

Chapter 2

Brielle stopped and looked at him. "I am no longer in a relationship with Galley family. I am currently homeless. If there are more properties under Mr. Fairfax's name, I hope you can lend me one or two years."

"It's best to be quiet. There are fewer neighbors and better security. Ordinary people can't get close to that kind of place. After all, I am a public figure. I am afraid that too many neighbors will cause unnecessary trouble."

After she returned to Galley family, Pearl pulled her into the entertainment circle to suppress her in all aspects.

But every time, it was Pearl who acted as the female lead. She played the role of a vicious female lead and was deliberately painted ugly.

Now, Pearl was already a little famous and pure flower in the entertainment circle, and she was also a famous actress with bad reputation.

It was easy for people to find trouble if she stayed in a hotel or a normal place.

Especially Galley family, they would definitely go to make trouble for her every few days.

Even if that group of people couldn't take advantage of her, it was still annoying to be disturbed every day.

She couldn't buy her own house.

Because her household register was not with Ocean City.

Kayden said, "No. 1 Manor in Shallow Water Bay. It is quiet. There is a password lock. Add me on WhatsApp and I'll send you the location and password."

Brielle immediately took out her phone and added Kayden's WhatsApp. She also saved his phone number.

Kayden quickly sent her a location address and a string of passwords.

After thanking him, Brielle left his room.

It was too late. Brielle went downstairs and opened an ordinary guest room to live in.

The next day.

Before Brielle got up, the door was forced open.

Galley family led a group of bodyguards into the room.

"Brielle, get up!" Her third brother Jordan shouted angrily and reached out to lift the quilt off her body.

Brielle was forced to wake up.

Looking at the group of people who broke into the room and the quilt that was lifted off her body, her face was gloomy.

Jordan, this idiot, directly lifted her quilt. Was he not afraid that she would sleep naked?

Chapter 2

"Get up quickly and sign this contract!" His father, Brooks, threw a contract on her with a cold face.

Brielle propped herself up and picked up the contract to take a look.

As she expected, Galley family wanted to force her to hand over the shares.

This was a share transfer agreement.

Brielle said, "The shares were left to me by my grandfather. I have no intention of transferring it. I won't sign it."

Brooks shouted angrily, "That is our Galley family's shares. You don't even treat us as a family. What right do you have to take Galley family's shares?"

The eldest brother said in disgust, "I didn't expect you to be so greedy. You actually want to take so many shares for yourself."

Second Brother said angrily, "You should learn from Pearl. Pearl doesn't even have as many shares as you!"

Brielle sneered.

Not only did Pearl have less shares than her, but anyone of them in Galley family didn't have as much as hers.

Pearl said softly, "Brielle, don't make parents and brothers angry. The shares are useless in your hands. Sign it and transfer the shares to dad."

Chapter 2

"As long as you sign it, I'll give you 15 thousand dollars as compensation, okay?"

Brooks and his brothers all had expressions of admiration on their faces. They were very satisfied with Pearl's generosity.

Brielle smiled.

30% of the shares, just give her 15 thousand dollars as compensation?

Were they thinking that she was a beggar?

Brielle said, "What if I don't sign?"

Brooks said darkly, "Do you want the shares or your life? Choose one yourself!"

"Even if you don't want your life, after you die, your shares will be inherited by us."

"I gave you a chance to choose for the sake of family love. Don't push your luck!"

Although she no longer had any fantasies about family love, when she heard Brooks's words, Brielle still felt a stab of pain in her heart.

Her biological father actually wanted to kill her.

What a joke!

"I can sign this agreement, but I have two requests..." Brielle looked at Brooks coldly.

Brooks asked anxiously, "What requests?"

Brielle said, "Give me 50 million dollars and sign another contract. No matter what happens in the future, you don't need me to support you."

Legally, there was no such thing as breaking off the relationship between father and daughter.

However, one could sign a contract that didn't need to be supported.

This could also be considered a form of severing ties.

Pearl shrieked, "Are you robbing us? You actually asked for 50 million dollars?"

Big Brother angrily said, "Pearl has already promised to give you a 15 thousand dollars, but you are still not satisfied. You actually asked for 50 million dollars. You are really greedy. You only think about money!"

Second Brother: "Your shares are not worth 50 million dollars. You are extorting!"

Brielle said simperingly: "If you think that the shares in my hand are no worth 50 million dollars, I will give you 50 million dollars, and then I will immediately write a will. If I die accidentally, I will confiscate all the shares under my name. My parents and brothers have no right to inherit them. What do you think?"

"No!" They shouted at the same time.

Brielle mocked, "Why not? Didn't you say that my shares are not worth 50 million dollars?"

Their faces were red.

Brielle said, "Don't bully me because I haven't know much. After I got the shares, I went to consult a lawyer. The shares in my hands are worth more than 10 billion!"

"Since you are my family, I intend to ask you for 50 million dollars for the sake of our family love."

"When I went to consult the lawyer, I made a will. If I didn't transfer the shares before I died, I would donate all my property to the country. My parents and brothers have no right to inherit any of my inheritance!"

Galley family was so angry that he was about to explode.

Pearl said faintly, "I didn't expect you to be so scheming. You actually made a will behind our backs. You didn't treat us as a family from the beginning. How can you be worthy of our kindness?"

Brielle sneered. "Shut your mouth. If you dare to perform angelic bitch in front of me again, I will slap your mouth!"

Pearl bit her lips and her eyes turned red with grievance.

Third Brother Jordan was just about to stand up for Pearl when Brielle grabbed the ashtray on the bed and threw it at him. "Shut up too. Don't let me hear your barking!"

Chapter 2

Galley family had seen Brielle go crazy before.

When they saw that she was about to go crazy again, they did not dare to act rashly and were afraid of being beaten by her again.

Brooks gritted his teeth and said, "Okay, I agree to your request!"

Brielle drove them out of the room and went to wash up before following them out the door.

They went to the bank first, and Brooks transferred 50 million dollars to Brielle.

Brielle specially asked him to write a voluntary gift.

In this way, Brooks could not recover the money even if he wanted to.

Then they went to the law firm to sign a contract about future alimony.

On the way to the law firm, Brooks had already contacted the lawyer to draw up the contract.

By the time they arrived, the contract had already been drafted.

Brielle admitted that she had really looked at it once, and there was nothing wrong with looking at it herself.

Chapter 2

But she was not at ease.

After all, she was not a professional.

She took a photo of the contract and sent it to Kayden, asking him to help find the lawyer he was working with to see if there was a pit.

After ten minutes, Kayden replied with a word: "Ok."

Brielle immediately signed it.

After signing the contract, Brooks immediately handed the shares transfer agreement to Brielle and forced her to sign it.

"Hurry up and sign this. You are not qualified to hold something that does not belong to you!"

"That is indeed not something that belongs to me..." Brielle smiled.

That was already something that belonged to Kayden.

She neatly signed the shares transfer agreement.

Galley family was very excited. The group of people surrounded the shares transfer agreement, their eyes shining.

When they came back to their senses, Brielle had already left the law firm.

Galley family did not care about her whereabouts.

The family rushed to the industrial and commercial departments and immediately took the transfer agreement to transfer the shares.

After the staff checked, they said to them, "Sorry, I didn't find out that Ms. Brielle has shares under her name, so this transfer agreement is not effective."

Everyone was shocked.

Brooks anxiously said, "Brielle has 30% of Galley Group's shares under her name. How can she not have shares under her name? Is there something wrong with your system?"

The staff member politely said, "Then please wait a moment. I will check again."

After a while, the staff member said, "I saw Brielle's name..."

Everyone breathed a sigh of relief, and their faces were full of excitement.

However, before they could be happy, the staff member said, "In the stock change record, I found Brielle's name."

"She did hold 30% of Galley Group's shares before, but at eight o'clock this morning, the 30% shares have become others. Brielle now holds zero shares."

"So, this share transfer agreement in your hands is invalid."

Galley family and the others seemed to be struck by lightning, and their eyes widened in disbelief.

Brooks: "What did you say? Brielle transferred the shares under her name? Who did she transfer it to?"

The staff member said, "His name is Kayden Fairfax."

Brooks's eyes darkened and his body staggered. Fortunately, Pearl caught him in time. Otherwise, he would have fallen to the ground.

"Beast! Brielle is a beast! She actually sold the shares and sold it to our competitor!"

Brooks was so angry that his whole body trembled. His chest heaved violently and he almost could not breathe.

The others were also very angry.

Not only did Brielle sell the shares in advance, but she also took advantage of them and cheated them of 50 million dollars.

The smile on Galley family's face that disappeared was doubled to Brielle's face.

At this time, Brielle was shopping happily in mall.

Ever since Galley family left, she had only brought her credentials. She hadn't taken anything else with her, so she needed to buy it again.

She walked into a big-name female clothing store and selected thirty sets of clothes and dresses without batting an eye.

Following that was the shoe pack store and jewelry store.

After she paid for everything, she left the address that Kayden had given her and had the store arrange for someone to send her there.

She spent nearly 1.4 million dollars on buying.

It was so great to spend money that she earned for free.

When Brielle left the mall, she met Galley family at the entrance.

After they left the business department, they had been looking for Brielle and finally let them find Brielle here.

"Brielle, you are too despicable. You sold the shares and deliberately deceived us. You cheated 50 million from us. Now go and get the shares back immediately!" Third Brother Jordan pointed at Brielle and cursed.

Brielle said with an innocent face, "You just let me sign the transfer agreement. You didn't ask me that if the shares are still in my hands. How can I lie to you?"

"The money you gave me was to compensate me for the maintenance fees for the past twenty years. I didn't lie to you."

Brooks said angrily, "You evil creature! How dare you play with us? I will beat you to death today!"

Pearl hurriedly pulled him back and advised him in a low voice, "Dad, don't make a move here. There are still passers-by around here. If we are recognized, it will damage our reputation. Take her home and slowly educate her."

Brooks suppressed his anger and said to his three sons, "You tie this evil creature to the car and take her home!"

Eldest Brother, Second Brother, and Third Brother surrounded Brielle with a gloomy face, ready to kidnap her.

But just as they were about to make a move, two bodyguards appeared out of nowhere and appeared in front of Brielle in the blink of an eye.

"Who are you? Get out of the way. This is none of your business. I advise you not to meddle in other people's business!" Jordan said unhappily.

The bodyguard said, "We were sent by Master Fairfax to protect Miss Callow. Master Fairfax said that if someone wanted to hurt Miss Callow, we would protect her at all costs. Even if we killed him, it wouldn't matter."

Jordan's expression changed.

Master Fairfax?

There was only one person who dared to call Mater Fairfax, that was Kayden!

It was Kayden again!

Galley family was so angry that he was about to explode, but he did not dare to act rashly.

"Brielle, we are a one of our family. Come home with us now!"

Chapter 2

Jordan said in a deep voice.

"Pa!"

Brielle slapped him.

"I told you last night. If you see me outside in the future, don't talk about knowing me. I think it's bad luck."

"You..."

"Still want to be beaten?"

Jordan shut his mouth.

Brielle sneered and kicked him away, walking forward with her head held high.

When the others saw her walk over, they consciously moved to the side, afraid that she would suddenly go crazy and attack them indiscriminately.

Kayden's bodyguard personally drove Brielle to the villa he lent her.

The things she bought were also delivered at this time.

Brielle asked the bodyguard and the delivery man to move all her things into the villa together.

The villa was ridiculously large and luxurious beyond imagination.

Chapter 2

The delivery men were all stunned.

If they had not seen it with their own eyes, they would not have dreamed of such a luxurious villa.

Brielle was not surprised at all.

Galley family thought that she had been stranded outside and was suffering outside.

But in fact, she had suffered a few years outside, but her life after that was many times better than Galley family's.

The place she lived before she came back was not inferior to Kayden's villa.

She just did not expect that Kayden would lend her such a luxurious villa.

She thought that he would choose a remote and crude house for her to live in.

It seemed that she was using the heart of a villain to measure the heart of a gentleman.

Brielle walked to the master bedroom on the third floor and was ready to tidy up her clothes.

Before Brielle could tidy up her things, her cell phone rang.

She glanced at it. It was her unlucky father.

She didn't even think about it before she blacklisted him.

Chapter 2

Soon, her phone rang again.

It was from her mother.

Blacklisted.

Black-hearted Pearl also called her.

Blacklisted.

Big Brother also called.

Blacklisted.

Then there was the idiot second brother, Robert.

It was also blacklisted.

Finally, it was the idiot third brother, Jordan.

Brielle picked it up and scolded, "Big idiot, if you dare to harass me again, I will blow up your head!"

Then she hung up the phone at lightning speed and blacklisted him.

Galley family.

Jordan was so angry that he cried.

"Why did she only blacklist me after scolding me? She is too much. She is treating me differently!"
