

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 19

Chapter 19

"Why... why did Pearl deliberately stop Austin and prevent him from saving Jordan?"

Sarah trembled with anger and stared at Pearl who was holding Austin on the screen with red eyes.

"If anything happens to Jordan, I will not let her go!"

Although she had always loved Pearl very much.

However, Pearl was not her biological son after all, and Jordan was her biological son.

Now that Pearl did not allow others to save Jordan, she was indirectly killing Jordan.

Brooks frowned and said unhappily, "Didn't you see that Pearl was scared? She was scared out of her mind and treated Austin as Jordan. That was why she hugged Austin and refused to let go. She did not deliberately stop Austin from saving Jordan."

"We watched Pearl grow up. Don't you know what kind of person she is? Don't misunderstand her just because she was scared out of her mind!"

"Are you worthy of her calling you mother for so many years?"

Sarah cried out of breath, "But my Jordan..."

In the video, Jordan could no longer be seen.

Sarah clutched her chest and fell to the ground, tears falling like rain.

She only felt her heart ache like a knife.

Her son...

Brooks clenched his fists, his face dark and livid. He looked at Brielle in the video.

a

"If anything happens to Jordan, Brielle will be the main culprit!"

"She pushed Jordan into the water and injured him in the water!"

"If she didn't hurt Jordan, Jordan could swim. He would definitely go ashore by herself!"

"She injured Jordan and left Jordan alone in the water. She watched as Jordan was washed away by the water without any intention of saving him!"

"She is really cold-blooded and vicious. She didn't even save her own brother!"

"Fortunately, we have cut off our relationship with her. Otherwise, sooner or later, all of us will be killed by her!"

After saying that, Brooks slammed the table heavily.

Robert frowned and said, "Brielle is too cold-blooded. Even if she sees a stranger in danger, she will not be indifferent."

"She caused her own brother to be in danger, but she did not react at all. It is really chilling..."

Brooks said sternly, "If something happens to Jordan, I will make her die with Jordan!"

At the edge of the forest.

Chapter 19

Quinn looked into the distance of the river and stamped her feet anxiously. "I can't see Jordan anymore. We can't save him..."

Jaxson looked at the entangled Austin and looked up at Brielle. "Brielle, no matter what, Jordan is your brother. Go and save him."

Brielle looked at him coldly. "If you continue to force me, I will kick you down to accompany him."

Jaxson shrank his neck and stopped talking.

Brielle walked to her backpack, picked up her backpack, and walked into the forest.

After entering the forest, she found a place with fewer weeds, took out the disposable toilet cover, and went in to change her clothes.

Since those monkeys had been following her, and there were a few outsiders who might come to her, she finally decided to cover it with something.

After changing her clothes and coming out, she saw a monkey poking its head out of the tree in the distance.

Brielle glanced over indifferently.

The monkey instantly hid behind the tree.

Brielle hesitated for a moment, looked at the monkey king, and said loudly, "Hey, little King, do you know how to dive? My dagger fell into the river. Can you take your little brother and help me look for it?"

There were a lot of weeds in the water, so she didn't dare to dive down by herself. She was afraid that her feet would be entangled by the weeds and she would not be able to get up.

She was also afraid that when she was in the water, Pearl would take the opportunity to throw stones at her.

After she finished speaking, there was no movement or response.

Brielle shook her head with a smile.

What was she thinking?

Even if the monkey knew how to dive, it could not understand human language, let alone know what a dagger was.

Brielle turned around and walked back.

The monkey was still following her from a distance.

Brielle could not sense any attack from them, so she ignored them.

Returning to the river, the Monkey King brought a few monkeys to the river, trembling. Then, he looked at Brielle as if he was asking her.

Brielle blinked.

Could it be that the Monkey King understood her words and wanted to help now? He was asking where her things had fallen?

Brielle pointed to a certain location and said, "The thing fell from there. It's about long, silvery-white, and the blade is very sharp. Be careful when you pick it up. Don't cut your little claws..."

Dong...

As she finished speaking, the Monkey King jumped into the river with five monkeys and dived into the water.

Brielle was both surprised and delighted. She did not expect the monkey king to be so smart that it could actually understand her words!

As expected of a monkey that could become a monkey king, it was smarter than an ordinary monkey!

The other four people were all stunned.

Even Pearl forgot to cry and make a fuss. Together with the others, she looked at Brielle with a dumbfounded expression.

Brielle was actually able to command that group of monkeys?

This was too outrageous!

The audience in the live broadcast room was also stunned.

[Damn, monkeys can actually understand human language? Brielle can actually command monkeys?]

[It seems that someone did not guess wrong before. The monkey regarded Brielle as the new monkey king. I

[This plot is something that I did not expect. It is too outrageous]

[I just want to say that Sister E is awesome!]

Pearl suddenly shouted, "Brielle, you care about a few monkeys, but you don't care about your own brother. Are you still human?"

"You pushed your brother into the water and left him in the water. You killed my third brother!"

"You murderer, when we go back. I will definitely call the police and let the police shoot you and bury you with my third brother!"

Pearl looked at Austin and the others, "You have to come with me to the police and accuse Brielle, the vicious woman. She killed my third brother!"

Austin frowned and said, "If you didn't stop me, I would have already rescued Jordan."

Quinn nodded in agreement.

Pearl's face sank and she asked angrily, "What do you mean? Are you suspecting that I deliberately stopped you from saving my third brother?"

"She is my relative. How can I not want you to save him? I was scared silly and thought of you as my third brother!"

Austin said, "I just said the truth. I didn't say that I doubted you. You are so anxious to explain, but it seems that you are guilty and trying to hide it."

Jaxson said sarcastically, "You really know how to pick the time to be scared silly. When Austin wanted to save Jordan, you were stupid. The three of us stood here together. You didn't recognize others as Jordan, but you thought of Austin as Jordan. You hugged him and refused to let him go."

"Now that Jordan has been washed away, it's enough to drown him for such a long time. You suddenly recovered. Tsk, tsk, tsk..."

Pearl was so angry that her face turned green and red. She gasped for breath. "You... You guys are too much. You actually defamed me like this. After we leave this place, I will sue you together!"

Quinn said weakly, "Should we go downstream and see if we can find Jordan? Even if he really is gone, we can't just let him drift away like this..."

Jaxson said sarcastically, "Look, Quinn is an outsider who cares more about Jordan than you do. After you recovered from your shock, you never thought of looking for Jordan, Jordan really loves you for nothing."

Chapter 19

Austin said, "Alright, stop talking. Let's follow the flow and search."

Jaxson nodded.

The two of them walked in front, and Quinn raised her foot to follow them.

"Pal"

Pearl slapped Quinn's face and glared at her viciously.

It was all because of this slut's words that she was suspected and mocked by Jaxson.

Quinn covered her face, bit her lip, and bowed, "I'm sorry, I shouldn't have spoken nonsense..."

"Apologize for what? You didn't say anything wrong." Jaxson walked back, grabbed her arm, and pulled her away.

Quinn lowered her head and followed him silently.

She was right, but she had no background, no status, and no ability like Brielle. She could only lower herself.

She knew that this was very cowardly, but people at the bottom did not have the capital to be unyielding and resist.

She still didn't want to lose her role as an artist.

Although it was difficult, she could earn money quickly and earn a lot.

Pearl looked at the backs of the three of them and gritted her teeth. She could only suppress her anger and follow them.

If she didn't follow them, she would be regarded as not caring about the life of Jordan.

Not long after they left, the monkeys finally floated out of the water.

The monkey king held a dagger in its hand. It was the one that she had fallen into.

What surprised her was that the other monkeys actually took out a few fish!

Three fish.

Each of them weighed more than three pounds.

The monkey king took the lead and walked in front of her, handing her a dagger.

The three monkeys that caught the fish neatly placed the fish in front of her.

In order to prevent the fish from flopping back into the river, the three monkeys even killed the fish with a slap.

Brielle took the dagger and said with a smile, "Thank you. You have helped me a lot.

They seemed to understand Brielle's words, and their screams sounded much happier. They jumped into the forest.

Before they jumped into the forest, they also took away the two hares that Pearl and the others left on the ground...

[God, the monkeys have become like human. They actually understand Sister E's orders. Not only did they help Sister E retrieve the dagger, they also caught fish for Sister E. What kind of magical plot is this?]

[Sister E is awesome. She tamed a group of wild monkeys!]

[I really admire Brielle to the point of prostrating myself in admiration. She can even make a name for herself in the wilderness. She's too amazing!]

[From today onwards, learn from Sister E and work hard to become an outstanding woman like Sister E!]

Chapter 19

[Does Brielle really not care about Jordan's life or death? She's so cold and indifferent...]

[Also, that kind of bad and stupid guy who is always targeting Brielle, what right does she have to care about the life and death of an enemy?]

[Don't be silly! Have you forgotten how Galley family treated Brielle? He forced her to sign an agreement to set off Pearl. If not for the program's hype, the one being scolded online would be Brielle. She would become a street rail!]

[Sis E is already giving him face by not laughing. Do you still want her to care about an enemy who keeps causing trouble for her? What a joke!]

[What a jork!]

The Internet was divided into two factions regarding Brielle's disregard for Jordan,

Some people felt that she had done the right thing. She should be tough and ruthless to her enemies. She could not be soft-hearted, let alone be a saint.

Some people felt that even though Jordan was in the wrong, his sin was not worthy of death. Moreover, he was Brielle's brother. She should not be so cold and heartless.

In this regard, Brielle was completely unaware.

Brielle took a dagger, carried three fish to the river, cut the fish open, and hung the fish scales."

She couldn't eat three fish by herself, but the fish was already dead, so she could only roast them together.

When Brielle was halfway done roasting the fish, Austin and the others returned.

Jordan was not dead, just a little weak.

Brielle was not surprised.

Although that kick of hers was heavy, it could not cripple him.

He could not swim before the pain subsided, but he could maintain a floating state. He lay on the surface of the water and exposed his face to the water so that he would not drown.

After he recovered, he could save himself.

If he did not encounter the torrents and waves, he would basically not die.

When they passed by Brielle, their eyes were all staring at the grilled fish in front of him. Their saliva was madly secreted, and their stomachs were growling.

Brielle actually caught fish, how did she know everything?

She lost rabbit meat, and easily got fish, and there were even three of them.

Jealousy!

In short, he was very jealous!

Jordan looked at Brielle with a heavy gaze, his eyes filled with disappointment.

Brielle really wanted him to die...

After kicking him and throwing him into the river, everyone went to find him, and only she was roasting fish here, which had nothing to do with her.

Jordan retracted his gaze, and with Pearl's support, he walked towards the direction of the luggage.

Chapter 19

He was going to change his clothes.

After walking far away, Pearl began to sob.

Jordan asked. "Why are you crying?"

"Brother, you scared me to death. I thought you were killed by Brielle and couldn't come back. I almost wanted to jump into the river and leave with you..."

Jordan touched Pearl's head and said emotionally. "Silly girl, don't do anything stupid. Even if something really happens to me, you have to live well. Mom, Dad, and Second Brother are still waiting for you to go back. If they lose me and you, how can they accept it?"

Pearl cried, "But seeing that brother is in danger, I can't think. I just want to be with brother..."

Jordan said gently, "Alright, alright, I'm fine now. Don't cry. I promise you that I will be more careful in the future. I won't let Pearl worry anymore."

"Yes." Pearl forcefully pulled your head and broke into a smile.

The two of them continued walking.

After a while, Pearl pouted and said with a wronged expression, "When you was washed away by the water, I was too scared. I was so scared that my mind went blank and I couldn't think about anything. I mistook Austin as you. I held my him tightly and didn't want you to leave me."

"I didn't expect them to think that I deliberately stopped Austin and didn't let him save you. They joined forces to suppress me. I didn't know how to explain it. I was really uncomfortable."

"I'm not afraid of being targeted, but I can't accept their slander that I want to harm my brother."

"I want to die with my brother. How can I deliberately not let people save you?"

As she spoke, Pearl began to shed tears again, crying pitifully.

She was afraid that when Austin and the others talked about what happened just now, Jordan would have doubts about her, so she decided to make the first move.

If she took the initiative to bring it up, Jordan would definitely think that she was magnanimous and that was why she dared to tell him. He would definitely not suspect her.
