

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 104

Chapter 104

Tana silently looked at Brielle for a few seconds.

Brielle was really compelling...

Soon, she walked in front of Jeb1 with a knife in her hand.

Lov also walked up and helped Tana hold down Jeb1, making it convenient for her to move.

"No... No... You can't hurt me. I am Widian! I am the man of the boss behind the scenes. If you hurt me, you will also die!"

Jeb1 shouted in horror, hoping to scare them away with his identity.

But they were not afraid of death. This kind of threat was useless to them.

Tana quickly cut his pants.

Then, she cut it with her saber.

"Ah...!"

Jeb1's scream spread far and wide, and the birds on the surrounding trees were scared away.

When the big white tiger saw this scene, it roared in excitement and patted the ground happily with its two front paws.

Finally, someone was even more miserable than it.

In comparison, the horrible upright ape was very gentle to it.

When it wanted to eat her, she only crushed its egg and kicked its anus.

She was really good to it.

"Roar!"

The big white tiger cried happily and even rubbed its head against Brielle's back.

However, it did not control its strength well and almost sent Brielle flying.

"Pa!"

Brielle slapped the big white tiger on the head.

"I already told you not to scream, what are you still screaming for?"

Although the big white tiger had already lowered its voice, she was close to it. When it opened its mouth, it was like a horn buzzing in her ear, causing her eardrums to hurt.

The tiger was big, and even if it whispered, the sound was quite shocking-

The big white tiger did not dare to scream.

But it was still very happy in its heart.

She was beating it so gently like scratching an itch; the upright ape must be unwilling to hit it.

Tana had already cut it.

She showed off and said to Brielle, "Look, is my craftsmanship good? I cut it into more than a hundred strands, but not a single one was cut off. They are still hanging on it, isn't it amazing?"

Brielle gave her a thumbs-up.

Cutting such a thin thing into more than a hundred strands was indeed a technical work.

Receiving Brielle's approval, Tana was very happy.

Really good! She was one step closer to the pervert.

Oh no... It was one step closer to Brielle.

Brielle went to pick some herbs and asked Tana to help Jeb1 apply the hemostasis to prevent him from dying too quickly.

Of course, the wound on the lower part of his body was the same as the wound on the upper part of his body.

In the medicinal herbs, some cute little creatures who liked to suck blood and eat meat accidentally mixed in.

Jeb1 was in so much pain that he felt like he was dying, but he could not faint.

"Brielle... Why are you... so cruel to me?" Jeb1 trembled violently. He looked at Brielle weakly and asked with difficulty.

Although he had offended Brielle, it was just a simple conflict. Why did Brielle use such cruel methods to deal with him?

Brielle laughed, "Vicious? Compared to what you want to do to me, it shouldn't be cruel, right?"

Jeb1's entire body was trembling as he glared at Brielle with bloodshot eyes.

Brielle asked, "What is the bounty the group of bosses behind you gave you? How do they want you to torture me?"

Jeb1's pupils shrank as he looked at Brielle in shock.

How did she know?

He shut his mouth tightly and did not say a word.

Although the exterior filming had been closed, the internal filming was still on. The bosses behind the scenes were all watching, so he did not dare to say too much.

Even if he was in pain that was worse than death, he did not dare to say anything.

"Don't want to say it? Alright, I'll do it myself. Although I'm not as perverted as you guys think, I'll make up for it. I won't treat you unfairly." Brielle shrugged indifferently.

She pinched her chin and thought for a while. She said to Lov, "Didn't we collect a few ropes? Take one out and wrap his neck around it. Let's walk him like a dog."

Lov silently took out a rope and tied it to Jeb1's neck.

Brielle said, "That won't do. He won't obediently crawl away. We have to think of a way to make him unable to stand up."

Tana suggested, "Break his knees?"

Lov said, "If his knees are broken, he won't be able to crawl."

Brielle looked at Jeb1 with a faint smile. "How about you give me an idea?"

Jeb1 was so angry that he wanted to vomit blood.

Torturing him like this, and she even required him to come up with an idea himself?

The devil was not as ruthless as her!

Brielle sighed. "Sigh, you've always been targeting me. I even asked for your opinion in such a friendly manner when I encountered a problem, but you're so rude. You didn't even answer me. Your upbringing is a little lacking."

Brielle looked at Tana. "Since he doesn't want to provide an opinion, then let's deal with his legs according to Deadie's standards first. That way, he can only crawl."

Jeb1's pupils shrank, and his body trembled even more.

The director had told him what had happened to Fukuyu and Deadie in his earpiece.

Deadie's legs had been sliced until only two sticks remained.

The last two sticks had been smashed into pieces.

Just thinking about it made him feel a chill run down his spine.

Seeing that Tana was about to make a move, Jeb1 finally couldn't hold it in any longer and shouted. "I... I will take the initiative to climb up. Don't mess around!"

"That won't do. You have a way to stand up. I am worried that you will resist. Brielle shook her head.

"I swear, I won't! Jeb1 said anxiously.

Brielle still shook her head. "I don't believe you. Only when you can't stand up physically can I be at ease."

Jeb1's body trembled violently. His face alternated between green and red. He said with difficulty. "Then... then just chop off my foot!"

Although cutting off the foot was also very painful, it was better than ending up like Deadie.

Brielle laughed, "You are really ruthless. You actually asked me to cut off your own foot."

"In fact, as long as when you lie on the ground, using a wooden stick to fix your hands and feet at a suitable distance and angle, you won't be able to stand up."

"You still need to learn more knowledge."

Jeb1 stiffened and hurriedly said, "Don't cut off my feet. Just do as you say and tie them with a wooden stick!"

Brielle said, "That won't do. I hate people who go back on their words the most. Since you have already made a request, you can't change that request."

"Tana,

make your move."

Tana slashed down without a second word.

"Ah —!"

Jeb1 screamed like a pig being slaughtered.

He screamed and rolled in pain, which was worse than death.

Brielle once again showed her kindness and went to help him stop the blood.

When she went to find herbs, she caught two snakes in passing.

She threw the two snakes to Lov.

Do you understand what I mean?"

"Understood," Lov nodded.

If the two snakes were put in his body together, they would definitely fight inside, and it was time to test Jeb1's endurance.

Just as Lov was about to make a move, he suddenly stopped and frowned. "We don't have any stitches, and we can't help him sew them up. What if they come out?"

Brielle took the warrior knife from Tana, cut off a tree that was as thick as a forearm, and then cut it into a plug with one side, big and the other side small, and threw it to Lov,

"Just use this to plug it up."
