

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 29

Chapter 29

The director nodded. "Alright, I understand the situation. If Jordan needs to call the police, our program team will cooperate actively and hand this video to the police."

They all breathed a sigh of relief. Fortunately, the director did not continue to ask.

If they continued asking, their conscience would not be able to take it.

The director ended the topic, but he began to ask other questions.

The director asked again. "How have you been these past few days?"

Pearl's eyes immediately reddened. She said aggrievedly. "We were always bullied by Brielle. When we found the food, she took it away. She forced us to watch her eat. In the past, it was like we lived in purgatory. We didn't live well at all."

The others nodded.

The director shook his head and said with a shocked face, "I didn't expect Brielle to be such a person. She is too bad!"

Pearl bit her lips and said, "Brielle grew up in the slums. She had been in contact with a bunch of gangsters since she was a child. She was infected with the aura of a gangster. Even after we took her back to Galley family, we patiently taught her and tried to pull her back on the right track, but we still could not change her nature."

"She was still a little restrained in front of the camera, but once you left, she completely exposed her nature and beat us to death. She wanted us all to die here."

"I really wanted to change her in the past, but now I give up completely." Pearl sighed and smiled helplessly.

"She hates me too much. I didn't do anything wrong, and I always tolerated her. But she didn't repent and hurt me even.

more."

"I was afraid that if I continued to get close to her, I would die in her hands before I changed her."

"I gave up. I hope she can think it through herself in the future. Don't continue walking on the wrong road..."

The director sighed. "You are so kind. She has done so many bad things to you, and you still wish her well."

Pearl smiled and said, "Maybe it is my nature. I amn't bear to see people suffer. Even if the other party hurt me, as long as it is not particularly excessive, I will not blame her; I just hope she can correct it."

The director said, "A kind-hearted person like you is really rare in this world!"

Pearl smiled shyly.

Jordan curled his lips, a proud expression on his face. He said proudly, "My Pearl has been kind since she was a child. She is not like some people who are cold-blooded and vicious."

Although he did not specify the name, everyone knew who he was referring to.

The director did not continue the topic. He looked around and asked, "Where is Brielle? Why is she not here?"

Pearl sighed and said, "Brielle has always been at odds with us. She went into the forest early in the morning. I don't know what she was going to do, and she didn't tell us."

Jordan said in annoyance, "Let's not talk about that unlucky thing. Director, when are we going back?"

He did not want to stay here at all.

Not only were there injuries on his body, but there were also many mosquito bites.

Chapter 29

He had lived for twenty-three years, but he had never been in such a sorry state.

Moreover, he had a stomach full of shit that he had not pulled out yet, and now it was very uncomfortable!

He was actually a little envious that Pearl had been scared out of shit by Brielle. At least when she pulled it out, she felt comfortable.

Although it was a little embarrassing, with their status, the other three did not dare to say it out loud.

As for Brielle, no one would believe her words.

The director said. "The contract you signed with the program team requires you to stay here for seven days."

"For the first six days. because of our program team, we were unable to follow you to shoot. We will bear the consequences ourselves and do not need you to make up for the shoot. You only need to stay here, for the last day, a total of seven days. We will go back tomorrow. What do you think?"

In front of the camera, even if she couldn't do it, she had to do it.

Pearl said righteously, "Alright, we'll listen to the director."

"But it's only for one day. Is the material enough for editing? If the director needs it, I can continue filming for a few days for free, but I need to change the environment. This place has left us a deep shadow."

Seeing her speak, the others also echoed.

They had already suffered so much. If they couldn't produce enough material and variety shows couldn't be broadcast normally, wouldn't they have suffered for nothing?

In order to maximize the benefits, they were willing to sacrifice some of their time and change to a better place to continue filming for a few days.

The director smiled. "You guys are really good. If we need it, I will definitely tell you guys."/

"However, you have suffered for so many days and your condition is not good either. After filming today, you guys go back and rest first. If there is any need in the future, I will definitely contact you guys."

Everyone nodded.

Everyone was very satisfied with the result of this negotiation.

The director said, "Okay, then you can continue shooting!"

"Since you have suffered here for six days, I won't ask you to find food today. Our program team will provide food, and you can just cook it directly."

Everyone was overjoyed.,

Great, I finally don't have to go into the forest to find food!

The director was actually helpless.

The poultry that were released in the forest were all caught by monkeys and other wild animals, so they couldn't find food even if they were asked to.

On the last day, let them eat a little better.

When they returned to the city tomorrow, they would have better physical strength to face the truth!

The director said, "The food is on the cruise ship. You guys move it down and start processing the ingredients!"

Chapter 29

With their ability, once they finished processing the ingredients and finished preparing the ingredients, the day would pass.

Under the leadership of the staff, Pearl and the others boarded the cruise ship to collect food.

Pearl was gentle and generous, and she was very considerate to everyone.

Although she did not do anything, she looked very busy. She told the staff to be careful and ask the staff to take less.

At this time, the broadcast room was already noisy.

[Damn, Pearl is really good at pretending. Won't she blush when she says these things?]

[She is still kind-hearted? Bah! When she took the lead to bully Brielle and stole Brielle's things, was her kindness eaten by a dog? 1

[What a poisonous angelic bitch. Looking at her current appearance, I think of her appearance in the past six days. almost vomited!]

[Jaxson. Austin, and Quinn really make people disappointing. In the end, they chose benefits and defamed Sister E for the sake of benefits.]

[I originally thought that Jaxson and the others weren't that bad. Now it seems that as long as the benefits are in place, they can also sell their conscience.]

[Jaxson and the others originally had a chance to clear their names, but they died on their own.]

Jordan and Pearl have really refreshed my understanding time and time again. What exactly are their three views? How can they be so shameless as to say black to white and white to black?]

[Now, seeing Pearl's every move, I feel that it's fake. It's too hypocritical!]

Brielle stayed on the mountain with the monkeys for a day and helped the wounded to check their injuries again.

In the evening, before she left, she said goodbye to the monkeys, "Today is the last day for me to stay here. I will leave here tomorrow. If nothing goes wrong, we will never meet again in this life. In the future, you will have to rely on yourselves."

Tomorrow, regardless of whether the program team came or not, she had to leave.

With her ability, it was not difficult for her to walk out by herself.

The monkeys seemed to understand what she said. They anxiously circled around her and chattered. No one knew what they were talking about.

Brielle said lightly, "I don't understand what you are talking about, but I can roughly guess."

"It's normal to be separated. There's no need to be sad. Don't think about leaving with me. I can't take you away. When we get to the city, if I have a group of national second-class protected animals behind me, I will be arrested and sent to jail."

"We haven't known each other for long and we have fought. We don't have a deep relationship. Don't make it seem like we are separated by death."

The monkeys were still shouting, but the cries gradually became smaller.

Then there were monkeys who stuffed things into her hands.

Stuffing one after another.

Some stuffed fruits, some gave her a bright, blooming wildflower, some prey, and some good-looking animal feathers.

Chapter 29

Brielle was stunned. "You are monkeys. How can you be influenced by the bad habits of humans and learn to send gifts?"

She shook her head and accepted all the gifts, putting them into her bag.

[Woo, damn it, I am actually moved. I really can't bear to part with Sister E and the monkeys!]

[My CP! I am so sad!]

[What? There are actually people who are kowtowing on Sister E and Monkey's CP?]

[Chasing anything will only harm you!]

[No, it will only give me a balanced nutrition!]

[I'm dying of laughter. I was originally very sad, but when I saw that there were people who were kowtowing on Sister E and Monkey's CP, I instantly laughed loudly.]

[Even monkeys are more humane than Pearl and the rest of the bastards!]

[I hope that without Sister E's protection, Monkey will live well. Don't encounter any danger.]

Brielle put all the gifts from the monkeys into her backpack and put it on her back..

Then, she looked at the monkeys who were looking at her reluctantly. She crossed her hands and moved her fingers.

Then, she snapped her fingers one by one.

"Since you have all given me gifts, I will also give you a farewell gift!"

The monkeys tilted their heads, seemingly very curious about what she wanted to give them.

The corners of Brielle's lips curled up.

She did not speak but suddenly attacked, grabbing the back of the monkey king's neck with one hand.

"Little King, let's start with you!"

As soon as she finished speaking.

A pa" sound was heard.

A huge slap landed on the monkey king's face.

The monkey king was stunned. It was stunned by the slap.

The other monkeys were also stunned. They were stunned.

Brielle did not give them too much time to be confused. She quickly slapped the monkey king a few times and threw it into the sky. Then, she jumped up and kicked it away.

The monkey king flew more than ten meters away before landing on the ground.

Brielle smiled and looked at the other monkeys.

The monkeys scattered in fear and screamed repeatedly.

Brielle suddenly landed on all fours and crawled on the ground. With a twisted smile on her face, she quickly chased after the fleeing monkey.

"Don't run, all the monkeys have a share, hehe
