward Lisa.

The middle-aged man looked at his son's action. Instead of stopping him, he gave a sense of encouragement.

"F*ck off!" A big foot suddenly kicked over from the side.

As soon as the middle-aged man's son raised his foot, he was kicked out by the big foot that suddenly appeared.

"Henry!" Jenny saw the owner of the big foot at a glance and her eyes revealed a look of surprise.

"Dad!" Lisa shouted excitedly and opened her arms to Henry.

Henry picked Lisa up, rubbed her little head, and said with a smile, "How do you feel? Did you miss your father?"

"Yes, I did." Lisa nodded. She put her arms around Henry's neck and kissed him hard on the face.

The middle-aged man's son was kicked over by Henry and lay on the ground crying loudly.

"F*ck, boy, do you dare to hurt my son? I'll kill you!" The middle-aged man roared and rushed to Henry with clenched fists.

"F*ck off!" Henry raised his foot again and directly kicked the middle-aged man. "Who the hell are you? Do you want to kill me?"

The middle-aged man was kicked to the ground by Henry and immediately understood that he was no match for the young man in front of him.

"Well, boy, I'll let you show off. I'll see how brave you are! I'll crush you!"

The middle-aged man took out the car key from his pocket, unlocked the 3-million-dollar Benz next to him, sat in the driver's seat, and ran straight to the place where Henry and the others were standing.

They were not far away from each other, so it was too late for Jenny to escape when the middle-aged man came driving like this. Jenny thought that the Benz was about to hit her, but suddenly there was a violent collision sound in front of her.

A heavily-equipped Hummer rushed over from the side of the Benz, and crashed into the side door of this Benz. This old-fashioned domineering Benz was directly pushed away due to the heavy Hummer.

With another bang, the out-of-control Benz slammed into the shopping mall wall next to the parking lot, and all the airbags in the car popped out.

The door of the car was opened, and the middle-aged man staggered out of the car. Obviously, he was hit seriously. However, the safety of the Benz prevented him from any serious injury.

"Fk, can you drive?" The door of the heavily-equipped Hummer opened, and four strong men about two metres tall got out of the car, pointing at the middle-aged man and scolding him.

The middle-aged man looked at the four strong men, then at their stocky Hummer, and lowered his head. "Sorry, sorry, I really didn't see you."

"Pay attention in the future!" The four strong men scolded and then cast an inquiring look at Henry.

After Henry gave a signal to them to leave, the four strong men returned to the car and drove away. These people were arranged by Henry to protect Jenny and the others in Yinzhou.

The middle-aged man's heart was still fluttering with fear as he looked at the Hummer, which was already far away. The sound of his son's crying was still ringing.

"Boy, do you dare to hurt my son? Do you know who I am? I have shares in this mall!" The middle-aged man pointed to the building behind him.

Hearing this, Henry frowned and looked at Sylvia.

The middle-aged man saw the frown in Henry's eyes, which made the middle-aged man proud, thinking that Henry was afraid. "Let me tell you boy, I have a hundred ways to kill you!"

What the middle-aged man didn't know was that the reason why Henry frowned was that this shopping mall belonged to Lins.

Chapter 804

Henry had not returned to Yinzhou for a long time. He was in a very vague state regarding the current situation of Lins.

"What, boy, are you afraid? Not brave anymore?" The middle-aged man burst into curses, "Today, even if you kneel down and call me you master, it will be useless!"

Henry looked at Sylvia. Sylvia also frowned and shook her head.

The middle-aged man took out his mobile phone, dialled a number, and shouted at the phone, "Call the bodyguards to come to the parking lot. Someone has beaten my son!"

After the middle-aged man said that, he went to the car that Jenny drove, and did not let Henry and others leave.

In less than a minute, a group of strong men in black came out of the mall. On their chest, there was a word "security".

Judging by the appearance of these strong men, they all looked ferocious and walked with a swagger. They looked like gangsters. They had nothing to do with security guards. They didn't even wear uniforms for security.

These strong men had the security badge on their chests, as well as the name of the shopping mall.

These strong men were all holding cigarettes in their mouths. Apparently, they had already lit them up in the mall. According to the law, cigarettes were strictly prohibited in shopping malls. Unless there was a special smoking room. Sylvia had also mentioned this issue countless times. There was no smoking allowed in the mall, regardless of whether it was customers or employees.

A total of eight strong men swaggered over to Henry and the others and surrounded them.

The eight strong men all looked at Sylvia and Jenny with unfriendly faces. These two women had completely different temperaments, but both of them were stunning. They could always attract men's attention easily.

Sylvia looked at the eight strong men and frowned. Of course, she was not worried what these eight strong men would do. With Henry around, forget about these eight people, even if eighty or eight hundred more came, they would not be able to do anything that would cross the line.

What made Sylvia frown was the security of the mall. When did it become like this? They didn't wear uniforms when they were at work and they looked like bullies. They even smoked in the mall. How could they be security guards?

"Boy, I'll give you a choice now. Kneel down, kowtow three times to me, and pay me 20 million for the medical expenses. Then I won't make trouble for you!" Seeing his people coming, the middle-aged man was much more confident.

Sylvia stared at the security badges in front of the eight strong men and said, "Are you the security guards of this shopping mall?"

"Nonsense, are you f*cking blind? My badge is here. You are suspected of causing trouble. We have the right to detain you. Come with us quickly!" A strong man stretched out his tongue and licked his lips. He stretched out his hand and pulled at Sylvia.

Henry stood in front of Sylvia with one step and stared at the strong man who was stretching out his hand to Sylvia. "Who recruited you?"

"Fk!" When the strong man saw the this young man suddenly stand up and block the beauty, he was very unhappy. "Who recruited me? What does it have to do with you?"

"It's me. What's wrong?" A proud voice sounded from the side. A young man in his twenties strode over. "I am the HR manager of this shopping mall. You can come to me for a complaint."

Upon hearing this, Sylvia's brows furrowed even more tightly. HR Manager? If she remembered correctly, the HR Manager should be Richard. He was already over forty years old.

"Well, it seems that you have a problem with the security of the mall, don't you?" The young man looked arrogant and kept glancing at Sylvia and Jenny. "If you have a problem with our security, you can complain. If I don't approve of your complaint, you can go to the person in charge of the mall and complain about me. Of course, the boss of this mall is my buddy. I just think it's useless for you to complain."

As soon as the young man finished speaking, several strong men all burst into laughter full of ridicule.

"Is the boss of the mall your buddy?" Sylvia frowned.

"Of course. What do you think, beautiful lady? Would you like to have a drink with my buddies tonight?" The young man kept looking at Sylvia, and his eyes were full of strong possessiveness.

The middle-aged man shouted, "What the f*ck? You can take these two women away, but this boy can't leave!"

"Don't worry." The young man waved his hand. "We have no interest in men. Do you want to drown him or bury him? It's up to you."

Sylvia sneered, "I think I should know this shopping mall owner. He probably has no interest in me. Why don't you ask him, does he want me to drink with him?"

"Oh, little girl, I didn't realize that you know some people." The young man looked at Sylvia more often. "What, this is your capital, so you dare to act wildly here? I tell you, today that won't work here. You hit my friend. You can't go. Come on, take these two beautiful women to the security room. As for this guy, you can deal with him whatever you want."

The young man waved his hand and gave orders on the spot.

The few strong men clenched their fists with an unkind look on their faces.

"Dad, I'm scared." Lisa hugged Henry's neck and buried her head in Henry's shoulder.

"Don't be afraid, Dad is here." Henry patted Lisa's back, then asked Sylvia, "Honey, should I solve this or you?"

"I'll take care of it." Sylvia sighed and reached out her hand to touch her forehead. "If you take care of it, things will get out of hand."

The middle-aged man didn't understand Sylvia's meaning. Hearing Sylvia's words, he opened his mouth and said, "Do you want to make more noise? Don't you want to calm down? I'm telling you, it's too late! Take this guy up to the mountain. I want him to understand today that he will never again provoke anyone."

"Take me to the mountain? What will the police say?" Henry glanced at the corner of his mouth.

"If you make trouble in our mall, we can arrest you. What can the police say? Kid, let's go!" A strong man reached out and grabbed Henry's shoulder.

"Don't worry." Sylvia took out her mobile phone. "A few minutes later, you will have nothing to do with this shopping mall."

After Sylvia finished, she faced the young man and said, "Tell me, I can complain to the owner of this shopping mall, right?"

"Ha." The young man laughed disdainfully. "Whatever you want. But do you really think that my brother would do anything to me for a woman like you? Don't think too highly of yourself."

Sylvia did not say anything else. She directly dialed the number and said on the phone, "I'm in front of your shopping mall. I' want to see you in three minutes."

"All right, don't talk nonsense. Take her away!" The young man waved his hand impatiently.
