

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 1

When she returned home from the hospital alone, Brielle Callow saw her biological parents and three older brothers celebrating Pearl Galley's birthday.

Pearl was the culprit who had caused her to be hospitalized.

Anger rushed to her head. Brielle walked forward, reached out and grabbed Pearl's hair, and forcefully pressed her head into the cake.

Her eldest Brother Roman Galley berated, "Brielle Callow, what are you doing? Quickly apologize to Pearl!"

"Pa!"

Brielle slapped Roman in the face. "Fucking your apology, shut up!"

Her second brother Robert Galley: "Are you crazy?"

"Pa!"

Brielle slapped Robert in the face. "Shut up too!"

Her third brother Jordan Galley's mouth twitched.

"Pa!"

Jordan covered his face and was so angry that his face twisted. "I didn't say anything. Why did you hit me?"

Brielle sneered. "I am willing. Do I need a reason?"

"You..." Jordan was so angry that he was speechless.

Brooks Galley was just about to flip out when Brielle beat him to it and spat on his face. "I don't want to listen to you. Shut up!"

Then, she picked up a drink from the table and poured it on Mrs. Galley.

"All of you guys have a share. I won't be as biased as you guys."

Everyone was stunned.

They never thought that Brielle, who had been trying hard to please them three months ago, would actually beat and scold them like crazy after waking up after three months in a coma.

Brielle was the real daughter of the Galley family.

On the day of her birth, she and the daughter of the nanny were in the wrong.

It was not until a year ago when the Galley family found out the truth that they found her back.

However, the Galley family could not bear to part with Pearl, after all they had raised her for nineteen years; so they wanted Pearl to stay in the Galley family.

They were afraid that Pearl would be wronged, so they treated Pearl even better than their real daughter Brielle; however, they treat their biological daughter coldly.

Chapter 1

Pearl was very good at acting and was always scheming her, which made the Galley family hate her.

Three months ago, she was pushed off the five-meter-high stage by Pearl.

The Galley family ignored her, who was covered in blood, and ran to comfort the frightened Pearl.

Even when they ran to comfort Pearl, they stepped on her.

All five of them stepped on her.

It made her already scarred body even worse.

After that, she became a vegetable.

Brielle collected herself and swept everyone with her cold gaze before finally stopping on Pearl.

Pearl shivered subconsciously and hid behind her eldest brother in fear.

Brielle sneered, "She and me, only one can stay in this family. If you want me to stay here, then immediately chase her out. Don't let her step into the family again!".

She had always tried to get along well with them and try to integrate into this family. She tried to make love to each and every one of them and tried to let them see her good and accept her.

However, this group of people were brainless idiots. They abandoned their own kin and surrounded Pearl.

Now, she gave up.

She had no way to make them all like her.

However, she had a way to make them hate her.

If they made her unhappy, then she would make them even more unhappy!

Brooks was furious. "Pearl will always be the apple of our Galley family's eye. As long as we are still alive, this place will always be her home!"

Third Brother said, "Why are you so vicious? Pearl is so good to you. Why do you always target her? And you even want to drive her away from home?"

"Pa!"

Brielle slapped him again.

Third Brother was so angry that his guts were about to burst.

"Brielle, you are too much. I must teach you a good lesson today!"

Third Brother stood up and was ready to make a move.

At this time, the other families came back to their senses and stood up one after another, ready to fight her together.

They all thought that they had to teach this white-eyed wolf a lesson today and set rules for her.

Otherwise, where would they put their face?

Although they had the numbers, Brielle's move was ruthless out of their expectation. She spat at them, kicked their crotch, and smashed whatever she caught.

The four of them were actually unable to defeat a weak girl like Brielle!

Brielle took advantage of the chaos to run upstairs. As she ran, she said, "Since all of you don't want to drive Pearl away, then I'll go. From today onwards, I'll cut off all ties with your Galley family and never meet again!"

"When we meet outside in the future, don't even talk about knowing me or greeting me. I find it unlucky!"

She ran back to her room, found her ID, and then jumped down from the window.

The second floor was a little high.

However, she had practiced martial arts before, so this height was not difficult for her.

In the living room.

Pearl cried sadly while hugging her mother.

"I've always wanted to build a good relationship with my sister. If there is anything good, I will think of her immediately. I didn't expect her to be so unwilling to accept me."

Chapter 1

"Mom, Dad, I'd better leave the Galley family. After all, my sister is your biological daughter. No matter how bad her character is, she still has your blood on her, and I am just an outsider."

"I will go and beg her now, even if I have to kneel down to her. As long as she can come back and take care of you in my place, I will have no regrets..."

Pearl said sincerely.

The Galley family was both distressed and moved.

Mrs. Galley: "Don't talk nonsense. In my eyes, you will always be my precious daughter. Everyone can leave the Galley family, but you can't leave!"

Brooks: "How can that bastard Brielle compare to you? Even if she comes back, she will only cause chaos in the family. She will not be filial to us at all! She even beat her parents. It is simply treason!"

Third Brother: "The meaning of Brielle's existence is to exchange you, a kind little angel, to our Galley family, so that we can have a sister as kind as you."

Pearl bit her lip. "But before Grandpa passed away, he left 30 of the company's shares to sister. What if she uses the shares to cause trouble in the company?"

Brooks frowned. "The shares in her hands are indeed a problem, but since she wants to leave the Galley family, the shares that belong to the Galley family naturally can't be taken away by her!"

"Tomorrow, I will take people to find her and take back the shares in her hands!"

At the entrance of the hotel.

Brielle crossed her arms around her chest and casually leaned against the pillar at the entrance.

A Maybach slowly drove over.

Then, a handsome man got out of the car.

The man was nearly 1.9 meters tall. His figure was so good that it could explode. His facial features were perfect, and he was full of dignity and coldness that could not be blasphemed.

Kayden Fairfax.

The leader of Fairfax Group.

The richest man in Ocean City.

Brielle stepped forward and blocked Kayden's path.

Kayden stopped and his cold gaze fell on Brielle.

"President Fairfax, I want to talk to you about a business deal." Brielle was the first to speak.

"I have 30% of the Galley Group's shares in my hands. I want to sell all these shares to you."

The Galley family was once the richest family in Ocean City. Although they were now suppressed by the Fairfax Group, his strength was still not to be underestimated.

The two families had always been competitors.

If Kayden obtained 30% of the Galley Group's shares, it would only be a matter of time before he wanted to annex the Galley Group.

Kayden, who had a cold expression on his face, narrowed his eyes slightly after hearing her words and began to seriously size her up.

Brielle saw his suspicion and immediately showed him her ID card.

"Let me introduce myself. I am Brielle Callow, the daughter of the Galley family. I think Mr. Fairfax should know about the matter of leaving 30% of Galley Group's shares to the daughter of the Galley family before the death of the old man."

Kayden looked at her ID card and raised his eyebrows with interest.

"Follow me in."

Brielle followed Kayden to the presidential suite on the top floor of the hotel.

Entering the room, Kayden got straight to the point and asked, "How much do you want to sell your 30% shares for?"

Brielle said, "5 million dollars!"

Kayden paused, a trace of surprise in his eyes. He stared at her for a long time.

"Miss Callow, do you know what you are talking about?"

Brielle said, "I know very well what I'm talking about. I want 5 million dollars!"

Kayden narrowed his eyes. "You better think it through before you speak. I don't have time to play with you."

Brielle's tone was serious. "I am not joking with you. I am serious. As long as you are willing to buy it, I can transfer the shares at any time!"

Kayden said in a low voice, "Do you know how much the market value of Galley Group is?"

Brielle nodded seriously. "I know, the estimated value is 30 billion dollars."

The ex-richest family of Ocean City was naturally worth a lot.

Kayden: "The estimated value is 30 billion dollars. Your 30% shares are only sold for 5 million dollars? Are you kidding me?"

Brielle said frankly, "I'm not teasing you. I only want 5 million dollars in cash, but I still want to sign an additional contract with you."

Chapter 1

Kayden raised his eyebrows, indicating for her to continue.

Brielle: "The Galley family will definitely take revenge on me. I want you to keep me safe. And the most important thing..."

"I hope to see the Galley Group change owners within a year."

"Although the Galley family has been pushed down from the position of the richest family in Ocean City, the Galley family has a deep foundation. In the whole of domestic countries, there are very few people who can make the Galley family bankrupt."

"If you want to attack the Galley Group and make the Galley family bankrupt, you need to pay a lot of price. In the end, whether you earn or lose depends on Mr. Fairfax's means."

Kayden was a little shocked by her request. He said with interest, "Your grandfather is so good to you. He left 30% of the shares to you, but you want to make Galley Group disappear. Aren't you afraid that he won't be able to die in peace?"

Brielle's eyes revealed a hint of ridicule.

"I want the Galley family to regret for life."

Everyone thought that Old Master Galley gave her 30% of the shares because he was biased towards her.

However, no one knew that she was the one who threatened the old man to give the shares to her.

The Galley family was rotten from top to bottom, and that old man was the worst and most disgusting!

Kayden did not ask any more questions and immediately asked the lawyer to print the contract and send it over.

Brielle signed the contract and also signed the shares transfer agreement.

When everything was done, Kayden immediately got someone to give her the money.

After signing the agreement, Brielle suddenly remembered something very important...

"Mr. Fairfax, can I make a request?"

"Yes. You have the right to make your request right at any time, but I also have the right to refuse."

Brielle: "..."

"My bad, goodbye."

Businessmen were very principled.

A transaction that had been completed, so she could not add to any additional requirements.

Brielle stood up and prepared to leave.

"Miss Callow, why don't you tell me your request? Maybe I will agree to it?"
