

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 110

Chapter 110

“Ah...!”

The man knelt on the ground, howling in grief and indignation.

“I fought so desperately just to live. I won with great difficulty. Why don’t you let me live? Ah!”

Then he raised his sword and cut his neck in despair.

He did not dare to not end his own life.

Because he knew that if he fell into the hands of Brielle, the end result would be thousands of times more painful than ending his own life.

Jeb!’s scream was still in his ears. He did not want to suffer the same pain.

Brielle watched the last corpse fall down and smiled. “Why is he so scared?”

“I was just saying it casually. He actually died. Even if he doesn’t kill himself, I won’t do anything to him.”

“After all, I have always been kind. I’m not the kind of person who likes to fight and kill.

Tana and Lov lowered their heads silently.

“Let’s go.” Brielle patted the big white tiger’s body.

The big white tiger looked at the pile of meat with some regret and snorted twice before leaving.

Tana and Lov also quickly followed.

They walked for a day and finally came to the river.

During this time, they picked some wild fruits in the forest and left them for the desert to eat.

“Look, there are ready-made bamboo rafts over there!” Tana pointed to the distance and shouted in surprise.

Brielle turned around and saw a large bamboo raft.

They walked in front of the bamboo raft and pushed it to the river.

Brielle jumped down from the back of the big white tiger and cut some bamboo. She cut the bamboo into pieces. Then she made a small hole in one of them. He used it as a kettle and filled the river with water. Then she stuffed the hole with at wooden plug to prevent the water from leaking out.

Each of them had five jars, enough for them to drink in the desert.

After everything was ready, they were ready to go..

Brielle turned to look at the big white tiger, patted its head, and said, “You can leave. We will part ways here. We may never meet again in this life. You can call yourself king in this forest in the future.

“However, you better run away first. I am afraid that someone will come to hunt you in a short time.”

The big white tiger cried out.

It looked very anxious.

Brielle: “I don’t understand. Stop shouting.”

The big white tiger stomped its feet anxiously and circled around her.

Brielle kicked it away.

“Don’t turn around, my head is about to be knocked out by you.”

“A big one like you has no natural enemies in the wild. I won’t worry about you. You should leave quickly.”

Brielle motioned for Tana and Lov to push the bamboo raft into the river, and then the three of them jumped onto the bamboo rafi.

Lov was in charge of supporting the bamboo raft.

Brielle and Tana were holding submachine guns in their hands.

The crocodiles in the river sensed the movement on the surface of the river and began to stir, approaching their direction.

Brielle and Tana held submachine guns and fired. The surface of the river was suddenly dyed red.

They crossed the five-hundred-meter distance smoothly.

After reaching the shore, Brielle walked straight ahead without looking back.

Tana and Lov couldn’t help but look at the other side of the river.

The big white tiger was still standing in place, howling at Brielle’s back.

They couldn’t help but sigh in their hearts. Brielle’s heart was harder than a beast’s.

After being together for a few days, the big white tiger was so reluctant to part with her, but she did not have any reluctance to part with it.

But they quickly withdrew their gazes and followed Brielle’s footsteps.

The big white tiger on the other side looked up and roared loudly.

But Brielle never looked back.

Gradually, they walked far away and could no longer hear the sound of the big white tiger.

At this time, the drone around them and the camera above them began to flash with red light again.

The live broadcast started again.

But most countries only had pictures of Brielle.

Because the live broadcast had been stopped for four days, many people thought that the live broadcast was over and would stop, so they did not guard the live broadcast room.

Therefore, there were not many people in the live broadcast room at the beginning.

It was not until someone found out that the live broadcast had started and posted it online that there were gradually more people.

[Damn, the live broadcast has started again. I thought it would not be broadcast again. I did not expect to see Sister E again. I am too excited! But who can tell me what happened in these four days? Why did it suddenly stop?

[Sister E has actually arrived in the desert. So fast. This is only the eleventh day, right? According to previous experiences, crossing a river full of crocodiles is basically no longer difficult. The difficulties and dangers are basically concentrated in the primeval forest.]

Chapter 110

[I am so excited. In the past, our Oscus’ people have not been able to pass through the forest. Sister E is the first person to walk into the desert. Even if Sister E can’t get first place, it is already great!]

[I just went over the firewall to look at the websites of other countries and found that there are only more than ten countries have their own country’s players’ picture. The rest of the countries are also playing pictures of Sister E. Widi is also playing. the picture of Sister E now. It seems that Jeb! has been eliminated.]

[I also went to see. The dozen or so contestants who are still in the competition are still walking in the forest. Only Sister E is in the desert. Sister E is stable to win this time!]

[Speaking of which, where is the big white tiger? Why is it gone?]

[Sister E has already crossed the river. The big white tiger is so big. how can she take it across the river? Moreover, there is no water in the desert and there is not much food to eat. If she take it with her, it has nothing to eat. Maybe it will be beastly and eat people. And when Sister E reaches the finish line, it will be so troublesome to send it back.]

[The big white tiger is so cute. I can’t bear to part with it. Woo...]

In the foreign broadcast room, a large number of netizens had also rushed into the broadcast room, asking and discussing intensely.

After the live broadcast a while ago, many people had already recognized Brielle’s strength.

Especially after the incident with the big white tiger, the sneak attack of Jeb! with arrows, and the drug framing, they did not let Brielle suffer, and even completely blocked the mouths of those people.

Even if there were people who were naturally rebellious, they did not dare to say anything in the live broadcast room.

They had nowhere to vent their emotions, and they all vented on their own players, scolding their country’s players in the live broadcast room that they were useless.

Especially in Widi’s live streaming room. there were insults and curses on Jeb! everywhere.

In the viewing room.

John looked at the live broadcast with a gloomy face, gritted his teeth and asked, “Why is the live broadcast on the outside again? Who made it?”

“We have been here all this time and have never left. No one has issued an order. It was the director who initiated the live broadcast on his own, right?”

John was so angry that his face turned green. “That bastard didn’t listen to the command and opened the live broadcast on his own! The people I arranged haven’t sent the contestants to the finish line yet!”

There were still living contestants in the forest.

However, because the program team released wild beasts and they were afraid of Brielle, they kept running in the opposite direction.

Some turned back, some ran in the direction of the deep mountains. In short, no one dared to go forward, afraid that they would encounter Brielle along the way.

After Brielle killed so many ferocious beasts with her bare hands and subdued the big white tiger, they realized the seriousness of the matter.

With the big white tiger as her trump card, Brielle was invincible in the forest, and there was only death for him to fight with her.

Even if they did not want to fight with Brielle, Jeb! would ask them to fight with him on the same side, against Brielle together.

In order to prevent this from happening, they could only keep their lives away from the road ahead.

After seeing Jeb! die. John wanted to pick one of these people and send a helicopter to pick him up to the finish line so that he could win the game. This way, they would not have to compensate for the money that Brielle won.

But now that the person had not been sent over and the live broadcast had started, how could he cheat?

“Contact the director immediately and ask him to turn off the live broadcast!” John shouted angrily.

Someone immediately contacted the director.

But when he heard the director’s reply, he frowned.

The man looked at John and said, “The director said that he didn’t turn on the live broadcast. It opened it on its own. The director tried to turn off the live broadcast after discovering it. He found that all the operating surfaces had malfunctioned. The system should have been invaded.”

John’s pupils shrunk. He was so angry that his whole body trembled violently. “Damn it, who is going against me?”

“Hurry up and arrange for someone to solve it!”

“First, we must deal with it before Brielle goes up the mountain. We can’t let the audience see that Brielle is the first to climb the mountain!”

“If the live broadcast continues, we can’t secretly send people up the mountain. No matter what, we have to turn off the live broadcast!”

The man quickly conveyed John’s message to the director.

The atmosphere in the viewing room became particularly heavy.

John was constantly tearing his hair.

In just over ten days, his hair had become much thinner.

In the desert.

When it was dark, Brielle and the others sat on the ground and rested.

After eating a few wild fruits, Brielle lay on the ground and closed her eyes.

After lying down for a while, she suddenly felt a vibration coming from the ground.

She immediately became alert and carefully identified which direction the vibration came from.

She sat up and looked in the direction behind her with deep eyes.

As she watched, her eyebrows furrowed.

“Roar ==”

A fierce roar came from far away, and then a huge black mass rushed over in the night. The shaking on the ground became more and more obvious.

Soon, the black mass gradually became clear, revealing its original appearance.

“Big White Tiger? Why is it following us?”

“How did it get through such a wide and deep river with so many crocodiles? Although we killed some, there are still many crocodiles inside...”

After Tana and Lov saw what was running towards them, they put down their vigilance and their eyes were full of shock and disbelief.

They had only heard that dogs could recognize masters, but they had never heard that tigers could also recognize masters.

Moreover, in the past few days, Brielle’s attitude towards the big white tiger was not good. Why did the big white tiger insist on following Brielle?

If it stayed in the forest, it could definitely be the king. Why did it come to Brielle?

At this time, the big white tiger had already ran in front of Brielle..

It cried out in excitement. After seeing that Brielle’s expression was not very good, it turned into a low hum and carefully circled around her twice, then rubbed its head against her.

Brielle looked at the big white tiger with an ugly expression.

The big white tiger still looked silly, but the white fur on its body was stained with a lot of blood, and there were many bite marks of different depths on its body.
