

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 128

Chapter 128

The big white tiger jumped into the water. When it saw Brielle, it immediately bit her clothes, dragged her out of the water, and then quickly swam ashore.

After Brielle was released, she slapped its head.

“Why did you drag me up here?”

“Roar!”

The big white tiger roared twice.

“Idiot, if there is danger, I will go ashore myself. It is not your turn to save me.”

The big white tiger snorted twice, feeling wronged.

“But you are also kind. Thank you. Brielle smiled and touched its head.

The big white tiger instantly widened its eyes and looked at Brielle in shock. Obviously, it did not expect Brielle to thank it.

Brielle had already stepped forward.

The big white tiger happily jumped a few times, then ran to Brielle with small steps, wanting her to ride on its back.

“I want to walk for a while. Don’t disturb me.”

The big white tiger grunted twice and could only slow down in loneliness, following behind her.

It was uncomfortable to wear wet clothes, so Brielle played for a while before returning to the wooden house.

After changing her clothes, she rode on the back of the big white tiger to find Fleo.

When she arrived at the scene, John, Cozi, and Toofucker were no longer like human.

“Why are you back so soon?” Fleo stood up and looked at Brielle.

“Why did you change your clothes? Did something happen?”

Brielle said, “I went to the sea for a while.”

There was a hint of worry in Fleo’s eyes. “What’s wrong, sister? Are you unhappy?”

“I’m not unhappy. I just want to relax.” Brielle shook her head.

Fleo was still worried, but seeing that she was unwilling to say more, he suppressed the problem in his heart and asked, “Look at them. Is there anything else you want to do to them?”

Brielle calmly looked down the stage and said, “You have done very well. Let them live a few more days according to their current state and let them experience the taste of the present.”

Fleo smiled and nodded. “Okay.”

Brielle said, “I don’t want to stay on the island. Arrange a plane to send me away. You can deal with those people.”

Seeing that they had been punished enough, she was in no mood to continue watching.

In any case, they were already completely hopeless. Even if they didn’t do anything, they wouldn’t be able to live for long.

Even if they weren’t allowed to die on the island and let them leave this place, there would still be people who would take their lives.

The bigger the business, the greater the interest group involved. Their assets were sold, and those who cooperated with them would definitely be implicated. They definitely hated this group of people.

If they knew that this group of people were still alive, those who had damaged their interests would definitely not let them go.

Fleo said. “Okay, I will leave with you. Let East and West take people to take care of them.”

Brielle nodded and had no objection to his arrangement.

Two hours later, the private plane was ready.

When they got on the plane, the big white tiger wanted to go up with Brielle, but Fleo kicked it away mercilessly.

The big white tiger did not dare to be fierce to Fleo, and it dug the ground with grievance.

Brielle turned to look at the big white tiger, “Don’t follow us. We want to go back to Oscus. Oscus doesn’t allow to raise wild animals privately. If we take you back, we will all go to jail.”

The big white tiger looked at her with grievance and circled around her, making a dissatisfied sound.

Brielle rubbed its head. “Be obedient and don’t throw a tantrum. Someone will take you away later. They will take you to a country that can legally raise wild animals and settle you down. If I have nothing to do in the future, I may visit you.”

The big white tiger’s eyes lit up. It rubbed its head against her and made a sound as if telling her not to forget the promise.

This promise became the most important hope in its remaining life.

Brielle and Fleo got on the plane, and the plane quickly flew away.

The big white tiger looked up at the plane that was flying further and further away until the plane could no longer be seen. It did not leave either, but enjoyed itself in place.

Although the ape had left, she promised it that she would go and see it.

They could still meet.

That was good.

It had to work hard to train. The next time they met, it would become even more powerful and make the female upright ape look at it in a new light. In the future, it would often visit it!

With this in mind, the big white tiger started running around to train its body.

The plane flew for more than twenty hours and landed at the airport in Oscus’ capital.

After getting off the plane, Brielle returned to her private residence first.

She spent most of her time in Aeldol’s residence, but she also had her own private residence. Occasionally, she would come here to stay alone. She was basically here when she was training.

After Fleo got off the plane, lie followed her all the time. Naturally, he also went to her private residence with her.

Although it was her private territory, Fleo was a clingy person. No matter where she went, she had to follow. When she came here, Fleo would also follow.

There were some of his daily necessities here.

After a simple reorganization, they went out again.

An hour later, they arrived at the underground laboratory in the suburbs.

“I’ll wait for you outside.” Fleo stopped at the entrance of the laboratory and said softly.

Brielle nodded and did not force him to go down with them.

Every time they came to the laboratory, Fleo was outside and would not enter the laboratory. And he won’t enter Sister Nyla’s ward

He probably couldn’t accept that the strong, optimistic, and kind Sister Nyla had become so miserable, so he didn’t dare to see her.

Brielle entered the underground laboratory alone and came to the ward where Sister Nyla was.

Sister Nyla was still the same as before, with all kinds of instruments and tubes on her body. She was quiet and lifeless, like a lifeless doll.

If not for the fluctuation in the heart rate of the monitoring device, it was almost impossible to determine that she was still alive.

Brielle sat down in front of the bed and gently held the skinny hand on the bed.

The cold touch made her nose sour and her eyes a little moist.

“Sister Nyla, didn’t we agree? When I come back, you will wake up... Now that I am back, why don’t you abide by the agreement?”

“Fleo and I have already helped you take revenge. The people who bullied you are all gone. You don’t have to be afraid anymore. Wake up, okay?”

The person on the bed did not react at all.

“Sister Nyla, I really need you. I really want to go back to the days when the three of us relied on each other and each other...”

“Now that Fleo and I have grown up, we have the ability to make money and protect ourselves. In the future, you do not need to protect us. It will be me and Fleo who protect you.”

“Sister Nyla, you have never been able to refuse my request. In the past, no matter what I ask, you will satisfy me. I will make one last request to you. As long as you agree to my request, I will listen to you in the future.”

“Sister Nyla, I want you to wake up... promise me, okay?”
