

Chapter 883

A billion?

Upon hearing this, Breezy's hair stood on end.

"Henry Zhang, I admit that you have saved us twice. I can understand that you want the benefits. But this billion is the money that my brother promised to give you after stealing the tripod. In this situation, how can you open your mouth and ask for it?"

"Breezy, don't be rude." Delsean scolded her and then said to Henry, "Mr. Zhang, if it weren't for you today, I would lose my life. Even if I was not killed by Yachim, I would be taken away. The one billion is to show my gratitude."

"No." Henry stretched out his right index finger and waved it in front of Delsean. "If you want to thank me for saving you, you have to give me one more billion. I am talking about the one billion for stealing the tripod."

After Henry finished, he snapped his fingers.

A Reaper who was dressed up as a cargo deliveryman pushed a cart out. On top of the cart was a copper tripod. The tripod was covered in rust, and it gave one a sense of a long history.

At the moment when he saw the tripod, Delsean's eyes widened.

Breezy was about to curse, but she suddenly shut her mouth because of the appearance of the tripod.

"Mr. Attard, what I asked for is the money for my service." Henry laughed and made a gesture of invitation.

Delsean slowly walked toward the tripod in disbelief. He looked at the tripod in front of him little by little as if he was looking at his beloved child.

"This is the tripod! It is THE tripod!" After observing for a while, Delsean let out a surprised sound, and his eyes were filled with ecstasy.

"How could it be possible?" Breezy was shocked. She looked at Henry and said, "Wasn't the tripod taken away just now? Did you send someone to grab the tripod when we were in the warehouse?"

"Beauty, do you think I'm so stupid to steal the tripod at this time?" Henry rolled his eyes. "You just made such a scene. They are all looking after the tripod."

"Then you are..."

"I took it last night." Henry held his hands. "When you were sleeping."

Breezy shook her head and said, "Last night? That's impossible! The tripod was in the museum last night. How could you take it out quietly? How did you do that?"

"Just like that. You figure out yourself." Henry did not explain much. He turned to Delsean and said, "Mr. Attard, the tripod has been delivered to you. As for how to transport it, it's your business. You know the account number of our company. After confirming it, don't forget to transfer the money."

Henry waved to Delsean, then opened the iron door next to him and went out.

Those Reapers who dressed up as workers also followed Henry and went out.

In the warehouse, only Delsean and other people were left.

"It's real! This is the real tripod! There's no mistake. I'm sure that it's real!" Delsean touched the copper tripod in front of him and kept muttering.

Breezy watched Henry and the others leave and narrowed her eyes. "How did he do it? It's impossible!"

No matter how hard Breezy tried, she couldn't imagine that Henry ran into the museum during the night, took the copper tripod weighing nearly 1,000 kilograms, and ran out of the museum alone.

The well-secured museum in Breezy's eyes was just like an empty hall in Henry's eyes. There were too many loopholes for him to explore.

After Henry left the warehouse, the Reapers following him left on their own. When Henry left the cargo station, there was no one else behind him.

After checking the time, Henry went straight to the airport. The private jet of the Lins Group was waiting for him at the airport. When Henry arrived, he flew into the sky.

At six o'clock in the afternoon, Henry appeared at Yinzhou Airport.

"Hello, sir. Is there anything I can do for you?" A beautiful, tall flight attendant came over.

"Any news recently?" Henry didn't stop and asked while walking.

"Madam is safe. Alvin has been in the hospital since he was brought back. We have arranged a psychologist for him. The effect is good. He should be out tomorrow. It's just that Miss Daisy encountered a little trouble." There was a smile on the flight attendant's face. No one would think that the flight attendant was reporting anything to Henry.

"Trouble? Is it serious?" Henry suddenly remembered that Daisy gave him a call yesterday, but he did not receive it. When he called back, Daisy did not answer.

"It's not a big deal. We've arranged for people to keep an eye on Miss Daisy. It's Madam's client who was causing trouble. We're waiting for your order."

"Arrange someone to take me to have a look." At this time, Henry walked to the exit of the airport and stepped out.

"Okay." The flight attendant stopped in front of the airport exit and bowed slightly to Henry.

Less than 30 seconds after Henry walked out of the airport, an E-class Benz stopped in front of him. Henry opened the door and sat in the back seat.

"Where is Daisy now?" Henry asked as soon as he got in the car.

"Madam Daisy went to a party held by her classmates last night and never came out. At the party, a man named Hansraj Qiu put the drug in her drink three times, but he was stopped by the people we arranged," the driver said.

"Drug?" Henry's eyes flashed a cold light. "In the future, if someone wants to hurt my family, just kill him directly. You don't have to worry about who the other party is."

"Understood." The driver nodded.

The driver took Henry all the way to Hong Kong Bay.

The so-called "Hong Kong Bay" was a place full of many large entertainment clubs in Yinzhou.

There were all kinds of KTVs, saunas and massage places.

Daisy went to the classmate gathering, which lasted from last night to now.

"Sir, there are 26 students in there, 17 of whom are male, and 9 of them are female. The two good friends of Miss. Daisy are also in there." In front of a huge house, the driver stopped the car. "All the waiters are our people. Miss Daisy is temporarily safe, but the other party's drugs were destroyed three times. It seems that he is a little impatient."

"He won't have the chance." Henry calmly opened the door, got out of the car, and walked toward the gate of the party house.

It was a large party house, in which there were many entertainment facilities, such as a home cinema, a billiard hall, a barbecue terrace, a game room and so on.

For many university students, it was a wonderful choice to hold a gathering at such a party house. They would pay a little money for it. It didn't cost much, and they enjoyed it very much. Moreover, this kind of parties was very popular. Because in this case, everyone would stay in the party house at night, providing a lot of opportunities for the boys and girls who had a passion for each other to have more contact with each other.
