

The Miraculous Simone Gray by Opal Reese Chapter 431

Chapter 431 All Calculations in Vain

The marriage of Adam and Melinda was not legally binding. There was never a contract for the division of marital assets. After the divorce, Melinda had no right to claim any of the Foster Family's assets.

She couldn't help but commend her father. "Dad, you're the smart one here. She had already considered the Foster Family's assets as her own long ago. If she finds out about this, she might become furious."

When her mother scolded her before, she hinted at something. From now on, the Foster Family's wealth will belong to Skyler, which means Leon and I can forget about it. She even threatened that if Gwen dared to argue back, she wouldn't give her a single penny in the future.

At that moment, Gwen realized the extent of her mother's ambition. Not only did she betray the Foster Family, but she also aimed to take over the entire Foster Family's fortune. Her ambition was extraordinary. Unfortunately, she didn't have the power to match her ambition.

She didn't even know the Foster Family's wealth

was one of the marital assets that should be legally divided, let alone the Foster

Family's wealth. Her mother would definitely be left with nothing by her father. All calculations, in the end, turned out to be fate. And her mother's proudest achievement was manipulating her father, the aggressive CEO. But little did she know that it was all an illusion.

Her mother would be devastated and couldn't accept it either.

Experience counts, and Dad cleverly

Leon also realized that his dad was smarter compared to him.

Curiously, he asked, "Does Skyler know about this?"

Adam nodded. "Yes, he knows. We have a partnership."

Skyler was a smart person who knew how to make the best choice for himself. Although he wasn't his biological son, Adam still admired him.

After everything was settled, Skyler would voluntarily withdraw from Foster Group according to the agreement.

Gwen sneered at Leon. "You're the most naive one in the family, and only you don't know."

This guy seemed cold and aloof, but he doesn't have much cunning compared to Harold the trickster.

Even his own not-so-smart biological mother could easily manipulate him, showing how foolish he was.

It hurts, little sister.

Leon:

He was also struck by this realization. Not only was he the only fool in the family, but he was also the most oblivious. No wonder even Simone didn't want him anymore. He wanted to isolate himself and didn't want to stay here anymore. I'm tired and want to go back to my place to rest."

Adam did not console him. After going through all these things, his son would surely mature. He said, "Go. You and your sister should find a way in the next two days to publicly sever ties with your mother. Then i will break up with your mother."

O

1/3

He had to coax and instigate Melinda so cut off ties with her children. Then, he would strike Melinda. By the time she regretted it, it would be too late. Otherwise, if they broke up first, Melinda would definitely agree to sever ties with her children.

Lower nodded, "We will go find her today and confront her, provoking her to sever ties with us. Let her Issue a statement severing ties first, and then we will follow suit. Then, Dad, you give her a push, and it will be done. Afterwards, she will be disgraced and won't dare to trouble us siblings again. Even if she shamelessly comes, we won't pay any attention to her, and no one will dare to say anything. We won't fall for any gaslighting."

Adam looke at his daughter approvingly. "That's exactly what I was thinking."

He could entrust Foster Group to his daughter in the future, and he could rest assured.

As for Leon, a

eld just focus on being an actor and making movies.

Leon: Suda

He felt that only his sister was his father's biological child. What he he thought about before was to directly tell his biological mother about severing ties. Regardless of wheth his biological mother was willing or not, he didn't care.

But obviously, lus sister and father had thought more thoroughly. If his biological mother had issued the statement severing ties first, they would have been forced to reluctantly agree. They would have stood on the moral high ground, and this move was clever.

Ah, it seems that I should learn more from Dad and Gwen in the future.

When Leon left, Gwen also went with him. She even took Leon home to argue with their biological mother.

Foster Family's villa.

Melinda received the news that the warlock not only failed to deal with Simone successfully but now he had been taken away by people from a special department. She had to be careful herself, fearing that the other party would expose her.

Melinda hai already decided that if the other party tried to accuse her, she would never admit it. Although she was anoyed, she wasn't very afraid. After all, she had the support of the Foster Family behind her. With her husband's concern for her, he wouldn't just ignore her.

she was being closely watched by the special department, she would just have her husband find someone the blame for her. What annoyed her the most now was the face of that woman, Salma. She heard as heartless and transferred the curse to her own nephew, to ta

the

She despised Salma even more. A lady from a prestigious family who doesn't pay attention to her actions, he couldn't do such a crazy thing as harming her own nephew.

And that girl Simone. She escaped again. The warlock's useless.

She was sitting in the living room, lost in thought, when Leon and Gwen walked in together. Seeing the two of them, she felt even more annoyed. With an irritated expression on her face, she asked, "What are you back for?"

2/3

Gwen deliberately looked angry and said. "Of course, we're back to settle the score with you. Not only did you bribe the warlock to burn Simone, but you also didn't spare us siblings. Are you really our mother? Do you wish for us to die soon? So that Skyler can take over the family's property?"

upon hearing this, Melinda felt a little guilty. She knew that these two children were always with Simone, and was angry at the time. These two siblings were always against her, and even though they knew she disliked Simone, they still hung out with her

At that time, her thoughts were focused on dealing with Simone, and she didn't really think about the safety of her children. But she was their mother, and it was not Gwen's place to question her. She glared at Gwen and said “What nonsense are you talking about? There’s no such thing.” She would never admit it. not even in front of her two children.

Gwen sneend “Stop pretending. That warlock completely exposed you. He even claimed that y didn’t care about our lives and wanted to kill us along with Simone.”

Melinda furrie either, “Both)

Besides, the brow. She had never said such a thing. Was that person insane? But she didn’t care came back safe and sound, so why are you angrily accusing your own other?”

assets will belong to me and my eldest son in the future.

What do you mean by taking over? Her daughter’s words were too harsh.

111

3/3.

Chapter 432 Playing A Cunning Trick

Gwen anticipated her mother’s reaction and said angrily. “We’re fine because Simone saved us. Otherwise, we wouldn’t be standing here. You’re so evil you won’t even spare your own children. How dare a witch like ou call yourself our mother? I would rather not have been born so I wouldn’t have a disgusting and cruel other to you.”

Melinda didn’t appreciate hearing these words. “You dare to oppose your own mother? Is this the attitude a child should have? I would rather not have given birth to you, either. I don’t want a troublesome daughter like you.”

Gwen’s eyes turned red “Fine, if that’s the case, let’s sever our relationship.”

Melinda frowned. I told you that nothing good would come from associating with Simone learning all these things he didn't really care about this daughter, but severing their relations p would be bad

canbarrassi

Huid become a laughingstock in their circle because of Simone.

Gwen saceres

you reluctant or just afraid? If you're afraid to sever our relationship then forget what I said. But since you let the warlock harm Simone and us, I can only spread the word. I let the wealthy wives in our circle see how cruel you can be. Since you don't even spare your own children, let's see w! will dare to associate with someone like you in the future. She knew exactly where to hit her mother.

Melinda was so angry that she fell back. "You wicked girl. You think I'll be scared or reluctant?" She then looked at Leon, who had a gloomy expression. "Look at your sister. Isn't she outrageous?" Her intention was for her son to stand up and teach her daughter a lesson. And incidentally, to brush aside the idea of severing their relationship.

But Leon, with a cold face, said, "Gwen says what's on my mind, Mom; I never expected that our lives would mean nothing to you. If that's the case, there's no point in maintaining this relationship. Let's just sever it."

Melinda couldn't believe what she was hearing from Leon. "What did you say?" Leon was the one who desired her motherly love the most, and she had always believed that he cared deeply for her.

Even though he had been rebellious recently, she still thought that he cherished her in his heart. But now this ungrateful child wanted to sever their relationship. How is this possible? Is he crazy?

Leon, for the first time, forcefully said to his birth mother, I'm telling you, I want to sever ties with you. That was the last time I called you 'Mom.'

The words hurt Melinda deeply. "You ungrateful child, how dare you say such things?" She cared more about this son than her daughter.

I took a deep breath. "Melinda, are you willing to sever ties with us? If you're not, I will take the initiative to post this on Facebook. You know I have millions of fans, and they will definitely ask me why. And I will have to tell them about what you did to Salma, to Simone, and to us."

Te decided to be a good student and follow his sister's lead.

Sure enough, Melinda's face turned red with anger. How dare they threaten their mother? These children are ingrates. If this were to be revealed, she would never thrive in upper society anymore. She would definitely be cursed by these despicable fans.

0

1/3

Do you really think I won't dare? You despicable children, just wait and see. Although Melinda was almost losing her sanity from anger, she still couldn't make the decision to truly sever ties. She took out her phone and called her husband,

Adim answered quickly. As soon as the call connected, he heard Melinda's exaggerated crying and pleading. He suppressed his disgust and comforted her. Then, he became even angrier than her and scolded the two ungrateful children. He also gave Melinda advice, suggesting that she take the initiative to sever ties so she could gain the upper hand and stake in. It was because of their unfilial behavior that she was so angry and wanted to sever ties. She could also say that as long as the children apologized, she wouldn't pursue the matter further. He wanted her to let everyone know that she was angered by the two of them and that they were in the wrong.

In reality, his main goal was to threaten these two unfilial children. Otherwise, based on their personalities, they would definitely be unyielding. Listening to her husband being even angrier himself and warning that he would kick the two ungrateful children out of the Foster Family, Melinda felt much better s right. The two ingrates were determined to sever ties with her. Even if she didn't take the initiative they would. They would also tarnish her reputation. So, it was better for her to take control.

And her husband

After hanging up the phone with her husband, she said to the two of them, "If you want to sever ties, I can grant your wish. But I will have to make this public, and you cannot slander me. Don't tell anyone about the warlock stuff. Otherwise, I will never agree to sever ties with you."

This matter had to be agreed upon in advance.

Gwen and Leon pretended to hesitate for a moment but finally gritted their teeth and agreed, "Alright, we'll go with your plan."

Gwen emphasized, "From now on, if you need anything, don't come looking for us. After all, we are the children who were abandoned by you and have nothing to do with you."

They promised not to reveal the truth themselves, but if someone else exposed it, it wouldn't be their responsibility.

Melinda didn't care and said, "You two are so unfilial. Do I need you when I have something to do? Besides, I have a husband, a filial eldest son, and caring relatives. Do I need to rely on you?" Both of them have entered the entertainment industry, and even if I need their help, they won't be of much use. As for the matter with the Stewards, Leon, this useless son, only made things worse.

With her husband with her, she couldn't care less about Gwen or Leon.

She could clearly see what her birth mother was thinking.

She was looking forward to seeing her birth mother's reaction when she was attacked by her father. She emphasized meaningfully. "This is what you said; I hope you keep your promise and don't regret it."

Melinda sneered, "This is exactly what I said. And when the time comes, you two better not regret it either."

If they insisted on severing ties with her, they shouldn't complain when her husband kicked them out.

2/3

They shouldn't expect to receive a single penny from the Foster Family's assets in the future.

Leon saw his birth mother's reaction and found it laughable, "We won't regret it. Take care of yourself." After saying that, he no longer wanted to look at her and called Gwen to leave.

tel, they hadn't been living here.

Melinda felt a sense of panic as she watched theurloor as if something was slipping out of her control. Her son was no longer under her influence, and she was afraid her husband wouldn't be either in the future. So, she recently decided to be more attentive to her husband, ensuring that she kept him firmly her grasp

On the othe hand, Gwen's father took the initiative to contact Simone. He told her she could wait for a couple of days before dealing with Melinda. Once the three of them severed ties, Simone wild make her inove.

The Gray Fa

Melinda. And

the Jenner Family would also exert pressure on the special departo nt to arrest ild deliver the biggest blow to Melinda at the most critical moment

Simone not only didn't oppose Gwen's father's plan but also supported it. At the same time, she praised Gwen's father. This strategy to cut off the enemy's source of strength was brilliant and well done!

3/3

Chapter 433 He Can't Handle It

The next day.

Instead of posting on Facebook, Melinda decided to post on her Twitter. She wrote that Leon and Gwen had angered her and even tried to use their family relationship to threaten her. She couldn't tolerate such behavior from her children, so she decided to cut off all ties with them. She added in parentheses that if the two of them realized their mistakes and sincerely apologized to her, she might reluctantly forgive them.

This post quickly spread among the elite social circles. No one expected that Melinda would voluntarily cut off ties with her own children. Such a move was unprecedented. People began speculating about what Leon and Gwen had done to make their mother say such things.

1

Of course, everyone knew Melinda better and secretly suspected that this woman must have done something wicked again.

Her remark seemed like an attempt to force her children to come and apologize to her. When Gwen responded to her mother's post on Twitter, she not only didn't apologize, but she also led the post.

She left a comment saying, "Thank you, Melinda, for making it clear. From now on, we are no longer mother and daughter but strangers." She then took a screenshot of her mother's post and shared it on her own Twitter, announcing the same severing of ties.

Leon followed his sister's lead and also took a screenshot of his mother's post, sharing it on his Twitter to announce the end of their relationship. As a top-tier film actor, Leon's recent reputation had suffered due to his performance on a variety show and his involvement with Simone.

However, he still had a large fan base, and he remained a key focus for paparazzi and the entertainment industry. As soon as this post appeared on Twitter, it caused a sensation. The paparazzi immediately jumped into action, publishing news about Leon and Melinda cutting off ties. They even provided various “evidence” to prove when the mother and son had started to have conflicts and why they had decided to sever their relationship.

Not only did they bring Gwen into the spotlight, but they also dragged Simone into the mess. So people speculated that Leon had cut off ties with his biological mother because of Simone. As a result, the controversy surrounding this incident continued to grow.

When Melinda saw that her two children not only didn't apologize but also quickly followed up with their own posts, severing ties, she was furious. She had recently run out of money and had refrained from asking her husband for more after he had denied her request to hire a warlock.

Instead, she had her assistant pawn a set of her jewelry. With the money she received, she instructed her assistant to create sock puppets and spread rumors.

Leon claimed that Leon and Gwen were disrespectful and constantly mistreated their mother.

They said the siblings even threatened her, and they had numerous arguments with her over Simone, which ultimately made her decide that she didn't want these children anymore.

Many fans who like to judge others immediately jumped out when they heard the news. They mocked Leon and Gwen excessively, saying that they should apologize to Melinda.

They said Leon, the unethical actor, had also shown a bad example.

1/3

They said he didn't deserve to stay in the entertainment industry anymore. They wanted him to get out,

The sock puppets hired by Melinda even dragged Simone into the insults.

They claimed that she instigated the quarrel between the Foster siblings and their biological mother.

Warlock has been paying attention to this matter.

So, when the narrative was going in the wrong way derided to investigate. Sure enough, she found evidence that Melinda hired people to open up sock puppet accounts. She then took screenshots of the evidence and sent them to Gwen. Gwen laughed in anger and forwarded the evidence to Leon.

Take a look. This is your beloved mother, Gwen said sarcastically.

Leon saw his sister's mockery and the evidence, and he also found it ironic.

Do we need is evidence online? His biological mother persisted, provoking him further

Gwen replied

even know he

get. We'll post it when the time is right. How did you become a movie? Don't you use reversals to counterattack?"

Leon asked. may be a movie star, but isn't the company responsible for managing these things?"

Gwen responded, Alright, you win. Gwen admitted defeat.

"When the time comes to post it, let me know, and I'll share it, Leon offered.

'Okay!' It was evident that this time, Melinda had truly hurt him, or else he wouldn't have reacted this

The news of Leon cutting ties with his biological mother quickly became a hot topic and dominated the headlines. For the past two days, all the attention has been focused on this matter. Leon and Gwen were also criticized and made it to the trending topics.

Instead of clarifying the situation, they remained silent, deliberately keeping the hype going. Of course, there were also rational people who believed that things couldn't be so simple and that there may be hidden motives:

The Gray Family. Steven watched the video from that day and became furious. Melinda actually hired a warlock to harm his children.

It was a punch to the gut. Does she think the Gray Family is easy to mess with?
Het

and a approached Adam

him they should stop working together. The Gray Family would not let Melinda off the hook. If da had protected lic, then the two families would have become enemies.

ha he allowed his children to have freedom, when it came to their safe uld rather lose Foster Group as a business partner than not seek revenge en privately and revealed the hidden secrets to him.

Seven had his limits. So, Alam arranged to meet

There was no other way. Adam didn't want to create more enemies like the ray Family because of Melinda's foolish actions. Moreover, when dealing with the person behind the scenes, it was best to unite.

As for the matter of being betrayed and cheated on by his wife, although Adam felt embarrassed, he was open enough to talk about it. After all, this kind of thing couldn't be hidden for long. Steven was shocked and surprised when he learned the truth.

9/3

He admired Adant's patience, it would be difficult for him to do the same. No wonder this guy was able to fight is way up the Foster Family and become their leader. He also felt sorry for Adam; it was really unlucky for him. to end up with such a woman.

course, he also thought that they should quickly join forces to fight the person behind this. Otherwise, ey world be manipulated by the other side. By always giving in, the other side would only see them as ushovs and keep squeezing them.

So, the two of them joined forces with Harold and formed an alliance to deal with the people behind them. They also agreed to let Simone take the lead and follow her instructions. Next, it was Simone's turn to make an appearance.

She instructed the Gray Family and Harold to continue exerting pressure on the special department. Zac understood her intentions and immediately went to complain to his grandfather and parents.

His beloved contacted in meeting, den

had nearly been killed, which greatly angered Zac's grandfather. He personally of the special department. The minister reprimanded the department during a immediate action on the matter. Otherwise, no one would have an easy time.

This also forced the other vice minister to concede. He wanted to just keep the warlock around and not deal with it, but he had to relent in the end. If he persisted, his position as vice minister would likely be jeopardized. He could only criticize the warlock for being so foolish.

How could he dare to harm old man Turner's cherished grandson? He must have a mind full of nonsense.

Now that old man Turner had personally intervened, along with the pressure from the Gray Family and Jenner Family, he couldn't resist at all.

3/3

Chapter 434 The Appearance of the Awaited Person

Next, the special department interrogated the warlock. The warlock had initially been motivated by money but ended up being manipulated. As a result, he confessed everything. Not only did he betray Melinda, but he also exaggerated the situation, falsely implicating her in a plot against the Gray brothers

This matter involved Old Mr. Turner's grandson, a popular star, and several scions of a wealthy family. There was also a warlock from the country of Wocron, so it couldn't be taken lightly. Of course, they couldn't solely rely on the warlock's confession; they needed evidence to make arrests, especially since this warlock was from another country.

So, the special department was busy conducting investigations, and Deputy Minister Solomon secretly leaked the information

The individual impossible

the warlock. I

With the scenes instructed him not to help cover up for Melinda, mainly don't deceive, what Melinda did was too obvious, and there were records of the investigation had to be delayed as much as possible.

cause it was linking her to

It would be best to find an opportunity to apprehend the warlock and frame Simone. Only then could they compel the great warlock from the country of Wocron to confront Simone personally. Perhaps they could also take advantage of the chaos and lessen Melinda's culpability. Simultaneously, they could bring down Deputy Minister Solomon's opponent,

Although Deputy Minister Solomon found this task challenging, he did not refuse, nor did he dare to contemplate how to find an opportunity to make the warlock "accidentally" die while in custody and also make Joseph and Simone take the blame.

Joseph had been keeping a close eye on him, so he was aware of Deputy Minister Solomon's covert actions.

Hospital. Ever since Simone discovered that the little snake not only enjoyed eating poisonous insects but also absorbed negative energy, she brought the little snake to the hospital and placed it in Skyl and Sean's ward.

The negative energy in their bodies had already dissipated significantly. It originally required seven or eight days. However, with the presence of the little snake, the time could be halved or more. Simone didn't inform anyone about the little snake.

So, every day, she would use the excuse of visiting Skyler and the others to see the little snake. And she would bring a small piece of spiritual stone for it. After Simone fed the little snake, it crawled into Skyler's laret.

Jeph knocked on the door and entered. Observing the two individuals on the bed, he noticed that their condition was improving every day. "Simone, thank you so much, Joseph expressed his gratitude.

Simone smiled and replied, "You're welcome." She inquired, "What about the warlock? How is the investigation progressing?"

Joseph whispered, "I came here to discuss this with you. I've noticed that Deputy Minister Solomon and his associates are dragging their feet in the investigation. They seem to be lingering around the warlock's location, and I'm not sure what they're up to. I sense something suspicious."

Simone immediately understood the intentions of those individuals. "They most likely want to seize the opportunity to kill the warlock and then blame us." That person hadn't given up yet and wanted to set the Treat warlock against her.

O

1/3

Joseph asked with concern, "Should we try to expedite the investigation?"

Simone replied, "No need, let them prolong it. It's a perfect opportunity to lure them. But we must protect the warlock; we can't let him be killed for real. But you can pretend to be one of Deputy Minister Solomon's associates and subtly hint that you want to eliminate him. Find an opportunity to make him contact the outside world."

She intentionally terminated the conversation with the warlock in the previous video. Therefore, the individuals behind the scenes shouldn't be aware that she had already told the warlock the truth. Now, she needed to allow the warlock to contact his master and inform him about their scheme. She knew the people behind this would try to frame her as the killer, so she would give them a taste of their own medicine.

Joseph speci instructions.

Simone already had a plan. He nodded and said, "Okay, I will follow yo ensure the warlock's safety."

Simone knew that Joseph had many tricks up his sleeve, but she wanted to be extra cautio. She handed him a jade pendant and said, 'Give this to the warlock. Tell him to be careful and protect himself.'

Protecting this person's life is crucial in this game, so Simone didn't hesitate to give him a protective talisman. Given the cunning and viciousness of the person behind the scenes, the warlock would definitely need this jade pendant. At the same time, it would demonstrate that she was on his side while their "old friend" wanted to kill him. The more the warlock despised the person behind the scenes, the fiercer their confrontation would be.

"Sure!" Joseph also understood the importance of the warlock and accepted the jade pendant cautiously. The two of them discussed their next moves.

Suddenly, Simone's phone rang. She took it out and saw that it was Nicholas.

"Hello, Uncle. Has the person we were waiting for arrived?"

Nicholas replied. "Yes, you have great insight. Salma contacted me today and mentioned that she found a highly skilled geomancy master to assist Elbert."

"Did she reveal the person's identity?" Simone asked.

Nichas said, "I inquired, but she was very secretive about it, implying that the person is extraordinary. Simone, what should we do? Should we meet the master this afternoon?"

said, "Of course, we should meet him and also confirm his identity. If he is going to remove the Eure for Elbert, you should ask him what he wants in return. He must be seeking something from the Johnston Family. So, he should be straightforward about his desired compensation. Don't agree immediately. If you don't have it at home, say that we will find it. If you have it, say that you need to onsider it."

Nicholas trusted Simone more than his own sister. “Alright, I’ll follow your lead. By the way, should we install a surveillance camera in the room so that you can observe what happens this afternoon?”

Simone said, “No need; that person will undoubtedly be cautious. Let’s not spoil things by being too clever. Just stick to the plan we discussed earlier and avoid any suspicious behavior.”

E

2/8

her party bes Hur Eben

Tari. Th

your decision, then the

that you want to hear my bases of meet the ođun perana

need f

the person bel

needed that item from the Johnstons

compericnded and replied, “Okay”

Chapter 435 Can’t Sit Still

After ending the call, Simone contemplated staying at the hospital. She also asked Joseph to come over in the afternoon. As the deputy minister of a special department, Joseph must have encountered high- ranking members and influential masters of the geomancy association. Simone intended to seek Joseph’s istau la identifying someone.

Installing surveillance cameras in the hospital room would undoubtedly be discovered. However, the cameras in the corridor could be utilized. While Joseph attended to some matters, Simone accessed the surveillance camera feed Elbert's room through her computer.

In the afternoon, Joseph returned to the hospital after one o'clock. Around two o'clock, Simone observed several individuals appearing on the surveillance camera displayed on her computer screen. Salm was accompanying a frail elderly man, followed by three geomancy masters. Simone paused the video and inquired of her "Deputy Minister Presgrave, do you recognize the old man in the video?"

Joseph leaned president of or a look, appearing surprised as he replied, "I do. He is Master Lewis Longhand, the geomancy association."

Simone was taken aback and exclaimed. "He is the president of the geomancy association"

Joseph nodded and affirmed, "Yes, I am certain." Given their special department's frequent collaboration with the geomancy association, Joseph had encountered the president on several occasions.

Simone pondered for a moment and asked. "Has he changed in any way since his seclusion?"

Joseph leaned in and carefully observed, "He appears much thinner, and his hair has turned even whiter. He looks considerably older."

The changes in the other party were quite evident, catching his attention immediately.

Simone gazed at the video screen, lost in thought. According to Joseph's account, Mr. Lewis seemed to be in a similar state as someone who had suffered a backlash.

Joseph noticed Simone's profound expression and couldn't help but inquire, "Simone, could there be something wrong with him?"

Simone contemplated for a moment and replied, "It is not certain yet. I will have to personally interact with him to find out. However, I have a strong feeling that he is highly likely to be the person behind the we're searching for."

scer

Joseph's expression changed slightly. "If it is indeed him, then it is truly troublesome.

At all, the individual in question was the president of the geomancy association, holding a prominent position and reputation in the mystical arts world. His strength belonged to the top tier.

Simone looked at Joseph and asked with a smile, "If it truly is him, what will you do? Will you take action?"

he wanted to gauge the stance of the high-ranking members of the special department.

Joseph responded without hesitation. "Of course, we will take action. No matter who it is, as long as they have committed a crime, they must face legal consequences."

If they were to base their decision on background and strength alone, then what would be the purpose of the special department?

1/3

Simone half-jokingly remarked, "He is very powerful. Aren't you afraid of causing trouble?"

Joseph truthfully replied, "No matter how formidable he may be, can he withstand firearms? Even if day weapons would be ineffective against him, if necessary, we can apply for and utilize highly lethal special weapons."

party could

This was also the most effective means of suppressing powerful warlocks. Otherwise, the other easily cause trouble using geomancy mystical arts at any given moment. Since most members of their special department were not geomancy masters, how would they handle such situations? Naturally, they relied on high-tech methods and weapons.

However, the use of those special weapons was only permitted in special emergencies.

Joseph's w practitioners

ed with Simone's speculation. Indeed, it was an effective approach to supp ancy and mystical arts.

With Simone-tent strength of Divine State, she could easily evade ordinary guns and allery. She was essentially invincible. However, highly lethal special weapons would pose a threat to her as well.

After di, this was not the world of divine cultivation. The Divine State merely granted her superiority over ordinary individuals, providing her with more methods to employ. However, it did not mean that she could fly in the sky or move mountains and seas. She remained a mortal body, susceptible to weapons just like anyone else.

Simone nodded, "As long as you maintain a steadfast attitude."

At that moment, she felt a stir in her heart. She noticed a small snake poking its head out from Skyler's blanket, its eyes filled with contentment. Without Joseph's notice, it leaped onto Sean's bed and crawled under the blanket.

Since there was no surveillance in this room, the object served as nothing more than a decoration powerful geomancy masters. A slight interference of negative energy could disrupt and destroy it. Therefore, several members of the special department took turns guarding the room, allowing Simone to feel at ease as she allowed the little snake to absorb negative energy.

Simon approached and carefully observed, confirming that the negative energy on Skyler's body had compitely vanished. It was all thanks to the small creature. She then reached out and pressed a few acupits on Skyler's body, infusing strands of vital energy into them.

On seeing her actions, Joseph was startled and asked, "What happened to Skyler? Is something wrong?"

She replied, "The negative energy in his body has been expelled, and I am using this method to facilitate his awakening as soon as possible."

Joseph rejoiced, "That's wonderful."

After approximately ten minutes, Skyler slowly opened his eyes, fully awake. Joseph once again marveled at Simone's strength and skill, which likely rivaled those of the top masters in the geomancy association.

Simone approached and waved at Skyler, "Skyler, are you alright?"

Skyler's previously unfocused eyes gradually regained clarity. He looked at Simone with a hint of surprise and asked, "Am I... am I still alive?" He believed he was already dead.

2/3

Simone affirmed, "Yes, you are still alive. But you were on the brink of death."

Skyler weakly remarked, "You saved me, didn't you?" Simone nodded, "Yes. However, if the person behind of still intends to use you, you may not die anyway."

Skyler forced a smile, "He probably doesn't want to keep me alive."

Joseph approached and inquired curiously, "What happened to you guys at the geomancy association? Why did you suffer such a fate?"

discovered.

Skyler knew Joseph could handle it, so he truthfully explained, "Because we discovered a very important clue. We discovered a cushion in the residence of the president of the geomancy association. I was feeling that the cushion had been touched, so I discreetly took a piece of it for analysis. I found that it was indeed the talisman on Jane's fingernail. However, it is likely that our actions were Ceros, the person we had captured suddenly became agitated and attacked, but just as we were about to retaliate, everything went dark. I sense negative energy surrounding our car, and then I lost consciousness. I don't know what happened.

On our way

were preparing that.”

and us. We strong ended after

Simone looked at Skyler and asked, ‘Did you only find the issue with the cushion?’ It seemed like there was more to it.

Skyler pursed his lips and said, ‘I also noticed that Mr. Lewis’s profile bears some resemblance to Jodic. As I stared at him, he suddenly turned his head and gave me a cold gaze. I also felt a strange familiarity when I was near him.’

‘So, I suspect that he might be the mastermind behind all of this.’

Apart from the sense of familiarity, he didn't know why, but he genuinely disliked and resisted the other person. Perhaps it was because of these moments that made him sensitive to his own unusual emotions. That was why they were targeted.

However, it seemed that this person could only rely on other powers to eliminate them and couldn't do it personally. That was why they weren't immediately killed. If it weren't for Simone's intervention, Skyler and Sean would probably have lost their lives.

Upon hearing Skyler's words, Simone also understood why Lewis personally removed the curse for Elbert. He was getting restless.

3/3

Chapter 436 He Also Experienced It Today

Simone glanced at Skyler. "Have you noticed anything strange about his behavior towards you?"

Skyler pondered for a moment and replied, "I'm not sure if it's just my imagination. It was when he caught Le staring at him. I always feel like his gaze towards me is complicated. It's as if he's looking at defective goods, wanting to destroy them but hesitating out of a feeling at that moment."

Simone remarked, "It's probably not just your imagination. He must have realized that you saw something when you were staring at him. When you were unconscious earlier, I also suspected that he might be behind it.

She explained the incident of breaking the curse, "So I think he might be feeling impatient for some reason. That's why he took the initiative to show up, even if it means exposing himself."

Skyler.com

came out of life force was for a moment and said, "When we saw him before, it was mentioned that n. And the instruments we carry with us indicated that his aura was chaotic. He asked, "Could it be because of this that he couldn't stay still?"

had just and his

Simone recalled how that person had experienced several backlashes in a row, causing his lifespan to decrease. Perhaps he doesn't have much time left, so he couldn't wait any longer? She nodded. "That's very likely. Let's wait for feedback from the Johnston Family."

Skyler and Joseph nodded. "Okay." The other party's identity was too special, so they needed to confirm it again before reporting.

The three of them sat down, analyzing and watching the surveillance footage on the computer. However, there was no activity captured in the surveillance video. After about half an hour, Simone's phone rang.

She took it out and saw that it was indeed Nicholas.

She answered. "Uncle, is there something you need?!"

Nicholas knew that she was pretending not to know. He said, "Simone, Salma has invited the president of the geomancy association to come and take a look at Elbert. She said he could break the curse. But we don't really understand it, so we wanted to ask you to come and help take a look. Do you have time to come to the hospital now?"

Simo replied, "I have time; I'll come right away. It would be strange if she wasn't proactive about this kind thing. After ending the call, Simone said to Skyler, "You rest well; we'll take care of the rest."

Skyler nodded. "Okay. Although that person's aura is chaotic, I feel that he is very strong, extremely strong. I've a feeling like an ant in front of a giant as if he could easily scare me to death at any moment. So be

Since birth, he had possessed a sixth sense that surpassed normal people. And it had always been accurate.

Simone smiled and said, "Thanks for the reminder. I will be cautious. That old individual must be very powerful; otherwise, he wouldn't have set up so many traps. Actually, even if it was not the old individual, it was quite simple for her to kill someone now. But if they dared to do so, they would be punished by the heavens.

So, ever after achieving the Divine State, it was not a free pass to do whatever one wanted. This was also one of the reasons why the old individual could not kill Skyler and Simone directly. The hospital where Hiter was staying was not far from here, and Simone drove there herself. On the way, her phone rang again. Simone answered the call using Bluetooth.

III

1/3

Sven's voice came through the phone, "Simone, I have something to tell you. Is it convenient to talk

Simone replied, "Go ahead, I'm listening."

Steven said, "I have almost finished investigating the matter you asked me to look into. Every few decades or so, there are indeed prosperous and wealthy families whose members become very unlucky. The family head also frequently makes mistakes, leading to the complete decline of the family. I could only find information from the past hundred years, and there are about a dozen such families. They are located in different regions, all of which initially had good fortune and have been passed down for at least several generations. Because the rise and fall of these families is normal, no one noticed anything wrong or made any comment GE

Steven pause

daughters, or

continued. "I also found that these families have all had cases of fake heiresses, adopted family head having a love affair. Should I send you all the information I found for you to look at? It's quite shocking. The information he found left him feeling both shocked and concerned. If they hadn't investigated carefully, who would have thought that the decline of these wealthy families was actually manipulated by someone?"

He was even more frightened. If it weren't for Simone's discovery and exposure of the problem with Jodie and the geomancy master worshiped by the Gray Family, their family would most likely follow in the footsteps of these families.

All of his so sons would have their fortune drained and suffer consecutive misfortunes. In the end, he would also lose his mind and take measures to bankrupt and close down the Gray Group.

Simone was not surprised by this result, "Okay, send it to my email." That old monster seems to have survived until now by absorbing fortune. She asked, "By the way, do you know that your wife invited the president of the geomancy association to remove the curse for Elbert?"

Steven was taken aback and replied, "I didn't know about this. When did she even meet the president of the geomancy association? It must have been Jodie's doing." If his wife knew the president, she would have resorted to transferring the curse.

Simone said, "Yes, it was Jodie's idea. That president is probably Gwen's and Jodie's biological father."

So you should contact Mr. Foster and tell him to be cautious," after thinking for a moment, she decided to remind Steven.

Steven was shocked, "The president is the mastermind behind this? But now that I think about it, he does have the capability. I heard that this president has been in office for over a hundred years, which matches the timeline. No wonder he's over a hundred years old and still so energetic. Turns out he specializes in absorbing others' luck to prolong his lifespan."

Simone said, "He's not just over a hundred. He's at least over two hundred."

Steven was shocked once again, "He's that old?" No wonder he's so capable of causing trouble. "We can't be completely sure it's him yet. I'll go to the hospital and check."

2/3

Chapter 437 Simone's Arrogance!

Simone arrived at the hospital parking lot. Upon opening her mailbox, she quickly glanced at what Steven had sent. She discovered that the decline of these families was not only due to the reasons mentioned by Steven: there were also some details related to the geomancy association. She had a feeling that there was more to it if she hadn't grasped something crucial yet. She needed to go back and study it carefully. After closing the files, she went straight to Elbens

She knocked on the door, and Karah opened it. She smiled and pulled Simone in, saying, "Simone is here; come in quickly"

Then, when no one was paying attention, she quickly wrote the word 'stone' on Simone's arm with her fingers.

Simone unconsciously nodded, saying with a smile. "Okay, auntie."

Upon entering grandfather om, not only was the main house of the Johnston Family present, but a the undmother. And then there were Salma and others.

Nicholas smiled and said, "Mr. Lewis, this is the master, Simone, that I invited.
She was the one who discovered the worms on my son. As for how to deal with the worms on my son next, please discuss it with her.

In other words, they all listened to Simone.

This surprised both Mr. Lewis and Salma

Salma looked at Nicholas and said, "Nicholas, this is a matter concerning your family. Why do you have to listen to Simone?" Simone can't even find a way to remove the worms from your son. I even invited the president of the geomancy association, but the family still doesn't welcome me. I can't understand why they insist on having Simone come over. It feels like the family is intentionally humiliating me.

Nicholas

said, "We only trust Simone now." He frowned and looked at his sister, emphasizing, "Youn't understand anything, so don't get involved."

Salma choked. "I know you blame me for what I did before but haven't I been trying to make up for it? Mr. Lewis was invited by me."

Nichlas said coldly, "If it weren't for you, how could Elbert have been infected with the worms? Now you acting as if you've done us a great favor. He now realized that his sister was to unreliable. If she a come to the hospital to visit and shown a proper attitude of admitting her mistakes after something happened, even if they severed ties, he wouldn't have felt so disappointed. But she didn't; she didn't make ingle phone call or come to visit.

Until today, when she managed to invite Mr. Lewis over, she carried herself as if she had done them at great favor, which was ridiculous and made him feel an unprecedented annoyance towards his sister.

Alma's expression turned slightly ugly. Her brother was really going too far by saying such things in front of so many people.

Lewis' eyes twinkled. He looked at Simone with a gentle and kind smile. "I have heard of Master Gray's name for a long time, and today, I can see that she is indeed extraordinary." He was somewhat shocked that he couldn't see through Simone.

1/3

Could it be that she had already achieved the Divine State? But at her age, it is simply impossible! No, it couldn't be.

Simone also looked at the president and noticed that his aura was not in disarray, indicating that he had used some method to recover. However, his physiognomy said he would live a short life.

Though his physiognomy was somewhat blurry, she could still see something-

The aura on the old man's body was similar to the person who had dealt with Jane before, indicating that they came from the same source. She had a feeling that this old man was the person behind the scenes. Especially when she first saw him, she felt a sense of disgust towards him. And that gentle and kind appearance, it was too fake. The old man's life was coming to an end, which was why he couldn't wait to come out. It seemed that what she had done before had a great impact on the old man.

She smiled faintly, "I wouldn't dare to call myself a master when Mr. Lewis is around." She didn't beat around the bush and went straight to the point, "Can you cure Elbert's curse?"

Lewis nodded and watched her do

Although it's a bit troublesome, I can indeed cure it. If you're not reassured, you can Simone asked bluntly, "What are you after? I mean, what do you want from the Johnston Family?"

Before Lewis could speak, Salma said unhappily, "Simone, why are you speaking like this? Lewis was specially invited by me to cure Elbert's curse.

Why does it sound so utilitarian when it comes out of your mouth?" She was starting to be a little afraid of this daughter of hers.

Could this wicked girl be trying to sabotage today's curse removal?

Simone raised an eyebrow, "According to you, he was invited by you to cure Elbert's curse for free?" She looked at Lewis and gave him a thumbs up, "Impressive, President. Your moral is commendable."

Salma and Lewis: " She really knows how to go along with the flow.

Salma immediately said, "We invited Lewis to help with the curse removal, so of course, we have give him compensation."

Simone laughed. "So, it's still about wanting something. Why not just be straightforward about it instead of beating around the bush? I thought Lewis was so noble, but it turns out he's just like everyone else."

Salm choked. "You!" Who speaks so bluntly and rudely? She frowned again and said. How can you talk to the present of your geomancy association like this? Where are your manners?" This ecked girl deliberately tated the president of the association to embarrass me. Can't she see the current situation? This is not the time to ow a tantrum.

e looked at her, feeling odd. "I quit the geomancy association a long time ago, don't you know? I was lking to Mr. Lewis about Elbert's matter, so can you stop interrupting?" she sarcastically added, "If I didn't know any better, I would think you were using your own nephew as a stepping stone, trying to curry favor with the president of the geomancy association."

You are still Mrs. Gray now, so can you please maintain some dignity?"

Salma was so furious that she pointed at Simone and exclaimed, "You, you!"

Mr. Lewis looked at Simone with confusion and asked, "Does Miss Simone have any misunderstandings about me?"

Hi

O

2/3

Simone retorted, "Shouldn't have a misunderstanding about Mr. Lewis?"

Mr. Lewis appeared surprised and asked, "How did I offend you?"

Sumene replied, "You know what you have done. Don't you have any self-awareness?" She then tactfully tanged the subject and said, "I find you unpleasant and repulsive. Does that matter?" If the old man wants to provoke her, she will gladly respond.

The people present: "... " Simone was truly audacious!

o

Chapter 438 How Rude She Is, Coming Like That

Simone's words wiped the smile off Mr. Lewis's face.

Simone, no matter what, I am much older than you. In the world of geomancy, I am your senior. Is it upropna for you to speak like this?"

Simone raised her eyebrows. "If you want my respect, you need to have the talent and virtue to match!"

Mr. Lewis did not expect Simone to be so arrogant and domineering. He rarely experienced strong emotions, but now he couldn't help but feel a bit angry. He immediately directed a strand of negative energy towards Simone, saying. "You've gone too far. Today, I will teach you how to respect your elders in your master place."

He had intalled to maintain temporary peace with Simone. First, he lifted the curse, e stained what he wanted achieved his goal. But now she was being so arrogant and ignorant that he had to course, the main point was to test Simone's current strength.

teach her a it

Simone was waiting for the old man's attack. She took out a talisman and blocked the strand of negative energy. The talisman suddenly burst into flames, engulfing and burning the negative energy. It also caused the son of the negative energy to scatter and disappear.

At this moment, not even Mr. Lewis noticed that a small strand of negative energy overflowed from the talisman and entered the red jade "bracelet" worn by Simone.

Simone had discovered the skill of the little snake. Not only could it devour and absorb negative energy, but it could also store it. So, she brought the little guy along. Using secret techniques to completely conceal its aura, making it appear lifeless. Therefore, even this old man did not notice.

She sneered, "You want to teach me on behalf of my master? With your methods, are you kidding me?" Then she arrogantly asked, "Is achieving the Divine State really impressive?" Then she no longer restrained herself and released her aura, "I'm in Divine State too."

She deliberately exposed her strength to provoke the old man. If the old man wanted to test her and engage in a fight, she had to reveal herself. It was better to intimidate the other party and make them angry.

Mr. Lewis and the people he brought with him were all shocked. Mr. Lewis was truly angered.

Thirl had actually achieved the Divine State. No wonder she was so arrogant.

Hy her! He had spent hundreds of years and still had to use extraordinary means to achieve the Divine State. As a result, he remained in the mid-stage of the Divine State and could not make any further progress. The increase in lifespan was also 30% less than that of a normal Divine State practitioner. Otherwise, why would he go through so much careful planning? And this girl was only in her early twenties, and she had already achieved the Divine State.

He could also sense that her aura was not weak. It's so unfair, it's simply too fair. At this moment, besides jealousy and envy, he also felt a bit of fear towards Simone. He regretted even more that he didn't kill this girl earlier. Originally, she was just a key pawn to absorb the fortune of the Gray Family and the Foster Family.

Who would have thought that she would now become a great disaster?

1/3

Lewis pondered for a moment, suppressing his anger, and said, "So you're already a celestial master, no vode. you're so arrogant la chat case, I can consider you as my equal.

if it were before, he would have risked getting injured just to kill Simone with his own hands. As fellow refeital masters, if he killed her, the heaven's laws would not punish him. Unfortunately, he had suffered verish before, and if he were to fight Simone again, it would further reduce his lifespan. There might stil be soute uncertain factors after then he didn't want to take the risk. He had to use the method of using someone else as a scapegoat.

Simone's eyes carried a hint of mockery. "Mr. Lewis has been acting like a turtle for a long time, always being so cautions! No wonder he has been hiding for so many years."

Mr. Lewis wished he could immediately slap the girl to death. But he couldn't do it for the time being put on a loof indifference as if he couldn't be bothered to argue with this younger generation. "It see that you have misunderstood me. Let's first discuss the issue of lifting the curse for Elbert." Even though Simone h

The Divine State, it wouldn't be easy to remove the curse.

He still nee

Lewis's help.

Simone sat down. "Mr. Lewis, you still haven't answered me. What are you after?"

Mr. i wis knew that if he didn't say it, the girl would keep pestering him. I'm interested in a new mine opened by the Johnston Family. So, I want to go in and take the ore I'm interested in.

If it weren't for the secret technique to avoid the punishment of the heaven's laws and the restrictions imposed by the heaven's laws on him were too great, he would've taken whatever he wanted instead of going through these hoops.

What kind of luck or opportunity did she have to achieve the Divine State?

And her master had already died. She probably didn't know about the existence of that thing..

Simone laughed, "Mr. Lewis, we're at the same level now, What's the point of hiding it? It's fake to be interested in a mine; you're actually looking for the spiritual stone, right?"

Mr. Lewis was shocked again. The girl actually knew about the existence of the spiritual stone. Not sure if there are spiritual stones in the mine, but I just want to take a look. If I'm lucky enough to find one. I'll consider it a reward."

Directed at the people from the Johnston Family and deliberately emphasized, "After all, it's not easy to reverse the curse on Elbert's body. It will require a lot of energy and vitality. Since the girl knew, there was a need for him to hide it anymore. But this feeling was really unpleasant as if he was being led around by girl. He hadn't felt so frustrated in many years.

Simone looked at him with a puzzled expression. "I see that your life is not long, so why do you still need the tone? To accompany you in death? That would be such a waste." She was no longer afraid of the old man he dared to fight to the death, she would still have some concerns, but obviously he didn't dare. "When she would just infuriate the old man! While talking to the old man, had been carefully observing its face.

Indeed, his appearance resembled Jodie, and his nose bore some resemblance to Skyler's. Coupled with the negative energy aura, it also mirrored what had happened to Skyler and Sean. And there was the recent test. She was now completely certain that this old man was Jodie's biological father. He was also the one who had once killed her and still harbored constant plots against her. So, she would treat him as he deserved.

||

49/3

When Simone said this, everyone present was shocked. Unable to resist, they all looked at Lewis. His lifespan was not long?

His expression changed, and there was even more astonishment in his eyes. How did the little brat know? Could she have possibly figured it out? He couldn't see through her. In theory, his strength was greater than hers, so she shouldn't have been able to see through him.

Yet his heart couldn't help but fluctuate again, filled with raging anger. What he detested the most was when others mentioned his limited time left to live. This little brat not only openly mentioned it but also suggested using the vitality stone for his funeral. Wasn't this cursing him to die...

Chapter 439 Dealing With the Stubborn Girl

Lewis's expression turned sour. "Although I am old, I still have many years ahead of me. Choose your words carefully, Simone. Think twice before speaking."

Jong De could continue absorbing and converting life force into longevity, he could outlive this stubborn girl.

Simone shrugged. "If you have to rely on absorbing other people's life force to sustain your own, then it's true that you still have many days left. But what about karma? Do you really believe you can escape it?" Having caused him to suffer so many families and individuals, this old man's retribution would be miserable.

Lewis's face darkened, "Simone, I don't know what you're talking about. I live an upright life and walk the right path. I'm not afraid of so-called karma. At this moment, he was certain that this stubborn girl knew about his karma. That was why she had been pressuring him all along. However, he was a bit puzzled as to why she should be oblivious.

I would be so straightforward about it. If it were him, he would definitely pretend to be so. He would engage with the other party and strike at the opportune moment.

But since she already knew about his actions and had guessed that he was the one manipulating her from behind the scenes, he would definitely not let her off. Young people are impulsive, after all.

If Simone knew what he was thinking, she would definitely roll her eyes and mock him. Did she not know that if she hadn't guessed it, he would let her go? Since he wouldn't let her go anyway, and now that she had the strength to confront him, why would she choose to endure and suppress herself? Simone chuckled. "You are indeed formidable. If you want to deceive others, you must first deceive yourself. You are truly skilled in deception." Then she changed the subject, "Enough with the nonsense; let's get back to the original topic.

"You want to help Elbert break the curse, and although you require treasures like the spiritual stone as compensation, I don't find you trustworthy. You carry the token given by the renowned great warlock, so it's easy for you to lure out the curse. But who knows if you will do something to Elbert and cause trouble in the future?"

She looked at him meaningfully and continued, "After all, the transfer of this curse from Elbert's body is thanks to you and your disciple."

Since they had a falling out and exposed their true intentions, she no longer needed to hold back and could freely confront him. The reason why she deliberately revealed that she recognized his identity was to provoke him and disrupt his original plan.

the temperament of this old man, he would want to kill Simone, but the possibility of him taking on is minimal. After all, the more someone valued their life, the more they feared death and became cautious,

But he couldn't let her continue to be arrogant and grow; otherwise, it would be detrimental to his plans and himself. The only option was to quickly find that great warlock to deal with her. And her seemingly arrogant and impulsive behavior today was actually setting a trap for the old man.

After that great warlock arrived, it was uncertain who would be dealt with.

Lewis was infuriated again. What do you mean I'm up to no good again? For so many years, it was the first time he was publicly humiliated like this.

statement supan ana

Mr. Lewis: ... This brat is good at nitpicking. He had to deny colluding with the g he said that.

Just as he was about to explain himself, Simone took out a few pictures from her phone. These were what she had found when she had investigated the old man before. "And you claim not to know him, so was the person you were talking to just air? Look, isn't this a photo of you sitting together with that renowned warlock when you represented us at the global warlock exchange conference? Although you're already at on't care about ordinary people. But you can't treat everyone here as fools!" Indeed, celestial W people from the Johnston Family feel uncomfortable. her words

They took the

ne and looked at it. It was indeed a photo of Lewis sitting together and talking with the great warlock, with an introduction as well. Lewis actually claimed not to know the other person, which gave off a sense of trying to cover up. What surprised the Johnston Family even more was that the transfer of the worms from Elbert was also related to Lewis. As a result, their gazes towards Lewis started to change.

DILE

Lewis truly didn't expect Simone to use the photos as evidence. Especially when he noticed the changed expressions of the Johnston Family members, he became even more furious. The spiritual stone crucial to him, and this brat must have intentionally sabotaged it.

"How can you be sure that this curse was cast by that great warlock? This is Wocron's important figure, so should choose your words more carefully."

you

Simone sneered, "You really don't have much time left, and you're getting senile. The identit warlock caught by the special department has already proven that he is the disciple of this He even admitted it himself; the curse was given to him by his master. So how do you refu of the cat warlock.

hat?"

Lewis choked. "You!" He almost forgot that this stubborn girl had already joined the special department. This sharp-tongued girl is really difficult to deal with. And she's so gloomy: why does she always bring up the limited lifespan You have a biased misunderstanding of me, and I don't want to get entangled with you." He glanced at the people from the Johnston Family, "Now I just want to ask, do you want Elbert's curse to be lifted This girl talks too much. I can't argue with her at all. Let's just negotiate the terms directly.

Boh Mr. and Mrs. Jolinston looked at Simone at the same time, "Simone, what do you think?" Even Mr. a Mrs. Johnston defaulted to her..

Sing this, Salma said, "This is a matter for the Johnston Family. Why are you asking Simone?" What spell did he put them under for them to listen to her so much?

ficholas frowned, "Can you please just shut the f*ck up?" He said to Simon once more, "Please disregard Salma was seething with anger but nobody paid any attention to her.

Simone sailed and replied, "Certainly, we cannot allow him to break the curse. Lewis has malicious inteptions; allowing him to break the curse for Elbert would only harm him."

O

2/3

The Johnston, Pastily palicen treder trust in Simone. Therefore, they turned to Lewis and said, fwis, we apologize, but we not if the curse today."

Lesya's expression grew even darker. "You better think this through. If you miss today, I will not come. In this break the curse for him. He emphasized once more. "Simone's current strength is indeed lacking without something special to attract the curse, it cannot be broken."

If it were not for the spiritual stone, he would not waste time conversing with these people.

However, the more he acted in this manner, the more suspicious the Johnston Family became. They were certain that someone who rushed to help Elbert break the curse must have hidden motives. And what this person said also made them slightly uneasy. Nicholas looked at Simone once again and asked, "Sum what is your opinion?"

Chapter 440 What's Wrong With Me Playing with You?

Nicholas's inquiry indicated that he still had faith in Simone.

Simone smiled and reassured him, "Don't worry, Bailey is very capable."

When the time comes, I will take Elbert to sell a piece.

She looked at Mr. Lewis with a sly smile and asked, "Lewis, do you believe Bailey can solve these poisonous insects? I will continue to provoke you, old man.

Lewis's expression changed slightly, "Master Bailey is indeed powerful. But considering his personality, it might not be easy for him to lend a hand.

This involved her mystical arts master who was in the Divine State

Given the ter

rit and taboos of that guy, it was unlikely that he would intervene.

Simone smirked and said, "Well, you have predicted it wrongly once more. Bailey has already agreed to help me. Otherwise, how could I dare to make such a promise?"

Lewis felt the urge to vomit blood, "Then why did you invite me here? To deceive me?" Simone raised an eyebrow. "Weren't you invited by Salma? When did it become our invitation? Of course, if you think I'm deceiving you, then so be it. You have deceived me so many times before. What's wrong with me deceiving you once?"

Mr. Lewis almost couldn't control himself. "You! I underestimated you, so let's see how you solve the curse for Elbert." He felt so suffocated. He had never experienced this before. That little brat and the Johnston Family were clearly just using him, and they never intended to seek his help in lifting the curse.

No wonder the Johnston Family had been beating around the bush with him before; it must have been the little brat's idea. Not wanting to embarrass himself any further, he finished speaking, flicked his sleeve, and left with the other three, leaving behind a very embarrassed Salma. She wanted to chase after them but she was afraid of provoking Lewis's anger.

After they left, she looked at Simone and asked, "Are you intentionally opposing me? Clearly Mr. Lewis can solve Elbert's curse. Why did you drive him away? What if you and your Bailey fail to solve the curse? What will happen to Elbert? I won't be able to invite Mr. Lewis again."

It was clear that Simone had angered the other party.

Salma sighed and said, "Don't you understand yet? You have been manipulated by him and Jodie from beginning to the end. Forget it; I can't explain it to someone like you who holds your enemies in high

If you want to treat your enemies as good people and can't see through people, then go ahead..

People like Salma would never realize their mistakes unless they got hit hard. She didn't need to waste her efforts trying to convince the other party.

After experiencing hardships, one naturally became more obedient.

Anyway, she didn't owe her birth mother anything.

Salma felt a little flustered by Simone's words, but she was even more angry.

O

1/3

it seemed like Simone was suggesting that she was naive.

But the president of the geomancy association couldn't possibly be the villain Simone had described.

Su didn't believe it that much.

She only felt that Simone's main goal was to hold a grudge against her and deliberately oppose her.

She took a deep breath, "I came here to help out of goodwill, but you insist on driving me away. Don't regret it later. Brother, you too. If something happens to Elbert in the future, don't come looking for me to ask the president of the geomancy association for help. I can't face them."

Nicholas was also angered. "Rest assured, we won't trouble you, Salma, in the future."

Karah pointed at the door with a stern face. "Leave; you're not welcome in our family anymore."

Salma is simp again.

ss and she's still so self-righteous. This is not about saving my son at all but about harming him

She didn't want to see her in the future.

Salm looked unhappily at Old Mr. and Mrs. Johnston, "Mom, Dad, how can you just let Nicholas and them behave like this?"

Old Mr. Johnston looked disappointed. "Salma, you are no longer a part of our Johnston Family, so don't come again in the future."

Old Mrs. Johnston also said, "Leave; you're not welcome in the house anymore."

She added, "If you continue to be so stubborn, you will regret it sooner or later."

She didn't know how Jodie brainwashed her, and she couldn't listen to sincere words for her own good.

Salma was hurt by her parents' and brother's attitudes.

Feeling wronged, she said, "You just don't like me and don't want me anymore because of Simone. Fine, I'll leave. I won't bother you with my presence anymore."

After saying that, she walked away with tears in her eyes.

Simone: "... So, is it my fault again? But with so many affairs on her shoulders, Simone didn't care how Emma perceived it.

Johnston looked at Simone apologetically and said, "She's just confused right now. You don't have to pay attention to her." With her daughter's behavior, she was pushing her own daughter further away. Sigl, it's worrying!

Simone said indifferently. "I don't care about her anyway." She continued. "I'll handle the matters on Emma's side and take Elbert to the ancient city in a few days."

Nicholas nodded. "Okay, I'll trouble you with that."

Simone thought for a moment, took off the little snake on her arm, and handed it to Elbert. "Elbert, carry this with you at all times. It can suppress the parasites in your body."

24

The parasites were the food of the little snake, and it had a natural suppressing effect. With it around, the worms wouldn't dare to move. And with the little snake, it became even easier for her to remove the curse. Otherwise, she was afraid that the old thing would use some method to awaken the worms and cause mischief.

The benevolent aura on Sean's side had also dissipated, and she would naturally wake up in a day or two.

Elbert thought it was a bracelet and put it in his pocket, saying, "Okay, thank you, Simone."

Simone didn't stay long either; she just said goodbye and left.

Then, she told Joseph he could take action.

For the next two days, Deputy Minister Solomon had been trying to delay the progress of the investigation. After Joseph obtained solid evidence, he went to find the minister. The minister was very angry at w he deliberately hindered the investigation. He had recently received criticism from his superiors on

This morning.

occasions.

An elderly man even personally called to inquire about the matter, clearly dissatisfied with their efficiency. He also contacted Deputy Minister Solomon to inquire about the progress, and the response he received indicated that it would be completed soon. However, it turned out to be a mere perfunctory response, which was truly unacceptable.

As a result, he called Deputy Minister Solomon and scolded him severely. He then forcefully ordered Deputy Minister Solomon to transfer the case to Joseph. At this point, he no longer needed to consider Deputy Minister Solomon's backer. Even if that individual held some power, they couldn't be considered significant in front of Old Mr. Tumer.

Deputy Minister Solomon had no choice but to reluctantly hand over the case to Joseph. He was very displeased about this and wanted to find an opportunity to assassinate the warlock. Upon taking over, Joseph also received assistance from Simone. In less than a day, they collected all the evidence.

They also confirmed that Melinda had paid the warlock from Wocron to harm others. Therefore, the same day, they applied for an arrest warrant and went to the Foster Residence.