

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 31

Chapter 31

[It's already three in the morning, and there are still a hundred and twenty million friends from all over the country who stayed up late to watch Sister E sleep with me. J

[Woo, I really can't bear to part with Sister E. I still want to continue watching Sister E survive in the forest. I also want to see her swing tree vines, crawl on the ground, and beat every single person!]

[Me too. For the past seven days, I come to the live broadcast room every day when I have time. I have already developed a habit of not seeing Sister E in the future. This is worse than killing me!]

[I strongly request the program to extend the time!]

[It is impossible to extend the time. Didn't you see how the five of them looked like? If they continue filming, they might really end up in the forest.]

[Then I hope that other variety shows request Brielle to film it. It is best if it is a live broadcast type!]

[I am looking forward to tomorrow. I wonder how the director will let them know the truth.]

[I can't wait to see Pearl and the others' reactions after knowing the truth!]

[Hahaha, it feels great just thinking about it. Come quickly tomorrow!]

[Ai, I hope that tomorrow will come soon, but I also hope that the time will be a little slower, so that I can see more of Sister E's beauty.]

The 120 million viewers in the live stream room had been chatting.

That night, the delivery platform hanging in the live stream room also exploded.

The next morning at six o'clock, more people began to pour into the live broadcast room.

As soon as they entered the live broadcast room, they excitedly asked about the situation.

[Brothers, do they know the truth? I won't miss it, right?]

[Brother, what time do you think it is? Other than Brielle, the others have not woken up yet.]

[I guess it won't be that fast. They will only know after they return to the city. They have just started to get up one after another. They still need to take a few hours of cruise before they get ashore.]

In the forest.

Brielle woke up early as usual.

After she washed up, she made a set of Eight Part Vajra Technique by the river and then walked around, looking at the scenery here for the last time.

"Brielle, don't go too far. We are leaving at eight o'clock!" The director shouted from behind.

Brielle did not look back. She raised her hand and waved, indicating that she knew.

Brielle pinched a little and returned to the shore at seven and fifty.

Pearl and the others had already boarded the cruise ship.

Seeing that Brielle had returned, the director smiled and waved at her. "Brielle, come on up. We're going back. I've got someone to help you get your backpack!"

Chapter 31

Brielle nodded and boarded the cruise ship.

The cruise ship quickly started moving.

Everyone was standing on the deck.

The director was all smiles as he said. "Thank you for your hard work, everyone. After returning to the city, there will be a press conference. After the press conference is over, this shoot will be considered to have been completed."

Brielle frowned.

There was actually a press conference?

She did not need to think to know that the reporters would definitely attack her at the press conference and ask her why she was targeting Pearl.

Just thinking about it gave her a headache.

Pearl and the others were already thinking about how to speak so that they could discuss further.

After the director finished speaking, they began to prepare their speech.

Pearl also went to change into a beautiful dress, and her face was also covered with exquisite makeup.

The others were also preparing to send out their speech while tidying up their image.

Brielle found a recliner out of boredom, lying on the recliner with her eyes closed to rest.

She had no intention of giving out a speech, nor did she have any intention of tidying up her image.

Anyway, she was fighting Pearl in front of the camera, and the netizens must have already scolded her.

No matter how she spoke and dressed up, it could not change the view of the audience.

Her acting path was completely over.

Therefore, there was no need to make trouble.

Pearl took advantage of the fact that Brielle was not with the cameraman and walked up to her. She looked down at Brielle and smiled proudly. "Brielle, the Internet must be full of curses about you now. The netizens must be extremely disgusted with you and want you to die."

"Even if you go outside, you will be like a rat crossing the street. Everyone will shout and beat you."

The entertainment industry can't tolerate you anymore."

"It is impossible for you to live normally."

"However, if you are willing to kneel down and apologize to me at the press conference, I can put in a good word for you in front of your parents and let you go back to Galley family."

"With Galley family's protection, you can live!"

Brielle raised her eyelids and glanced at her coldly. "Are you born with a cheap bone? You feel uncomfortable if I don't hit you for a day, and you take the initiative to approach me?"

"If you don't get out, don't blame my fists!"

Pearl was so angry that her chest heaved violently. "You really don't know how to appreciate favors. I am kind and generous. I wanted to give you a way out, but you actually don't appreciate it!"

Chapter 31

"In the future, when you are caught in the net, you will be beaten and scolded on the way. When you are outside, don't think about going back to Galley family. You have missed the chance to go back to Galley family!"

Brielle reached out and grabbed a cup of water beside her hand and smashed it on Pearl.

"Get lost!"

Jordan ran over when he heard the noise. When he saw Pearl's wrist that was smashed red, he grabbed her hand and blew on it.

Then, he glared at Brielle furiously.

He opened his mouth and was about to speak.

However, before he could curse, Brielle suddenly stood up and rushed to him. She carried him like a sack and rushed to the railing of the deck, hanging Jordan outside the railing.

She grabbed Jordan's foot with one hand and hung him outside.

"Ah... Help! Brielle, are you crazy? Hurry up and pull me up. If I fall down, I will die!" Jordan's face was pale and his voice was trembling violently.

Brielle looked at him coldly, her voice cold to the bone, "Don't think that I don't dare to do anything to you. If you bark like a dog in front of me again in the future, I will kill you!"

Jordan's entire body trembled violently, and his pale face turned red because of the blood.

"Brielle, calm down. The live broadcast is on. Don't go too far. Just scare him and let him go!" The director rushed over to smooth things over.

Pearl's eyes were red, and she said in disappointment, "Brielle, how can you do this to your brother? He is your real brother!"

Brielle coldly lifted Jordan up and threw him on the deck like a dead pig.

"Don't provoke me in the future." After leaving these words coldly, she returned to the reclining chair and lay down again.

"Brother, how are you? Are you alright?" Pearl bit her lips and walked over to Jordan, squatting down to check on him.

Jordan really wanted to shake his head, but his whole body was shaking so badly that he couldn't even shake his head.

Just now, Brielle's cold and emotionless eyes really wanted to kill him!

If not for the live broadcast, he was sure that Brielle would have thrown him into the water...

Pearl said faintly, "Sigh, I didn't expect Brielle to be so ignorant in front of the camera. One can imagine how arrogant she was when the camera wasn't captured."

"What makes me feel cold is that she didn't kill you last time. Now, in front of the camera, she actually wants to kill you. again..."

"Brother, it seems that Brielle really doesn't want to recognize us."

Jordan finally breathed a sigh of relief. He gnashed his teeth and said, "In the future, even if she recognizes us, I will not recognize her. Our Galley family don't have such a cruel person!"

"If she returns to Galley family, Galley family will be implicated by her sooner or later!"

The corners of Pearl's lips curled up.

Her goal had been achieved.

In the future, she would be Galley family's only young miss.

In the future, Galley family's assets would also be hers!

Those stupid brothers, if she were to act a little spoiled, they would hand over the shares in their hands to her!

[Pearl and Jordan don't understand human language? Sister E has said so many times that they shouldn't provoke them. They even shamelessly approached Sister E. I have never seen such a cheap person!]

[Brielle said that she didn't want to get involved with Galley family and thought that Galley family was unlucky. They actually took Galley family back to threaten Brielle. Is there something wrong with their brains?]

Jordan and Pearl are really two weirdos. They are disgusting to look at!]

[I can't stand them anymore. Director, ask the cruise ship to drive faster. Take them ashore and let them know the truth! Let's see if he still has the face to say Brielle!]

[Will Director let them know the truth at the press conference?]

[Ah. I'm looking forward to it. I'm so excited that I don't want to do anything. I just want to go to the press conference as soon as possible!]

[Me too. I'm waiting to see them know the truth today!]

After this sudden accident, no one dared to provoke Brielle again.

Brielle was idle.

The cruise ship sailed on the river for five hours just like it had come.

After they got off the ship, the cars prepared by the program team were already waiting on the shore.

This time, the program team prepared two buses.

The guests and a few others followed the cameraman in one, and the rest of the staff got in the other.

The bus continued to travel on land for more than three hours before they finally returned to the city of Ocean City.

The bus stopped at the entrance of a five-star hotel.

The hotel should have been booked by the program team, and there were bodyguards around, so they didn't see the rest of the people.

Everyone got out of the car.

The director smiled and said, "Let's go in. I got someone to set up a stage in the hotel's banquet hall. The reporters have been waiting inside for a long time. They are waiting for you to take the stage!"

Pearl smiled and was a little impatient.

The director said, "Let's go!"

Everyone followed the director into the hotel and arrived at the banquet hall on the first floor.

Once they entered the banquet hall, everyone was shocked.

The banquet hall was filled with filming equipment.

a glance, hundreds of people were inside.

Pearl asked in surprise, "Director, are these reporters?"

The director smiled and said, "Yes, there are reporters from various platforms and media all over the country. There are also reporters from other countries who have come from afar to interview you! Almost all the reporters from all over the world are here!"

Pearl was pleasantly surprised. "Reporters from all over the world are here? Oh my god, is our variety show so popular?"

She was so excited that she could not calm down. All the blood in her body was boiling.

There were only few words in her mind: I am going to be famous!

Not only did she want to be famous in domestic countries, but she also wanted to be famous in the international world!

She was going to become an international superstar!

She was indeed a natural female lead!
