

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 15

Chapter 15

Quinn's voice came from behind her.

Brielle turned around and saw the other five people standing neatly not far away, all of them looking at her with complicated expressions.

Brielle was not surprised at all.

Because when they approached her, she had already heard the sound from a distance.

Although she did not look back, she could tell from their footsteps that it was them.

"What's the matter?" Brielle asked lightly.

Quinn bit her lips and looked at Brielle in fear.

But in the end, she still mustered up the courage to walk towards her.

The other four also followed.

They only stopped when they were about a meter away from Brielle.

Brielle looked at them coldly; there was no expressionless on her face.

Quinn bowed ninety degrees to Brielle and said sincerely, "Brielle, I'm sorry. I shouldn't have targeted you before, and I shouldn't have snatched your things. I sincerely apologize to you now. I hope you can forgive me!"

Austin and Jaxson also bowed ninety degrees and apologized with guilt on their faces.

Austin: "Brielle, I'm sorry. I was wrong too. I'm a man. I shouldn't bully a little girl like you. I apologize to you now. After I leave this place, I will make it up to you. I hope you will forgive me!"

Jaxson: "Brielle, I also know that I was wrong. I'm sorry. I will make it up to you. I will introduce resources to you in the future. Please forgive me!"

Jordan pulled the awkward face of Pearl and stepped forward together, bowing slightly to her.

Jordan: "Brielle, I did something wrong before. Please don't argue with me so much. In the future, I will treat you well and try to make up for what I owe you."

Pearl said reluctantly, "I shouldn't have robbed you before, but you also hit me. We are even. I won't trouble you again in the future. I hope you can ignore the past and we can get along well!"

"Are you here to apologize to me?" Brielle asked, looking at the group of people coldly.

Everyone nodded.

Pearl said impatiently, "Now that we have apologized, you have forgiven us. In the future, we have to be a team and get along well with each other."

"The team naturally needs to help and support each other."

"Brielle, when you are looking for food today, bring back our food too!"

Brielle sneered.

She guessed that these people would not really recognize the mistake and apologize. They really came with a purpose.

Just a simple apology and they wanted to order her around like a slave, making her work like a cow and a horse to find food for them?

It was simply a daydream!

"When did I say that I forgive you?" Brielle sneered.

"Brielle, why are you so narrow-minded? It's just a small matter. We have already apologized, and you are still fussing over it. You are too stingy!"

"Besides, we were the ones who were beaten up. We have always been the ones who suffered losses. What do you have to care about?"

She really wanted to say that Brielle, this bitch, did not suffer any losses. What right did she have to care?

However, Jordan had been pulling her from the side, so she could only not make it sound so unpleasant.

Brielle said coldly, "So what if I am narrow-minded?"

"You are at a disadvantage because you can't beat me. If I hadn't practiced before, my fate right now would definitely not be better than yours. You will definitely make them beat me until I can't stand up. It is even possible that they will kill me."

"You can't do evil because I have the ability to suppress you, not because you are not evil, understand?"

"You are the evil one! You watched us starve and we were starving. You didn't help us. You are clearly trying to kill us. Who can be as vicious as you?"

"If you don't help us, if something really happens to us, we will be killed by you. You will feel guilty for the rest of your life!"

"Pearl, don't say anymore!" Jordan grabbed Pearl's wrist and scolded her unhappily.

They had clearly agreed to apologize in a good manner and ask Brielle to help them.

But why did Pearl start threatening Brielle again?

Austin looked at Pearl angrily and shouted, "Is there something wrong with your brain? We are here to ask Brielle for help. What kind of attitude is this? If you can't let go of your attitude, you can just go back and starve to death. Don't drag us. down!"

Jaxson also frowned, "I know that in front of celebrities, there is a set of people behind them, but this set of people behind you is too brainless. I really don't know what is wrong with Galley family. He doesn't want a beautiful and capable daughter like Brielle. He wants a brainless and hypocritical fake like you."

Although Jaxson was also a newcomer in the entertainment circle, he had capital behind him and a good family background. He was not afraid of offending Pearl.

At worst, he would not work in the entertainment circle in the future.

At first, he listened to Pearl's instructions because he hadn't reached a dead end yet and still wanted to leave a path for his acting path.

But now, his life was almost gone, so he couldn't care about that much.

His life was more important!

"You... you actually scolded me?" Pearl widened her eyes, her face full of disbelief.

She had lived for so long, but she had only been scolded by this slut, Brielle.

Now, Jaxson and Austin also scolded her?

What right did they have to scold her?

Chapter 15

Pearl's eyes immediately turned red, tears streaming down her cheeks. She looked at Jordan with grievance, "Third brother, they bullied me. Help me take revenge!"

Jordan pursed her lips and did not speak.

"Third brother, what do you mean? Why aren't you saying anything? You promised parents and second brother that you would protect me!"

The more pearl thought about it, the angrier she became, and the louder she cried.

Jordan said in a low voice. "Pearl, stop messing around. This was your fault in the first place. You promised to be serious and apologize to Brielle, but you didn't say anything good, and you started to threaten her again..."

Third brother, you also think I was wrong? I was beaten like this by her. It's good enough that I can bow my head and admit my mistakes. Why do you ask so much?"

"It was clearly Brielle who was wrong, but she asked me to apologize."

a

"I already apologized, and you said my attitude was bad. I was bullied and forced to apologize. What happened to my attitude?"

"Wu, if I knew you couldn't protect me, I might as well not let you follow me."

"If you follow me, it's fine if you can't protect me, but also help outsiders bully me. You are a useless liar!"

Jordan's face was extremely ugly, and his eyes showed a trace of impatience.

If she made a little noise, it would make his heart ache.

But these two days, Pearl had made too much noise, which made him upset.

Austin looked at Brielle again and said sincerely, "Brielle, we are different from Pearl. We really realized our mistakes and sincerely apologize to you. I hope you can accept our apology!"

Brielle looked at him coldly, her cold eyes roughly looking at their faces.

There was indeed a bit of regret.

But the desire in their eyes could not be ignored.

There was regret, but not much.

They were so hungry that they had no choice but to apologize.

If they could find food themselves, even if they realized that they had done something wrong, they would not come to apologize.

Brielle said coldly, "It is only right for you to apologize for what you have done wrong. It proves that you still have some values."

Everyone was delighted.

"But," "Apologizing is your freedom. Whether I forgive you or not is also my freedom" Brielle continued.

"You want to repent, but that doesn't mean I have to forgive you."

"The things you have done to me, even if you apologize, you can't take back the damage, so I won't accept your apology.

"One more thing. I won't give you food. Although I am not as hypocritical and vicious as Pearl, I am not a good person. I won't help people who have hurt myself."

Chapter 15

[Fortunately, Brielle did not forgive them. This kind of person should not be forgiven!]

[Sister E is still kind, reminding them that the poultry will hide. If they are smart, they can find them in the grass. The camera on Sister E's side has seen several times in the grass where their movements are not agile. They are so disdainful to catch them, but they can't find them. I really don't know how they found them. I

[Hurry up and transfer the big picture to Sister E. I would rather see Sister E in a daze than look at Pearl.]

[Aoo, Sister E is too awesome. She subdued the monkeys again. The monkeys should not come to trouble Sister E again, right?]

[I didn't expect the monkey to be so vengeful. It even learned how to ambush and sneak attack Sister E. I've gained a lot of knowledge...]

Brielle kept walking forward.

She saw many chickens and rabbits along the way, but she was not in a hurry to catch them.

There were many of these things, so she just needed to catch one when she returned.

She tried to find out if there were any wild fruits.

The monkeys that attacked her usually lived on the mountain and moved to the forest, but they would never live alone in the forest.

This proved that there was a mountain behind the forest.

She had just observed that the monkeys ran in this direction. She followed this direction and tried to see if she could cross the forest and find the mountain behind.

Brielle occasionally swayed the tree vines, occasionally crawling on the ground and moving forward quickly.

About half an hour later, she finally passed through the forest and saw the mountain behind the forest.

Brielle looked up and saw the escaping monkey group.

When the monkeys saw her, they screamed in fear and then quickly ran up the mountain.

"Am I that scary?" Brielle scratched her head. "If they don't provoke me, I won't take the initiative to hit them. Why are they running?"

No one answered her.

Brielle shrugged and began to climb up the mountain.

She was lucky to find wild grapes on the mountain.

She picked two sticks and found a smooth stone to sit down. She ate while admiring the scenery.

The scenery hyre was really good and the air was fresh, much better than some 5A level scenery in the country.

After eating two sticks of mountain grapes, she felt that her teeth were sore.

"Tsk, I still have to eat less of this. I can't stand eating too much."

Brielle continued to walk around the mountain.

She saw a few wild persimmontrees. The persimmons had matured, but many of them had been pecked by birds.

She searched for a long time before finding a few complete ones. She climbed up the trees and picked them up to eat.

After that, she found a few wild fruits that she could eat, but they were not very delicious. She did not cat much./

Brielle strolled around the mountain for a day.

The monkey king sent monkeys to keep an eye on her from a distance, as if they were worried that she would occupy their territory.

Brielle originally did not want to go back. At night, she wanted to watch the stars on the mountain and see further on the mountain. The night view was better.

But there was no water here, so she could not take a bath.

After climbing the mountain for a day, her body was sweaty and sticky, and she couldn't stand it if she didn't take a bath.

She could only return the way she came.

On the way back, she caught an unlucky rabbit.

When she returned to the original station, she saw Pearl and the others.

There was nothing in front of them.

Obviously, they still hadn't found anything.

They were all frightened, their clothes were messy, and their hair was like a chicken nest.

Jordan was especially miserable. The white T-shirt on his body was stained with a lot of blood, and there were many scratches on his face. He was also dispirited.

It was clear that they had encountered something terrible in the forest.

Chapter 15

"You have hands and feet. You can find food to eat yourself."

The poultry released by the program team are all injured and fed medicine. Their movements are slow and they are easy to catch.

"Animals all have one thing in common. After coming to a strange environment, they all like to find a hidden place to hide."

After saying that, Brielle turned around and walked deeper into the forest..

Quinn wanted to follow Brielle.

But Brielle walked too fast, swinging the tree vines and running far away. She could not catch up at all.

She could only resentfully stop in her tracks.

"Hahaha, you guys saw it, right? She has no conscience at all. She just wanted us all to die here, yet you guys still lowered your heads and begged her. Are you shame now?"

Pearl mocked with schadenfreude.

Austin and Jaxson did not pay any attention to her.

They looked at each other and also walked deeper into the forest. They did not forget to call Quinn.

Jordan was worried about leaving Pearl alone, so he could only stay with her.

He frowned and said, "Pearl, why do you look like a different person? I almost don't know you. You are not like this usually..."

Pearl's body stiffened. She immediately softened her voice and cried out in grievance, "I have suffered so much. My teeth. have been knocked out, and my face is swollen like a pig's head. My body has been bitten by mosquitoes and insects until there is no good skin. There is nothing to eat. I am so hungry."

"I have suffered so many grievances, and I have been forced to change my temperament greatly. Brother, you don't care about me, but you blame me. I am so sad..."

Jordan paused and hugged her with heartache.

"I am sorry. It is me who failed to protect you and made you suffer."

He knew that people would become irritable when they were hungry.

Not only did Pearl starve, but she also suffered so many blows, so it was normal for her to be forced to change her temperament.

After leaving here, she would definitely change back to her original appearance.

Pearl said with grievance, "If Brielle refuses to help us, what should we do? Are we going to be hungry again? I am so hungry that I can't walk anymore..."

Jordan gritted his teeth and said, "Let's keep looking for the food. Even if we can't catch the poultry, we can find a few eggs.

At least we can survive!"

Pearl reluctantly followed Jordan.

However, she kept cursing in her heart, "Trash!"

If Jordan had one-tenth of Brielle's abilities, she wouldn't have starved.

She couldn't even compare to a woman, trash!

[Tsk tsk tsk, Pearl is really good at making up excuses. Jordan is really brainless. He even believed this.]
