

Chapter 811

Henry and Sylvia still sat in the corner, watching the situation develop.

Those reporters who raised questions were all blocked by Faustina's secretary. Of course, there were still a lot of people in the crowd to take some secret shots.

Faustina and one of the people in charge of the Chow's began to discuss the development direction of Yinzhou's business world in the new year with the people present.

Henry and Sylvia sat aside and listened, nodding from time to time.

"Sweetheart, Faustina has a good grasp of the overall situation. This kind of graduate from a prestigious university is much better than us amateurs. When I first learned the business, I didn't know what the direction is."

Sylvia rolled her eyes, "You're an amateur, I'm not."

"Haha." Henry rubbed his hands and realized that Sylvia also graduated with a double degree.

Sylvia tilted her head and stared at Henry.

"My dear wife, why are you looking at me like that?" Although Henry was thick-skinned, he felt somewhat uncomfortable under Sylvia's gaze.

"I'm just thinking about what's in your mind." Sylvia's beautiful eyes were full of wonder. "Some time ago, I asked around about you. When you were a teenager, you were called the God of Wall Street. You've done something unimaginable. You, this amateur, are the best in the world."

Henry had heard countless praises in the past ten years. Only Sylvia's praise would make him feel embarrassed. Henry scratched his head and said, "Honey, I'll get shy if you keep talking."

"You? Shy? Come on." Sylvia didn't believe Henry's words at all. "Your skin is so thick that even a knife can't cut through it!"

Henry patted his head and was speechless, because what Sylvia said was true.

Thanks to the strengthening of his body caused by Qi and the impact of practising the World Destruction Technique on his body, Henry's muscles were far stronger than ordinary people. On a daily basis, his muscles were still okay, but once Henry exerted force on his body, the knife might not be able to cause any harm to him.

Henry and Sylvia were like two passionate lovers, sitting aside flirting with each other. People who didn't know Sylvia would never think that this woman, who acted like a young teenage girl, was actually the business queen of the whole Western China, the head of the Lins Group.

In the banquet hall, many entrepreneurs were surrounding Faustina and the person in charge of the Chows Group to talk about the commercial development of this year. Some people went to talk with Hanley Wang, the head of the Belief Group.

Henry and Sylvia kept hearing the words of "thirty billion".

Henry and Sylvia also smiled and did not say anything.

"Everyone, today, there is one more thing for our Lins Group to announce." When everyone was talking, Faustina suddenly walked to the centre of the banquet hall, where there was a microphone.

Through the microphone, Faustina's voice was clearly passed into everyone's ears, and the music that sounded in the banquet hall was turned down at the moment.

Almost everyone in the banquet hall turned to look at Faustina, waiting for her to continue.

Faustina represented the Lins Group. Every decision of the Lins Group was of great importance to the business community in the whole of Western China.

Faustina glanced around, took a deep breath, and immediately said, "Everyone, I think you have already clear about what I want to say. From today on, Lins Group will establish a cooperative relationship with the Belief Group. The Belief Group is a business partner that I have carefully investigated and has a huge cash flow. This year will be a year of reform in the business circle of the whole of Western China. We will break the traditional marketing model and even the traditional lifestyle. Please take a look at the specific plan."

After Faustina finished, she pointed to the west wall of the banquet hall.

The western side of the wall was covered with a layer of projection, and the bird's-eye view of the entire Yinzhou appeared on the wall.

"Everyone," Faustina said to the microphone, "as we all know, under the leadership of President Qin of Hengyuan, we have opened up a new trade route for the whole Yinzhou. This is a qualitative leap for the business and trade industry in Yinzhou. In the future, we will be going to this..."

Just as Faustina finished her sentence, there was a sudden commotion in front of the banquet hall.

"Sir, you can't go in!"

"Miss, please cooperate!"

"My dear reporters, please don't be impulsive."

The anxious voice had just rung when the main door of the banquet hall was pushed open. Following, more than 30 people swarmed in from the main entrance of the banquet hall. Half of them were holding cameras and pointing their cameras at Faustina, who was standing in the middle of the banquet hall.

"Everyone, this is a private meeting. Videos are not allowed!" Faustina's secretary stepped forward and shouted.

"Lins Group, you are unscrupulous. You must give us an explanation today!"

"Yes, give us an explanation!"

Two middle-aged men stood out from the crowd, pointing at Faustina and shouting abuse. After the two middle-aged men, a few people stood out and denounced.

"We bought apartments in your newest residential area. When we bought them, you told us that the entrances will be in the north and south sides. Why did you change the location of the entrance now?"

"You lied to us!"

"Do you, the Lins, only care about profit?"

"Give us our money back!"

When Faustina's secretary saw this, she knew that she couldn't kick them out. Now that the owners of the apartments came to her, she immediately said, "Don't worry, everyone. About this matter, Lins Group will offer you a solution. Please go back and wait for news."

"To wait? The answer given by Lin Enterprises is to wait?" A reporter asked.

"We need an effective answer right now."

"Could it be that your Lins Group has never considered us, the customers?"

Standing in the centre of the banquet hall, when Faustina heard this series of questions, a trace of fluster flashed across her eyes. She quickly opened her mouth and said, "Our Lin Group will naturally put the experience of the residents first. There is already a solution to this matter. Don't worry, everybody."

"Alas." Hearing Faustina's words, Henry sighed and said, "My dear wife, Faustina dug a hole and buried herself. You have to go up. Although these people were called by others and have come with bad intentions, they are still clients of our Lins Group. We can't neglect them."

"Oh? A solution? Since the Lins Group already has a solution, why don't you say it out! Let's see if we can accept it! Does the president of the Lins Group only care about money?"

"Yes, speak!"

The two middle-aged men who spoke first shouted.

Faustina looked around subconsciously. After saying that, she realized that she had said something wrong.

Just as Faustina was in a panic, a confident female voice came from the side.

"Everyone, don't make things difficult for a newcomer."

Chapter 812

As soon as the woman's voice rang out, many people present recognized who the owner of the voice was.

Standing in the centre of the hall, Faustina's body couldn't help but shake. She looked in the direction of the voice.

Hanley, the leader of the Belief Group, who was not far away from Faustina, smiled slightly. He had received the news of Sylvia's return yesterday and guessed that Sylvia would appear today.

"It's Sylvia!"

"President of the Lins Group!"

"She has been missing for more than two months. When did she come back?"

When they saw the owner of that woman's voice, whispers broke out in the hall.

The few reporters who had just rushed in, as well as the several apartment owners who had shouted the most fiercely, all had a look of surprise in their eyes.

"President Lin? She is President Lin!" Zenobia, who was arrogant in front of Sylvia and Henry before, widened her eyes at this moment.

Sylvia walked over from the corner. Today, she was wearing an ordinary casual outfit, unlike Faustina's elegant gown. However, as she walked over, Sylvia's aura instantly overwhelmed Faustina.

The gaze, which was originally concentrated on Faustina, unconsciously turned to Sylvia.

"Faustina, your ability is not bad, but you are still lacking in some aspects. I hope that what happened today will make you realize that. In the future, when you do things, you will have to consider a few more steps." Sylvia walked in front of Faustina and said.

Even though Sylvia was two years younger than Faustina, at this moment, Sylvia was like Faustina's elder, speaking to her in such a natural manner.

Faustina lowered her head and said nothing.

"My wife knows that you may not be convinced. Let me explain it to you." Henry also came over and patted Faustina on the shoulder. "By the way, you may not know me. My name is Henry Zhang, the husband of Sylvia."

"Mr. Zhang." Faustina looked at Henry. She had heard of Henry before. When Lins Group was on fire, Henry had enjoyed a great reputation in Lins Group. With Henry's previous actions, his position in Lins Group was slightly higher than Sylvia's. Just some time ago, Faustina was on a business trip somewhere else. Therefore, although she had heard of Henry's name many times, this was the first time she had seen Henry.

Faustina followed Henry and stepped aside.

Looking at Henry's back, Faustina was about to speak when she heard Henry's voice.

"Do you know what you did wrong?"

"Wrong?" Faustina was taken aback. "The owners haven't been properly handled..."

"You really don't know." Before Faustina finished speaking, she was interrupted by Henry. "You have done three things wrong about this residential area. First, you broke the rules."

"Rules?" Faustina looked puzzled.

"Every industry has its own hidden rules. It's the same for businessmen like us. Faustina, let me ask you, do you think that Lins Group, the top group in the entire Yinzhou, can crush all the companies in Yinzhou?"

"Of course, who else can..."

"Naive!" Henry shouted, "Faustina, you have studied for so many years. Have you gone out of your mind? An 18-year-old man thinks clearer than you! There are countless companies in Yinzhou, so why can the Lins be on top? Do you really think that there is no one stronger in Yinzhou? Now the Lins can stand on the top thanks to the prestige of Master Lin. People respect him. Now you have set up an advertising area next to the new residential area? Not to mention whether the owners agree or not, you have broken the hidden rules of the business world! Do you think these people came here by themselves? You just made the decision last night. How can there be so many owners coming here today? There are more people secretly watching Lins group!"

"Ah!" Faustina's face showed panic. She really didn't think of this. In her opinion, Lins Group was the boss of Yinzhou's business circle. No one would want to go against the Lins.

"Second." Henry stretched out two fingers. "You are too proud. Do you think that your current ideas are very subtle and no one has thought of them? Make an advertisement area? Why didn't you listen to anyone's suggestion?"

"I..." Faustina opened her mouth and found that she was actually speechless. Just like what Henry said, when she thought of these methods, she really thought that others did not think of them. Some people had tried to persuade her, but she did not listen.

"In this world, there is no shortage of geniuses and self-righteous fools." Henry shook his head and said bluntly, "Third, you are jealous. You want to prove that you are more powerful than others. These three points are the three most important mistakes you have made, and the customers are not satisfied because of those decisions."

"Mr. Zhang, I'm not. I'm not jealous!" Faustina said quickly.

"Sometimes the expression of jealousy can surpass a person's consciousness." Henry looked at the centre of the banquet hall. "Learn more. Let's see how President Lin handles this matter. Your academic background and your professionalism decide how far you can go in your life. As for the experience, it decides whether you can keep on going, otherwise, no matter how far you go, you will only keep retreating!"

In the centre of the hall.

Sylvia glanced around and said, "Everyone, regarding your questions just now, I now answer you clearly. Our Lins Group hasn't issued an official document stating where the entrance will be located. You are now breaking into our private gathering to ask such questions. I have reasons to suspect that you have stolen our business documents. Everyone here has been recorded by the cameras. Our Legal Department will contact you. As for the theft of business secrets, our Lins Group will never forgive you!"

After hearing Sylvia's words, the faces of those reporters and owners who had just broken in changed. It was not a big deal to steal business secrets. But if the Lins really wanted to investigate, none of them would be able to get what they wanted.

After Sylvia finished speaking, she was silent for a few seconds and continued, "Our Lins Group has always been keen on making friends. It is a new year, our Lins Group doesn't want to have any conflict with anyone. As the saying goes, friendly behaviour brings wealth. If anyone hears any rumours, don't believe them. Our Lins Group has always placed the customer experience first. Please rest assured. Also, dear reporters, I will hold a press conference tomorrow. If there is something you want to ask, you are welcome to come and ask tomorrow. That's it."
