

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 14

Chapter 14

Brielle played in the water for a while and also found a big fish.

She picked it up and played with it for a while, then gave it a big fight and threw it back into the water.

Then she rubbed it again and went ashore to the station.

She opened the one-time toilet folding shed, went to the toilet, and changed her wet clothes.

[Sister E is too foreign. Just change directly outside. I don't mind seeing Sister E go to the toilet to change clothes!]

[It's fine to guard against a villain, but why do you have to guard against a gentleman like me?]

[Sister E is too lucky. She can find fish in the water. If Pearl and the others know about this, won't they die of anger?]

[Sister E obviously didn't catch fish by luck. Looking at her speed and strength, it is not something that ordinary people can have. Even the special forces may not have her speed and reaction ability.]

[That's right. When Sister E was chasing after the monkey group today, she could tell that she was not an ordinary person. Although the monkey group was not large, the combat strength of the wild monkey group was not low and their speed was also fast. However, Sister E was able to catch up with them and beat them all up. It can be seen from this!]

After Brielle changed her clothes, she tidied up the scene and then lay down on the grass, looking at the night sky in the sky.

There was no light pollution in the wilderness. The stars in the night sky were clearly visible and beautiful.

Brielle gradually calmed down and slowly closed her eyes and fell asleep.

Because she did not sleep in the tent this time, the hidden camera could always capture her. Even after she fell asleep, there were still many people watching.

Even in the middle of the night, there were still tens of millions of people watching.

Tens of millions of people watching Brielle sleep was simply inconceivable!

The program team very sneakily accepted the cooperation of a take-out platform.

When the audience saw the advertisement pop up, many people couldn't help but order takeout. They continued to watch while eating supper.

The program team and the take-out platform had earned numb money.

On the third day.

After Brielle got up and washed up, she continued to play a set of Eight Part Vajra Technique as usual.

After that, they entered the forest to search for food.

Jordan, Pearl, and the others continued to guard the riverside, waiting for the program team to send people over.

The five people were looking forward to it.

But there was still no movement in the distance.

The five of them were so hungry that their chests were pressed against their backs, and their moods became more and more irritable.

They gathered in the morning on the day they gathered. In order to look good in their clothes, they did not eat breakfast. Thus, on the first day, they starved for an entire day.

Chapter 14

Yesterday, they only ate two eggs.

Today, it was the third day. They were already so hungry that their limbs were weak. When they sat down and then stood up, their eyes would turn black.

Pearl was so angry that she cried. She said angrily, "What the hell is the program team doing? It's already the third day. Why aren't they sending people to look for us? Don't tell me they forgot about us?"

Jordan frowned and felt very agitated.

Quinn said in a trembling voice, "The program team couldn't have all been poisoned to death. No one knew that we were here, so no one came to save us, right?"

As soon as she said this, everyone's expressions changed, and panic appeared in their eyes.

If that was the case, then what were they going to do?

"Bang!"

Pearl angrily kicked Quinn.

"Shut up! Don't jinx things here!"

Quinn bit her lips and did not dare to have any objections. She could only silently sit further away.

Austin frowned and said, "If Quinn is right and no one really knows that we are here, what should we do?"

"If we can't find food, are we going to starve to death?"

"I also think that it is estimated the program team's people were poisoned to death. Otherwise, with our reputation, they can't forget us. Even if they forget about us, our agent will not forget us."

"There is only one possibility. The program team did not return to the shore alive. Our agent could not contact them."

"In order to keep the filming a secret, the program team did not leak the specific location of the shooting to others. Even if our agent finds out that we can't contact the program team and calls the police to find us, it is not so easy to find here."

"By the time someone finds us, we might have already starved to death..."

Jaxson's words made everyone even more desperate.

Pearl cried and threw herself into Jordan's arms. "Third brother, quickly think of a way. I don't want to die here. I want to go home. I want to see parents and big brother and second brother..."

Jordan hugged Pearl with heartache, but he had no choice.

Austin suggested, "Why don't we go find Brielle again? We apologize to her and ask her to help us find some food? At least we won't starve to death.",

"I don't want to apologize to her. She beat me up so badly. She should be the one to apologize to me!"

Austin looked at her coldly and did not reply.

He was starving to death, yet she still refused to admit it.

Jaxson stood up and said to Austin, "I agree with your suggestion. Let's go find Brielle together."

Austin nodded, and he also stood up.

"I... I'll go with you!" Quinn mustered her courage and said.

"Come back here!" Pearl shouted angrily at Quinn, "You're not allowed to go!"

"If you dare to seek refuge with that slut Brielle, when we get back, I'll have my big brother join forces with the entire entertainment industry to ban you, so that you won't have a chance to stand out!"

Quinn's face was pale, and her footsteps seemed to have given birth to no longer daring to take another step forward.

Austin frowned and said to Quinn, "You're about to lose your life, but you're still thinking about your future? Do you think your life is more important, or is your future more important?"

Jaxson also said, "Austin is right, and if you can't get into the entertainment industry. There are other industries that get into. She can't just block you from all the industries, can she?"

"There is hope if you live."

Quinn was so moved that her eyes turned red.

you can

She raised her foot and walked towards Austin and Jaxson. She choked and said, "Okay, I will go with you to find Brielle!"

She felt that Brielle was not a bad person.

At the very least, she was not as bad as Pearl.

Seeing the three of them leave, Pearl was furious, "You guys are good. Just wait. When we get back, I won't let you off!"

But this time, no one paid her any attention.

In the beginning, they were still wary of the background behind Pearl.

But now, their lives were almost gone. They only wanted to save their lives first and had no time to think about anything else.

In a situation where people were extremely hungry, they only wanted to fill their stomachs and had no time to think too much about other problems.

"Third brother, they are going too far..."

Pearl threw herself into Jordan's arms, crying like raindrops on a pear blossom.

Jordan pursed his lips and said, "I think their decision is right. We can't find food ourselves. Even if we find food, we won't cook. If this goes on, we will starve to death sooner or later."

"But, I don't want to apologize to her. She beat me up so badly!" Pearl bit her lips.

Jordan lowered his eyes and said in a deep voice, "Last night, I thought about it carefully for the whole night. Every time. Brielle attacked us, she only attacked us after we provoked her."

"Brielle might not be as bad as you say. She won't make things difficult for us for no reason."

Pearl widened her eyes and looked at Jordan in disbelief. "Third Brother, what are you talking about? You're actually speaking up for Brielle? You actually think she's not bad?"

"She's not bad? Then I'm bad?"

"Have you forgotten how she usually bullies me?"

"Just these two days, she has been insulting and beating me up. Isn't she bad?"

Jordan pursed his lips and did not answer Pearl's question.

He looked at Pearl and asked, "Then tell me, if we can't find food and can't cook, what should we do? Are we waiting to starve to death?"

Pearl was asked.

However, she still did not want to apologize to Brielle!

That bitch was not worthy!

That bitch Brielle should be her slave and be stepped on by her for the rest of her life.

What right did a slave have to make her apologize and pray?

However, she was really hungry.

She didn't want to die either.

And Brielle seemed to be their only hope.

Pearl bit her lips and her voice softened. She said with grievance, "I can apologize to her, but after I leave this place, you have to help me take her revenge. I can't be beaten up for nothing!"

Jordan hesitated for a moment and nodded. "Okay."

He helped Pearl stand up and walked in the direction of Brielle.

But when they arrived at the place where Brielle stayed last night, they did not find Brielle. Her things were not here anymore, only some ashes left. It could be seen that they were burned last night.

"Where did that bitch go?" Pearl frowned in dissatisfaction.

Jordan said, "She must have gone into the forest to find food. Let's go find her and try our luck to see if we can find food ourselves."

He had a feeling that even if they went to find Brielle, Brielle might not necessarily give them food.

Therefore, he still hoped that he could find food.

Even if they did not know how to cook, as long as they were cooked and filled their stomachs, they could not care about whether it was delicious or not.

Pearl reluctantly followed Jordan into the forest.

She was very hungry right now. She did not have any energy on her body and did not want to leave at all,

Moreover, she was wearing a skirt. If she entered the forest, her skin would be scratched by plants.

But she did not dare to stay outside alone.

What if she encountered danger?

Not long after they entered the forest, they met Austin and the others.

'Didn't

you not plan to apologize to Brielle? Why are you here too?" Austin looked at them in surprise.

Jordan said, "Pearl was just angry."

Austin retracted his gaze and did not say anything else.

Jordan asked, "Have you found Brielle?"

Austin shook his head. "No, we just followed the path that someone walked. We hope we can find her."

Chapter 14

"But Brielle entered the forest more than once. She walked several roads. We don't know which road she went. We don't know if we can find her."

Pearl said unhappily, "Why aren't you waiting for her outside? Why do you have to come in and find her? There are so many mosquitoes and insects inside. It's so itchy!"

Austin said, "If we don't show her kindness when she is not looking for food and ask her to help us find some, we will be hungry for another day."

Pearl was unhappy and said, "Just let her go in and find another one!"

Austin was too lazy to pay attention to her.

Did she think that she was the Emperor and still wanted to give orders?

It was already good enough that Brielle could give them some food in passing, but she still wanted her to find food for them alone. It was simply a fool's dream.

"Ya, I heard movement over there. Could it be Brielle?" Quinn's surprised voice suddenly came from the front.

Austin and Jaxson immediately ran forward.

Jordan supported Pearl and followed behind.

They ran for a while and finally saw Brielle.

At this time, Brielle was wearing a black jacket and pants. Her hair was tied into a low ponytail.

She suddenly slowed down. She stepped on the trunk of a big tree and ran up two steps. Then she jumped forward and grabbed a tree vine hanging down from the tree with both hands. Her body jerked forward and her hands released the tree vine. Because of inertia, her body continued to fly forward. She reached out and grabbed the next tree vine and continued to sway forward.

In addition to her, there was a group of monkeys holding the tree vine and swinging around.

The monkeys bared their teeth at Brielle, but they seemed to be very afraid of her. They only dared to bare their teeth and threaten her, not daring to challenge her.

Brielle didn't seem to be just swinging the tree vines. She seemed to be chasing after those monkeys...

As she chased, she gritted her teeth and roared, "You bunch of monkeys, you actually dare to ambush me? It seems that I was too lenient yesterday. You actually dared to plot against me and take revenge. Today, I will definitely let you know why my fists are so hard!"

After saying that, she reached out and grabbed a monkey.

Her hand loosened, and she steadily fell to the ground from the tree vine that was a few meters high.

Then, she pressed the monkey that she caught from the tree to the ground and beat it up.

The monkey/cried out.

The other monkeys around were so anxious that they scratched their cars and cheeks. They bared their teeth and bared their teeth even more fiercely. They wanted to go up and save their companions, but Brielle looked at them coldly. They were so scared that they did not dare to go forward.

Fear could be clearly seen on their faces.

Some of the timid monkeys were even scared to the point of peeing and shivering behind the trees.

Jordan and the others were all stunned.

56

Brielle, she... she was too strong!

The tree vines in the forest! She was actually more sensitive than monkeys?

She could actually catch a monkey king?

The monkey she had caught was rather large. Looking at the reactions of the surrounding monkey groups, she could tell that it was the monkey king of the monkey group.

Looking at the fear that these monkeys had towards her, it was obvious that they had all been deterred by her.

What exactly did Brielle do to this group of monkeys?

They all had a whole new level of respect for Brielle.

Looking at how fierce Brielle was when she beat up the monkey king, they couldn't help but feel their hairs stand on end.

Brielle had shown them mercy.

If Brielle beat them up like she was beating the monkey king, they would be crippled even if they didn't die!

Brielle beat them for half an hour before stopping.

She was very skillful in her attacks. After half an hour, the monkey king had been beaten black and blue and could no longer move. However, it was still awake. It was not unconscious and its life was not in danger.

This was a second-class protective animal of the country. She did not want to break the law.

Although there was no one here and no camera, she still had to abide by the law.

Brielle looked at the monkey king coldly. "Remember, I am the king. If you dare to ambush me again in the future, I will not show mercy. I will break the limbs of you and your monkey grandson!"

The monkey king trembled in fear, its eyes filled with fear.

Wu, what a terrifying upright ape!

Brielle spat and kicked it away.

The other monkeys immediately ran over. They lifted the monkey king up and ran, disappearing in the blink of an eye.

"B... Brielle..."
