

Chapter 947

When they walked out of the club, they all looked a little worried.

The news that Cesia had just brought them had completely overturned their previous perceptions.

They knew that there were other powerful organizations in this world. However, they did not expect that these people had already been divided into different factions. Radiant Island and The King Region were just ants in the eyes of these forces. Those achievements which could make them proud of themselves were just child's play in others' eyes.

Henry could see what his brothers were thinking. He said, "Don't think too much. There are too many things beyond our imagination in the world. You now feel that those forces are powerful, but we can't be sure. If they are really strong, why should they be secretive? They have already crushed everything. It's almost the new year. Except for Moon Goddess, we still have a task to carry out, so rest for a while. After the new year, I will train you."

"We've indeed slacked off for too long." Sea God stretched.

"Relax for a few days. Oh, by the way, Felix.." Henry said to the side, "I remember that you have an estate in the capital. It's Gold Rain Hotel, isn't it? Their roasted duck is very famous."

"Indeed." Felix nodded.

Henry said, "Send someone to bring me some later. I'm in the capital now. It feels weird if I don't eat roasted duck."

"Alright, I'll arrange for someone to send it to my sister-in-law's place before dinner." Felix replied.

"Well, you guys have fun. I'll go first." Henry said goodbye and left the club first.

It was not that Henry didn't care about the great forces, but he really didn't want to give anyone any more psychological pressure. The current situation was already like this. There were too many things in front of everyone, and if they kept worrying about it, they were likely to have a mental breakdown.

After leaving the club, Henry contacted Sylvia. Sylvia was visiting several companies, intending to negotiate cooperation.

The current Lins Group could be said to be a huge treasure mountain with huge fluid flow, but there was no place for it to develop. If they wanted to develop better, they had to find the best channel.

The capital was definitely a place of crouching tigers and hidden dragons. There must be a vast channel to run a big and strong enterprise here. In terms of the Lins Group, even if they owned such a large capital, it would be difficult to build such a channel in a short time.

Henry met Sylvia downstairs of a company according to the address given by Sylvia.

Henry could see that Sylvia seemed to be a little tired, and her hair was a little messy. After all, this was the capital. It was troublesome to run around and everything was done by Sylvia herself.

Henry walked up to Sylvia and said, "Honey, how's the situation?"

Sylvia shook her head slightly and said, "Not good. I've found a few companies. They don't have enough qualifications and they don't have a good channel.

Cooperating with them, Lins Group would face the risk of financing being trapped, so we can only find some top groups. Although the capital is big, there are only a few top groups. It's difficult to contact them. After all, Lins Group is just a nouveau riche in their eyes. You know, in the eyes of those groups, our sudden growth of funds is very unreliable."

"How many people do you want me to find for you?" Henry asked.

"No, I can't rely on you for everything." Sylvia shook her head. "I have already asked Grandpa to help me ask. Grandpa went to find Master Qin. He should give me a reply soon."

As soon as Sylvia finished speaking, her phone started ringing.

Sylvia picked it up to take a look and said with a smile, "It's Grandpa."

After that, Sylvia picked up the phone. After a few words, she hung up again.

After hanging up the phone, Sylvia asked Henry, "Honey, do you know Wicket Company?"

"Wicket Company?" Henry looked thoughtful, and then asked, "The company established by the guy surnamed Wei?"

"Yes." Sylvia nodded. "The person in charge of their company is surnamed Wei. My grandfather asked Master Qin to contact him and asked me to meet him."

"I'll go with you." Henry took Sylvia's hand and asked, "Where is the car?"

"What car? We are taking the subway!" Sylvia held Henry's big hand and ran to the side.

Henry let Sylvia pull him. Looking at Sylvia's girlish appearance, he couldn't help but smile.

Wicket Company had a high status in the capital. It was much stronger than Boid's Roseland Industry. In the data report, Wicket Company's total assets were about 100 billion, but its real strength was at least twice that of this number.

One should know, some assets of many enterprises could be shown to the public, but those hidden numbers were the most important things.

Otherwise, if everyone knew each other very well, there was no such thing as a trade battle.

In the history of the business world, many big companies had fallen into the hands of unknown small companies, and this kind of thing was very common.

Therefore, the company's external assets could prove some of the company's strength, but they could not prove everything.

Wicket Company was in the CBD of the capital. The housing price here could be said to be terrible. None of the people who could open a company here were simple characters.

Henry and Sylvia drove for more than 20 stations to come here. Wicket Company's building was particularly eye-catching in the CBD. One could see it as soon as they got out of the subway station.

The two came to the building and explained the purpose of their visit to the reception. They had been waiting in the reception room.

At the same time, Rainer Sun was also standing at Wicket Company's door. Just now, he was watching Sylvia and Henry walk in.

Rainer snorted coldly and said, "You want to cooperate with Wicket Company? I'd like to see how you can cooperate with them!"

After finishing his words, Rainer took out his phone and dialled a number. "Contact Mr. Wei of Wicket Company. Tell him that we want to talk about cooperation with them. Arrange dinner with Mr. Wei tonight."

After one phone call, Rainer made another phone call. "Tell all the people to work overtime tonight. Make them destroy all the stocks of the Lins Group. By the way, give some benefits. Try your best to keep all the working capital of the Lins Group in line. Even if they want to lose money, they have to destroy the Lins Group in front of me!"

After he had done all this, Rainer gave a cold smile and said, "The Lins, I want to see how long you'll be able to be so arrogant."

Sylvia, who was inside the company, had no idea what Rainer was doing outside.

As for Henry, he had long discovered that he and Sylvia were being followed, and he even knew who the other party was. But as long as the other party did not take the initiative to come out, Henry was too lazy to pay attention to them.

Chapter 948

Henry and Sylvia had been sitting in the reception room of the Wicket Company until 5:30 p.m., and the door of the reception room was pushed open.

A middle-aged man in his fifties pushed the door open and came in. When he saw Henry and Sylvia in the living room, he couldn't help but be stunned, and then a trace of dissatisfaction flashed in his eyes.

Kadrick Wei received a call from a friend today, who said that the Lin Family from Yinzhou wanted to discuss cooperation with him.

In the short span of two days, the name of Lins Group had been well-known in the business world. Naturally, Kadrick had heard of the Lins. However, in his heart, Kadrick felt that this company was unreliable.

Five hundred billion yuan for a piece of land? How was that possible?

Kadrick had been a businessman for decades, and it was hard for him to believe that something like this had happened. In his eyes, he thought this was just a way to hype up the Lins Group. For example, they could raise the stock, direct the fake news, increase the stock again, and harvest the benefits. Such things had never happened in the financial world of China.

As a president of a group like Wicket Company, Kadrick had seen and met many people like the Lins. In the past, there used to be people who came to Wicket Company for cooperation pretending that they have hundreds of billion, but in the end, it was just an act.

Therefore, Kadrick was very resistant to the fact that the Lins Group had come to him to discuss cooperation. But his good friend had asked him for this favour, so he didn't want to make a fool of himself. After finishing his business, he came to meet them.

As far as Kadrick was concerned, this time someone important from the Lins Group came to visit him. He didn't expect to see two young people here.

Given Kadrick's status, he naturally didn't know who the person in charge of Lins Group was.

Before coming here, Sylvia had already checked the information of Kadrick. When she saw Kadrick, she immediately got up. "Hello, Mr. Wei. I'm Sylvia Lin from the Lins Group. This is my husband, Henry Zhang."

Sylvia took the initiative to extend her hand and introduce herself.

"Yes." Kadrick nodded and didn't greet Sylvia. "I heard from Old Qin that you're here to talk about cooperation with us?"

"Yes." Sylvia took back her hand and got straight to the point. "Our Lins Group has huge capital, and your company has vast channels. I think our cooperation methods could be very diverse. We could also be considered as a strong alliance."

Hearing this, Kadrick showed a faintly disdainful smile at the corner of his mouth and said, "With all due respect, although your company has recently gained a great reputation by selling that land for 500 billion yuan, which is definitely the most prosperous capital in China, the amount of money your company has earned is too strange. As for the alliance you said, I'm sorry, my words may be a little unpleasant, but I don't think that your Lins Group is strong."

Hearing this, Sylvia was not angry or embarrassed. She had already thought about what would happen this time.

In Sylvia's opinion, if a small company suddenly appeared in front of her and said that they had hundreds of billions, Sylvia would not care at all. This was human nature. No one would believe that there was anything free in this world, especially businessmen.

Sylvia continued, "Mr. Wei, how do you know that our Lins Group doesn't have this kind of strength if we don't talk about it? I think that you can benefit from this cooperation not us. Mr. Wei, you're a businessman, you won't refuse us directly, right? A qualified businessman will never refuse without listening."

Kadrick's eyes were full of curiosity. He was not curious about the cooperation that Sylvia was talking about, but he wanted to know where Sylvia get such confidence?

"Interesting." Kadrick said with a smile, "Little girl, you're very similar to what I used to be. Well, since you want to talk, let's have a talk. Tonight, there's a company that wants to talk about cooperation with me. Why don't we have a talk together?"

When Kadrick said this, he also tried to test the Lins. If the Lins really had the confidence, they wouldn't care if there was anyone else present today. If they didn't have the confidence, they were afraid that they would shrink back.

Sylvia smiled confidently, "Of course, it's all up to Mr. Wei."

"Haha." Kadrick laughed and said, "Well, it's time for dinner. We can talk while eating. If you don't have your car here, you can take my car."

After finishing his words, Kadrick turned his head and went out of the reception room.

"Thank you, Mr. Wei." Sylvia quickly said, then took Henry's hand and followed up.

The capital was very big and very congested. The amount of time needed to get from one side of the city to another was probably enough to drive around the entire Orafield Province.

Jonah Hotel was a famous five-star hotel in the capital.

When Henry and Sylvia arrived here in Kadrick's Benz S600, it was already 6:30 in the afternoon.

Kadrick was obviously an old customer here, or perhaps this hotel was run by Kadrick. When Kadrick's car arrived here, the manager ran over immediately, opened the car door for Kadrick, and bowed to lead them into the hotel.

In the parking space at the entrance of the hotel, there was Kadrick's exclusive parking space. The driver skillfully parked the car in it.

Under the guidance of the hotel manager, Henry and the others entered an elegant private room.

The room was not big, but it was very fragrant. The moment they entered the room, they felt comfortable and relaxed. A beautiful and elegant beauty was sitting in the corner of the room, playing a melodious tune, which made people feel relaxed and happy.

"Sit down." Kadrick made a gesture of invitation.

Henry and Sylvia sat opposite Kadrick. Between them, there was a table made of the peach wood.

Soon, the most delicate black tea was served.

Sylvia turned her head and looked at the beautiful woman playing the guzheng in the corner of the room. Her thoughts drifted to a few months ago when she and Milan went to the concert. There, she recalled how Henry perfectly integrated the guzheng and the piano. The tenderness and sweetness under the spotlight, and the shock were still fresh in Sylvia's mind.

"You two, have some tea first, we are waiting for a friend.

He'll be there soon." Kadrick smiled and picked up the teacup.

As soon as Kadrick's voice fell, the door of the private room was pushed open from the outside. Rainer Sun, whose face was still covered in gauze, strode in from outside the room.

Sylvia's expression changed the moment she saw Rainer, and she did not look too pleased with him. The Lins and Rainer had completely turned against each other earlier, so it was obvious that Rainer's arrival today would not bode well for them.

As for Henry, he did not feel surprised at all. He had already figured out that Rainer would appear.

Chapter 949

After Rainer walked into the room, he glanced at Henry and Sylvia gloomily. Then he put on a smiling face and said to Kadrick with a smile, "Uncle Wei, my father asked me to send you his greetings."

"Haha." Kadrick laughed and said, "Nephew Sun, your dad and I haven't seen each other for half a year. How is he now?"

"Thanks to Uncle Wei, my dad can eat and drink now. He's in good health, but he's too busy at work. He often talks about you, Uncle Wei. He wants to get together with you," Rainer said kindly.

Kadrick said, "Your father's body is strong, that's not thanks to me. Come, sit down. Let me introduce two people to you. They are from Yinzhou. You should have heard of the Lins Group."

Rainer took his seat beside Kadrick, and then stared at Henry with a gloomy face. "Of course I've heard of them. Not only that, but the way the Lins do things is very insolent!"

Hearing this, Kadrick could easily hear the resentment in Rainer's mouth. "Oh? Looks like you've come into contact with each other before?"

"Yes, we did," Rainer said as he nodded. "The husband of President Lin really looks down on our Cumulus Industry!"

Kadrick was slightly stunned when he heard this. Although the industry couldn't compare with his Wicket Company, it was still one of the top ten companies in the capital, and there was not much difference between it and Wicket Company. It was more than enough to provide channels for the Lins Group. The Lins Group didn't even care about this kind of enterprise?

Kadrick looked at Sylvia in confusion. He did not understand Sylvia's intentions.

Rainer's sudden appearance indeed caught Sylvia by surprise, but it was not enough to make her feel helpless. Sylvia took a deep breath, adjusted her state of mind, and said, "Mr. Wei, regarding the way of doing business, President Sun's Cumulus Industry has many differences with our Lin Family. If we forcibly cooperate with him, it will only create contradictions, which will not bring any benefits to any side."

When Sylvia said these words, she deliberately raised her voice when she said the words 'the way of doing business'.

Kadrick seemed to be thinking about something. He looked at Rainer, who was sitting next to him. As one of the top businessmen in the business world in China, Kadrick had seen too many things in his life, including all kinds of rich second generations. He knew very well what the rich second generations' behaviour was like.

Therefore, when Sylvia said these words, Kadrick suddenly understood what it meant.

Kadrick opened his mouth and changed the topic at the same time. "Well, I'm old. I really can't keep up with the concept of young people. Since you all come to me today to cooperate with Wicket Company, then tell me everything. I want to know how you two plan to cooperate with me."

Kadrick raised his teacup and waited for Sylvia and Rainer to speak.

Sylvia said confidently, "Mr. Wei, I know the strength and channels of your company. Now our company is cooperating with Hengyuan in Yinzhou and has taken the trade road to the northwest. In the past two years, the government has always supported the northwest trade and it has limited most of the trade channels. Now, our company controls the largest trade channel to the northwest, and we also have huge capital. I think that Mr. Wei, you should be interested in the development of the northwest. This is the sincerity of our Lin's company."

A fiery look suddenly appeared in Kadrick's eyes.

They had a channel for trade in the northwest region!

Kadrick didn't care how much money this channel could make. He himself was in charge of import and export trade, so he didn't care about this little profit. What he cared more about was his reputation!

The northwest had always been an underdeveloped zone in China. If they could set up a trade route to the northwest and help the construction of the northwest, not only would the government give them a large amount of funds, but more importantly, the whole Wicket Company would win a lot of praises. Whether these praises came from their hearts or not, they had to do it. Once so, Wicket Company's stock would definitely skyrocket, which would provide them with both fame and fortune!

A lot of big companies wanted to own this kind of resources. However, if they wanted to exchange for this kind of resources, most companies could not pay the corresponding price.

"What do you want?" Kadrick asked.

"I want to 30% of Mr. Wei's export trade!" Sylvia said bluntly.

"Impossible!" Kadrick refused without thinking. "Little girl, do you know what you're talking about? 30% of the shares? Do you know what it means?"

Rainer, who was standing at the side, sneered and said, "You don't know what you're doing!"

Sylvia did not even look at Rainer and continued to say, "Mr. Wei, since I dare to say this number, I understand what it means. Forty per cent of your company's annual income from import and export, and this guarantees that you have a lot of money. If I want to get 30%, it is equivalent to taking a large piece of cake from Wicket Company."

"Since you understand, how dare you say such a condition?" Kadrack put down the teacup and said, "I admit that your offer is very attractive to me, but it is not enough to make give you thirty per cent of the shares."

Sylvia shook her head slightly. "Mr. Wei, you're wrong. What I'm saying is not simply taking 30%, but to invest! By using your area of influence to expand your trade channels, I wouldn't affect Mr. Wei's interest. We would only ask you for some favours."

Kadrack fell into deep thought. If the Lins invested, this matter would really be beneficial to him. As for the favour, if they could get the benefit, it would be called a good deal. Otherwise, it would be bullsh*t.

After thinking for a few minutes, Kadrack nodded slightly.

This action of nodding made Sylvia happy in her heart. She knew that Kadrack was going to accept her proposal.

"President Lin, I like your proposal very much..." Kadrack said, but before he could finish his words, he was interrupted by a voice.

Rainer said in a strange tone, "Mr. Wei, I have to remind you that the so-called 500 billion yuan is only passed on from the outside world. The 500 billion yuan came out of nowhere. Don't lead the wolf into the house."

Rainer's words caused a hint of worry to flash across Kadrack's eyes. He quickly swallowed back the words that were about to come out of his mouth, and on the contrary, there was a hint of suspicion on his face.

"Mr. Wei, there are some things that you have to see clearly before making a decision. Don't be in such a hurry." Rainer spoke again, "It's too common to become a nouveau riche, but not all the nouveau riche are real. Some people, no matter how glamorous they appear on the surface, are just like frogs at the bottom of a well."

Chapter 950

Rainer's words immediately reminded Kadrick.

At the same time, it also made Kadrick shocked. He had just almost agreed to the other party's conditions. This girl knew how to grasp a person's heart.

When Kadrick looked at Sylvia again, he had already put away his contempt. This young man was not very old, but his skills in negotiation were quite sophisticated, and he was very good at grasping what the other side needed.

Rainer continued, "Uncle Wei, this time, I've contacted my friend at Gold Rain Hotel and asked for two roasted ducks. And I brought them today."

Rainer snapped his fingers after he finished speaking.

After Rainer's finger rang out, someone knocked on the door of the private room from the outside.

"Come in," Rainer said.

Following this, the door to the room was pushed open and a person entered from outside. He held two gift boxes in his hand. The boxes were entirely gold and three large words Gold Rain Hotel were written on them. These large words were completely gold-plated. Not mentioning what was contained in the box, just the cost of the gift boxes was quite high.

Kadrick looked surprised. He stared at the gift box in the person's hand and said, "Gold Rain Hotel makes 365 roast ducks a year, one a day. Rainer, you were able to get two roast ducks from Gold Rain Hotel. I'm so surprised. I once asked someone to buy one. After waiting for three months, I was lucky enough to get one. The duck is plump and delicious, and it leaves an amazing fragrance in people's mouth."

Rainer said proudly, "Gold Rain Hotel's roasted ducks are indeed priceless, but there is no market for them. The price of the roasted ducks from the Gold Rain Hotel's restaurant on the black market has risen to a sky-high price. This is not only because Gold Rain Hotel's roast ducks are delicious, but also because this roast duck has become a symbol of one's status. To put it bluntly, I'm afraid these people won't be able to buy the ducks from Gold Rain Hotel's restaurant for their entire life. It's the case even for a nouveau riche. If I didn't run into a helpful person, I doubt that I would be able to get these."

After Rainer finished his words, he looked at Henry provokingly. His meaning was very obvious.

Henry smiled and did not speak.

Sylvia's face couldn't help but look a little ugly. She came to the capital to find someone to cooperate with. Naturally, she had heard the name of Gold Rain Hotel. It was no exaggeration to say that ordinary people couldn't buy the roasted ducks from Gold Rain Hotel. Even those influential people had to make an appointment in advance. If they didn't have an appointment, the owner of the Gold Rain Hotel wouldn't sell the duck to them. At that time, there was a rich second generation who couldn't buy roast ducks and smashed the things inside Gold Rain Hotel. As a result, two days later, the rich second generation and the company behind him disappeared completely.

That thing let everyone know that the Gold Rain Hotel was not doing some hunger marketing, but the boss behind the Gold Rain Hotel was also a powerful man.

From then on, everyone had to make an appointment in advance when they wanted to eat the roast duck from the Gold Rain Hotel. One week in advance, one month in advance, or maybe several months in advance. Even now, the roasted ducks from this hotel had already been booked for the whole year. It was not known when it had started, but the roasted duck from Gold Rain Hotel had already turned into a symbol of identity. People without background could not make an appointment. Even if there was an appointment made by ordinary people, it would be reserved by the local tyrant for a large sum of money. Therefore, anyone who could bring out the roast duck from this hotel was not a simple person.

"Uncle Wei, details are very important," Rainer said with a smile as he took the box and placed it on the table. Then, he slowly opened the box and said, "Come, have a taste of the roasted duck from this restaurant. Of course, some people are not allowed to try it. I'm afraid they'll never be able to get their hands on this kind of things for the rest of their lives. After all, nouveau riche are upstarts."

Henry, who had been sitting there and had not spoken much, smiled and said, "Do you mean that we will never be able to afford this?"

"Ha," Rainer laughed disdainfully. "You know your ability. You should have some idea. Which right do you have to eat the roasted duck from Gold Rain Hotel?"

Rainer took out the sealed roasted duck from the gift box as he spoke.

Henry looked at Rainer's movements and said, "These roast ducks are clearly preserved, so they don't taste as good as one-tenth of the original. Even if you gave them to me, I wouldn't take a bite. If you want to eat the real duck, you'll have to eat the ones that are roasted on the spot."

Rainer burst out laughing when he heard that. "Roasted on the spot? How shameless you are?! You won't be able to taste the roasted duck that Gold Rain Hotel has roasted on spot in your next life!"

Henry shook his head and said, "I don't know what I can't eat in the next life, but I'm sure I can eat it in this life."

Hearing this, Kadrack shook his head regretfully. This girl surnamed Lin was not bad, stronger than most of the younger generation. But her husband was too arrogant. Even Kadrack himself did not dare to say that he would have the opportunity to eat the duck roasted in the Gold Rain Hotel. One should know that the duck from the Gold Rain Hotel was ordered a year in advance. There was only one each day. Generally, ordinary people would take it as a great gift. Only those who were at the peak of power would not hesitate to eat the roast duck on the spot.

Even if the Lins now claimed to have assets of 500 billion and was the nominal richest family in China, there was still a long way for them to go before reaching the peak of power!

Henry ignored what Rainer had said and took out his phone. He looked at the time and said, "Looks like it's about time. It's already dinnertime."

As soon as Henry's voice fell, the door of the private room was knocked again, and then a respectful voice came from the door.

"Is Mr. Henry Zhang in this room?"

"Come in." Henry interrupted Kadrack.

The door of the private room was pushed open from the outside. A man, dressed like a chef, stood at the door of the private room. Behind him, there was a team of more than a dozen people.

On the chest of the clothes of the head chef, there were three big words, "Gold Rain Hotel".

After the chef came in, he first bowed to Henry and Sylvia. Before he came, he had already seen Henry's photo. After bowing, he waved to the people behind him. The team of more than a dozen people pushed a grill and walked in.

Kadrick frowned, waved his hand, and called the waiter waiting at the door. "What's going on? I didn't order any other dishes, did I?"

The waiter replied respectfully, "Mr. Wei, this is the chef of Gold Rain Hotel and his team. The boss just called to tell us that the chef of Gold Rain Hotel will come to cook for a distinguished guest."

"Gold Rain Hotel's chef!" Kadrick was shocked when he heard this. Just now when he saw the words on the chef's chest, he already had this kind of speculation, but he couldn't believe it. After all, the roasted duck was rare to find. Since all the ducks were reserved a year earlier, how could a chef from Gold Rain Hotel personally come here?

According to the prestige of the hotel, the chef must be a proud and arrogant person.

Kadrick's thinking was right. The chef of Gold Rain Hotel was indeed a proud and arrogant person, but this time, he couldn't be arrogant because he knew that this time the guests were really important. Let alone himself, even his boss had to be polite and respectful to them.

Chapter 951

Sylvia looked at everything that was happening in front of her and looked at Henry in confusion.

Henry noticed the woman's gaze and explained, "The hotel is opened by Felix."

When Sylvia heard these words, she immediately understood.

Hearing the waiter's words, Rainer sneered and said, "You're just putting on an act!"

After saying that, Rainer waved his hand and shouted to the waiter, "What are you doing? Didn't you see us eating here? Get these people out!"

The waiter showed an embarrassed look.

"What? Didn't you hear what I said? Look at the faces of these people. Can they be from Gold Rain Hotel? Throw them out!" Rainer's eyebrows shot up as he spoke once more.

"I want to see who dares to do that!" A shout rang out from outside the private room.

Soon after, a woman in her 40s came in. This woman was dressed in luxurious clothes and had an extraordinary temperament. After entering the room, she said loudly, "I want to see who wants to drive my distinguished guests out!"

As soon as the woman appeared, Kadrack stood up and said with some surprise, "Elsie, you're back!"

"Oh, I thought who it was. It turns out that Mr. Wei is going to drive my guests out!" The woman named Elsie glared at Kadrack and said, "I, Elsie Gong, have been in the business circle of the capital for so many years. I have seen a lot of people who invited Gold Rain Hotel's chef to their restaurant. This is the first time that I have seen someone wanting to throw them out."

"Elsie, you misunderstood." Kadrick hurriedly explained. Kadrick looked like he was persuading his sweetheart not to be angry.

"I didn't get it wrong. This private room has always been reserved for you, Kadrick. Is it possible that you, Kadrick Wei, didn't say these words. Is it someone else who took over the place of the host?" Elsie's voice was full of anger, but after listening to it carefully, one could realize that the anger was not directed at Kadrick.

Kadrick subconsciously turned to look at Rainer.

How could Rainer not recognize this woman in front of him? Everyone who was at the top of the business community, were familiar with the people on top.

Rainer lowered his head and called her "Aunt Elsie" fearfully. This was because Rainer understood that the power behind this woman was completely above his own family. Even Kadrick's Wicket Company could not compare to this woman.

"Oh, it turns out to be the boy surnamed Sun. Well, Kadrick is still present here. Who gave you the right to kick them out? You don't know the etiquette!" Elsie taught him a lesson.

After hearing Elsie's words, Rainer did not dare to show even the slightest bit of anger. He lowered his head and did not say a word.

Elsie was about to speak when she heard Henry's voice beside her.

Henry completely ignored what happened nearby and said to the cook of Gold Rain Hotel, "Well, don't stand still. It's said that the roast duck from Gold Rain Hotel is famous, but I really haven't tasted it. Don't let me down."

"Definitely." The cook bowed deeply, and then ordered the team behind him to start preparing.

Elsie watched the actions of the chef with great interest and said, "I heard that there were thirty-one steps for roasting a duck. At that time, someone was willing to spend a lot of money to see this, but they were all rejected. When the roast ducks are on the shelves, they have to be baked at six different temperatures. This is the first time I have seen such a process. Today, I have been blessed by you, Boss Wei."

Kadrick smiled awkwardly. "That's because of these two young people." When Kadrick said this, he deliberately took a look at Henry. This time, there was more respect in his eyes.

Kadrick had never heard of anybody who was able to summon Gold Rain Hotel's chef and roast a duck on the spot.

Rainer stood there, feeling the burning on his face. He could neither leave nor stay. He originally wanted to show off with two roast ducks, but he did not expect that the Lins would call the chef directly! How was this possible?

Rainer clenched his fists tightly. They were just a nouveau riche, so how could they summon the main chef of the Gold Rain Hotel? His original plan had been completely ruined. This made Rainer feel extremely aggrieved.

"By the way, some people don't deserve to stay here, do they?" Henry suddenly said.

The moment Henry spoke, Elsie waved her hand and said, "Go, get Mr. Sun out."

Rainer's body shook and a sense of humiliation welled up in him.

Since the boss had already spoken, the waiter naturally knew what to do. He stood at the door of the private room and made a gesture of invitation. "Mr. Sun, please."

Rainer turned his head and looked at Elsie, only to discover that she had been staring in the direction of Gold Rain Hotel's chef. She did not even spare him a glance.

Rainer felt so embarrassed that he let go of his face. He stepped forward and said, "Aunt Elsie, you will regret it!"

Elsie did not care about Rainer's harsh words at all.

How many people in China could make Gold Rain Hotel be so polite to them? This was the first time that Elsie heard of it. Although Elsie did not know the identity of the young man in front of her, she was 100% sure that this man was someone Rainer could never provoke. The Sun Family from Du Hai would be the one to regret the most!

The chief cook led his team and prepared the roast duck in front of everyone in the private room.

Sylvia smiled slightly, "Mr. Wei, can we continue to talk about cooperation now?"

"Of course." This time, Kadrick nodded without hesitation.

Kadrick was very interested in the benefits that Sylvia could give to him. Previously, he was just worried about the 500 billion assets of the Lins Group. Was it real or just an act?

But now, Kadrick's worries had been completely dispelled. How could a fake company invite the chef from Gold Rain Hotel? This was not only a symbol of identity, but a status!

"What cooperation? I don't know if I have the honour and privilege to participate?" Elsie sat down beside Kadrick.

"Welcome," Sylvia replied with a smile.

Soon, the smell of roasted duck lingered in the room. Henry sat there and stared at the chef cooking. Regarding business negotiations, he said nothing.

As for Sylvia, she was proficient in cooperation with Kadrick and Elsie. At the same time, she stretched out her soft hand and grabbed Henry's big hand under the table.

Outside the hotel.

Rainer walked out with a look of humiliation on his face. He could even see the mocking look in the waiter's eyes earlier and could not hold back his anger.

Rainer took out his phone and dialed a number. "Now! Immediately! I want all of you to suppress the stocks of Lins Group with all your power, lock down all of their current funds and investment! I want to see how they are going to invest! F*ck!"

After Rainer finished speaking, he threw the phone on the ground angrily and stepped forward in exasperation. Only then did he feel much more comfortable.

Chapter 952

Without Rainer and seeing the Lin Family's interpersonal connections, Kadrick had a very pleasant discussion with Sylvia. He also quickly made sense of many things.

At the moment when the room was full of the aroma of roasted duck, the cooperation of the three families had been reached.

After enjoying a meal, Kadrick and Elsie personally sent Henry and Sylvia out of the hotel.

After saying goodbye to Kadrick and Elsie, Sylvia took the initiative to grab Henry's big hand. "Honey, you helped me this time."

Henry stretched out his right index finger and gently hung Sylvia's snub. "What do you mean? We are a family."

Sylvia smiled and did not say anything.

Henry also knew that Sylvia was a very stubborn person. She always wanted to do everything herself and didn't want to make Henry busy.

"Alright, honey, this was just a coincidence. I just happened to ask Felix to arrange for people to send some roasted duck from the Gold Rain Hotel. As a result, this matter happened. Let's go, we should go back."

Sylvia pursed her lips, knowing that her little thoughts would not escape the eyes of the man.

"Let's go back, honey." Henry grabbed Sylvia's soft hands and walked to the subway station not far away.

It was already eight o'clock in the evening when he returned to the hotel with Sylvia.

The capital city was still bustling and prosperous. But now there were only a few days left to celebrate the Spring Festival. The capital city was much less deserted than before.

As soon as Henry and Sylvia entered the hotel, the phone call came. It was Future.

"Boss, where are you? When will you come over?" A desperate voice came from the phone.

"Come over? What do you mean?" Henry answered the phone with a puzzled face.

"Of course you should come to help this idiot. His blind date brought three fake b*tches here. With just a glance, one can see whether the LV is real or not. There are all kinds of tricky problems. The idiot can't handle them. You know, he only knows how to make money. He came to this blind date like a fool. He didn't even know that he was almost trapped." Future spoke fast and she muttered a lot.

Henry was confused. "Fake b*tches? What do you mean?"

Sylvia covered her mouth and laughed. Future's voice was very loud, and she also heard it clearly. She laughed that her husband was too old. Like an old man, he didn't even know some buzz words on the internet.

"Anyway, you should come soon. I will send you the address and bring my sister-in-law here. By the way, let those girls see what a real goddess should look like! Otherwise, a group of third-tier players will consider themselves beauties!"

After finishing her words, Future hung up the phone in a hurry. At the same time, Henry received the location.

Henry smiled helplessly at Sylvia and said, "Let's go and see Wade's blind date."

"He went on a blind date? Why do I find this incredible?" Sylvia had a strange look on her face. The impression Wade gave her was absolutely a playboy.

Henry shrugged his shoulders and said, "That's what we all think."

The location sent by Future was not far from the place where Henry and Sylvia were now, just three subway stations away.

When Henry and Sylvia walked out of the subway station, they saw the Pioneer Hotel. This five-star hotel was very famous all over the country and its consumption rate was very high. The cheapest room was 3000 yuan per night.

The simplest dish was sold for 500 yuan.

"Hello, sir. Do you have a reservation?"

As soon as Henry and Sylvia walked to the door, a beauty came out to greet them and asked respectfully.

Henry said, "I'm looking for someone. It should be a room booked under the name Bai, about ten people."

The lady replied proficiently, "I'm sorry, sir. There isn't a room booked under that name. There is only one room for ten people booked by Mrs. Zhao."

Obviously, these ladies had long since remembered each guest who had reserved a private room and were able to answer their guest's question in the first place. This service was also an important point in places like this.

"Surnamed Zhao?" Henry thought for a moment. He seemed to remember that Wade mentioned today that his blind date was surnamed Zhao.

"Take me to have a look."

"Okay, this way please." The girl at the door made a gesture of "please" and then led the way.

Henry and Sylvia followed the girl and went to the elevator of the hotel. After the girl swiped the card, the elevator went straight to the top floor.

With a "ding", the elevator door was on the top floor. As far as the eye could see, there was a huge garden.

At this moment, the sky had already turned dark, but the garden was still bright. In this season, the flowers which had been specially cultivated were still blooming. Looking around, on the top floor of this hotel, one could see the night view of the capital.

"I'd like to ask, do people need to pay the fee in advance to eat in this garden?" Sylvia glanced around and asked.

The girl at the door nodded. "An early payment of ten thousand yuan for the venue is required."

Sylvia asked again, "Did that lady surnamed Zhao pay for the venue fee?"

The girl at the door shook her head and said, "It was paid by one gentleman."

Upon hearing this, Sylvia nodded her head and did not say anything.

In this garden, there was a large room made of half-transparent glass. From the outside, one could not see the scene inside, but sitting in the box, one could eat while enjoying the beautiful scenery outside the room.

When the lady led Henry and Sylvia to the door of the room, they clearly heard the voice coming out of the room.

"The last time we went to the sea, we suffered a loss. My husband gambled with several friends, and in the end, he lost a Ferrari."

"That's nothing. It's just a Ferrari. It's just worth more than four million. My husband wouldn't care about it. How can your husband care about it?"

"That's true. We're all in the same circle. We really don't care about a Ferrari. Remember that time? We went to Europe by my husband's private plane, and my husband even called the captain to drink together. It really scared me. Fortunately, his plane has the automatic driving function."

"Haha, you should get used to it. It was my first time to take a private plane and see the captain of the plane drinking and I was scared quite badly, but I'm used to it now."

It was obvious that they were just showing off.

"By the way, Mr. Wade, what do you do?"

"Me? I used to be a gangster and worked as a thug for others. I'm not doing it now. My boss gave me some money and I'm free most of the time." Wade's voice sounded.

Hearing Wade's voice, Henry rushed to the door and said, "We are here. Thank you."

"You're welcome." The lady made a bow and then left.

Chapter 953

Henry and Sylvia looked at each other and then walked toward the door of the private room.

When the door was opened, the first thing Henry saw was Wade White, who was sitting at the table. He was still wearing the same suit he had in the morning, and his hair was done slicked back, looking like Ko Chun from the God of Gamblers.

Although Wade was still handsome in this hairstyle, the image was quite outdated.

Sitting around the table with Wade were Red Hair, Felix, and Future. Another four women were sitting opposite them. They were all dressed fashionably and had the kind of face that was adored by the online community, namely larger than normal eyes, tall nose bridges, and slim and curvy bodies. They were definitely the type of people that could attract groping eyes.

However, Henry had seen numerous beautiful women in his past. Either Cesia or Sylvia, who was with Henry at the moment, would be much more beautiful than any of those women. There was also the princess of Antiquity Country, who followed Henry all the way to Yan Xia to show her love to him. After her photo was leaked to the internet, people had been calling her the fairy among the humans, praising her mythical beauty.

Henry glanced at the dishes on the table. There were a total of eight people, but there were more than twenty dishes, and each one of them was an exquisite delicacy. To most people, the price for the whole table would be jaw-dropping high.

The arrival of Henry and Sylvia immediately attracted everyone's attention, especially Future. There was joy in her eyes.

The four women just glanced at Henry and then focused on Sylvia.

It was perceivable that they had put a lot of effort into their outfits and makeup, but Sylvia was way more beautiful naturally. So even though she barely wore makeup, the look of the four women still was in no comparison with Sylvia's beauty.

The four women didn't want to accept their failure in how they look. They kept sizing Sylvia up, and when they thought that Sylvia's clothes and shoes were all offbrand, all of them breathed a sigh of relief. Complacency came back to their faces.

"Who are you? Who let you in? The waiters here are terrible!" One of them who bleached her hair blonde said to Henry and Sylvia discontentedly.

Henry could tell from the voice that she was the one that was talking about that her husband lost a Ferrari by sinking it to the bottom of the ocean.

Henry smiled slightly and said, "Are you the one paying for all of these?"

Hearing this, she suddenly lost her words. She gave one of her friends a look in searching of the answer.

The friend looked at Wade as if waiting for him to answer.

Wade quickly smiled and explained, "Miss Zhao, let me introduce. This is my boss, Henry. And this is his wife, Sylvia Lin. Henry, this is Terelyn Zhao. She is the one..."

At this point, Wade scratched his head in embarrassment.

"I know." Henry nodded and said. Terelyn was Wade's blind date.

Hearing Wade's introduction, Terelyn sized Sylvia and Henry up one more time and said in a disdainful tone, "I heard that you guys are used to work the street?"

"Uh." Henry did not fully agree with Wade's description of their former life, but he said reluctantly, "More or less."

"What did you do? Gang fights? Like Godfather?" Terelyn crossed her arms over her chest and crossed her legs.

"You could say that," Henry nodded. He led Sylvia to sit by the table.

A long-legged woman sitting beside Terelyn gave a disdainful smile, "Take a look at the calendar, still doing gang fights? What a children's play."

"That was all in the past. We were too young to know better." Wade said, "We don't do those things anymore."

"I bet you guys were a bunch of hillbillies pretending to be punks. It's not like people can change very much." A black-short-haired woman said. She was staring at Red Hair.

Red Hair acted as if the woman was not talking about him, still stuffing himself with food.

Henry smiled and did not speak. Sylvia was sitting on his left, and Future was sitting on his right.

He pulled Future's sleeve and whispered, "What's the background of this Terelyn?"

"Wide's dad dug her out," Future whispered, "and his dad also gave him that stupid hairstyle."

"Oh!" Henry showed a look of sudden enlightenment. Only Aaron Bai could make his son treat a woman so carefully. If Wade pissed his dad off, his good days would come to an end.

Henry passed Sylvia a pair of chopsticks and said, "Darling, try those dishes. They taste great."

"Mmm." Sylvia nodded. It was rare for Henry to praise the cooking of a restaurant. So, although Sylvia just had dinner, she would not want to miss the chance to taste their food. After all, Sylvia loved food. Every time she mentioned the delicacies made by Henry, she couldn't control swallowing saliva.

Terelyn snorted disdainfully and said in a low voice, "Act like he had tried this place before. Hillbilly!"

Henry had good hearing. So he could hear Terelyn no matter how low her voice could go. But Henry couldn't care less. He picked a piece of Dongpo Pork and put it on Sylvia's plate.

"Ah!" The long-legged woman let out a surprised voice.

"What's happened? Why are you so excited?" The short-haired woman asked strangely.

"Do you remember that the vice president of the Bliss Company is pursuing me? The one with thirty million dollars annual income." The long-legged woman deliberately talked louder over the thirty million dollars part.

"Thirty million dollars? Which one? How can I remember such a nobody?" The short-haired woman frowned and replied with an indifferent attitude.

"It's the one I met a couple of days ago, handsome, six feet tall. Ring a bell?" The long-legged woman tried to remind the other one.

The short-haired woman acted as if she remembered. She said, "Oh, I remember him. What's the matter?"

"The Porsche pictured I posted online? He asked me for my ID. I just gave it to him without thinking too much. It turns out he bought me a Porsche. What a warm-hearted guy!"

"I think he is too cheap," Terelyn said, "The Porsche you posted only cost around one point five million dollars. As a gift? What an interesting choice!"

"We've only known each other for a few days. I can't ask him for too much," the long-legged woman said.

"What's the matter with a few days? My husband gave me a Ferrari the day after he had met me. In the second week, he bought me a house at Slather Community in Du Hai Hai. He just gave you a Porsche? What does he think you are?" Terelyn looked disgusted. "Tell him to go and find somebody else."

The long-legged woman thought for a moment and said, "You are right."
