

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 21

• • •

Chapter 21

“Ah... This is ours, you can't take it!” Quinn was frightened, but she still held onto the wooden fork that was skewered with grilled fish and blocked Pearl's hand with her other hand, not allowing her to snatch it away.

“Pa!”

Pearl raised her hand angrily and slapped Quinn. You have already eaten. The rest is mine and my brother's. Hurry up and hand it over. Otherwise, don't blame me for being impolite!”

Pearl was furious and did not forget to call Jordan, “Brother, come and help me. They want to steal our food. We have to defend our own interests. We can't let them take advantage of us!”

As she spoke, she wanted to snatch it again. However, before her hand could touch the wooden fork that was skewered with grilled fish, Jaxson grabbed her wrist.

Following that, Jaxson kicked at Pearl without any trace of politeness.

“Ah...”

Pearl was kicked back two steps and cried out in alarm.

“You... you actually hit me? Aren't you afraid that I will make my big brother shut you out and make you unable to survive in the entertainment industry?” Pearl said furiously.

“It's not like I can only work in inner entertainment. If I can't work in inner entertainment, I can go to Korean entertainment.”

Jaxson sneered.

He had originally debuted in South Korea. After becoming famous, he returned to develop.

No matter how long Roman's hand was, he could not reach South Korea.

Moreover, the entertainment circle was not surnamed Galley, so Roman might not be able to ban him.

For some celebrities who had no business value, the other big shots were willing to give face to Roman. But for big stars who had high business value and could make a lot of money, not everyone would give face to Roman.

“Jaxson, how can you hit my sister?” Jordan quickly walked to Pearl's side, reached out to hold her body that was shaking from the kick, and asked Jaxson unhappily. Pearl threw herself into Jordan's arms, crying sadly. "Brother, you have to help me. They are too bad. They stole our food. and didn't give us our food. They even hit me. They are not human!"

Jaxson laughed in anger, "What nonsense are you talking about? When did we steal your food?"

Pearl pointed at the fish in their hands and said, "You still want to quibble? You still have them in your hands!"

"You mean these two fish?" Jaxson asked.

Pearl nodded. "That's right, you finally admitted it!"

Jaxson was speechless. "Is there something wrong with your brain? When did I admit it?"

These two fish were given to us by Brielle. When did they become yours?"

Pearl said, "Of course I know that these two fish were given by Brielle!"

Chapter 21

But she gave it to all of us, but you secretly ate it behind my back and my brother. You even wanted to eat our share. You guys have gone too far. What you have done is simply not something humans can do!"

Jordan also said. "Since it belongs to everyone, you should wait for everyone to come together and split it equally. But you are hiding it from me and Pearl and secretly eat it. This behavior is wrong in itself. You even beat Pearl. It is even more wrong.”

“Hehe.” Jaxson laughed and said sarcastically. “Who told you that this is a gift from Brielle to all of us?”

“Isn’t that so?” Jordan frowned.

Jaxson said, “Of course not. This is a performance reward from Brielle. The reward she gives us is not yours!”

Jordan’s face stiffened.

Pearl also seemed to have been slapped in public. Her face was green and red, and at the same time, she was also very angry.

She did not expect that Brielle was so selfish that she did not take the initiative to give them food!

Jordan looked at Brielle who was not far away, hesitated for a moment, and said, “Is it possible for Pearl and I to perform a show for you and you will also give us food?”

Brielle looked up indifferently and looked at him coldly. She sneered, “I don’t want to watch your performance. I feel disgusted just looking at you.”

“You...” Jordan was so angry that his face turned green and then red.

Pearl flew into a rage out of humiliation and said, “Brielle, why are you so cold–blooded? We are your relatives. You would rather give outsiders a chance than help your family. You are really worse than a beast!”

Brielle said with a faint smile, “Yes, yes, yes. I am worse than a beast. You are the same as a beast, okay?”

“You...” Pearl was angry.

She gritted her teeth and looked at Quinn and the others again.

She put away her arrogant and domineering appearance and showed a little weakness on her face. She said pitifully, “Since Brielle gave these fish to you, they belong to you. You have the right to distribute them. Please give me some.”

“As long as you give me the food, after we leave this place, I will ask my big brother to give you resources!”

They were indifferent.

They knew Brielle’s disgust for Pearl. If they gave the things that Brielle kindly gave them to the people that Brielle hated, they would completely offend Brielle.

Even if they were not afraid of offending Brielle, they were still lowly on the surface of the world.

Pearl bit her lips and said sadly, “Are you all so cruel? Do you want to watch me die? I haven’t eaten for many days. If I don’t eat, I will really starve to death...”

They still did not react.

She couldn’t die from hunger.

Weren’t there wild vegetables everywhere in the forest?

Seeing that her words weren’t going to work, Pearl began to curse in anger, “You are so selfish and cruel. You will go to hell in the future!”

“If I starve to death, I will be killed by you. You are the murderers. Don’t think about peace for the rest of your lives!”

Chapter 21

However, no matter what she said, Jaxson and the others pretended not to hear it.

They continued to eat the grilled fish in their hands.

“Pearl, stop talking. Let’s go.” Jordan reached out and grabbed Pearl, forcefully pulling her away.

[Hahahaha. I’m dying of laughter. Where did Pearl get the confidence to think that Brielle would give her food?]

[She has been targeting Sister E all this time, and she still wants Sister E to give her food. How shameless! |

[I even feel shame for her!]

[I like to see angelic bitch and stupid jerk make a fool of themselves. I

[I have a question. They can't find anything to eat, and the program team has never cared about it. Aren't they afraid that they will starve to death?]

[Look at how they can scold people and snatch things. I can tell that they still have strength.]

[The program team should have prepared something in advance. It's impossible to really let them starve to death.]

After Pearl and Jordan left, Quinn and the others continued to eat.

The three of them finished dividing the two fish.

After eating, Quinn stood up and said to Brielle, "Sister Brielle, I have physical strength now. I will sing a few more songs you!"

"Okay." Brielle nodded.

Quinn cleared her throat and began to sing.

Jaxson picked another leaf and played a tune to help the accompaniment.

Brielle leaned against a tree and watched their performance with interest.

Needless to say, it was quite pleasant,

In the distance, when Pearl heard these songs, she was so angry that she kept stomping her feet.

Damn it, they were all people who were left here together. Why was it that others were so happy and only she and Jordan. were angry?

It was all Jordan's fault for being useless!
for

The fifth day.

When Brielle woke up, Quinn and the others were still asleep.

In the past few days, because they were hungry, they could not sleep all night. Even if they managed to fall asleep, they did not sleep well.

They had finally eaten their fill last night and slept soundly all night. They had not woken up until dawn. Brielle packed up and walked into the forest with her backpack on her back.

She did not want to stay with them, so she might as well go up the mountain to play with monkeys.

Pearl and Jordan were hungry for the whole night and did not sleep much. They woke up earlier than Brielle.

Chapter 21

Seeing Brielle enter the forest, Pearl pulled Jordan and quietly followed.

"Why are you following her? Do you want to hit her? I advise you to give up this idea. Even if we are full, we can't beat her, let alone we are hungry for so many days now.” Jordan said.

Pearl said sneakily. “She can find food every day when she goes out. Let’s follow her and see where she finds food and how she catches prey.”

In fact, she took advantage of the fact that Brielle killed the prey and picked up the prey before she could pick it up.

As long as the prey was taken away before Brielle got it, Brielle could not insist that it was her.

Jordan still had a sense of morality. She didn’t dare to say it clearly. She was afraid that Jordan wouldn’t go with her, so she could only lie to him.

She was hungry, so she didn’t care about morality and morality. She just wanted to find food.

She didn’t want to eat wild vegetables anymore!

They lived here for five days and didn’t die because they secretly ate wild vegetables.

They didn’t know if it was poisonous, but seeing that the leaves were thick and green, it didn’t look like they were poisonous, they pulled it out and ate it.

Jordan thought about it and accepted Pearl’s suggestion.

Eating wild vegetables every day was not a solution, it was time to learn how to hunt.

Thus, he and Pearl quietly followed behind Brielle. Brielle immediately realized that they were following her, but she did not care.

Anyway, it was not a threat to her.

Moreover, she was also curious why they were following her.

They would not want to provoke her again, right? In order for them to keep up with her, Brielle even walked at a normal speed. She did not swing the tree vines, afraid that they would not be able to keep up.

But even so, they were still a lot behind.

Brielle passed through the forest and arrived at the foot of the mountain.

The group of monkeys rested on the trees at the foot of the mountain.

When they saw Brielle, they all started to boil.

“Eh? Where did you find the bananas? Can you give me two.”

When Brielle saw them eating bananas, she asked them very impolitely.

She had been here several times, but she did not find any banana trees nearby.

The monkey king snatched the banana from the hands of the two little monkeys, jumped off the tree, ran to Brielle and handed the banana to her.

Thank you.”

Brielle took it, found a piece of land, and sat down, beginning to taste it.

Chapter 21

Pearl and Jordan finally caught up to the edge of the forest. From afar, they saw Monkey give Brielle a banana.

Pearl was so angry that she went crazy. Her nails dug into the tree bark.

Why did monkeys have to curry favor with Brielle?
Sending food to Brielle?

She was nobler than Brielle, so the monkey should come to please her and give her food!

田

• • •

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 22

• • •

Chapter 22

The monkeys were keenly aware that there were others, and they all looked in the direction of Jordan and Pearl.

Brielle said, “Ignore them. They are not a threat.”

The monkeys withdrew their gazes and circled around Brielle.

There were also other monkeys who took the initiative to put the bananas in front of Brielle.

Brielle said, "You guys eat. The two is enough for me."

After she finished eating, she stood up and prepared to go around.

This time, she did not go up the mountain. Instead, she walked along the foot of the mountain, wanting to explore other places.

The monkeys wanted to follow her. Brielle said, "Don't follow me. Go play by yourself. I will walk by myself."

The monkey king immediately called out to his subordinates and went up the mountain.

In the distance, Pearl and Jordan quietly followed Brielle.

After walking for a while, Brielle found a new wild fruit.

Myrtle!

There was a large area of Myrtle; all of them were ripe. The black fruits were very big, all of them as big as thumbs.

Brielle ate this when she was a child. It was quite delicious, but it was easy to not poop after eating too much.

She still remembered that she did not understand this when she was a child. She ate too much in one go, causing her to be unable to poop. She could not even pull it out when she pulled it until her anus cracked. In the end, it was a good partner of hers who helped her dig it out with her hands. The partner said that the poop was hard, and it was difficult to dig it out with her hands. The partner was bitter and could not eat for days. She also did not dare to look at her companion for a few days.

Brielle ate while picking.

She stopped eating after eating more than twenty pills, afraid that she really would not be able to pull out shit.

She continued to walk forward.

She didn't go far before Pearl couldn't wait to run to the Myrtle tree. Her eyes were full of excitement, and then she picked the fruit with both hands and impatiently put it into her mouth.

Because he was 100% eager, even the leaves were stuffed into her mouth.

Jordan also followed, and he also couldn't wait to pick and eat.

The two of them didn't speak and ate crazily.

They ate like crazy until their stomachs were full and fruit could gush out from their burps. Only then did they stop.

Pearl said, "Brother, do you think my decision is right? We can find food by following her!"

13:10 Tue, 8 Aug

Chapter 22

I'm so full. I haven't been so satisfied in a long time!" Although it was just wild fruit, it at least filled her stomach.

"Yes, Pearl, you are really smart. It's all thanks to you. Otherwise, I would have eaten wild vegetables today. You are really my lucky star." Jordan smiled.

The corners of Pearl's lips curled.

She looked in the direction where Brielle had left. Because they had eaten for too long, Brielle had already gone far away.

Pearl said, "Brother, let's walk forward. Maybe there are other things to eat. If we don't find anything else to eat, we can come back and pick some more."

Jordan nodded.

Because almost no one had been here before, it was easy to leave traces of walking. They followed the traces left on the ground for nearly half an hour and finally saw Brielle..

There was actually a cliff in front of them.

Looking down from the cliff, the mountain forest below the cliff was a lot shorter, and the scenery was very good.

At this time, Brielle was sitting at the edge of the cliff to watch the scenery.

She sat very close to the edge, as if she could fall down if she was not careful.

A hint of malice flashed in Pearl's eyes..

An evil thought emerged in her heart.

If only Brielle fell off the cliff and died in this deep mountain...

After this thought appeared, it spread wildly.

As long as she quietly approached Brielle and pushed her down the cliff, she could kill her without anyone noticing!

Push Brielle down the cliff!

Push Brielle down the cliff!

Push Brielle down the cliff!

This sentence was like a curse that kept repeating in her mind.

Pearl looked at Brielle's back with dark eyes and slowly approached her.

She walked very lightly, as if she was afraid of being discovered by Brielle.

Jordan frowned and wanted to follow, but Pearl pressed his shoulder and shook her head.

She used an small voice and whispered in his ear, "Don't go over. I will apologize to her. I hope that we can get along peacefully before we leave the forest."

Jordan thought about it and nodded in agreement. Brielle had a strong survival ability in the wild. It would be best if they could get along with her peacefully.

He looked at Pearl's back, and a relieved smile appeared on his face.

His sister was really sensible. She had suffered so many grievances, and she could still apologize to her time and time again.

13:10 Tue, 8 Aug

Chapter 22

She was much better than Brielle.

Soon, Pearl walked behind Brielle.

Brielle was still sitting at the edge of the cliff and did not move.

It was as if she did not notice that someone was approaching her.

The viciousness in Pearl's eyes became more obvious..

She suddenly bent down and pushed hard on Brielle's back.

Brielle's body immediately fell off the cliff and fell down.

Pearl was so excited that her entire body was trembling. Afraid that she would jump down, she quickly took a few steps back.

She succeeded!

She finally got rid of that slut, Brielle!

“Pearl, what are you doing?” Jordan shouted in shock.

He quickly ran to the edge of the cliff.

It was only then that he heard a loud noise coming from the bottom of the cliff.

His face was pale, his hands and feet were cold, and he was lying on the edge of the cliff looking down anxiously.

However, there were many trees on the cliff, blocking their vision. They could not see what was happening below the cliff at all.

“Brielle! Can you hear me? Brielle, are you still alive?”

Jordan shouted at the bottom of the cliff, his voice trembling.

However, there was no response, only the whistling of the wind.

Pearl’s proud voice came from behind him. “Stop shouting. It took her so long to land. It can be seen how high the cliff is. If she falls from such a high distance, her bones will definitely be broken. How can she still be alive?”

Jordan's body trembled violently.

He stood up from the ground and glared at Pearl with red eyes. He asked angrily, "Why did you push Brielle down? Do you know that she will die like this?"

Pearl said confidently, "I just want her to die!"

Jordan looked at her as if she was a stranger. "You did it on purpose? That's my sister. How can you kill her! Even if she is not my sister, it is still a human life. How can you kill her?"

Pearl said with a vicious face, "How did she deal with us these days? It's not like you haven't seen it!"

"She has been beating us all the time. You have a high fever and she didn't save you. Last night, she even took you into the water and injured you in the water. She wanted you to die in the water."

"She is such a vicious woman. It would be better if she died. Why are you so excited?"

"I killed her to avenge for you!"

"It's fine if you don't thank me, but you actually scolded me for her. My kindness has been treated as malice by you!"

Chapter 22

I knew it. No matter how I treat you, I can't beat your blood sister!"

"Since you think it's wrong for me to push her down the cliff, then you can push me down too!"

A trace of struggle flashed through Jordan's eyes, and his hands clenched into fists.

Pearl slowed down her voice and sobbed, "Brother, you know how much she hates us and our family. She wants to kill you now.

When we get back, she will definitely attack our parents and brothers. She is so powerful. If we don't get rid of her, our whole family will die in her hands in the future!"

"This is to protect our entire family. That's why I stood up for this evil person!"

"Brother, have you forgotten? Brielle sold Galley family's shares to our rival company at a low price. And she also cheated. our parents so much money?"

"She has already started to target our family. If we don't kill her, we will just wait to die in her hands!" Jordan was moved.

Pearl was right. Brielle had long stopped treating them as her family and even treated them as her enemies.

Before he had even come to participate in this program, Brielle had already started to target Galley family.

If they let it go, they might really die in the hands of Brielle in the future.

However, when he thought of how Brielle had fallen off the cliff and died tragically, he could not help but feel sad.

He had never thought of taking Brielle's life....

Even if Brielle did not save him and he was extremely disappointed with her, he only wanted to let his parents think of a way to change her ways after he returned.

If it really did not work, he would raise her up and not let her go out to stir up trouble, so that she would not have the chance to target them.

He had never thought of killing her.

But now, the matter had been like this. It could only be said that she had done many evil deeds, and her life should be like this.

Although Pearl's actions were a bit ruthless, her original intention was good, and it was to protect her family.

He was indecisive and not cruel enough. He could not help his family get rid of the dangerous hidden dangers. Pearl had done it for him and protected his family for him. He should not blame Pearl.

Jordan quickly calmed down.

He said in a deep voice. Thank you for thinking about our family, but don't do such things in the future. Killing is illegal"

"Even if Brielle wants to harm us, we can think of other ways to deal with it."

Pearl said softly, "Okay, I will listen to brother in the future. Can brother help me keep this matter a secret? Don't tell anyone.

Mom, Dad, and Brothers, don't tell them, okay?"

No matter what, Brielle was Galley family's biological daughter. If Galley family knew that she killed Brielle, they would definitely have a problem with her.

Others in the Galley family were not as stupid as Jordan who was so easy to fool.

Jordan hesitated for a moment before nodding.

"Alright, I promise you. You did this to help me take revenge and protect our family. I won't tell anyone about this and let you be blamed by others."

Chapter 22

Pearl wanted to help him take revenge, to protect his family, and to save his life.

Even if he felt that Pearl was wrong, he could not blame her.

Pearl laughed and threw herself into Jordan's arms.

"Brother, you are so good to me. I love you the most."

Jordan smiled gently. “My life was saved by you. If I don’t support you, who else can I support?”

“Brielle was so indifferent to me even if I was so sick that I almost died in front of her. She was such a cold and heartless person.

Perhaps it was the best choice for her to reincarnate.”

• • •

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 23

• • •

Chapter 23

Jordan once again looked at the bottom of the cliff, his eyes dim.

In the end, he silently sighed, withdrew his gaze, and held Pearl’s hand as they walked back.

Everything was fate.

Brielle was so skilled, but she was still pushed down by Pearl. It could only be said that God disliked her and wanted her to die here.

About five meters above the cliff, there was a cave that was concave inwards.

Brielle sat at the entrance of the cave and sneered as he listened to the approaching footsteps on the cliff.

They wanted her to die?

Sorry, she was lucky and won't die.

It wasn't that she hadn't sensed Pearl approaching her just now, and it wasn't that she hadn't guessed what Pearl wanted to do.

She was confident that she would be able to escape if she was pushed off the cliff, so she deliberately gave Pearl a chance.

She had been at the edge of the cliff for a while, and she had already seen the situation below clearly.

Even if there were no caves on this cliff, with so many trees, it was impossible for her to fall down.

The sound they heard just now was the stone she threw down.

The reason why she deliberately gave Pearl a chance to push her down the cliff was to let Jordan, that idiot, see Pearl's vicious nature clearly.

Unexpectedly, that stupid thing was really so stupid that he was fooled by Pearl with a few words.

Fortunately, she had cut off her relationship with Galley family. Otherwise, with such a stupid brother, she could be stupid.

to cry.

Brielle restrained her emotions and walked into the cave.

It was boring to be idle, so she took it as an adventure.

Night fell.

Quinn, Austin, and Jaxson waited for a long time, but Brielle did not come back.

Quinn kept looking in the direction of the forest and said worriedly, "Why hasn't Sister Brielle come back so late today? She always came back when the sun set in the past few days. Today, it is almost dark. Why hasn't she come back yet? Did something happen to her?"

Jaxson said, "Her skills are so good. Even the monkeys recognize her as their boss. Nothing should happen to her."

Austin said, "She might have been in some good place and forgot to come back. Let's wait a little longer."

Pearl and Jordan were sitting not far away from them. Hearing the discussions of Quinn and the others, Pearl could not help. but reveal a mocking smile.

Brielle would never come back!

Chapter 23

No matter how long they waited, it would be useless!

Pearl took out the Myrtle they brought back and shared it with Jordan.

She did not forget to look at Quinn and the others and said to them with a faint smile, “If Brielle doesn’t come back, you won’t have anything to eat, right? I have a lot of food here. If you apologize to me for what happened last night, I will give you some to eat.”

Quinn and the others only glanced at her and then retracted their gazes, showing no intention of apologizing.

Pearl snorted coldly, “Humph, I want to see how long you can be so unyielding!”

Anyway, Brielle could not come back, and they would come to beg her in two days.

She was not in a hurry.

At this time, the people in the broadcast room were also discussing why Brielle did not come back.

[Where is Sister E? Where did she go? After she walked out of the shooting range in the morning, we didn’t see her again.

Where did she go?]

[At that time, Jordan and Pearl followed her. Jordan and Pearl both came back. Why isn’t Sister E back?]

[Sister E couldn’t have been killed by Pearl and Jordan, right?]

[That's impossible. How could Pearl and Jordan be Sister E's match? Even if ten more of them came, they still wouldn't be able to defeat Sister E!]

[What exactly happened to Sister E? Could it be that she encountered other wild beasts and was eaten by them?]

Because the program team did not expect that someone would be able to go so far, they did not install hidden cameras over there, so no one knew where Brielle went, and no one saw Pearl push Brielle down the cliff.

At first, the director thought that they were a group of spoiled stars, it could be good if they could explore half of the forest. They had installed cameras near the mountains behind the forest, which was an extra precaution.

Brielle was completely beyond their predictions.

If he had known that Brielle could run so fast, the director would have definitely installed cameras further away.

Because Brielle ran out of the shooting range, there were fewer people watching the live broadcast today.

The original hundreds of millions of audience fell and only a few 15 thousand remained.

Because Quinn and the others were just standing there in a daze, there was nothing to see.

The audience of 15 thousand dollars had been asking when Brielle would appear.

Those people were almost all waiting for Brielle to appear.

Some people who were impatient and started a topic on Twitter. When the people who were waiting saw Brielle appear, they asked them to go and watch. Countless people went to Twitter to leave a message.

At this time, the director saw that Pearl and Jordan had returned, but Brielle had not yet returned. He immediately contacted the staff hiding in the forest.

“Go and find Brielle. She hasn’t been out of the mirror for nearly ten hours. Go and find out where she has gone.”

He really wanted to say that if something had happened to Brielle.

But in the end, he didn’t say it

Chapter 23

He was afraid that something really happened.

“Eh?”

Suddenly, the director saw a familiar figure appear in the mirror.

It was Brielle, who had disappeared for nearly ten hours!

Nothing happened to Brielle!

She appeared again!

The director was so excited that his voice was trembling. He said anxiously, "There's no need to find her. Brielle has appeared.

She has appeared!"

"I knew it. Brielle is so powerful. She has the upper hand in a battle with a group of monkeys. Even if she meets a tiger, the tiger will be like a kitten in front of her!"

"You guys continue to hide and protect the guests in secret. Unless absolutely necessary, you are not allowed to show your faces!"

After the director finished speaking, he hung up the phone. At the same time, he switched the big screen of the live broadcast room to the scene where Brielle appeared.

At this time. Brielle was walking back the same path she had taken when she left during the day.

She walked to the foot of the mountain where the monkeys occupied and stopped.

It was too late, and it was not easy to travel through the forest.

She did not intend to go back tonight and planned to spend the night here.

There was a large patch of grass at the foot of the mountain, the scenery was good, and the view was good.

Moreover, because it was at the foot of the mountain, it was especially cool.

Brielle pul down her backpack and shouted to the mountain, “Little King, are you there?”

“Ow”

The monkey king’s cry came from the mountain.

Following that, a wave of cries could be heard along with the rustling sounds.

Very quickly, the monkey group descended the mountain and surrounded her.

Brielle found that there were a few monkeys missing in the group. The remaining monkeys had injuries on several of their bodies. The monkey king’s left front paw turned outwards and his hand directly deformed.

“What happened? Why are you all so miserable?”

Brielle frowned and was slightly displeased.

The monkey group chattered. She could also see the indignation and anger on the monkeys’ faces.

They seemed to be scrambling to tell her what had happened.

But... she couldn’t understand.

“Did you encounter other animals attacking you?”

Brielle guessed.

This was the only possibility in the wild.

It was impossible for Jordan and the others.

12:12 Wed, 9 Aug DO

Chapter 23

Those people were no match for Monkey.

Monkey King nodded vigorously.

Brielle said, "It's too late today. Tomorrow, take me to meet them."

"Come here. Let me see if your hand can still be cured."

The monkey king's eyes seemed to light up.

Brielle was on the grass.

The monkey king obediently walked in front of her. Brielle turned on the flashlight and asked a monkey to hold it for her. He shone it on the monkey king's hand.

She stretched out her hand and pressed it on the monkey king's left hand.

The monkey king was in so much pain that it kept howling.

Brielle pinched it for a while and suddenly made a quick move.

"Ka!"

"Ga?"

With a crisp sound, the monkey king's voice stopped, and a puzzled expression appeared on its face.

It looked down at its left forelimb and found that it had returned to its normal shape!

It tried to move. It hurt a little, but it could already move!

It cried out happily and circled around Brielle as if it was thanking her.

The rest of the monkeys also shouted happily, their eyes full of worship, as if they had seen a god.

Brielle said, “Your hand is only dislocated. I helped you reset it, but you can’t use your hand these days in case you hurt it again.

Don’t swing around on the tree for the time being. Be careful of dislocating it again. After a period of time, you can do as you please.”

It was unknown whether the Monkey King understood or not, but it kept screaming.

Brielle looked at the other monkeys. “Those who are injured, come and line up. I will help you take a look.”

The monkey king called out to them a few times, and the injured monkeys walked in front of Brielle in a neat manner, waiting for her to check.

There were actually ten injured monkeys, and the injuries on their bodies varied.

Some of them only had their cheeks bitten a little, so there would be no problem if they did not deal with them.

Some were more serious.

One of them had a piece of its skin bitten off, and the other half of its tail had fallen off.

There were also a few that had quite serious bite wounds on their bodies.

This kind of wound was too big, and the healing speed was slow. It was very easy to get infected with inflammation, and if one was not careful, the monkey would die.

Especially the one whose abdomen was injured, the internal organs could be seen. If she didn't deal with it, it would definitely die.

Chapter 23

Brielle said with a serious face, "The injured monkey, stay where you are and don't move. Little King, you take a few monkeys and come with me."

She stood up with a flashlight and looked around the foot of the mountain.

Soon, she pulled out a few herbs and handed them to the Monkey King. "Go and find more of these herbs for me."

The Monkey King took the herbs and smelled them. After tasting them, the other monkeys followed suit. Then, they spread out to search.

After more than ten minutes, Brielle and the monkeys returned to their original positions.

The monkeys placed the herbs in front of her. Brielle checked them carefully and found that they were all right.

She gave the monkeys a thumbs up. “You are really amazing. You can learn it at once!”

“Remember, if you get injured in the future, you can find this kind of herbal medicine, mash it and apply it to the wound to avoid infection. Even if it has been infected, but it is not particularly serious, it can be cured.”

As Brielle said this, she took down the pot hanging on her backpack, put the herbal medicine in, picked up a stone and smashed it.

After crushing the medicine, except for the one injured in the abdomen, she applied the rest of the monkeys with herbs.

Then, she took out a small medical box from her backpack and took out the needle thread.

She walked up to the monkey whose abdomen was injured.

The little monkey trembled in fear.

Brielle looked at the monkey king. “Find two powerful monkeys to hold it down. Don’t let it move.”

“Find four, hold down all four of its limbs.”

The monkey king immediately ordered.

Very quickly, the injured monkey was held down.

Brielle used iodine to disinfect the wound, then took the needle thread and began to stitch it up.

The conditions were poor, and there was no anesthetic, so it could only be sewn.

The monkey cried out in pain, its cries extremely shrill.

Fortunately, there were four monkeys pressing it down, otherwise it would have run away long ago. Brielle's hand speed was very fast, and in the blink of an eye, more than twenty needles were sewn, and the wound was sewn together.

After that she cleaned the wound and applied medicine to it.

"Before the wound heals, don't move around, lest the wound opens again."

As Brielle collected the things, she said to the Monkey King. "Send a few monkeys to pick some fruits for me to eat. I don't want to cook dinner tonight."

. . .

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 24

. . .

Chapter 24

[My God, what did I see? Brielle and the monkeys have no barriers to communicate?]

[Ridiculous, too ridiculous!]

[This communication is too smooth, it is like communicating with people!]

[It is not necessarily so smooth to communicate with people. After all, some people have no brains!]

[Look at those monkeys. They look at Sister E with eyes full of worship. I think they must have thought of Sister E as a god!]

[Damn, such a smart and cute monkey. What hurt them so badly?]

[Sister E is awesome. You will always be my god!]

[I am very curious. Where did Sister E go during the time she disappeared in the camera? What happened?]

[I see the expressions of Pearl and Jordan. I feel that something must have happened between the three of them... I'm very curious!]

Ever since Brielle re-appeared in the cam of the live broadcast room, the number of viewers began to rise rapidly.

One million, ten million, one hundred million, two hundred million...

The audience from all over the world flooded the live broadcast room.

Even the overseas audience who could not understand the domestic language were shocked to see the state of Brielle and the monkeys.

The topic of Brielle communicating with animals had caused a heated discussion on the Internet all over the world.

There were even teams that specialized in animal language, hoping to get in touch with Brielle.

The sixth day.

When Brielle woke up in the morning, there were many fruits placed in front of her.

They were neatly placed in front of her, as if they were offerings.

Brielle

got up

and did a set of exercises, chewed a few leaves to clean her mouth, and then went to eat.

There were bananas, persimmons, grapes, and some fruits that Brielle could not name.

It was sweet and sour, and the taste was not bad.

After Brielle was full, she went to check on the injuries of the wounded monkeys.

Brielle directly ordered the Monkey King to take the monkeys to pick herbs. After picking them, they smashed them on the stones and applied them to the wounds.

During this time, Brielle just watched from the side to ensure that they did not find the wrong medicine.

She did not help them at all.

When the monkeys were done, she was not stingy with her praises.

“You are so smart. You learned it so quickly. You have to always remember that when I am not here in the future, you will have to rely on yourselves!”

Brielle had already decided that after seven days, she would find a way to leave this place.

Chapter 24

She signed the seven-day recording agreement. Even if the filming team lost contact, she would not break the agreement. She said that she would stay here for seven days and then stay here obediently for seven days. This way, even if the program team came to find trouble with her after she went back, she could confidently say that she had completely abided by the contract and that it was their reason for not filming.

Today was the sixth day. She would stay for another day tomorrow and leave the day after tomorrow!

Brielle calmed herself down and looked at the monkey king. “Little King, where are the things you fought with yesterday? Take me to meet them!”

Monkey chirped.

Brielle said, “Don’t say anymore. Just lead the way.”

Anyway, she couldn't understand. It was a waste of time to shout for half a day.

“Leave the wounded here, and leave half of the inonkeys here to protect the wounded monkeys. Those with strong fighting ability must prevent other creatures from ambushing them. The rest will follow us.”

After Brielle finished speaking, the monkey king made arrangements in the monkey group.

The monkeys quickly split into two groups.

Some monkeys were still unconvinced and wanted to go with them, but they were all shouted back by the monkey king.

Then, Brielle left with a dozen or so monkeys.

[Sister E, don't come back. Stay there and be the king of the mountains. I see that the monkeys are completely centered on you.

If you leave, what will happen to the monkeys in the future?]

[Hahahaha. I also support Sister E to be the king of the monkeys. I really like watching her get along with the monkeys. It is much more harmonious than Pearl and the others. I [Don't mention Pearl and the others. Just mentioning them will cause my blood pressure to rise.]

[The wild monkeys are so smart. Brielle only taught them once and they remembered the herbs. They will also treat their wounds. If give them more time, will they be able to evolve into humans?]

[I'm worried that after the program is broadcasted, someone will steal and capture these smart monkeys and tame them to perform animal shows...]

[I hope that the relevant departments can strengthen their protection. Don't let these little monkeys fall into the hands of bad people!]

[Aoo, is Brielle going to take revenge for the little monkeys? I'm looking forward to it!]

[I think that humans should not interfere with the natural competition between wild animals. That will destroy the ecological balance. Brielle should not stand up for them just because she has a good relationship with the monkeys.]

[Humans have long affected the life of wild animals. The places where they live now are all divided by humans. It is already too late to talk about interfering now.)

Brielle did not know about the discussions online, nor did she know that she was going to stand up for the monkeys, which caused a widespread debate.

Those people were not only arguing in the live broadcast room, but they even caused a commotion on other platforms.

On top of Twitter, there was even a heated discussion about the high position of search.

Should humans help wild animals?

The people inside were still divided into two groups. Some believed that they could intervene appropriately, while some believed that they should completely ignore it.

In this regard, Brielle was completely unaware.

Even if she knew, she would not care too much about those discussions. She would only do what she wanted to do.

After walking for half an hour, the monkeys stopped. This place was also at the edge of the forest. It was about three kilometers away from where the monkeys lived, but the environment was much worse than there.

Brielle observed for a while and saw an animal coming out from the hole of a tree and looking over. Taking a closer look. Brielle recognized that it was a Martes flavigula.

In the Martes flavigula recipe, there were monkeys. The adult Martes flavigula was not as big as an adult monkey.

The adult Martes flavigula weighed about 2-3 kilograms.

However, the Martes flavigula was fast and had strong attack power. It was also good at climbing trees, so it was very easy to kill monkeys.

Not only the monkeys, but even the underage wild boar; Martes flavigula could kill them.

The Martes flavigula was a social animal, so if they couldn't handle one, they would collectively attack it. Although the monkeys were social animals, they couldn't beat the Martes flavigula.

The Monkey King roared in the direction of the Martes flavigula, and the other monkeys also shouted to show off.

But they were all hiding behind Brielle, arrogant and cowardly.

At this time, other places also ran out of the Martes flavigula resting in other trees.

They stared at this side vigilantly.

They looked quite cute.

In terms of looks, the Martes flavigula was better looking than the monkey.

His martial arts and looks couldn't compare to the Martes flavigula, and the monkey had lost badly...

Brielle restrained her thoughts and looked at the group of Martes flavigula with cold eyes.

The Martes flavigula was very arrogant and courageous; they didn't run and even began to change tactics, unconsciously surrounding her and the monkeys.

This was a common tactic used by the Martes flavigula group to attack.

When a Martes flavigula was not confident, they would gang up on them.

They defeated the monkeys yesterday and killed a few of them, which made them very confident.

Even if the monkeys brought a strange upright ape today, they were not afraid and did not think of running away. Instead, they began the siege strategy from the first meeting.

The monkeys shouted even louder as if they were facing a great enemy, trying to use sound waves to scare the Martes away.

Chapter 24

Brielle counted a little and found that there were a lot of Martes. There were more than sixty of them.

Brielle was a little surprised.

She knew that the Martes were social animals, but were there so many of them?

Brielle did not think about it.

The Martes flavigula was ready to attack.

Although the monkeys were afraid, they were also ready to attack.

Just as the Martes flavigula who took the lead to attack rushed out, Brielle quickly rushed over.

The Martes flavigula was famous for its agility, but Brielle was even faster.

She quickly grabbed the back of its neck, then quickly pulled off a tree vine and tied it up. The Martes flavigula struggled violently. She directly gave it a slap, beating it until it was dizzy. When it came back to its senses, it was already tied up, and it could only be angry. The whole process only took ten seconds. Then, Brielle quickly went to catch the other Martes flavigula. She went up and slapped them unconscious. She knocked out three or four of them in one go and tied them together with a vine. In less than ten minutes, Brielle caught all the Martes flavigula and tied them up. The first one caught them off guard, and some of them were so scared that they wanted to escape. It took her some time to chase after them, so it took nearly ten minutes. Looking at the Martes flavigula that was tied up all over the ground, the monkeys remembered their past experiences, and they were scared and worshipped. This human was too powerful! He recognized her as his boss, and he was right! Brielle stood in front of the group of Martes. Her cold eyes looked around them with warning. Then, she said coldly. "Listen up.

I'm protecting these monkeys. I'm just giving you a warning today. If you dare to kill them in the future. I'll break your necks. Do you understand?"

The Martes all shook.

Brielle said, "In fact, I suggest that you move. You walk along the foot of this mountain to the east. After walking for about ten kilometers, there is a cliff. There is a forest under the cliff. The area on the shore is larger, and there must be more food. You have so many members, it is more suitable for you to live in a wider place."

This forest area was too small for so many carnivorous animals.

There were limited animals in the inner side, and they would be eaten soon.

Brielle did not care whether they understood or not. After she finished speaking, she began to untie them one by one.

Before she let them go, she gave each of them a big slap in the face.

The Martes flavigula regained its freedom and immediately ran into the forest, disappearing without a trace.

pter

The monkeys kept shouting at Brielle, as if they did not want her to let those Martes go.

Brielle remained unmoved and said lightly. “This is your grudge. If I interfere, it is not fair to them. If I kill them, I have to go to jail.”

Although no one knew as long as she didn't say it, she still didn't want to meddle in the affairs between wild animals.

She didn't know if the monkeys understood, but seeing her face turn cold, they didn't dare to make any noise.

[God! Catch a Marte in ten seconds, and even tie it up. Her move is so fast! Let me tie up a dead animal, and I can't be as fast as her, not to mention to let me catch them.]

[Who can tell me what Sister E has experienced? Why is she so skilled?]

[She can't have been a secret service agent, right? I have goosebumps all over my body. I admire and fear her.]

[She is too handsome. I am so shocked that I can't speak!]

[Although Brielle is very powerful, I can fight with her. She can beat me seven times in three minutes...]

[You think too highly of yourself. With Brielle's speed, she can beat you at least 70 times in three minutes.]

[Speaking of which, with her simple warning, will those Martes be afraid? I'm afraid they will hold a grudge and find an opportunity to retaliate against the monkeys? | [I'm dying of laughter. She actually talked reason with wild animals and warned them? It would be strange if they could.

understand! The monkey is a spirit creature and just happened to understand her words. Does she really think that she has a special ability that can make all animals understand her words?]

Many people were mocking the behavior of Brielle and the Martes

However...

o

SEND GIFT

. . .

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 25

. . .

Chapter 25

Three hours later.

The director suddenly changed the screen in the live broadcast room.

The original picture that was playing was Brielle.

Now it was changed to... Martes flavigula!

At this time, Martes flavigula's family was lined up and quickly ran in a certain direction.

That direction was the direction that Brielle had mentioned to them, the one that suggested their relocation!

This time, everyone was shocked!

[What did I see? Is Martes flavigula's family really moving?]

[They are walking in the same direction that Brielle walked yesterday. Are they really moving?]

[Do they understand what Brielle is saying?]

[Shock my whole family! I never thought that Martes flavigula could understand human language.]

[I am very curious. Are these monkeys and Martes flavigula smart enough to understand human language, or do they only understand what Brielle says?]

[What kind of magic does Brielle have? I

[Don't worry. They may not really understand Brielle's words of moving. Maybe it is just a daily activity. Maybe they used to go this way too? After all, it is not very far from their nest.]

[The whole group is moving together. It is unlikely to be a daily activity. Although Martes flavigula is a group animal, the daily activities are almost two together. They won't all move together. In my opinion, they are moving!]
At this time, Brielle sat halfway up the mountain and saw the group of Martes flavigula moving east at the foot of the mountain.

She deliberately asked the monkey king to call the monkeys up the mountain and not disturb Martes flavigula's moving.

She also secretly rushed up and saw that they really moved down the cliff along the trees on the edge of the cliff. Only then did she return with relief.

The monkeys worshipped her even more.

Brielle asked them to pick fruits for her.

Because there was no water here, animals were not easy to deal with, so she could only eat fruits.

Tonight, she was going back to the river. She did not take a bath last night. If she did not take a bath today, her body would stink.

At this time.

On the shore.

Seeing that Brielle had not returned for the whole night, Quinn was very anxious.

She looked at Jaxson and Austin and said, “Sister Brielle has not returned yet. Did something happen to her? Let’s go and find her!”

Chapter 25

Jaxson and Austin looked at each other and hesitated.

Not far away. Pearl said sarcastically, “Are you still thinking of waiting for Brielle to come back and give you food? Stop dreaming, she won’t come back!”

Austin looked at Pearl and asked expressionlessly, “Why are you so sure? Did you do something to Brielle?”

Pearl shouted angrily, “What nonsense are you talking about? Brielle is courting death by running around on her own. Maybe she lost her foot and fell to her death! What does it have to do with me?”

“If you dare to slander me again, I will sue you until you die when we get back and let you be in the jail!” Austin looked away and stopped talking.

However, Pearl did not give up and continued to say, “You have only received a little favor from Brielle, just like the loyal dogs she raised, biting people for her. You are really self-sacrificing and have no backbone!”

Jaxson said impatiently, "Austin was just asking casually. Why are you so agitated? It's as if you've been stabbed in the foot."

"You... Don't spout nonsense! If you dare to spout nonsense, I'll sue you as well!" Pearl said angrily, the panic in her eyes flashing.

She only panicked for a moment before quickly recovering to her original state.

In any case, Brielle was already dead, and only she and Jordan knew what was going on.

Moreover, Jordan was on her side, so it was impossible for him to tell others.

There was no need for her to be on tenterhooks.

Jaxson said indifferently, "If you want to sue us, just sue us. Austin and I only said a few words. If you can sue us to jail, then just do it."

Pearl gritted her teeth angrily, her eyes extremely vicious.

One sentence could not make them in jail.

However, she could ask Galley family to help her take revenge!

When she returned, she would definitely add oil to the fire and complain in front of her father and brother.

She wanted to make these three unable to survive in the entertainment industry!

From the moment Quinn and the others refused to listen to her orders, she had already held a grudge in her heart.

Even if they listened to her now, she would still retaliate against them.

She had always given them a chance. She just wanted to find a few servants to serve her in the forest.

She did not expect these three people to be so cheap. They would rather kiss up to Brielle than to please her.

But it did not matter. Brielle was already dead, and she had food in her hands.

When they were hungry for two days, they would beg her for food.

The wild fruit that they found yesterday had not been picked yet. They could eat it for a few more days.

“Pearl, stop talking” Jordan pulled Pearl’s arm, indicating her to stop arguing.

He could not understand why the kind and gentle Pearl had changed so much.

Chapter 25

A few days ago, it could be said that her temperament had changed greatly due to hunger. But now that they were full, why was she still so sharp and mean, always taking the initiative to pick a fight?

*Brother, they joined forces to bully me. It's fine if you don't help me, but why do you want me to forgive them?" Pearl bit her lips. She was very dissatisfied. She felt that Jordan was too useless. It was fine if he couldn't defeat Brielle. Now, he couldn't even defeat three small fry. He really wasn't worthy of being a man! Jordan said. "It's useless even if you win. Save your energy. We'll talk about it when we get back." Pearl could only reluctantly stop. She suddenly felt her large intestine swell up. It was the prelude to a pooping. She immediately took out a piece of paper from her bag and said to Jordan, "Brother, I want to poop. Can you accompany me into the forest? I am afraid alone... You can come with me and stay far away with me." Jordan nodded. He also took a bag and put it into his pocket, entering the forest with Pearl. They walked for a distance, looking for a place with lush grass, and Pearl stopped.

7

Jordan walked further in, hesitating. The grass was strong, and they could only see their upper bodies when they stood. Once they squatted down, they could not see anything.

Both of them squatted down, each exerting strength. However, after a long time, Pearl couldn't pull it out no matter what. She felt that it was about to come down, but it was stuck in her stomach like a stone.

She wanted to hold it back, but she couldn't go back. The pain of falling and swelling hit her, making her face turn white and cold sweat all over her body.

She also let out a painful groan.

Until her legs became numb, she couldn't pull it out at all. She was so angry that she cried.

"Brother, I can't poop. It hurts so much..." She called out to Jordan loudly, her voice extremely aggrieved. She was so wronged that she directly cried out.

"Me too." Jordan's voice was also very painful.

"It hurts so much... really hurts so much. I feel like a lump of stone is stuck in my body. I can't even hold it back now even if I want to..."

"Me too," Jordan said.

Pearl was furious.

She wanted to solve the problem, not for him to feel it!

Pearl was angry and wronged. She cried out of breath and her body was in great pain. She was about to collapse.

But she couldn't poop. Her legs were numb from squatting, and she couldn't keep squatting. She was afraid that her legs would be scrapped.

She and Jordan could only pack up, and then the two of them walked back to the river with a painful face.

The two of them sat down side by side, and the whole person became listless, and her face was full of pain.

Although she wouldn't pull it out, it was even worse if she wanted to pull it out, but she couldn't.

They didn't even have the appetite to eat.

From morning to night, they went to the toilet countless times, but they couldn't poop. It was getting more and more painful.

Pearl's whole person withered.

As the sky darkened, Pearl ran into the forest again, ready to try again.

Perhaps because she had been here too many times, she did not ask Jordan to accompany her this time.

This time, she worked hard for half an hour, but she still could not poop at all. Her stomach hurt so much, and it was painful to the extreme.

Pearl pulled up her pants and stood up. She was so angry that she broke down and cried. She punched and kicked the next to her.

grass

“Why do you torture me like this? A few days ago, I had nothing to eat, but now I can’t pull out shit. What did I do wrong to make me suffer like this?”

Pearl cursed in exasperation.

Suddenly, there was a rustling sound behind her, as if something was approaching her.

Pearl suddenly turned around.

In a split second, she saw a ghostly face!

She recognized that face even when it turned to ashes!

That beautiful and delicate face, however, it had a cool and elegant temperament.

At this time, a beam of light shot up from below, making that beautiful and soul–stirring face as sinister and terrifying as a ghost.

“Ah... ghost!”

Pearl screamed in horror. Her face turned pale and her whole body trembled violently.

Brielle!

Brielle had actually returned!

It was impossible for Brielle to still be alive on that high cliff!

So, this was Brielle's ghost!

With a "plop" sound, Pearl was so scared that she collapsed on the ground. Her butt moved back bit by bit, and she didn't even dare to look at Brielle's face.

It was too terrifying, she was afraid of being scared to death!

"Don't come over! It wasn't me who harmed you, it was you who fell down by yourself!"

Brielle did not answer. but slowly walked towards Pearl.

"Ah... Don't come over. Don't kill me!"

She burst out strength out of nowhere, suddenly stood up, and ran out of the forest with the fastest speed she had ever done in her life.

As she ran, she cried out in horror.

"Help... Don't kill me! Ah, there's a ghost! I want to go home. This place is haunted!"

Soon. Pearl ran out of the forest.

When Jordan saw her screaming shrilly, he ran out quickly. He immediately stood up and walked to her.

"Pearl, what happened?"

Pearl threw herself into Jordan's arms and cried heartbreakingly.

"There's a ghost... a ghost... Brielle turned into a ghost and came back to take revenge on me! Ah... Brother, save me, you must save me. I don't want to die, I haven't lived enough, ah!"

As she spoke with a trembling voice, she kept screaming and crying.

"What did you say? Brielle is back? How is that possible? There are no ghosts in this world. Did you make a mistake?" Jordan's face changed and his body trembled slightly.

Pearl shook her head with tears all over her face. "I didn't see wrong. I definitely didn't see wrong. It was Brielle. She came back to kill me. Woo..."

As Pearl went to the toilet, the director directly turned off the camera in the forest.

Therefore, the audience in the live broadcast room did not know what had happened in the forest.

At this time, when they saw Pearl appear in the cam again and was so scared, the audience was stunned.

[What happened? Why was Pearl so scared?]

[She said that she was haunted? Brielle came back to ask for her life. What does this mean?]

[Did she see Brielle and treat her as a ghost?]

[That's not it. Why does she think that Sister E is dead? Although Sister E didn't come back for the whole night, there is no evidence to prove that she is dead, right? Even if Pearl saw Sister E, she shouldn't think that she is a ghost, right? |

[Did Pearl do something to Sister E? Why is she so guilty? When she saw Sister E, she thought she was a ghost?]

[She said that Brielle came to kill her. If she hadn't harmed Brielle, why would she say such things?]

[Shit! Pearl isn't that vicious, right? She wants to kill Brielle, right? When Brielle disappeared in the mirror yesterday, was she trapped by her?]

• • •