

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 27

Chapter 27

Brielle observed for a while. At this distance, it would take at least thirty minutes before the cruise ship docked.

She walked in front of Quinn and the others and then gently kicked them.

“Sister Brielle? What’s wrong?” Quinn rubbed her eyes and asked with a tired face.

Brielle pointed at the river and said, “Look over there. What is that?”

Quinn had just opened her eyes and her eyes were a little blurry.

She reached out and rubbed her eyes. When she took a closer look, her eyes lit up and she stood up abruptly.

The cruise ship is here? Is it the program team’s cruise ship? Great, the program team finally remembered us and came to pick us up!”

Quinn was so excited that she kept jumping around.

Austin and Jaxson also saw the cruise ship and were also very excited.

They quickly ran to the river and constantly waved to the direction of the cruise ship.

Even though they were very far away, the people on the cruise ship might not be able to see them. They still waved their hands excitedly.

Brielle did not go with them. She turned around and entered the forest.

She was hungry.

She was going to find something to eat.

Even if the program team came, they couldn’t stop her from finding food.

Moreover, the monkeys’ injuries hadn’t healed yet. She wanted to go and take a look. She also wanted to see if Martes flavigula and the others had really left and whether they had secretly killed their way back.

After Brielle left. Pearl and Jordan also saw the cruise ship in the distance.

They were also overjoyed and excited.

But very quickly, Pearl’s face revealed a hint of panic.

She grabbed Jordan’s hand tightly and said with a pale face, “Brother, the program team is here. What should I do?”

“A few days ago, because I was stimulated, I lost control of my emotions. My personality changed a little, and I even had a falling out with Quinn and the others. If Quinn and the others said bad things about me in front of the camera and exposed my behavior, wouldn’t I lose my reputation?”

“If Brielle is the only one who says it, I can still deny it. Instead, I will accuse her of slandering me. After all, her reputation. has always been bad. Before the program team left, she had also been targeting me.”

“But Austin and Jaxson are different. They have many fans and a good reputation. If they also say that I have a problem, the audience will definitely be led astray by them, affecting my reputation…”

“Brother, I don’t want to be scolded, I don’t want to lose my reputation!”

Jordan patted her shoulder and said, “Don’t worry. Go and discuss it with them. Tell them not to talk nonsense.”

“What if they don’t agree?” Pearl bit her lips.

“Don’t forget that they have all received benefits from Brielle. They will definitely help Brielle say good things!”

Jordan frowned and seemed to be thinking.

Pearl’s eyes darkened and she whispered, “Brother, I think of a way…”

“What way?” Jordan asked hurriedly.

Pearl said. “We can say that when the program team is not here, Brielle, Quinn, Austin, Jaxson, and the four of them are promiscuous…”

“They spoke up for Brielle because they all slept with Brielle!”

“You are Brielle’s brother. The audience will believe what you say. No matter how they deny it, it will be useless!”

Jordan’s expression changed and she quickly shook his head. “This won’t do. This way, Brielle will be scolded in the net.”

Pearl bit her lips and said sadly. “If brother doesn’t say this, then the person who is scolded in the net will be me!”

“Don’t tell me that in brother’s eyes, Brielle’s reputation is more important than mine? You would rather see me get caught, in the net than let Brielle be caught in the net? Do you think that loving me is fake?”

“No…” Jordan quickly denied.

However, Pearl did not want to hear his explanation. She cried sadly, “Wu, I don’t want to hear your excuses.”

“I knew it. I am not related to you by blood. No matter how good I am to you, you will not treat me as your own sister. No matter how cruel Brielle is to you, you will care more about her than me.”

“If I knew that you were loyal to Brielle, I wouldn’t have saved you that night and let you die in front of Brielle! Anyway, you like Brielle. You will not complain if you die of illness in front of her!”

When Jordan heard Pearl mention his illness, the resentment in his heart toward Brielle emerged again.

Brielle did not save him and did not care about him. It was always his knot in his heart.

Jordan gritted his teeth and said fiercely. “Brielle doesn’t treat me as a big brother and doesn’t even care about my life and death. Then I can also disregard her life and death!”

“Pearl, I accept your proposal and do as you say. If they dare to help Brielle speak ill of you, I will say that they have an affair!”

This couldn’t be blamed on him. It could blame Brielle for being too cold and had been targeting Pearl all this time.

If Brielle had taken the initiative to give Pearl food from the beginning to be friendly to them, how could Pearl have been stabbed to the point that her temperament changed greatly?

At the very least, Pearl still retained her kindness. Brielle had no heart at all.

There was nothing wrong with him choosing to protect Pearl.

“Thank you, brother. You are so good to me. I love you the most!” Pearl broke into a smile and hugged Jordan emotionally.

Jordan also hugged Pearl and gently patted her back. He revealed a faint smile on his face.

Pearl was so simple. She showed her anger when she was angry. When she was happy, she directly laughed. She had no scheme at all.

There was no comparison between Brielle and Pearl at all.

[Shit! I am so angry. Why can’t this bitch Pearl say a good word? She actually encouraged Jordan to splash dirty water on

Brielle!]

[If not for the secret photos, I would have been deceived. After all, Brielle’s reputation in the past was really bad. If her relatives came to expose her, most people would think that she had gone too far and her family couldn’t bear to expose her, right? Who would have thought that it was because her relatives were stupid and bad?]

[Ai, I wonder how many people on the Internet have been made up for no reason.]

[A lot, a lot. There were people who went to get express delivery and were made into a rumor. It was obviously a rumor, they couldn’t argue. Their work was gone, their lives were in a mess, and they were also sick.]

[There are also many who were forced to commit suicide by rumors.]

[Pearl is too vicious. Jordan is also not a good person. He actually agreed to help spread such malicious rumors!]

[I can’t imagine. If not for the photos, what would Brielle have been harmed by them?]

[I feel sorry for Sister E.]

but

[I hope these two malignant tumors know the truth of the photos quickly. Hurry up and go online. This time, I want to be a snowflake among the thousands of snowflakes that overwhelmed them!]

[I want them to suffer the consequences!]

At the scene.

After Pearl and Jordan finished discussing, the two of them walked in front of Quinn, Austin, and Jaxson.

There was no longer the arrogance and arrogance in Pearl’s voice from a few days ago. She changed back to the gentle appearance in front of the camera and said softly, “Quinn, Jaxson, Austin, I have a request for you…”

“When the program team gets close, don’t tell them what happened in the forest these days, okay? Just tell them that the five of us have been getting along very well. Nothing else happened except for Brielle…”

Jaxson said coldly. “Don’t say anymore. We are not the kind of people who stab people in the back. Brielle helped us, and we won’t defame her with you.”

“Have you forgotten that you also bully Brielle?” Pearl’s face darkened.

The faces of the three stiffened, and guilt appeared on their faces.

Pearl said, “Either you shut your mouths and don’t say anything, or you will side with me.”

“If you dare to discredit my image, I will tell them everything you have done. Anyway, before the show starts, your attitude towards Brielle is very bad. The audience will definitely believe me more. In the end, you will only get nothing and ruin your own reputation!”

“Even if you don’t consider your own reputation, consider your own company’s reputation!”

The expressions of the three people became even uglier.

Especially Quinn, her eyes showed signs of retreat and taboo.

In the contract she signed, one was that because of her, the company was greatly affected or lost. She needed to compensate all the company’s losses.

Although Austin and Jaxson were not from the same company, there should be this one in the contract.

Brielle’s reputation was too bad. Even if they spoke up for Brielle, it would be impossible to reverse her reputation and put themselves in danger.

Pearl snorted and warned them again. Then, she stopped talking and waited expectantly for the cruise ship to dock.

Jordan looked at Quinn and the others and said sincerely to them, “Brielle gave you some food. It is not worth it for you to sacrifice your career to repay her.”

“If

f you are really sorry, you can give her some money. Just treat it as buying the food she gave you. You two don’t owe each other anything. You don’t have to help her anymore.”

“As long as you keep your mouth shut and don’t talk nonsense, I promise you that I will let my big brother give you some resources when we go back.”

“Jaxson, don’t you play music? Galley family can help you ask the HiOne band in Country M to make a song for you.”

“Austin, you’ve won almost all the awards in the country. Galley family can recommend you to shoot a Hollywood blockbuster. A famous Hollywood director and a celebrity will cooperate to help you strive for international awards.”

“Quinn… I don’t know your development route, but now the antique market is very popular. I can ask my big brother to invest in an S + TV series and let you be the female lead.”

Quinn, Jaxson, and Austin did not speak.

What Jordan said was too tempting..

Every single one of them was what they longed for!

If he helped Brielle, he might not be able to make the audience believe him. He might even put himself in danger and affect his company’s reputation.

If he helped Pearl, they would not have to take any risks. There would still be huge benefits.

Even a fool knew how to choose.

Moreover, their relationship with Brielle was not that good.

Brielle didn’t help them out of kindness, but asked them to perform a show, so she kindly gave them some food.

To

it bluntly, the food they took after performing the show was their reward, and they paid it off on the spot.

They did not owe Brielle anything!

Even if they helped Pearl, they were not ungrateful!
