ALERT: PLEASE READ

There is a crossover in this book with other series. Starting from Chap. 26, you will want to read Desert Nightmare (starting at Chap. 35) simultaneously to understand the crossover until the crossover ends.

Blurb:

A year after the vampire attack at the Blue Lake pack, everything seemed to be at peace for Wyatt, Rylee, and the gang. The Gammas Jason and Milan are finally expecting their own duo of bouncing babies, Victor, Dianna, and all of the other newborns have settled in nicely. Kelsey, Lisa, and Natalie are in love with their new families and all of the castle's guards bond over the fact that they're now all dads.

Unfortunately, the serenity of a drama-free life doesn't last long for Blue Lake when 2 young, orphaned wolves stumble into the Blue Lake territory. They are malnourished and severely injured. Because of their young age, Blue Lake takes them in, but Rylee gets the sense that there is more to these girls than meets the eye.

The girls turn out to be twins named Lexie and Lanie, and they have a story to tell. When the truth comes out, what will the Blue Lake Alpha and Luna do? Will they throw these girls back out on the streets? Or will take them in and hopefully save them from what's to come?
