

The Miraculous Simone Gray by Opal Reese Chapter 61-70

Chapter 62 Just A Taste

After Leon made that post, his fans went into a frenzy. Previously, they had believed that his relationship with Simone was just a publicity stunt and that their idol was not dating anyone. But now, with Leon's own admission on Facebook, everything changed.

Many fans, who considered themselves "wives" and "girlfriends" of Leon, cried. They couldn't yell at Leon, however, so they directed their insults toward Simone on her Facebook page.

"Foster Goes Public With His Relationship" quickly became a trending topic on social media. Simone noticed the trending topic and the insults in the comments section. She logged into her own Facebook account and posted a comment.

@Simoney: 'We have already broken up and cut off contact. Thank you!

She also uploaded the recording of her conversation with Leon that day.

Although she initiated the breakup, it wasn't her fault. Leon and the others wanted to protect Jodie, but Simone had reservations. She recorded the conversation to fight back. She wanted Leon's fans to see the true nature of their husband and who he cared about more. She refused to take the blame for Jodie and let Leon's fans and those who thought she wasn't worthy of Leon insult her. Whoever should bear the consequences, let them bear it.

By posting this on Facebook, she completely cut off ties with Leon. This was what she had been waiting for. She truly had to thank them for handing her the tools she needed to do this.

The Internet kept cursing Simone, and then they saw her Facebook update. They were all stunned. They wondered if the breakup and cutting off contact were true. When they saw there was an audio recording, whether they were Leon's fans, Simone's fans, or just bystanders, they all clicked to listen.

Not only them, but even the other three people in the car couldn't resist putting on their headphones and listening to the audio. After listening, many people couldn't help but curse.

"Simone Breakup" and "Simone and Leon Foster Breakup Recording" quickly climbed up the trending rankings. The comments under the trending topic kept increasing.

'Oh my god, a series of major scandals!'

'I didn't expect Leon to be like this. I used to really like him, but now I think he's scum'

The person he truly likes is Jodie?"

Jodie is still his secret lover.

'Is Simone being used as a smokescreen?'

"No wonder he protected Jodie so much during the variety show live broadcast. So, this is why.

"The recording says that Leon even wanted Simone to give up her spot on the variety show for Jodie?"

'Indeed, Aaron and Jodie were not on the confirmed list for the variety show before!'

At this time, Zac's team immediately stepped in to help Simone out.

'I happen to know about this. Jodie wants to participate, but her popularity and status are not enough. Aaron took the initiative to approach the director and said that he could appear on the variety show at a lower salary, on the condition that he could bring Jodie along!'

“That’s why the two of them became special regular guests.

Actually, it was Jodie who initially wanted Simone to give up her spot, but Simone disagreed, so it became Aaron who brought her along Jodie is really something else. Not only did she cause a rift between Aaron and his own sister, but she also became the secret lover of someone else’s boyfriend.”

I admire her. Jojo is truly a master among b*tches.

“Leon is in a relationship with his childhood sweetheart while also protecting and helping the secret lover. Leon, what a man you are!

“In the recording. Leon said. “Take back that statement, I’ll pretend I didn’t hear it. He must have played too many domineering CEO roles

“I really want to say Simone handled this beautifully!

Yes, this kind of sabotage should be dumped decisively

‘Leon doesn’t sound like he wanted to break up with Simone!

Definitely not. Otherwise, why would he post that on Facebook, saying they’re together without mentioning the breakup.

‘Is he trying to force Simone to reconcile with him?’

Unfortunately, he underestimated Simone’s temper. Don’t come crawling back to Simone after the breakup!’

‘Didn’t Leon’s fans say before that Simone wouldn’t let go of their idol?’

“Now it seems like it’s actually your idol who can’t let go.”

“Leon’s actions also disgust me.

Zac’s team continued to manipulate the situation.

‘Here’s another scoop: The sudden exposure of Leon’s relationship with Simone was a deliberate move by Leon to help divert attention from the incident involving Jodie being the Grays’ foster daughter. He intentionally collaborated with Aaron’s manager to do this.

That Facebook post was just using Simone as a smokescreen to help cover up Jodie!

With this manipulation, netizens also took notice. Believe it or not, once this relationship scandal came out, Simone indeed replaced Jodie and became the target of criticism from Leon's fans and others.

Leon is really heartless. Simone is his childhood friend'

It's too much for Leon to stab Simone in the back like this.

D'mn, there's even more drama behind the scenes. It's making me sick.

Simone is already in a tough spot having someone like Aaron as her brother, and now her own boyfriend is scum 100.

'Correction, he's her ex-boyfriend.'

Like she said in the recording. Leon, you make me sick too.

Simone is truly in a miserable situation. I suddenly feel so sorry for her.

Although it's tragic, it has to be said that Simone's announcement of the breakup on Facebook was cool and satisfying. Yes, she did an amazing job! I used to have a good impression of Simone from watching variety shows, but now, because of this breakup. I'm becoming a fan. I love how decisive she is.

Wow, Simone is so cool and confident. This is exactly I like.

I'm taking my waifu with me now. Please, Leon, Aaron, and Jojo, don't bother us.

I knew my waifu wouldn't let us down. She did a great job.

I love my waifu's straightforward and tough attitude!

Because of Simone's Facebook post and the released audio, along with Zac's team controlling the narrative, the online situation suddenly changed.

Apart from the fans of Leon and Jodie, the majority of people have turned against them

Even some of Leon's supporters, who considered themselves his wife fans" or "girlfriend fans, couldn't accept this reality and unfollowed him.

Leon's devoted followers were all going crazy.

Compared to Simone, whose relationship was exposed, they now dislike Jodie even more.

Having watched the live variety show, they believe Jodie was not as talented as Simone.

Moreover, they were at a loss for how to criticize Simone anymore.

They could no longer accuse her of clinging onto Leon because she announced the breakup before appearing on the show.

They couldn't say she didn't know what was best for her because she had her reasons for making this decision

They couldn't blame her and say, "My idol has his secret lover, and you should just endure it." So, it was all Jodie's fault.

Otherwise, how could Simone have taken the initiative to break up with Leon and release the audio as

Unable to find an outlet for their anger and unwilling to criticize Leon like others, these fans of Leon started flooding Jodie's Facebook page with insults.

The things they said were even more offensive and malicious than what they said about Simone.

Upon seeing the situation online, Zac asked Simone, "Is this enough?"

Simone replied meaningfully. This is just the beginning.

Zac smirked, "I also think it's not sufficient."

He created a new group and invited his manager and the heads of three PR teams.

He also added Simone as a friend and invited her to join the group.

In another car.

Leon stared intently at Simone's updated Facebook post, his face filled with disbelief.

Not only did Simone publicly announce their breakup on Facebook, but she also recorded their conversation from that day.

And now she had posted it without any mercy.

Did she already anticipate this and wanted to protect herself? This realization was difficult for him to accept, and it caused a deep pain in his heart.

How could this happen? We were fine before; how did it turn into this? Just then, his phone suddenly rang.

Seeing that it was his manager, Elin, he answered, "What's up?"

Elin Harmon's voice carried a rare sharpness and urgency. "Have you seen Simone's Facebook post? You're being criticized by many people for your breakup."

Leon remained silent for a moment before saying, "Yes, I've seen it."

Elin was furious, “Is Simone crazy? She didn’t even discuss it with you and just stabbed you in the back like this.

This sudden turn of events caught us off guard.”

Just when Leon had posted on Facebook that they were still together, Simone revealed that they had already broken up.

And she even had recorded evidence to prove it.

It made it impossible for them to refute and say that Simone had faked the breakup, or that she was just seeking attention.

Leon rubbed his temples with his hand, “I didn’t expect her to be so ruthless.”

She deliberately wanted to humiliate him, and the timing was just perfect.

She must have planned it all.

Elin asked angrily, “Why didn’t you tell me about your breakup with Simone before?” If Leon had told her before appearing on the variety show, she could have prepared earlier.

Leon held the phone to his ear.

Leaning back in his chair with a sense of despair, he said, “I didn’t agree to break up with her before.

I thought she was just throwing a tantrum, and we would reconcile.”

He had never considered breaking up with Simone, so he didn’t tell anyone.

Elin took a deep breath, “We need to react immediately now. Otherwise, everyone’s going to think you’re a cheater.”

She had already disagreed with Leon's collaboration with Titus before.

As expected, problems arose.

Now she not only disliked Simone even more but also started to dislike Jodie.

And the dislike surpassed her annoyance toward Simone.

After all, she had been hiding a secret that she dared not reveal—she liked Leon.

Leon asked. "How will we deal with this?"

Elin countered. "You tell me first, is Jodie your secret lover? Is she the one you truly like?" She suppressed her bitterness and added, "I need to know. Only then can I work with the PR team to come up with a plan for you."

Leon denied without hesitation. "There's no secret lover. It was just something Simone said in anger.

She misunderstood me."

All along, the only person he liked was Simone.

He protected and treated Jodie well for other reasons, not because she was his new love interest.

He didn't expect Simone to have such a deep misunderstanding about his relations with Jodie.

So, although it pained him, he believed that as long as he explained things clearly to Simone, they could reconcile.

Elin was skeptical. "If that's the case, then post another Facebook update denying that Jodie's your secret lover and that you liked her.

"Say that you and Jodie's brother are childhood friends, and that's why you're helping to take care of her.

We need to clear up the rumors about you two—timing."

Otherwise, it would greatly affect his reputation, as some fans have already unfollowed him because of this.

Leon thought for a moment, “Alright, I’ll post it”

This way, he could not only prove to Simone and others that he and Jodie were innocent.

It would also prevent Jodie from being dragged into this.

After saying a few more words, he hung up the phone.

And then posted another update on Facebook.

Leony: I have no secret lover. The only one I like is Simone,

Her brother is my childhood friend, and I’m taking care of her because of that trust.

With this Facebook update, his fans felt much more at ease.

And they kept commenting, showing their belief in him.

Leon’s PR team immediately started shifting the blame and hatred to someone else.

Titus told his PR team to cooperate.

As a result, Leon’s fans quickly went to Simone’s Facebook page and asked her to stop spreading rumors and inciting hatred.

The onlookers, who were enjoying the drama, also started to doubt the “secret lover” and “true love” situation.

On the other hand, Zac's team saw the Facebook update and listened to the recording.

They strongly agreed with Simone's actions.

Since they had already broken up, a decisive counterattack was the way to go.

Although Simone was currently gaining popularity through the variety shows, her position was still unstable.

If Leon and the others voluntarily exposed their relationship, it could potentially ruin her future.

Simone didn't need to be polite.

The more she acted this way, the more people would appreciate and like her.

She would still break up with an award-winning movie star because he was a cheating, two-timing sc*mbag.

They were thinking about how to add fuel to the fire when they saw Leon's new Facebook update.

So, they started communicating with Simone in the group chat.

"Miss Gray, we listened to your recording. Did you break up with Leon mainly because of Jodie?"

Simone: "Jodie was just the trigger. I broke up with him because Leon wasn't worth it.

It took two to tango, and she had broken up with Leon mainly because of his choices and betrayal.

She had always agreed with the philosophy of an eye for an eye!

Have you seen the new Facebook post by Leon?

Simone just finished reading it. I have seen it, but it's not so easy for him to deny everything.

Are

you saying that you have evidence against both of them?

Simone: I wouldn't call it evidence, but I have screenshots and photos of them meeting privately.

After breaking up with Leon, she already suspected that their relationship would be exposed and become a big scandal.

So, she used hacking methods to capture screenshots of their private meetings from some surveillance footage

She also hired a private detective who took photos of Leon and Jodie secretly meeting before the variety show.

They had no need to meet in private so many times if it was just because of Titus' request for Leon to care for Jodie. And she specifically instructed the private detective to find angles for the photos so some of them looked intimate and ambiguous,

She was waiting for Leon and his team to come out and spin the narrative, and then she would expose them and prove them wrong.

Indeed, being well-prepared is crucial.

Zac's team members were pleasantly surprised when they saw this.

They found Simone's work impressive, as it allowed them to counterattack immediately.

Are

you willing to share it with us? We will post it online and prevent them from covering it “Otherwise, if we let them successfully cover it up, their team will definitely defame you and accuse you of spreading rumors about Leon.

After all, they initiated the attack against you’

Simone replied, ‘Sure, I will send it to you right away

She then opened her email, downloaded the saved photos, and sent them to the group.

The team members quickly saved the photos.

Miss Gray, leave the rest to us. Take a good rest.

If there’s anything, we will communicate with you through the group.’

Simone said, ‘Okay, thank you all!’ Then Zac Turner’s PR team promptly began their work.

The internet was abuzz with discussions about the progress of Leon and Simone’s relationship.

They wondered if Simone’s reason for questioning Leon in the recorded audio and breaking up with him was true.

Or if Leon’s rebuttal was true?

In the car, Aaron and Jodie have been following the trending topics.

Jodie saw the comments in the live stream’s comment section of the variety show, the ones that were insulting her.

Her eyes couldn't help but turn red, feeling wronged.

Aaron's my brother, so why can't he be nice to me? Simone's the one who came and tried to steal him and my stuff.

These people are unjustly criticizing her.

And as for Leon and Simone's situation, she was even more innocent.

She did have an interest in Leon and wanted him to like her.

So, she often found excuses to contact him, intentionally relying on him privately.

Leon protected and helped her because she had charm.

Why are they calling me shameless? Simone can't hold her man down. It's her fault.

The more Jodie looked, the angrier and more annoyed she became.

Then she saw the other Facebook post from Leon, which made her even more upset.

Just a moment ago, she was proud and happy, thinking she was Leon's true love and the woman he truly cared about.

Why did he deny it so quickly? Although reason told her that Leon's actions would be better for his and her reputation and she wouldn't be criticized anymore, and maybe some people would sympathize with her, thinking that Simone intentionally dragged her down and damaged her reputation, she still felt very uncomfortable.

Unable to hold back, she burst into tears.

Aaron sat beside her, constantly scrolling through his phone, and didn't notice that Jodie was crying.

After crying for a while and seeing that Aaron and Leon didn't ask her what was wrong, she felt even more wronged and angry.

She deliberately cried out loud and pretended to be very upset.

Only then did Aaron notice, “Jo, what’s wrong with you?”

Jodie threw herself into his arms, “Aaron, people online are all insulting me. I feel so sad.

What did I do wrong to Simone? She insisted on dragging me down.”

No, she deliberately framed me like this, making the people who insult her shift their focus to me.”

She cried so hard that she couldn’t catch her breath, I always wanted to be a good sister. I would give you to her. Both of you.

“But why can’t she tolerate me?” Of course, this statement was deliberately said in front of Aaron and Leon to make Simone look bad.

Aaron also felt that Simone went too far this time.

Not only did she deceive Leon, but she also deceived Jo.

It was clearly Titus who asked Icon to take care of Jo.

But according to Simone’s words, Jo seemed like a homewrecker.

And she made it look like it was because of Jo that she broke up with Leon.

It’s simply unreasonable. He held Jodie and gently patted her back to comfort her, “Don’t feel wronged. If she doesn’t want to be your good sister, then don’t be one.

She’s getting crueler toward me, let alone being a good sister to Jo.

Just thinking about it makes him feel a little bitter.

He continued to comfort her, saying. “Titus will help clarify things online for you.”

Didn't Leon also clarify on Facebook?"

Once everyone knows that you and Leon are innocent, they won't criticize you anymore."

Jodie pouted, "That's what you say.

I'm going to call Titus."

After saying that, she called Titus, speaking in a breathless voice full of tears.

She successfully made Titus feel sorry for her and comforted her.

She also assured her that he would handle the online issues.

Jodie had set up so much, not only to express her grievances but also to make Titus comfort her.

The main purpose was to make Titus deal with the online criticism against her. With how he did things, he would switch all the attention back to Simone.

After hanging up the phone, Jodie still felt wronged and cried in Aaron's arms for a while.

Then she looked up with embarrassment, I'm just feeling too wronged. Actually, I don't blame

"She might have misunderstood me and Leon."

Then she looked at Leon sitting in the passenger seat..

With an apologetic expression, she said, “Leon, I’m sorry Simone got mad at you because of me. I’m the one who caused trouble for you. When we get to the airport, I’ll explain to her. There’s nothing between us.”

In her heart, Jodie believed that Leon cared about and liked her.

Like Simone said, she was Leon’s true love.

Otherwise, he wouldn’t come out alone every time she asked him.

He had always been protective of her.

He had never refused any requests she made..

Leon was feeling confused at the moment, and he became even more annoyed when he heard Jodie. crying non–stop.

He couldn’t help but think that Simone was better with her personality, never using tears to solve problems.

Then he heard what she said.

His heart skipped a beat, and he immediately said, “No need, this is between her and me; it has nothing to do with you. I will handle it.

“I’m the one who should apologize. I’m the one who dragged you into this.”

“When you go to the airport, please don’t look for her. I will explain everything to her.”

Knowing Simone’s personality, if Jodie went to explain to her, she might get even angrier and ignore. him even more.

Hearing him say that their issue had nothing to do with her, Jodie felt even more uncomfortable.

She pretended to be worried and guilty. “Will she stay angry forever? I’m afraid I’ve affected relationship with her.”

Leon shook his head, “No, our breakup was not because of you. It was due to our constant arguing. You don’t have to feel guilty about it.”/

He thought for a moment and suggested, “How about you also post a clarification on Facebook so that everyone won’t misunderstand.”

Jodie had already been thinking about doing the same.

But she said, “Okay, in order to prevent Simone and everyone else from misunderstanding you, I will also post on Facebook.”

Then, she took out her phone and posted a message on Facebook.

@Jodiev: “The famous actor Leon and I are just friends. He is my brother’s childhood friend, so he’s like a brother to me. Please don’t misunderstand the situation.”

While Jodie was posting on Facebook, Leon attempted to call Simone again, but he was still blocked.

Unable to resist, he asked the driver, “May I borrow your phone? I can’t wait until we get to the airport to find Simone”

The driver replied, “No problem,” and handed his phone to Leon.

Having memorized Simone’s phone number by heart, Leon dialed it

Meanwhile, in the car in front, Simone received an incoming call from an unknown number and answered, “Hello!”

Leon said, “Simone, it’s me.”

Simone’s voice was cold as she asked, “What do you want?”

Leon replied, “I’ve already told you, there is nothing more than friendship between me and Jodie. I can explain why I know her and why I am protecting her. After we arrive at the airport, let’s have a proper conversation, okay?”

However, Simone sneered. "It's too late; I don't want to listen anymore. You are a graduate of a prestigious university. The terms 'breakup' and 'severing ties should be clear to you, right? We have no relationship now, so please stop harassing me. There's no need to chat at the airport. If someone takes a photo. I won't be able to explain myself. And I have no interest in knowing why you are protecting Jodie anymore. In the future, let's go our separate ways. I believe you won't engage in endless entanglements, given that you're a famous actor."

She finished speaking and hung up without waiting for Leon to say anything.

For the first time, she realized how annoying Leon could be.

We are already broken up, so why is there still a need for entanglement?

Just as Leon was about to speak, the call had ended

She actually hung up on me like that again.

Does she really have no lingering feelings? Leon's mind became even more chaotic.

He couldn't understand how he and Simone had reached this point.

I truly have no romantic feelings for Jodie, so why wouldn't she believe me? Why was she unwilling to even listen to my explanation?

The Heiress' Return & Revenge

Chapter 65 Who Knew That Now It Feels Like I've Been Slapped by Her

Leon was feeling annoyed and upset.

Jodie was also unhappy in Aaron's arms.

According to Leon, he wanted to distance himself from them immediately in order to reconcile with Simone.

Could it be that the person he truly likes is Simone? No, that's not possible.

Leon must be saying this just to appease Simone and stop her from causing any more trouble.

On the internet, Titus, together with Elin, was manipulating the public relations team to create a sensation.

They claimed that Simone was intentionally diverting the blame.

Leon and Jodie were innocent and not at all like what Simone said.

Simone simply disliked Jodie and was deliberately tarnishing her reputation.

Titus even stepped in and used his verified Facebook account to post an update.

@Gray Group Top Talent Manager—

Titusy: 'It's true that I asked Leon to take care of Jodie before the variety show started, but I didn't expect it to be misunderstood by another sister.

It's my fault, and I will explain it to Simone. I hope she and everyone else won't misunderstand the situation.

Since Simone's relationship with them had been exposed, there was no need to hide it anymore.

Titus personally stepped forward and appeared very sincere.

With both sides manipulating sock puppets to create a buzz, many people were starting to believe them.

Leon's fans, seeing this, turned around and continued to criticize Simone.

Some people also thought that Simone shouldn't blame Leon just because she disliked Jodie.

They made Leon look like a sc*mbag.

Lout

In reality, he was just helping his younger sister. There was no need to make such a big deal out of it.

Some people even sarcastically said that Simone was petty.

Maybe she was afraid of losing a great man like Leon, so she was being sensitive and insecure.

The so-called breakup might just be a show.

She wanted to play hard to get with Leon.

By using this kind of publicity, not only could she shift the blame onto Jodie, but she might even make Leon take the initiative to reconcile. Or that was what the Internet said.

Soon, the tide turned in favor of Leon and Jodie.

Simone once again became the target of criticism.

Zac's team couldn't help but sigh. Simone's calculations were really accurate.

After they posted the photos in the group and made arrangements with the sock puppets, they also contacted the verified influencer who specialized in exposing accounts.

They were originally planning to take immediate action, but Simone sent a message saying to wait a little longer.

She wanted to release the photos after Leon and Jodie's public relations team had finished. manipulating the situation and tarnishing her reputation.

This way, it would have a more dramatic effect and give them a taste of their own medicine.

It will also cause Leon and Jodie to face even greater backlash. Simone had accurately predicted. everything.

When the time was right, they began to release the evidence one by one.

First, the verified influencer posted two Facebook posts.

@EntertainmentInsiderV: Is it true that Leon, the award-winning actor, only took care of Jodie on the variety show because of a favor from a friend? I don't believe it.

@EntertainmentInsiderV: Don't question why I don't believe it because I'm about to post some photos.

Then, they posted photos spread through nine grids.

All of them were screenshots and pictures of Jodie and Leon together, alone.

The key point was that in the nine photos, they were dressed differently in four different outfits.

This meant that, just from the photos, they had been alone together four times.

The last three photos were even more damning.

In the first photo, Jodie was leaning her whole body against Leon

In the second photo, their heads were leaning against each other, both smiling and looking down at their phones.

In the last photo, Jodie's lips were close to Leon's ear.

It looked like she was kissing his ear with her eyes half-closed, giving off a hint of ambiguity.

As soon as these photos were released, the number of clicks immediately sky rocketed.

Award–

Winning Actor Leon Cheats With Jojo' became a trending search topic.

Leon's fans, who had already calmed down, were disappointed with Leon and couldn't help but hate Jodie.

The audience, who had been watching the show in delight, were once again shocked by this twist.

"This is some fast drip feed of the tea. We can't keep up."

Tsk isk, Leon, the award– winning actor, is really playing it well. Just as he denied the rumors and clarified, he was caught red–handed.

'He said he was just taking care of Titus' sister as a favor, but is this how he takes care of her?'

"They are so intimate in private, with Jojo leaning her whole body against Leon, the award–winning actor. Is this what a pure relationship looks like?'

Jojo is really "divine." On the one hand, she is close to Leon, the award–winning actor, privately, kissing his ear, and on the other hand, she hugs and kisses her "brother."

"Is Jojo's innocent image going to be ruined? This feels like the plot of a drama!"

"By the way, does Jojo have a different understanding of what 'brother' means than normal people?"

“I also think so. In her recent Facebook post, she referred to Leon, the award – winning actor, as her brother, so is this the kind of intimacy she has with her brother?”

“So, they are all “brothers” in a romantic sense?”

I pity Simone. Both her ex-boyfriend and her “brother” have become Jojo’s love interest. No wonder she was betrayed by them.

The internet was filled with mockery.

Elin and Titus were shocked when they saw this.

They immediately had their technical department verify the evidence.

The result came back that the screenshots and photos had not been edited, and they were indeed real.

Both of them were on the verge of losing their minds.

They had no idea that Leon and Jodie had so much private contact.

Looking at the photos, it was clear that not only did they meet privately, but their relationship was also very intimate.

Elin wanted nothing more than to go to Jodie and give her a few slaps.

And maybe scratch her b*tchy face.

Leon, who was usually calm and dignified, had actually stooped to this level because of Jodie.

Now, just as they had successfully cleared up the rumors about their relationship, they were being exposed by the solid evidence.

It was like when Leon had just posted on Facebook that they were together, only to be hit with a breakup confirmation from Simone.

With these consecutive setbacks, Leon's credibility would undoubtedly be greatly diminished, leading to a crisis of trust.

Currently, Elin was seated in Titus office.

"What should we do now? Our previous efforts in public relations were in vain, and we even made wedding preparations for Simone."

Elin looked at Titus with a serious expression and continued. "Didn't you say that Simone had left Gray Entertainment and was blacklisted by your company?" "But now it's evident that someone is assisting her with her public relations!" "Who is behind her?" "And it's clear that everything was premeditated."

"We had just restored our reputation, and then they released concrete evidence photos as if they were waiting for the perfect moment.

Titus' expression also turned sour.

This was the first time he had been put in such a disadvantageous position since entering the industry.

And this first time was due to his own sister.

Through gritted teeth, he said. "I underestimated her."

Initially, he only intended to pressure Simone into returning and apologizing to him, making her regret her impulsive actions that day.

As long as Simone stopped competing with Jo and obediently assumed the role of the Gray Family's young miss and listened to him, he would utilize his resources as an older brother to assist her in improving her public image.

Therefore, he didn't pay much attention when Simone left the Gray Family.

Because he always believed that no matter how much she rebelled, she would eventually come back home.

Who would have thought that he would be proven sorely wrong by her actions?

He also wanted to inquire about Simone's public relations team and the source of these photos. However, now was not the time to investigate that

After pondering for a moment, he furrowed his brow and said, "Let the sock puppets handle it, claim that there are issues with the angles of these photos, that they were deliberately taken to mislead the public."

"And this wasn't a private meeting between the two of them. It was me taking Jo to dinner with Leon, so

For now, this was the only way they could salvage the situation.

Chapter 66 I Also Want to Know Why?

Elin also believed that this was the only solution.

Both teams began using this point to clear their names.

To further establish credibility, Titus once again posted on Facebook.

@Gray Group Top Talent Manager—

Titusy: There were no secret meetings. Every time, I took Jodie to have dinner with Leon, and I was present.

However, this time, fewer people believed him, and some were only partially convinced.

Simone's fans used to be scattered, but now there were a few loyal fans.

As a result, they organized themselves to support Simone in fighting back.

Their behavior was quite civilized. They refrained from using foul language or insults. They engaged in reasoned discussions with those who could be reasoned with and directly confronted those whot couldn't.

Zac's fans also joined in to support Simone.

Upon seeing this, Zac's team immediately launched a counterattack.

"The brother is here to clear the air again. Jodie is your sister, but Simone is too, you know."

'A biological sister isn't a sister, but a foster sister is?'

"Could this be another lover of Jojo's?"

"This guy is so biased toward Leon and Jojo; he's "very competent."

'Is he trying to harm his biological sister by favoring his foster sister?'

This kind of brother is terrifying."

"Even if this brother was "really" present, it doesn't change the ambiguous posture between the two in the photo, right?"

'If it's just a simple friendship, do they need to be so close?'

Their whole bodies are touching, and their mouths are close to each other's ears. Such a pure relationship.

These methods of clearing the air are too low. Let's try something else.

As the tension escalated, the onlookers also caught on.

They realized that Jodie's brother was Simone's biological brother, but he had continuously cleared the air for his foster sister and childhood friend, disregarding his biological sister.

“Now that you mention it, it’s really scary and horrible!

So, the biological brother is covering up for his foster sister and childhood friend, trying to steal his biological sister’s spotlight?

Having a brother and an ex-boyfriend like this. I can only sigh for Simone’s unfortunate situation.

After experiencing being lost, almost being sold to the mountains, and being betrayed by her ex-boyfriend and two brothers, Simone can still face life with a smile. She’s really strong.

Yes, if it were me, I might not be able to resist the urge to strangle these se m bags

What they call family is truly terrifying!

If only one photo of them meeting privately looks like this, you can say someone took the photo from a certain angle to slander them, but all these photos are like this. Is it really a coincidence? I have a question I can’t wait to ask: I really want to know what you guys think.

‘Go ahead and ask.

What is it about Jojo that is so captivating? How is it that he attracted not only Simone’s brother but also her ex-boyfriend? From my perspective, whether it’s appearance, figure, temperament, or personality. Simone is superior in every way

I agree with the person above me, but maybe these guys have a more unique taste that we ordinary people can’t compare to.

Maybe these guys just have a preference for this type. After all, she can change her style on the fly

Even if Titus came out to defend and use sock puppets to set the narrative, everyone still felt that there was an ambiguous relationship between Leon and Jodie.

Titus and Elin’s team immediately sent sock puppets to refute, and the two sides started arguing.

Simone felt touched when she saw so many fans and bystanders speaking up for her.

When she entered the entertainment industry, she initially did it to pursue Leonardo to experience the job he liked.

But later on, she genuinely started to enjoy it herself.

It was not just acting that was interesting.

The key was that she had a group of lovely fans who supported her, which warmed her heart from time to time.

So, she had always cherished every fan and audience member who liked her.

Since everyone was helping her like this, she certainly wouldn't let them down.

So, she posted the last few photos that she had saved for a counterattack in the group, circling and marking each one.

Titus and Elin witnessed all of this and this time, they were truly furious.

Titus couldn't hold back and shouted, "What are they doing? Not only are they secretly eating together. but they are also engaging in so many ambiguous actions."

And now, even matching pendants had emerged.

How were they going to explain this? Elin couldn't believe it either, "How could this happen? How could they be wearing matching couple pendants?" She had never been aware of this.

Titus' face darkened. "I also want to know how they could be wearing matching couple pendants,"

Chapter 67 How Could You Do This

Neither of them could understand.

Elin couldn't help but call Leon.

At that moment, Leon and his group were having dinner at a restaurant.

They were casually chatting while eating without checking their phones.

When Leon heard his phone ring, he answered, "What's up?"

Elin was infuriated by his question and said, "What's up? Everything!"

Without thinking, she questioned him. “Do you really not trust me? You’ve been hiding everything from me. It’s so unreasonable.”

Today, she had been bombarded online with evidence of Leon’s relationship with Jodie, which was extremely upsetting.

What she couldn’t tolerate and was most upset about was that Leon had been keeping everything from her.

Leon respected his agent, but that didn’t mean the agent could question him in that tone.

“Be clear, what have I been hiding from you? Can you calm down? If you can’t speak properly. I’ll hang up first.”

Leon’s voice and tone turned cold as if he had poured a bucket of cold water on Elin.

Only then did she realize that jealousy and anger had clouded her judgment.

Taking a deep breath, she apologized, “I’m sorry: I was just angered by the things I saw online, which caused me to overreact. Have you seen the latest trending search? You’re on the list again. Half of today’s trending topics are about you.”

Leon replied, “I was having dinner. I didn’t check.”

“What happened?” Elin suppressed her emotions and said, “Photos of you and Jodie meeting privately were posted online, and each one is very ambiguous.”

Leon furrowed his brow and asked, “How could there be such photos?”

Elin wanted to roll her eyes. I have the same question.

But he actually turned the question back to her.

“It should be the surveillance video of you two meeting alone. Someone took screenshots. And someone unintentionally or intentionally followed you and took photos of your affair.”

Leon’s brows furrowed even deeper, “Watch your words. We didn’t have any affair.”

Elin didn't want to argue about this with him, "Apart from that, there are also photos of you and Jodie wearing matching 450-thousand-dollar couple pendants that have been dug up. You both attended separate events and wore them on multiple occasions."

Leon was puzzled. "What couple pendants? I didn't have any!" When did I wear a couple pendant with Jodie? This is ridiculous.

"Either someone is spreading rumors or the photos have been photoshopped."

Elin laughed in frustration, "We had the technical department verify it, and the photos haven't been photoshopped at all. Are you still not willing to tell me the truth? How can we handle public relations like this?"

Leon was even more puzzled. "I can't tell you something if I haven't done that thing before. I'll call you back after I check the trending list"

He hung up the phone and checked: sure enough, he saw the "intimate photos" of him and Jodie.

After finishing, a wave of anger surged in Leon's chest.

All these photos were taken at tricky angles, creating ambiguity.

The photo of Jodie sticking to him was because she accidentally slipped and fell on him.

He helped her up and created some distance after that.

The one where they were looking down together was when they were reading messages on their phones.

When he noticed that as soon as Jodie leaned her head against his, he immediately moved away.

And the one where their lips were close to each other was even more outrageous.

That was when Jodie leaned in to talk to him, and he suddenly sat up straight.

Her lips touched his car.

The angles of these photos were too cunning, so even if he went out to explain, not many people would believe him.

He didn't know who was behind the scenes, causing trouble for them.

It was obvious that there was a team behind this.

Leon didn't suspect Simone in this case.

Firstly, he thought it was unlikely for Simone to obtain surveillance videos and deliberately hire someone to follow them.

Secondly, he didn't want to believe that Simone would be so ruthless toward him.

After logging out, he went to look at the other photo,

So,

Even

though he loved Jo, it was difficult for him to accept that they were secretly inv

Jodie never expected that the photos of her and Leon alone would be dug up l ike this.

The ambiguous photos were taken through screenshots and secret shots.

However, they were all intentionally staged by her to create an ambiguous at mosphere, hoping to attract Leon.

Of course, she couldn't admit to that.

Regarding the couple pendants, they were not a gift from Leon. They were actually a birthday present she received. If she hadn't seen the photos on Facebook today, she wouldn't have known that Leon had one, too. Otherwise, she wouldn't have worn it several times to events just because she liked it in order to maintain her image and avoid any compromising situations.

Upon hearing Aaron's questioning, Leon immediately denied, "We're just friends, nothing more." Jodie also regained her

composure and said, "Our relationship is not what people on the internet are portraying" She felt almost driven crazy, as people were cursing at her based on these photos, even though she was innocent.

She couldn't reveal her secret thoughts about Leon in front of him and her brother. Nor could she admit it online, as she would be seen as a homewrecker and heavily criticized.

Aaron's face was filled with anger as he asked. "If you have no relationship, then what about those photos and the couple pendants? Do you dare to say that you didn't secretly meet without our knowledge?" The photos were solid evidence and had been verified.

This statement left Leon and Jodie unable to argue, as they had indeed met at one on numerous occasions. Leon explained, "Yes, we have met, but it's not what the rumors online are saying. The photos were taken from tricky angles and manipulated."

Aaron stared at him with anger in his eyes and said, "Do you think I'm a fool? Even if you take photos from tricky angles, you still have to be close to each other! Leon's expression turned even uglier as he looked up, his gaze darkening. "Let me say it one more. time: I did not betray Simone."

Don't talk nonsense."

Leon felt a little panicked.

Even Aaron misunderstood the situation he saw online and thought that Jodie and Leon were having an affair.

What would Simone think if she saw that?

Jodie hurriedly grabbed Aaron and said, "Aaron, don't say that about Leon."

This whole thing was Simone's fault. Why didn't Aaron defend Leon and clarify the situation?

For the first time, Aaron pushed Jodie's hand off his arm.

There was a hint of disappointment in his eyes. Jo, you know he's Simone's boyfriend, so why are you being so ambiguous with him? You're going too far."

He did spoil Jodie a lot, treating her like a younger sister,

After Simone came back, she was always competing with Jo, causing Jo to fall ill several times.

She even almost drove Jo away from the Gray Family.

That was why he was angry at Simone and protected Jo from being bullied by her.

But that didn't mean he didn't care about Simone as a sister.

Especially because he always felt guilty toward Simone. After all, it was his fault that he lost her when they were kids because he was playing around.

In his heart, he considered Simone as a sister, so their conflicts and fights wouldn't affect their relationship.

They were siblings with the same parents, sharing the same blood. They were the closest people to each other, and there shouldn't be any long-lasting grudges.

Just like how he had fought with his other two brothers before, but they quickly made up,

Now, it was Jo who had done something wrong to Simone, and he was also unhappy about it.

Jodie couldn't believe what she was hearing from Aaron. Her eyes instantly turned red.

She felt wronged and said, "Aaron, you actually don't believe me. And you're scolding me for Simone's sake."

Normally, Aaron would definitely feel sorry for her and try to comfort her.

But Leon and Jodie's situation had crossed a line.

He pursed his lips and looked at her. Jo, don't forget. Simone is also my sister. When she bullies you and takes your things I will unconditionally stand by your side. But I cannot accept you secretly getting involved with her boyfriend. Why choose Simone's boyfriend when there are eligible bachelors from prestigious families or A-list actors in the entertainment industry? Why? He was really angry.

No wonder Simone treated Leon and Jo that way on the variety show,

So, she already knew that she had betrayed her. If it were him, he would be angry too! He couldn't help but wonder if Simone was taking her anger out on him as well.

Jodie was infuriated by Aaron questioning and almost fell backward in anger.

Then he didn't even eat his meal and called Jonah.

He asked him to arrange another car for him.

He didn't want to see the Gray siblings anymore.

And if he took another car to the airport and got caught, his relationship with Jodie would be even more difficult to explain.

Jonah was confused when he received the call.

After asking, he found out that Leyla was in the car and would soon be near the restaurant.

He asked Leon if he could take Leyla's car, as there wasn't enough time to arrange a separate car.

As long as he didn't have to ride with the Gray siblings. Leon didn't mind and agreed without hesitation

He stood on the roadside outside the restaurant, waiting for the car.

Aaron and Jodie were now giving each other the silent treatment.

Jodie cried incessantly, and in the past, Aaron would have hugged her and comforted her

Aaron scratched his head irritably, not bothering to comfort Jodie for the first time, and turned away from the restaurant.

He ignored Leon standing on the side of the road and got into the car, his face icy.

This time, he took the co-driver seat instead of sitting in the back.

Seeing that Aaron didn't say a word and just left her behind, Jodie couldn't help but cry in grievance.

She felt a crisis coming.

She knew that in Aaron's heart, his sister Simone was very important.

Previously, she had used wicked means to constantly pit the Gray brothers against Simone behind Simone's back, making them believe that Simone often bullied her and wanted to force her to leave the Gray Family.

She relied on them growing up together and years of feelings to stand by her side.

Chapter 68 Is He Taking Me for a Fool?

This was the first time Aaron stood against her because of Simone.

If Simone and Leon were really together, she would accept it.

But she wasn't! She was clearly the most innocent and aggrieved victim. So why did Aaron blame her? And Leon was also a jerk.

He didn't even comfort her and just left like that.

Both of them treated her like this because of Simone, which was too much.

Simone, Simone, why couldn't that woman just get out of my way? At this moment, Jodie's resentment toward Simone intensified.

Why couldn't that woman just die before she came back? She had to return, and cause problems for her.

She is relentless, completely relentless.

After pondering for a moment, Jodie picked up her phone and dialed Titus' number..

Titus also felt annoyed at the moment.

When he saw that it was Jodie calling, he suddenly felt the urge not to answer

She had actually kept it a secret from them and had been involved with Leon behind their backs.

He was not only her manager but also a brother who loved her deeply.

Did she really not trust me? And why did she have to get involved with Simone's boyfriend, of all people?

This situation was also difficult for him to accept.

Before the live broadcast, he had specifically called Leon to ask him to take care of her.

Who would have thought that these two had been secretly communicating frequently before and their relationship was not simple?

Do these two think I am a fool?

The ringing ceased momentarily before starting again.

Titus answered the call. "What's the matter?"

Jodie cried and complained. Titus. I feel terrible. Aaron bullied me. Not only did he not believe me, he also scolded and left me alone"

Titus listened to Jodie's complaint

Normally, he would comfort her and then call and scold Aaron.

But now, he raised his hand and pinched his nose, his eyes filled with exhaustion. "Why did he scold. you? Is it because you have a complicated relationship with Leon?" He asked in a deep voice. Jo, tell me honestly, are you secretly involved with Leon?"

Jodie thought Titus would comfort her and then call Aaron to vent

Little did she know that he would ask her three consecutive questions

I didn't. Leon and I have a platonic relationship?

She felt even more wronged. We are not secretly together. Titus, don't you believe me either?

Titus fell silent for a moment. The evidence online makes it hard to believe that you have no relationship.

Jodie exclaimed. "I truly have nothing with him. If you don't believe it, then forget it. You all bully me

Then she angrily hung up the phone.

In the past, when she was "bullied" by Simone in the Gray Family, it was just her faking it

But now, it was real.

Since entering the Gray Family and being pampered and spoiled, she had never felt so wronged before.

And it was because of Titus and the others who cherished Jodie like a precious gem

That's why she was throwing a tantrum now and hung up the phone on her own

She hoped that Titus would call back and comfort her.

Unfortunately. Titus was also angry this time.

After being hung up on he was so angry that he threw his phone on the ground.

Jodie waited for several minutes, but Titus didn't call back.

She was so angry that she almost wanted to throw away her phone, too.

Aaron didn't come in to find her either.

Jodie could only walk out crying

She saw Leon standing not far away, and Aaron had returned to his car.

Jodie thought for a moment and walked up to Leon.

"Leon, I'm sorry. It was just Aaron's impulsiveness that made him misunderstand what we said about you. I will explain it to them."

As Jodie approached, Leon immediately took a few steps to the side.

He kept a distance from her before saying. "It's okay; I didn't take his words to heart."

But Leon's action hurt Jodie.

She was about to explode with frustration

What does Leon think I am? A ferocious beast? “Leon, what should we do now? No matter how you want to clarify, I will fully cooperate.

She knew that Leon was not like her brothers.

That was why she endured the grievances and showed her generosity and thoughtfulness.

Of course, she didn't want to be blamed for wrecking Simone's relationship.

Otherwise, she would be cursed to death.

How could she continue to thrive in the entertainment industry and become a top-tier actress? This required Leon to solve it.

Speaking of which, Leon's headache worsened, “I don't know either.”

Just then, Leyla's car arrived.

Upon seeing this, Leon said to Jodie, I'm leaving now. If there's anything that needs clarification, I'll contact you.”

Then he turned around and walked toward the car.

Without even looking back, he got in the car, leaving behind Jodie with swollen eyes and tears all over her face.

And neither of them noticed that not far away, a girl was taking photos with her phone.

She not only took a picture of the two of them standing together but also captured Jodie's current appearance.

Jodie saw the car driving away.

She realized that Leon was also insensitive, which made her furious and helpless.

She could only return to the car they had originally sat in.

She opened the car door and sat in the back seat..

Ignoring Aaron she leaned against the window and sobbed softly, waiting for Aaron to take the initiative to appease her

When the driver saw the two of them getting in. Leon and the other car had already left, the car and followed them

The director had already learned about the restaurant incident from the staff who had been dining with the three of them

He was speechless and couldn't help but sarcastically say "They deserve it. Shouldn't have done it if they didn't want this to happen should they?"

Then Leon and Jodie went their separate ways looking upset,

Everyone started speculating whether these two were having an affair and got caught, so they started fighting and judging from their appearance, it really looked like a couple's quarrel

More and more people joined in criticizing the two, making the already unfavorable situation even Elin was almost driven crazy when she saw all this.

She hadn't figured out how to handle the previous incident, and now this happened by Jodie restless? On the other hand. Simone and the others were keeping up with the latest

Zac spoke up. There's no way to explain their relationship now. It's impossible to clear their names

Simone smiled and replied. "Yeah, it's impossible."

But this was just the beginning, as they both said.

Elin and Titus teams had spent half a day discussing but they couldn't come up with a solution to clear their names

Elin contacted Leco again. You understand the situation now, right? What should we do?

Leon replied, "I didn't give Jodie the couple necklace."

Elin asked, "Then why does she have it?" Emphasizing, she said, "It's a limited edition that is not sold separately, and there are only two in the world."

Leon truthfully answered, "Someone else gave it to her."

Elin asked again, "What about yours? Did the same person give

Leon replied. "Yes"

Elin continued, "Who is this person?"

Leon paused for a moment before saying, "An elderly guy."

it to you?"

Elin pondered for a moment and suggested, "Could we invite the person to step forward and provide clarification?"

Leon remained silent for a moment and then responded, "That wouldn't be appropriate. And the Internet wouldn't believe it either. If it was just a photo, we might be able to clear it up, but now, with the couple necklace, you didn't believe we were innocent, did you?"

Elin asked, "What should we do then? If this continues to escalate, it will greatly damage your reputation."

Leon looked exhausted and said, "I'll post something on Facebook, whether people believe it or not."

This undeniable "evidence" would be impossible to erase.

"Jodie and I are simply friends. "If anyone has the ability, they can search for evidence of our inappropriate relationship. I'm not afraid."

Elin was speechless. Was Leon suggesting that they give up? She proposed, "Why don't you go and ask that elder?"

Leon immediately dismissed the idea, "Don't even consider it; it's impossible. Let's just leave it at that."

He ended the call and proceeded to make a post on Facebook.

@Leony: I want to clarify once again that Simone is my girlfriend, and I have no inappropriate relationship with Jodie. I didn't give her the necklace.

He reclined in his seat and closed his eyes,

Leyla, seated in the passenger seat, glanced at Leon through the rearview mirror and secretly sneered.

In her mind, she cursed him for pretending to be innocent when he was actually a cheating scumbag. He deserved it.

All six guests were returning to Cebros, so the show's team had purchased tickets for them for the same flight.

By the time Leon arrived, they were already boarding.

He couldn't help but walk briskly toward them

Addressing Zac he said. "Mr. Turner, would you mind switching seats?"

Zac was taken aback when Leon wanted to immediately switch seats with him as soon as they boarded the plane.

Looking up at Leon, Zac remarked. "Leon, did you forget to look in the mirror when you got out of the

Leon looked puzzled and asked, "What do you mean?"

Raising an eyebrow, Zac continued, "You think a guy like you can tell me what to do?"

Leon choked, "Zac, you've gone too far. I need to talk to Simone, so please switch seats."

Zac thought Leon was unusually shameless,

He sneered, "You want to switch seats to talk to Simone? Did you even ask for her permission? Before Leon could answer, Simone, who had been engrossed in her phone, spoke up without looking up.

"No, you can't

Zac shrugged at Leon, "Leon, you heard it too. Simone doesn't want to sit with you."

Leon panicked and looked at Simone, "Simone, I really need to tell you something urgent."

He pleaded. Can we talk for just a moment?"

Simone looked up at Leon and replied, "Sorry, we're not close enough for that."

"What if people misunderstand if we switch seats? I don't want to attract attention by getting seen with you again. I'll just waste the public's time."

This remark was filled with sarcasm.

Leon understood Simone's intentions immediately.

She must have known that they were the ones who leaked their relationship.

"Can you give me three minutes?" He took a deep breath. There are things I must explain to you."

Simone looked away from Leon and picked up a magazine, flipping it open. "I'm not interested in your explanations.

Her attitude and actions clearly showed that she had no intention of dealing with Leon anymore..

Simone had never realized before that Leon could be so persistent and annoying.

Leon was hurt by Simone's words and actions.

But he also knew that if he didn't clarify things with Simone today, given her personality, they might not be able to reconcile.

At that moment, a flight attendant came over and reminded Leon and Aaron to sit in their assigned

Leon couldn't care less about that now.

He leaned on Zac's chair with his hand and bent down.

He whispered near Simone's ear. There is absolutely no romantic relationship between Jodie and me. I was asked to take care of her. All those ambiguous actions in the photos are fake"

They thought maybe it really was a misunderstanding. Otherwise, why would a big movie star like him need to explain and beg for forgiveness from Simone in such a humble manner

Zac didn't expect Leon, who usually appeared proud and cold, to suddenly act like this.

He rubbed his arms and shivered.

Then he looked at Leon with an admiring expression. I've got goosebumps. No wonder he's a movie star his acting is amazing

Leon wanted to throw Zac off the plane right now

This is so annoying.

He looked at Zac with cold eyes! You can just shut it

” She added, “Besides, we’ve already broken up and cut off contact. Even if you wanted to act, you chose the wrong person.

Leon narrowed his eyes.

With a look of disbelief and pain, he stared at her and said, “Do you think I’m pretending?” He poured out his genuine feelings to her, but all he received was an accusation that he was acting.

Simone chuckled. “What else could it be? If you were truly sincere, why didn’t you do it earlier? I’ve never seen you behave like this before!” Simone knew someone was recording.

So, she deliberately smiled helplessly. “A movie star is a movie star. If I didn’t know you so well, I might have believed it.”

Leon stared at Simone, “Very well!” He knew everything now. Simone had intentionally set him up like this.

Simone shrugged nonchalantly. “I know I’m well, but you no longer have the chance to be with someone as good as me.”

Then she gestured for him to follow, Leon, your performance is over, and the plane is about to take off. I kindly ask you to follow the instructions and return to your seat

Leon was now angry and heartbroken, his expression filled with suppression and a sense of defeat.

How did it come to this?
