

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 4

Chapter 4

The car drove for three hours and stopped at the shore of a river.

In the river, a medium-sized cruise ship stopped at the shore of the water.

Everyone got out of the car.

The director held a loudspeaker and said, "Alright, we're going to take a cruise ship to the filming location. Before we board the cruise ship, please pass your mobile phones and other electronic communication devices to your managers or assistants. The managers and assistants can't follow you to the filming site."

Brielle came alone without a manager or an assistant.

She took out her phone and handed it to the director. She said, "My manager and assistant are not here. Please help me keep my phone."

The director took her phone and took out an iron box in front of her. He put the phone in, then asked the staff to take out the welding tool and weld the iron box on the spot.

The director smiled and said to Brielle, "In order to make the guests rest assured, this box is welded directly on the light. No one can open it. After the shooting is over, use the cutting tool to cut the iron box directly."

This was to let the guests rest assured, and at the same time, to avoid the risks of the program.

Otherwise, if any artist's privacy leaked out and the program was suspected that they were peeking at their phone and revealing the secret inside, then they would not be able to reason with it.

Therefore, directly welding the phone in the iron box was good for both sides.

Brielle gave the director a thumbs-up.

Seeing this, Jordan also chose to hand the phone to the director. "Director, you should weld my phone as well."

Pearl also handed over her phone. "Weld mine and my brother's phone together. It can save a box."

The other three guests also chose to hand their phones to the director.

They were not very reassured with their managers and assistants.

Some secrets could not be known to even their closest relatives, let alone outsiders like their managers and assistants.

They were worried that their managers or assistants would take the opportunity to secretly check their phone contents.

It was the safest to hand the phone to the director to weld it.

The director followed the requirements and welded their phones into iron boxes before pasting their names on them.

Then, the six guests and the director crew boarded the cruise ship together. The assistant and manager of the artists were left on the shore.

The cruise ship sailed on the river for five hours and had completely entered the virgin forest area. The shrubs on both sides were even taller than three or four floors, giving off a gloomy feeling

After the cruise ship docked, everyone got off the cruise ship and temporarily landed on a relatively flat lawn.

Everyone looked around and frowned deeply.

"Director, isn't the environment here too bad? The grass here is so high, and it's even taller than me. Do we really have to stay in this place for seven days?" Jaxson couldn't help but complain, and his face was full of disgust.

Chapter 4

Quinn was shocked. "I thought survival in the wild was just a gimmick. I didn't expect you to be serious, Director? This is too wild. It's obvious that it hasn't been developed at all. It seems that no one has been here for a few hundred years!"

Jordan and Pearl also frowned.

Austin did not speak, but his face was also very ugly. Obviously, he was not satisfied with the filming environment.

Only Brielle had a calm face. After getting off the cruise ship, she began to look around, calculating how to survive in this forest.

The director smiled. "Before you signed the contract, I clearly told you the rules. The contract stated that you have to survive in a primitive forest that has not been developed for seven days. I am not joking with you!"

"However, everyone does not have experience in surviving in the wild. In order to reduce the difficulty, the program team sent people to the forest in advance to put some poultry such as chickens, ducks, rabbits, and other poultry. You can catch them as food. I wish you good luck!"

Pearl asked, "Is it alive? Or is it handled well?"

The director said, "Of course it is alive. It will stink in less than half a day if it is put to death in this kind of weather!"

Pearl had a frightened expression. "It's alive? Doesn't that mean I have to kill it myself? Oh my god, that's too cruel. Little animals are so cute, how can I bear to kill them..."

Brielle said very dutifully, "What are you pretending for? The bag on your back is made of crocodile skin. Why don't you think it's cruel?"

Pearl's face turned green and red. She glared at Brielle angrily.

you

Although Brielle signed the contract to deliberately target her and create a topic for her so that the netizens would feel sorry for her.

But could Brielle change a more friendly way to target her?

How could she wash this?

Pearl's face was red as she explained, "My bag is made of fake skin, not real crocodile skin."

Brielle said with a faint smile, "Is that so? I remember this brand of bag. The official announcement said that every bag was made of real skin, but you said that it was made of fake skin. Could it be that the official propaganda is false?"

Pearl was instantly anxious, "No..."

Brielle interrupted her and said to the camera, "Is there anyone watching the live broadcast of a certain brand? Please go back and change the propaganda language. Since not all of them are made of real skin, don't be a false propaganda to deceive consumers."

Pearl was so anxious that her eyes turned red, and she clenched her fists.

The brand of this bag was an internationally renowned luxury brand.

If she offended this brand, she would basically have no fate to be endorsed by the luxury.

Moreover, now that she was the brand's spokesperson, she had the obligation to maintain the brand's reputation.

If she caused damage to the brand's reputation or other losses, she would need to compensate!

[Why didn't I find out that Pearl was such a hypocrite? She herself is the spokesperson for this real leather bag brand. Would she not know that it was made of real crocodile skin?]

[Really funny, carrying a crocodile leather bag and saying that it was cruel to kill a poultry, it really is funny!]

Chapter

[Don't slander Pearl. Pearl's endorsement was discussed by the company. She was forced to endorse! ]

[Pearl is kind and cute, but she was deliberately targeted by Brielle. It's too pitiful.]

[Brielle, why don't you die? You only know how to bully Pearl! ]

[Block Brielle!]

[Brielle is deliberately targeting Pearl. Everyone, don't be led astray! ]

The live broadcast room was in full swing. There were passers-by who ridiculed Pearl. There were also her fans protecting her.

At the scene.

Jordan scolded unhappily, "Brielle, can you not be so vicious? Always targeting Pearl? How did Pearl offend you? Why do you hate her so much?"

Brielle mocked, "Shut up. Stop pretending in front of me. You know why I hate her."

"You..." Jordan was so angry that her face turned green.

Pearl held Jordan back and bit her lips. She whispered, "Brother, forget it. Brielle may have encountered something bad recently. If she wants to scold me, let her scold me. As long as she can get better after scolding me, I won't lose out."

Jordan said, "You are too kind. If only she could be as kind as one-tenth of you."

"..." Brielle made a vomiting expression and said with a disgusted look, "Don't disgust me here. I don't need her hypocritical kindness. If I become like her one day, I will kill myself immediately."

Pearl was so angry that she almost fainted and glared at Brielle.

Jordan pointed at Brielle, "you" for a long time, but he could not say a complete sentence.

Brielle's eyes fell on his finger coldly. "If you dare to point me again, I will break your finger!"

Jordan clearly felt a killing intent. He was so scared that he quickly put away his finger and did not dare to continue pointing at her.

[Brielle is too vicious. She is so arrogant and rude in front of the camera. If there is no camera, won't she hit people directly?]

[The entertainment industry is really chaotic. Any trash can become a star. This kind of person should not stay in the entertainment industry, but should stay in prison!]

[How dare she treat Jordan with that kind of attitude. She's too much!]

[Strongly suggests to ban Brielle. In the future, I won't watch any drama or movie she plays!]

The broadcast room was in full swing.

At the scene, the director saw the atmosphere become strange and finally spoke, "Alright, we still have to spend seven days together. Be friendly and stop arguing."

"It's getting late. The sun has already set. You have to hurry up and prepare for tonight's landing and dinner."

Quinn said innocently, "Can't we live on the cruise?"

The director said, "No, no one is allowed to board the cruise before the recording of the show is over."

Apart from Brielle, everyone else had a face full of despair.

Chapter 4

If they couldn't board the cruise ship and rest, would they be sleeping in the wilderness tonight?

How could they possibly fall asleep?

But now that the live broadcast was on, they couldn't complain.

Pearl said gently, "Since the director has already issued a mission, everyone should focus and start moving. Otherwise, not only will we be hungry tonight, but we will also sleep in the wild."

Everyone nodded.

Pearl suggested, "How about this, let's team up and act together. We don't have any experience in surviving in the wild. If we act separately, it will be too slow. Everyone doesn't know what to do. If we team up, it will be more efficient."

Jordan was the first to raise his hand in agreement. "I support Pearl's suggestion. What about you guys?"

Quinn: "I also support!"

"I have no objections, Jaxson said.

Austin: "I agree to team up, but I refuse to team up with Brielle."

Jaxson was afraid that he would be in the same team as Brielle, so he quickly said, "I don't want to be in the same team as her!"

Brielle was covered in black material, and anyone who got close to her would be stained with a fishy smell.

Moreover, they had all seen her attack Pearl and Jordan just now.

They did not want to be her next target.

Jordan said, "Anyway, I want to be in the same group as Pearl."

[Hahaha, Brielle has offend everyone. Now no one is willing to team up with her. I want to see what she will do! 1

[She deserves it. Who asked her to be so vicious? She bullied Pearl and insulted Jordan in public. Now no one wants to get involved with her! 1

[She deserved to be excluded. Everyone should go to the public square to release the vicious deeds of this bitch. Don't let the guests who refuse to team up with her get caught!]

When Pearl saw that no one wanted to team up with Brielle, she was secretly delighted.

However, she pretended to be magnanimous and said to Brielle in a friendly manner. "Brielle, you can be with me. We will divided into two groups. One group will be responsible for finding a place to spend the night while the other group will look for ingredients."

"Brielle, you, me and Jordan will team up to find a place to spend the night together."

"Quinn, Jaxson, and Austin are going to find food."

"What do you think?"

"I have no objections," Austin said.

The other two also had no objections.

[Woo, Pearl's baby is too kind. She was kicked by Brielle and was maliciously targeted by her. She even generously teamed up with her. Where can I find such a little fairy?]

[Pearl baby, you are inviting a wolf into the house. Aren't you afraid that Brielle will hurt you?]

Chapter

[If Brielle dares to hurt Pearl, after she finishes recording the program and comes back, I will definitely go to find her and avenge Pearl!]

[Didn't that bitch dislike our Pearl baby? Don't team up with Pearl!]

Brielle really did this.

She glanced at Pearl in disgust and said in disgust, "Don't touch me. I don't want to have five more burdens. It will be easier for me alone."

When she was packing her luggage, she observed the things that each of them brought. The things that the five of them brought together were not as complete as hers.

She didn't want to share her tools with them.

"Brielle, you really don't know what's good for you. Pearl doesn't care about the past and wants to help you, but you still dare to say that we are burdens? You are very good! I hope you can be stubborn to the end, and don't beg us to help you in the future!" Jordan scolded angrily.

Brielle sneered, "I will return these words to you. Don't ask me to help you in the future."

Jordan said, "Don't worry, I will never beg you in this life!"

Pearl bit her lips with grievance, and her eyes were a little red. "Brielle, can you stop being willful? You will be in danger alone..."

Brielle coldly interrupted her. "Shut up. You are the greatest danger. As long as you stay away from me, I will not be in danger."

"Since you insist on acting alone, I will not stop you." Pearl bit her lips.

Seeing that Brielle was a little pitiful, Quinn carefully said, "Brielle, why don't you team up with me to find food? You have to prepare dinner and find a foothold. It will definitely be too late. Let's take care of each other."

Jaxson and Austin frowned, but they did not say anything to dissuade her.

Although Brielle was hateful, this was still shooting. They could not be as brainless as Brielle and expose their vicious and selfish sides to the public.

"Aren't you afraid that I will scold you like I scolded Pearl?" Brielle glanced at Quinn.

"Then can you not scold me?" Quinn touched her head.

Before Brielle could open her mouth, Jordan said fiercely, "No one is allowed to team up with her. No one is allowed to help her tonight. Isn't she capable? I want to see how she will live tonight!"

Quinn looked embarrassed.

She wanted to help Brielle, but Jordan's status in the entertainment circle made her not dare to go against Jordan.
