

Chapter 878

"Be careful. The hare has entered the gate. Hunters can catch it."

"Wait! Don't be impulsive, there are too many people!"

"Hunters, stop! Let the hare get into the nest."

"Got it. The hare has already entered the nest."

"Look through the telescope and see the exact location of the hare."

"The third truck is in the Eastern District, eight wolves watching."

"Hunters, go to the third truck in the Eastern District, and report the situation!"

In the car where the three people were, there was a lot of noise in the walkie-talkie.

"Brother, do you see that? This is called being professional. There are professionals responsible for every step." Breezy listened to the voice coming from the walkie-talkie, which made her very excited. This was a scene that could only be seen in movies. At this moment, it was happening in front of her.

"Hunters, the hare has landed. We can catch it."

"Roger that! Hunters are ready to catch it, and dealers are ready to pull goods."

"The dealers are in place!"

"Let's move!"

A sonorous and powerful voice rang out from the walkie-talkie. Then they fell silent.

The three of them sat in the car and unconsciously held their breath at this moment. Although they did not participate in this action, they could also feel the tense atmosphere. At this moment, every second, for them, was particularly slow. They were very curious about what was happening over there, but they did not dare to say a word. Only more than a minute passed, and for the three of them, it was as long as several hours.

Suddenly, a noise came from the walkie-talkie. The three of them shuddered subconsciously and pricked up their ears.

"Hunters, retreat quickly. The dealers' carriage has been found by someone. Quickly!"

"Hunters, did you hear that?"

"Hunters have been surrounded. The mission has failed. Retreat!"

"We've been ambushed. There's an ambush. Come and help us!" From the walkie-talkie, an anxious voice could be heard.

"Run to the fourth district. There's a tunnel there. We'll wait for you there!"

"Mahmoud, you've also been targeted. Run!" From the walkie-talkie, the voice rang again.

When Mahmoud, who was sitting in the driver's seat, heard these words, he was so frightened that his legs went weak. They were trying to snatch something this time. They were even trying to snatch an item worth 42 billion yuan. If they were captured, they wouldn't be able to escape from prison.

Mahmoud immediately started the car and stepped on the gas. Because he was nervous, he almost hit the container in front of him. Fortunately, the modified car was good, so he narrowly avoided it. But when Mahmoud was just about to choose a road to escape, he saw a big truck suddenly parking in front of him, completely blocking the road.

When Mahmoud saw this, he quickly began to reverse.

"There is also a car behind. Stop, you will hit it!" Breezy, who was sitting in the back row, screamed.

Hearing this, Mahmoud subconsciously stepped hard on the brakes, making an ear-piercing creak as the car came to a halt.

"Mahmoud, don't drive. The road is blocked. Get out of the car and run. Hurry up!" There was a voice coming from the walkie-talkie.

"Fk!" Mahmoud couldn't help cursing. He pushed open the door of the car and ran away.

Without hesitation, Breezy and Delsean followed Mahmoud into a narrow street that the cars couldn't get through.

"Don't run!"

"Stop right there!"

More than a dozen security guards were chasing after them. Obviously, these people were invited by the successful buyer.

Mahmoud and the other two didn't dare to stop. Their steps quickened as they headed for the spot they had agreed upon.

Someone asked a question before that, although the cheetah's running speed was much faster than that of the wild deers, why did they still want to ambush them and not chase them directly.

The answer was when the wild deer felt it was in danger, it would try its best because it knew that if it couldn't run away, it would die. However, the cheetahs wouldn't act like this. The cheetahs would just stay hungry if they could not catch the deer, they would not die. So they would not do their best to catch the deer.

At this time, Delsean and the other two were like running wild deers. They burst out all their potentials and ran desperately. The security guards who were chasing them did not have so much energy. This allowed the three of them to arrive at the appointed gathering place.

Just as the three of them felt their lungs were about to explode, and wanted to take a breath, they heard a loud roar behind them.

"Hurry up! Run! Hurry up!"

Mahmoud jerked his head back and saw the two people running quickly towards them. There were more than 20 people chasing after them.

Seeing this scene, Mahmoud and the other two endured their discomfort and continued to run. They had originally planned to escape, but as they ran, they started to panic. There were people chasing after them, and there were people blocking them. Mahmoud and the other two, as well as the fourteen experts from the Top Ranking List, gradually gathered together. However, they did not leave this area. Instead, they were being forced to their death.

"No, no, I can't run!" Breezy gasped and her footsteps became slower and slower. "I would rather be caught than to run away like this."

"Run, Breezy! If you get caught, your life will be ruined!" Mahmoud pulled Breezy with an anxious look on his face.

"Don't run." Nichole, who was running in the front, suddenly stopped. "There's a dead end ahead. We've been chased to the dead end."

"What?"

Nichole's words shocked everyone. They looked forward. Sure enough, there was a corner ahead and it was blocked by two containers. The containers were four or five meters high, and their surfaces were smooth. It was impossible for them to climb up.

"What should we do?"

"We can't be caught!"

"This thing is worth more than 42 billion. If we're caught, we'll be dead!"

Masters from the Top Ranking List, who were originally in high spirits, looked anxious.

The confidence on Mahmoud's face had disappeared as well.

At the other end of the passageway, dense footsteps could be heard.

"Let's go. There's no one here. Search the place over there."

"You guys, search that place."

"How dare you steal the tripod?"

One voice after another rang out in a place that no one could see. This sort of voice made them feel despair. They were well aware of the consequences of being caught.

"Why don't we fight our way out?!" An expert from the Top Ranking List clenched his fists.

"Fight out? Don't you see how many people they have? Among them, there are people ranked on the Top Ranking List. We will be exhausted sooner or later, and there will be more and more of their people."

"Yes, even if we can make a way out, so what? Now that the cars are gone, where can we run? There are cameras outside!"

"This... "

The atmosphere of silence descended. Everyone looked at each other. No one spoke as they quietly listened to the dense footsteps getting closer and closer.

Just as a pair of black leather shoes stuck out at the edge of a container, Breezy suddenly felt a force coming from behind her, and a big hand pulled her backwards.

"Ah!" Breezy screamed.

"Breezy, you..."

"Who is it..."

"You are..."

Before the group of Top Ranking List masters could finish their words, their mouths were covered by others.

Chapter 879

In the dark space, Breezy couldn't see anything. She only knew that there was nothing in front of her. A second ago, she was still in the dead end, but she was suddenly dragged into the darkness.

"Who's there?!"

"Who's there?!"

"Who's playing tricks?"

The voices of several masters from the Top Ranking List rang in Breezy's ears, which made Breezy more or less feel at ease.

"Speak, don't play tricks on us! What's your purpose?" Nichole shouted.

"Pop", a light sound came from the sky above the crowd. A burst of light lit up and dispelled the darkness in front of the crowd.

When darkness was expelled, Breezy and the others noticed they were in another container. Beside them stood many people wearing workers' clothing. It was these people who had just covered their mouths and dragged them in.

"Let me ask you. Do you have any brains? If I really wanted to do something to you, I'd leave you out and watch you go to jail." A voice came from the front of the crowd, and then a figure swayed in front of them.

The moment they saw this figure, Breezy and Mahmoud widened their eyes. "It's you!"

On the other hand, Delsean's face lit up with joy. "Mr. Zhang! Why are you here?"

"If I wasn't here, I could only watch you, Mr. Attard, be taken to prison because of these idiots." Henry rolled his eyes.

"What do you mean?" Mahmoud's face was filled with anger. "Who are you calling an idiot?"

"Don't hurry to deny it." Henry smiled. "Let me guess."

Henry came over, looking around at these 14 "experts" from the Top Ranking List. "According to your practice, you probably first got a sand table or something, um... of the entire Wulu City, and it was done very delicately. Then you sat next to the sand table and thought about it, simulating more than a dozen methods, right?"

Hearing Henry's words, Nichole and the others all looked surprised.

"Don't be so surprised." Henry waved his hand. "I did expect you to do this. After all, movies are like this now. You will definitely try to learn from the movies. Do you think it is enough to modify a few cars after you simulated all kinds of situations based on the sand table? Do you think it would be convenient for you to escape with a car after changing the license plate?"

"You!" Seeing that what they had done had been mentioned by Henry, Mahmoud looked a little anxious.

"Oh, by the way!" Henry snapped his fingers and said, "Do you also have nicknames for yourselves and the other side when you are acting? Such as an eagle or some fish?"

"We call ourselves hunters, not fish!" Nichole answered with a dark face.

"It doesn't matter." Henry shrugged his shoulders. "It doesn't matter what your names are. Anyway, they're just useless."

"What right do you have to say that?!" Mahmoud took a step forward.

Henry grinned and said, "I'll open the door behind you now, and you'll all be arrested and imprisoned. Is that enough?"

"Henry, you f*cking..." Mahmoud raised his fist.

"Mahmoud." Breezy grabbed Mahmoud's arm and stood in front of him. He stared at Henry and said, "Henry Zhang, something has happened to us today. You indeed saved us. We're grateful for that. But you can't deny our plan so easily. You can't say we are useless!"

"Well, do you think your plan is flawless?" Henry raised his eyebrows. "Stupid people may be stupid, but they shouldn't harm others. You're stupid enough to choose this kind of cargo station!"

Mahmoud frowned. "What do you mean?"

"It's very simple. You are fools." Henry held his hand. "Yesterday, I arranged for my men to sneak into this cargo station to work as temporary workers. Even they, who work as temporary workers know that a group of people was asking where the tripod was going to be transported today. Do you think the buyers don't know? There is no surveillance here, but there are a lot of people watching here."

Mahmoud's face was shocked. "I've been betrayed! No wonder, no wonder someone suddenly checked our cart!"

"That's bullsh*t. People like you are not worth selling out." Henry curled his lip. "If you are stupid, then you are stupid. Why don't you admit it?"

"Then tell me, if it weren't for being betrayed, how could others find our truck?"

"Aren't you talking nonsense?! As for your modified cars, I can hear them clearly from a few hundred metres away. Who would drive a modified car to the cargo station for no reason?" Henry crossed his arms and said, "All those who have brains know that you are wrong."

"Me!" Mahmoud wanted to say something but was stopped by Delsean.

"Mr. Zhang is right about what happened this time. It's true that we owe him a lot. The tripod was bid by the man for 42 billion yuan. How could it be so easy to get? How could a dozen people like us take it away so easily?" Delsean sighed, with disappointment on his face.

"Brother Delsean, we're not just a dozen random people. Nichole and the others are experts on the Top Ranking List. In entire China, there aren't many who are stronger than them. It's just that this time, we're in a rather passive position. Under other circumstances, we wouldn't be afraid of them." Mahmoud's face was full of dissatisfaction.

"Haha." A burst of laughter came from the side.

"What are you laughing at!" Mahmoud's eyes glared in the direction of the laughter.

"Sorry, I'm sorry." Henry waved his hand. "I really couldn't hold myself back."

"It's funny, isn't it?" Nichole looked at him with an unfriendly expression.

"In fact, it's not that funny." The smile on Henry's face suddenly disappeared. "It's just that you so-called masters from the Top Ranking List don't even know that you are being followed?"

They were being followed?!

Nichole and the others were shocked.

"Who is being followed?" Mahmoud's eyes were filled with confusion.

Nichole walked to the edge of the container and slowly pushed open the door hidden on the box. Henry's men pulled them in through that door just now. Nichole saw that there was no one on the aisle outside. The security guards who chased them had already left when they didn't see them in this dead end. 1

"There is nobody out..." Nichole said. Before the word "outside" came out of his mouth, he heard a burst of laughter from above his head, coming from outside the iron container.

A sharp dagger suddenly pierced out from the top of the container.

With a powerful slash, the thin iron surface was cut open and a big hole appeared. Sunlight shone down through the hole.

Then, a person reached into the crack and tore it open. Yachim appeared at the edge of the crack as if he was examining the prey, staring at everyone in the container.

Chapter 880

Yachim's gaze was like that of an eagle's. When he looked at someone, they would feel a chill run down their spines.

"I heard there was someone who said that he wanted to take the tripod. It turned out to be Mr. Attard. It seems that Mr. Attard was having a wonderful time in the desert. Otherwise, how could he be so active after he has come out of the desert?"

As Yachim opened his mouth, his voice clearly passed into Delsean's ears from the top of the container.

Yachim took a step forward, and then he jumped lightly. With this jump, he jumped down from the roof of the container.

The height of five metres caused little impact on Yachim. After landing, he just bent his legs slightly and released the strength.

"Mr. Attard, to be honest, I admire your courage. You are just an ordinary businessman, but you dare to personally go to the desert to look for the tripod, and you dare to steal it. It's just that your brain doesn't work well!" Yachim pointed to his head and continued, "Whether you go to the desert or steal the tripod, you should find a real master with your wealth to protect you. Unfortunately, you always have a group of cats and dogs around you. I really feel sad for you. What kind of person are you? Even if you have money, you don't know how to spend it, do you?"

"What did you say?" Nichole took a step forward and said, "Who are the cats and dogs you said?"

Yachim sneered and said, "You are! Any problems?"

"You're courting death!" A master from the Top Ranking List shouted behind Nichole. He moved his feet and rushed directly toward Yachim.

As experts ranked on the Top Ranking List, they were extremely proud. But today, not only had they been trapped, they had just been ruthlessly ridiculed by Henry. Now, someone had come out and compared them to a nobody, how could he endure that?

An expert on the Top Ranking List could be regarded as a master among ordinary people. But in front of Yachim, who belonged to an underground force, he was nothing at all.

The Sandsea bandits were ranked as a second-level underground force. As the leader of the bandits, Yachim's strength was not something that the so-called Top Ranking experts could compare with. The expert from the Top Ranking List rushed in front of Yachim and kicked toward his left rib with a whip kick.

Yachim's face was full of disdain. With a small movement of his left arm, he grabbed the expert's leg.

Seeing that his full-strength attack was easily blocked by his opponent, the face of the master changed. He was about to change his move, only to find that his leg was firmly grabbed by his opponent. He couldn't move at all and couldn't take it back.

"Too slow. Your strength is too weak. If I were as weak as you at your age, I would have died many times." Yachim sneered. "Now, I can see clearly what strength and speed you possess!"

As soon as Yachim finished his words, he also stretched out his leg.

The same whip kick brought about a totally different effect on the two of them. Yachim's whip kick was like a steel whip, attacking the opponent fiercely and directly hitting his left rib.

Under Yachim's whip kick, the expert flew backward five or six meters. He crashed heavily into the iron sheet on the edge of the container. Large mouthfuls of blood spurted out from his throat. His face was pale. He covered his left rib with a painful face and howled in pain.

Yachim's kick broke all of the bones in his left rib.

"I'm going to kill you!" Another expert saw that his companion was seriously injured. His eyes turned red, and he rushed up with a loud roar.

"Rubbish!" Yachim kicked out again without even lifting his eyelids. The master who had just rushed out was sent flying by Yachim without even having a chance to wave his fist.

On the other side, Mahmoud and Breezy's eyes were wide open. The master from the Top Ranking List, who was among the top masters in the whole of China, was not a match for the man in front of them.

"It's an expert. Let's fight him together!" Nichole's pupils shrank. Yachim's strength and speed shocked him. He knew that no one on his side could defeat him alone. Besides, he was not an unreasonable person. It was obviously not the time to care about face. The most important thing was to solve the current problem.

When the other 11 masters heard Nichole's words, they no longer hesitated and rushed toward Yachim almost at the same time. Together with Nichole, a total of 12 masters from the Top Ranking List attacked Yachim together.

Twelve against one. Looking from the side, Yachim was no match for them.

However, the truth was that the 12 experts, with their best efforts, were unable to cause any effective damage to Yachim. They occasionally hit Yachim with a punch and kicked him with their legs, but he was not in pain.

On the other hand, Yachim's fists were fierce and his feet were deadly. If it weren't for Nichole's large number of people, even the most powerful Nichole wouldn't be able to take three of Yachim's strikes. Even so, they were forced to retreat step by step and were completely suppressed by Yachim.

Yachim, who was fighting, suddenly said, "Well, I don't want to play with you anymore. Today, I came to visit Mr. Attard because I have something important to talk about. When I have time, I will come and teach you cats and dogs a lesson."

As soon as Yachim finished his words, he moved faster. Nichole and the others didn't have time to react because of his sudden move. The moment they found out that something was wrong, was the moment when they were punched in the chest by Yachim, making them spit blood and unable to breathe.

Yachim was like a tiger in a flock of sheep. After a few moves, 12 masters from the Top Ranking List, including Nichole, all crawled on the ground and could not get up.

So far, all 14 masters had been beaten by Yachim alone.

Yachim looked like nothing had happened.

To one side, Breezy and Mahmoud unconsciously took a few steps back. They looked at Yachim with fear in their eyes. In their cognition, the masters on the Top Ranking List were extremely powerful, especially Nichole, who ranked 21st on the list. In the whole of China, there were only 20 masters who were better than him. But now, in front of this person, Nichole did not even have the ability to fight back.

Yachim twisted his neck and said, "Mr. Attard, tell me, since you barely survived the desert, why do you look for trouble again?"

Delsean stared at Yachim and said, "Don't think that I don't know about the things you are doing. You've been in contact with foreign benefactors for a long time. You just want to distract other people's attention with this auction. You want to sell this tripod abroad!"

"Wow, I didn't expect you to be so well-informed, Mr. Attard." Yachim's voice was full of praise. "But, what does this have to do with you?"

"The tripod belongs to China, so it should be kept in our country. How can you sell it to foreigners?" Delsean clenched his fist.
