

Chapter 832

The young man flashed in front of Henry and looked anxious. "Brother, you can't go there directly. The people of the Family Lin are unreasonable!"

"Yes." The girl also looked nervously at Henry and Sylvia. "Sister, they are a group of robbers. Even if you are reporters, they will not care. It is better to just expose them."

"Don't worry." Sylvia patted the girl on the shoulder. "The people of the Lins Group are not robbers. Those people are not from the Lins Group. They just use the name of the Lins Group to do evil things!"

Henry and Sylvia walked out of the yard.

The young man and the girl looked at each other anxiously. After struggling for a while, he said to the girl, "Stay here. I'll go and have a look."

After the young man finished speaking, he ran out.

The girl stamped her feet and followed up.

The young man quickly ran to Henry and said to him, "Brother, those people are at the bonfire party. They used the bonfire party to rob people."

"Oh?" The corner of Henry's mouth curled into a playful smile. No wonder the old man in the farmhouse did not allow Sylvia and him to go out to attend the bonfire party in the evening. This party was a trap.

Henry and the other three people walked toward the fire. In the distance, they saw some tourists who travelled with them today were sitting there and laughing.

"We finished almost all the meat. Come on, come and sit down." The female tour guide in her thirties greeted them warmly as soon as she saw them. Including the two students, she also welcomed them with a smile, as if nothing had happened before.

Henry nodded and pulled Sylvia to sit on the beach at the side.

The tour guide came over with two bottles of beer and said, "You can enjoy this bonfire party. It's included in this trip, so there's no charge."

After that, the tour guide put two bottles of beer in front of them, then took two bottles and handed them to two students.

After the two students took the beer, they did not dare to drink and just looked at Henry.

"Husband, this drink..." Sylvia looked at the beer in her hand and wanted to say something but stopped on second thought.

Henry reached out and easily opened the bottle cap. He took a sip and said, "No problem. Don't worry about it."

Four people sat on one side, watching the tour guide who was telling jokes to everyone at the bonfire party. If they hadn't seen the tour guide's actions this afternoon, and if they hadn't heard what the two students said just now, ordinary people really wouldn't have thought that this tour guide would do all kinds of nasty things.

Only 20 minutes after the four of them arrived, the bonfire party ended. Everyone got up and walked toward the farmyard.

Henry saw that most of the people had left, and was about to go to look for the tour guide.

The way Henry wanted to do was very direct. The tour guide was a robber, so he couldn't be polite to her. He would catch her directly and asked who the people behind her were. Then the things should be handled by the law. The Lins Group internal affairs were related to this matter.

As a result, before Henry went to look for the tour guide, the tour guide brought people there first. Behind the tour guide, there were five strong men, all of whom were strangers.

"Brother, pay for the beer." The leading strong man came over and said to Henry. Then he kept looking at Sylvia.

The remaining four strong men also stared at Sylvia with obscene looks in their eyes.

"Beer? Isn't this bonfire party free?" Sylvia suddenly stood up from the ground.

"Free? Little girl, who said it's free?" The leader of the strong men stuck out his tongue and licked his lips. He kept staring at Sylvia and did not hide his obscene eyes.

Sylvia stood behind Henry and pointed to the tour guide, saying, "The tour guide just told us that it's free!"

"Beauty, you seem to be mistaken." The tour guide said, "I said that the bonfire party is free, not the drinks. Now you have to pay for the beer."

Sylvia gritted her teeth and said, "Fine, how much is it? Just tell me."

The leader of the strong men stretched out a finger and said with a smile, "A bottle of beer is worth 1500."

"One thousand and five hundred?" Even Sylvia was shocked when she heard the price. It was such a small bottle of local beer. Even in the most luxurious bar, this bottle could only be sold for forty-eight yuan. And the service fee and tips would be included in 48 yuan.

But now, on this barren beach, a small bottle of beer was 1,500?

Henry frowned and said, "Are you going to snatch the money from us?"

"What? Buddy, you can't afford it? If you can't afford it, don't bring the girl out. If you can't afford it, kneel down and kowtow to me three times. What do you think?" Another strong man said. His words caused a burst of laughter.

Henry thought for a moment and took out his mobile phone. As soon as he pressed the button "1", his shoulder was pressed by a strong man.

"Looking for an inspector?" The leader stared at Henry with an unfriendly expression.

The remaining four strong men also gathered around him.

"Boy, do you know who we are?" The leader of the strong men took out a work card from his coat pocket. With the help of the fire not far away, Henry could see the words "Lins Group" written on the other side's work card.

"When did the Lins' people start to do this kind of business?" Henry looked at these people in front of him.

"It's not your turn to talk about the affairs of our Lin Group." The leader of the strong men snorted coldly and said, "Boy, don't talk nonsense with me. Pay or don't blame us. In the Yellow River, there are many people drowning every year. One or two people more means nothing!"

The leader of the brawny men's words were full of threats.

"Let me tell you. You'll give me the money, and then go back to sleep." The tour guide said at the side, "I came out for fun, not trouble. What do you think?"

"Boy, take out the money if you know what's good for you. What's the use of calling the inspector? If you have any questions, go to Yinzhou and look for the Lins Group!" The leader of the strong men said.

A man and a woman on the side, looking at the situation in front of them, pulled Henry's sleeve. "Brother, let's give them the money first. They have been cheating so much. We don't need such little money anymore."

Henry nodded and said, "You're right. Indeed, I came out because I wanted to spend money and have fun."

"That's right!" The tour guide laughed when she heard that. "If you spend some money, you'll be able to find happiness. Don't we all want to earn money so we can spend it?"

Hearing Henry's words, the five strong men nodded with satisfaction.

"Yes, yes, yes, I agree." Henry nodded repeatedly, but changed his tone and said, "But, I spent a lot of money today, and I'm not happy. So, your Lins Group should be responsible!"

Chapter 833

Hearing Henry's words, the tour guide and the leading strong men's faces suddenly changed.

The strong leader said, "Boy, you want our Lins Group to be responsible for what? Why? If you want the Lins to be responsible, go to Yinzhou and look for them! Give us the money quickly!"

"Sorry, I just want you to give me an explanation." Henry smiled.

"Give you an explanation? Kid, who do you think you are?!" The leader of the strong men clenched his fists.

The young man behind Henry saw that something was wrong and quickly said, "Let me tell you, my brother is a reporter, don't think about doing anything stupid!"

"Reporter!" The tour guide and the five strong men were shocked. They clearly knew how powerful the reporters were now. Once the reporters reported something on the Internet, it would immediately attract attention. Small things would become a big deal. Not to mention what they were doing now.

A hint of fierceness flashed through their eyes.

"Well, you're a reporter, aren't you? I'm the one whom you are investigating. I'll let you do it!" The leading strong man waved his fist and punched toward Henry's face.

The young man and the girl exclaimed subconsciously.

As for Sylvia, who was standing next to Henry, she didn't even lift her eyes.

The strong man, who had just waved his fist, flew out and fell heavily on the beach. As for how he flew out, no one could see it clearly.

"D*mn it, kill him for me!" The leader of the strong men, who had fallen to the ground, roared.

The remaining four strong men attacked Henry at the same time, but in the next second, they all flew out.

A total of five strong men were all knocked to the ground. They wanted to get up, but were horrified when they found out that their hands and legs were unable to exert any strength.

When the tour guide saw this, she immediately took out her phone and dialled a number. While dialling, she shouted at Henry and the others,

"How dare you hit someone?! Just wait!"

Henry shrugged indifferently. He didn't care about the phone call at all. The tour guide could only call people that were involved in this matter. Anyone who was involved in this matter couldn't be let go!

The young man looked at the five strong men who were lying on the ground and couldn't get up, and then looked at Henry with his eyes full of adoration. People at his age always admired those who were good at martial arts.

The tour guide stood there, making phone calls one after another.

More than ten minutes later, three large SUVs came over, and the dazzling lights hit Henry and the others.

The three SUVs stopped and the doors opened at the same time. There were a total of fifteen strong men. In extremely cold weather, the tattoos on their arms were specially revealed and they strode over.

"What the f*ck?! Who dared to hit them? Step out!"

The head of the team was a bald man, and there was a large tattoo on the top of his head. He walked over swaggeringly, cursing and swearing.

"Brother Scar, that's him!" When the tour guide saw these people, she immediately ran to them as if she had seen her saviour and pointed at Henry.

The man called Brother Scar looked up and down at Henry with his eyes full of contempt. He came over and stared at Henry with sharp eyes. "D*mn it. Do you know whose place this is? You dare to hit people on my territory?"

Henry did not even look at Brother Scar in front of him. Instead, he looked at the tour guide and said, "I remember that you're from the Scenery Tour Company, aren't you? Are you a tour guide or an underground organization?"

"Don't talk nonsense!" The tour guide had a helper, so her words were tough. "Let me tell you, if you beat people here, no one can save you. Our Lins Group is not easy to bully!"

"What a big flag!" Sylvia sneered, "You are talking about the Lins all the time. Do the Lins know that there is a group of evil people under them?"

"Girl, who are you?" Brother Scar glanced at Sylvia and said, "If you continue to talk nonsense, believe it or not, I will play with you on this spot!"

As soon as the voice of the man fell, a muffled sound came.

"Bang!"

Brother Scar, who was standing here just now, flew five metres away in an instant and fell to the ground.

And Henry also appeared five metres away and stepped on the chest of Brother Scar.

There was no fierce look on Brother Scar's face at all. At this moment, his face was twisted because of pain. It could be clearly seen that his chest completely bent, and a large mouthful of blood was spat out of his mouth.

"Sweetheart, turn your head over there. Tell those two students to do the same," Henry said softly in a flat tone.

Sylvia silently nodded her head and said to the young man: "Listen to your brother. Turn your head away."

The two students, a man and a woman, were completely confused at the moment. They would do whatever Sylvia said and turned around obediently.

The group of people brought by Brother Scar saw that he was trampled on by others. They all looked angry and rushed toward Henry.

Henry didn't even look at the group of people rushing toward him. He bent down, grabbed Brother Scar's chin with one hand, let him open his mouth, and put the other hand into Brother Scar's mouth. Then he grabbed Brother Scar's tongue and pulled it hard.

A large amount of blood gushed out of Brother Scar's mouth. He began to twitch wildly after being stepped on by Henry. He let out a painful scream, but because he had no tongue, his scream was extremely horrible.

Those underlings who rushed to Henry all stopped when they saw this scene as if they had seen a ghost. Their eyes were full of panic. They used to bully the tourists who came here because they had more people. They had never seen such a fierce character who would pull someone's tongue out without thinking.

The tour guide's legs went limp, and she sat down on the ground and retched.

Brother Scar had been moving. Henry stepped on his chest and crushed his ribs with his feet. Blood kept gushing out of his mouth. After twitching for nearly a minute, Brother Scar suddenly kicked his legs and stopped moving. His eyes were fixed. There were only fear and regret in his eyes.

Henry threw away the bloody tongue in his hand, squatted down, wiped his hands on Brother Scar's clothes in disgust, and then looked at the other subordinates.

At the moment when Henry looked at them, these men's legs went soft and they felt a quiver in their hearts.

"I would like to give you a piece of advice. Be careful when you talk. You should understand what you should and shouldn't say."

Those guys looked at each other, and none of them dared to speak.

"I'm asking you, do you understand?" Henry suddenly raised his voice.

Those rookies were shocked at the same time and answered with trepidation, "We got it! We got it!"

In the eyes of the five strong men who had been knocked down by Henry, there was only rejoicing. At least, they were still alive, weren't they?

"Okay." Henry nodded and said, "You just said that because I beat someone, I have to compensate. Now I ask you, how much should I compensate for this man?"

Henry smiled slightly. In the eyes of this group of younger brothers, his smile was extremely demonic. The tour guide was about to cry.
