God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 102

Chapter 102

Brielle said sarcastically, "You don't have any poison, but the group of beasts behind you who support you and can't afford the loss have them."

"Don't talk nonsense! The bosses treat us equally and don't take special care of me. It's even more impossible for them to give me poison to use!" Jebl was still stubborn.

"Bang!"

Brielle kicked him in the face.

"Pay attention to your attitude. Don't fucking shout in front of me!"

Jebl's face was green and red, and his whole face was shaking with anger.

Brielle said, "Don't think you pretend to be stubborn. And then I don't know that those beasts deliberately asked the helicopter to avoid me and directly threw the supplies to you?"

"If they didn't take special care of you, how did you get your crossbow?"

"You said that the poison was not put in by you, then the others were poisoned. Why are you fine? Didn't they give you the poison and gave you the antidote alone so that you resist the poison and not be poisoned?"

Jebl was kicked to the point that his face was burning with pain.

A few teeth mixed with blood sprayed out.

He was so angry that his liver was about to burst, but he could not break free from the ropes binding his body.

He glared at Brielle, and he did not dare to shout, but his tone was still full of anger. "You weren't poisoned either. Why didn't you say that you were the one who poisoned?"

"Bang!"

Brielle kicked him in the face again.

"You..." Jeb! spat out a mouthful of blood as he glared at Brielle.

Brielle sneered, "The live broadcast on my side has always been on. The audience can see clearly whether I did anything or not."

"As for you, the director has always been helping you with shady dealings. He helped you close the live broadcast and let you obtain the crossbow illegally. He even arranged poison for you to poison me. Widi is really shameless."

"You can't beat me in public. Then they are just playing dirty tricks and constantly giving you weapons and props to deal with me."

"Unfortunately no matter how despicable you are, you are still no match for me."

Jebl stubbornly refused to admit, "You have no evidence. You are slandering me!"

Brielle sneered and stopped talking to him.

She reached out her hands and grabbed Jebl's hair, dragging him in front of the big white tiger.

Jebl screamed in pain, but Brielle completely ignored him..

In front of the big white tiger, she pried open the big white tiger's mouth, then used the katana to cut Jebl's arm and lifted him up, letting blood flow into the big white tiger's mouth.

Chapter 102

Then, it fed Tana and Lov the same way.

Not long after, the big white tiger woke up.

It licked the bloody smell in its mouth, and the whole tiger became agitated. It raised its head and howled a few times.

"Shut up, stop shouting!" Brielle scolded unhappily.

The big white tiger immediately stopped howling and turned to whisper.

Soon. Tana and Lov woke up..

Tana rubbed her temples and asked in confusion, "What's going on? Why am I lying on the ground?"

Lov moved his hands and feet and frowned. "Why do I feel that my strength has been drained and I am slowly recovering?"

Their abnormal physical reaction was not like a normal coma.

Under normal circumstances, they would not have fainted for no reason.

Therefore, everything was very abnormal.

Brielle kicked Jebl and said. "This bastard was burning the poison in the fire. He used the smoke to spread the poison into the forest. You inhaled too much poisonous smoke and fainted."

"He took the antidote himself. The blood still has the medicinal properties of the antidote. I used his blood to help you remove the poison."

"But because the antidote was diluted by the blood, you still need to wait for a while to recover."

Tana and Lov had expressions of realization.

Tana suddenly asked curiously, "You also inhaled the poisonous smoke. Why are you fine?"

If Brielle was like them, if she was affected by the drug, she wouldn't be fine and even catch Jebl.

Brielle said, "Maybe I was kind. The poisonous smoke couldn't bear to make me faint, so it avoided me alone."

A few years ago, she had already started an anti-poison experiment.

A year ago, she had been injected with the last injection of anti-poison medicine.

It could not say that she was immune to poison right now, but she was immune to most of the poison.

But she could not say this out loud.

Tana: ...

Lov: "…"

Do you believe it yourself?

But they could tell that Brielle did not want to say it, so they did not ask.

The strength in their bodies had yet to recover, and they could only sit on the ground and wait for their strength to recover.

The rich people who were celebrating were all dumbfounded when they saw that Jebl was caught and tied up by Brielle.

They looked at the big screen in disbelief. Their expressions were shocked and dazed. It was a long time before they came back to their senses.

"Pa!"

John smashed his wine glass to the ground.

He was so angry that his whole body was shaking, and his whole face was red.

"Fuck!"

"Why isn't Brielle unconscious? That poison, even the huge big white tiger was soon poisoned unconscious. Why is Brielle completely fine?"

"Even if she knew, she wouldn't have the antidote, but why wasn't she poisoned?"

"What exactly went wrong?"

He couldn't figure out why Brielle wasn't unconscious.

He had originally thought that it would be foolproof this time.

He had not expected that Brielle would actually be fine!

"Could it really be like what she said? Because she is kind, the poisonous smoke deliberately detoured away"

Everyone looked at each other.

Brielle was kind?

Who would believe this?

The

way

she treated Fukuyu and Deadie, even a pervert would think that she was abnormal.

She was completely unrelated to kindness!

Moreover, the smoke had no life, so how could it specifically bypass her?

They had been staring at the screen just now and did not see the smoke around her disperse at all.

Toofucker also said with a gloomy face, "Could it be that there was a traitor among us who secretly gave the antidote to Brielle in advance. She took the antidote in advance, so she was fine?"

The bearded man nodded in agreement. "Yes, that's possible."

John said, "That's impossible. That medicine was specially developed. This time, only one antidote was made. Brielle can't have an antidote!"

Everyone looked at each other, not knowing what was going on.

John gritted his teeth and said, "Brielle came here for revenge. She should have made preparations in advance, but I don't know how she did it."

"I underestimated her!"

He stared at Brielle on the screen, his eyes burning with anger.

"We have to think of another way. We must think of a way to deal with her!"

"I don't believe that we can't catch her!"

The moustached vendor suggested, "Turn off the external live broadcast and only start the internal live broadcast."

Without the attention of the outside world, we will directly send people in with hot weapons. No matter how skilled she is, she is still afraid of guns!"

"Many rich people from the outside world have placed their bets, especially some of Oscus' rich people. Their bets add up to hundreds of billions. Toofucker frowned.

"If the live broadcast is closed now and there is no result in the competition, according to the rules, we have to pay for them. according to their wins."

John said darkly. "Turn off the live broadcast first, send someone to save Jebl, then use hot weapons to suppress Brielle, send Jebl directly to the foot of the mountain, and then start the live broadcast, let the audience see Jebl win, and cut off the money!"

"Then, turn off the external live broadcast, turn on the internal live broadcast, complete the bounty task, and then cut off the reward list!"
