

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 135

Chapter 135

“Are you really willing to stay?” Old Master Foster’s eyes lit up.

“Yes.” Kayden nodded.

“Good, good. This is your home. If you are willing to go home, even if I die tomorrow, I will die with no regrets!”

Old Master Foster was afraid that Kayden would go back on his word, so he immediately took his hand and led him to the courtyard. “You can stay in the old house with me. We haven’t seen each other for so many years. We can cultivate more feelings

“I have kept your room when you were a child. The layout inside has not been moved. It is exactly the same as when you lived when you were a child. I also have people clean it every month. It is very clean and can be caught directly.”

Kayden’s eyes darkened.

He left home when he was six. Before he disappeared, he had been living with Old Master Foster in the courtyard house.

He was intelligent since childhood. When he was a child, Old Master Foster and his parents doted on him very much and treated him very well.

When he was a child, he loved them very much and always felt that he was very happy and had a perfect family.

But when he and his younger brother were kidnapped by Foster Family’s enemies, he was seriously injured in order to protect his younger brother. When his grandfather and parents rescued them, they saw that his injuries were serious. They probably thought that it was useless to save him, so they only saved his younger brother. Then, regardless of the threat of the gangsters, regardless of whether he was still in the hands of the gangsters, they directly used force to the gangsters.

Half of his later injuries were caused by Foster Family when he was dealing with the gangsters.

The gangsters flew into a rage out of humiliation and jumped into the sea with him.

He was lucky and did not die. He even drifted to a fishing village more than a hundred miles away and was saved by someone. He was sent to the hospital in time to save his life.

When he woke up, he heard the policeman guarding the door of the ward say that he had found his parents and his family was on the way.

He immediately pulled out the infusion tube and climbed out of the window, escaping.

Even though he had suffered a lot outside, he had been deliberately avoiding Foster Family’s search.

Even when he later saw the news of his parents being assassinated on the street news, he did not feel anything, nor did he want to go back.

Kayden collected his thoughts and pulled his hand back from Old Master Foster’s hand. He said lightly, “I am used to living in the villa and do not want to live in the courtyard house.”

Old Master Foster’s expression froze, and his eyes revealed a trace of injury. However, he didn’t dare to say anything. He could only follow his wishes. “Then I’ll get someone to help you tidy up a room in the villa on the left side of the courtyard house. There are people living near the villa, and only that one can tidy up a room for you.”

Kayden had no objections. As long as he didn’t return to his original residence and forced him to recall it.

Old Master Foster personally brought Kayden over and ordered people to clean up the room immediately.

After it was done, Kayden entered the room, closed the door, and shut Old Master Foster outside, unwilling to communicate with him too much.

Old Master Foster stood at the door of the room and sighed silently.

This child was too vengeful.

It has been twenty years, but he was still so vengeful....

“Old Master, don’t be too sad. Young Master will understand your difficulties sooner or later. Back then, you gave up on Young Master because you had no choice.” The old assistant beside Old Master Foster advised softly.

Old Master Foster shook his head and turned to go downstairs.

In the room.

Kayden took out phone. Originally, he wanted Kai to check on Brielle.

However, just as he finished typing, he immediately deleted it. He turned to the interface of Brielle’s conversation and directly sent a message to ask her herself.

Kayden: [Have you been in the capital recently? I also want to stay here for a while, but I am not familiar with this place. Can you take me around?]

After waiting for a while, there was no recovery. Kayden’s heart began to beat wildly.

Brielle had poured cold water on him when his love had just been ignited. If she could see that he still had thoughts about her, she would definitely avoid him.

After thinking for a while, he continued to edit the message: [I have no other intentions. It’s just that I have no friends here and am not used to dealing with strangers, so I have to trouble you.]

[It doesn’t matter if it is inconvenient for you. I am just asking casually. Even if you don’t agree, I will not be disappointed. After all, I have no improper thoughts about you. It is only because you are the only person I know here. But it doesn’t matter if you don’t agree.]

[You won’t blacklist me, will you?]
