

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 41

Chapter 41

After they crawled for a minute, Kayden mercifully asked them to stand up.

Matt clapped his hands and said, "This really seems to be a physical exercise. I feel like my back is a lot more comfortable."

George said, "It does have some effect, but my hands are a little tired."

"So, is Brielle really not sick?" Micah asked with a doubtful expression.

Everyone looked at Brielle in unison.

Brielle said with a dark face, "You guys are sick. I am very normal!"

After saying that, she turned around and walked back to the villa.

George smiled and ran after her. He said, "Don't be angry. Kayden only cares about you. That's why he suspects that your mental state is not normal."

"By the way, my name is George. I have an entertainment company under my name. Since you have already fallen out with Galley family, you should not continue to stay in your big brother's company, right? If you want to find a new management company, you can consider my company."

"You are a friend of Kayden. I will definitely not cheat you."

Brielle said lightly, "Not interested. I don't want to sign. Get lost."

After saying that, she went upstairs.

George: "..."

At this time, Kayden walked up and grabbed the back of George's collar. She pulled him back and said, "Don't use your dirty tricks on her. She is not someone you can provoke."

"Don't tell me you've taken a fancy to Brielle?" George asked in surprise.

Kayden lowered his eyes and said softly, "No, she's just my partner."

"Don't say such things here. You've already brought her to live at home, and you still say that you haven't taken a fancy to her? Why haven't I seen you bring other women back to live with you?" George said with a look of disdain.

Matt added, "Yes, yes. You also fell ill together with her. Only when you love someone will you go crazy with her and play with her!"

Kayden: "If I said that I was forced, would you believe me?"

Everyone had a look of disbelief on their faces.

George said, "Who can force you? You are clearly willing, willing to endure!"

Matt: "That's right, that happy expression of yours, how does it look like you were forced?"

Kayden: "..."

George sighed and said regretfully, "I spent the past few days watching Brielle's live broadcast. I was originally quite interested in her. Since you have taken a fancy to her, then I won't snatch her away."

Matt said, "I also admire Brielle very much. I have never seen such a special woman. Unfortunately, you beat me to it..."

Kayden glanced at them coldly.

Chapter 41

George hurriedly said, "Don't look at us like that. We didn't know that you knew her before, and we were interested in her. It's normal for us to be interested in her, but now we have given up. You can't vent your anger on us."

Matt blinked and asked curiously, "Brielle was very indifferent to Kayden just now. It seems that Kayden still needs to work hard to catch up to Brielle."

"How long do you think Kayden will be able to capture beauty's heart?"

After thinking for a moment, George said, "It took me ten days to chase the most difficult girl. With Kayden's condition, I think that as long as he takes the initiative, he can take any woman in seven days at most!"

Kayden was handsome, had a good figure, and was rich. As long as he took the initiative to attack, no woman could resist the temptation.

"With our Kayden's condition, let alone women, even if it is a man, as long as Kayden asks, others will be willing to follow him." Micah said.

Matt said, "Brielle is different from ordinary women. I think it should be a little difficult. It will take at least half a month to catch her!"

Micah said. "I don't think it is that simple. I guess it should be at least a month!"

"Dong!"

Dong!

Dong!

Kayden knocked on their heads and said coldly, "I just admire Brielle. Don't make fun of me and her. If you dare to talk nonsense again, I will cut off your tongues."

George touched his head and smiled. "We are just joking. Don't be angry."

"If Brielle sees it, she will be angry and beat you up. Don't feel wronged back then." Kayden snorted.

They didn't dare to joke around with Brielle.

They had watched the live broadcast for seven days, and they felt a chill down their spines just thinking about how ferocious Brielle was when she beat up the monkey.

If Brielle were to attack them, it would be too terrifying....

After a while, Brielle changed her clothes and came down..

She had changed into a pair of black casual pants and a pair of bodyguards, a hat on her head, and a mask on her face.

Kayden saw her dress and asked, "Are you going out?"

"Yes, I'm going to do something." Brielle nodded.

Kayden asked, "What are you going to do? Do you need to go with you?"

Brielle thought for a moment and said, "I want to the police station. Can you lend me a car?"

"I'll drive you there." Kayden immediately stood up.

Brielle said, "No need. Just lend me your car."

Kayden refused. "No, I don't like people driving my car."

Brielle: "..."

Chapter 41

In the end, she could only accept Kayden's good intentions and let him drive her to the police station.

Matt, George, and Micah also followed her curiously.

They arrived at the police station.

Brielle took out her ID card and handed it to the reception officer. Then, she said, "I want to sue Pearl for attempted murder. I also want to sue Jordan for harboring a criminal."

The police verified Brielle's identity and then began to record her statement.

The police had also seen Brielle's variety show live broadcast, so they naturally knew that Pearl and Jordan had self-destructed in the live broadcast and pushed Brielle off the cliff.

But even if they knew, they still had to go through the process.

After finishing the statement, the police went to apply for a summons.

Then, they sent a few police officers to Galley family to summon Pearl and Jordan.

Brielle was waiting in the police station.

After waiting for more than half an hour, Pearl and Jordan were brought to the police station.

Apart from the two of them, Brooks and Sarah also came.

When Brooks saw Brielle, his face became very ugly.

He walked quickly to Brielle with a dark face and raised his hand to slap her.

"You unfilial daughter, you have ruined Pearl's reputation, isn't that enough? You even sued her and want her to go to jail. Why are you so vicious?"

"I will beat you to death, you unfilial daughter!"

His hand was grabbed by a strong hand.

Before he could see who had stopped him, he was restrained by the policeman who had reacted.

Then, a pair of handcuffs directly handcuffed his hands.

One of the policemen said sternly, "You still dare to cause trouble in the police station. You are looking down on the police!"

"In order to prevent you from hurting people, you have to wear handcuffs all the time before you leave!"

Brooks was so angry that his face turned green and red. He was furious and said, "I taught my own daughter a lesson. This is a family matter. Even if you are the police, you can't control it!"

The policeman scolded angrily, "Even if she is your daughter, you can't hit her. No matter what her identity is, she is an independent citizen. Her personal safety is protected by law. If you dare to hit her, it is illegal. We have the right and obligation to stop you and punish you accordingly!"

Brooks was so angry that his chest was violently bullied, but in the end, he did not refute the policeman's words.

He looked at Brielle angrily and found that there was a tall and handsome man standing beside Brielle.

Just now, it was that man who grabbed his wrist.

This

man, even if he turned to ashes, he would recognize him!

Kayden!

Over the years, Fairfax Group had robbed a lot of their Galley Group's business, and they had long become enemies in the business field.

In addition, not long ago, Brielle sold Galley Group's shares to Kayden. During this period of time, Kayden often appeared in Galley Group, and they had more dealings with each other.

But every time, they would have a very unpleasant relationship.

Brooks scolded angrily, "Brielle, you evil creature. You sold the foundation that Galley family worked hard for three generations to your opponent. Now you still want to harm your brother and sister. Do you want to destroy Galley family's family and kill us?"

Brielle chuckled and said, "Everyone in the country knows that it was Pearl and Jordan who harmed me first. How can you say that I wanted to harm them?"

"I just wanted to protect my own interests.

"If Galley family's family is really ruined, then it is your own fault. What does it have to do with me?"

Brooks said angrily, "Aren't you fine now?"

Brielle said. "I'm fine, but that doesn't mean they aren't wrong."

Brooks was furious. "Family should be tolerant of each other. Even if Pearl made a mistake, you should be magnanimous enough to forgive her and give her a chance to change her ways!"

"If you insist on not letting go, who would dare to marry a petty and selfish woman like you who doesn't care about the interests of Galley family?"

"Listen to me and revoke your accusation against Pearl. If there is anything, we can talk at home."

"As long as you withdraw your lawsuit, I will forgive everything you have done in the past and let you return to Galley family!"

Brielle said sarcastically, "Are you old and confused? I left Galley family voluntarily. It was I who looked down on your Galley family, and did not want to be involved with you."

"Now you use Galley family to seduce me?"

"Now that you mention it, it seems that I have to sue them to death. Otherwise, if you have a bad brain and think that I still have feelings for your Galley family, and want me to go back to Galley family, then I will be in trouble."

Brooks was so angry that his face turned green. "You evil creature, I shouldn't have let you be born in the first place! And I shouldn't have taken you back to Galley family. You are such a vicious and selfish person who doesn't care about the interests of the family. You deserve to suffer outside!"

Brielle picked her ears and said in annoyance, "You make it sound like I really want to be taken back by you. If you didn't beg me and say that you would make it up to me, how could I have been cheated back by you?"

Brooks was so angry that he couldn't speak.

He glared at Sarah, "What are you standing there for? You have given birth to a scourge, why don't you persuade her to stop suing Pearl!"

Sarah looked at Brielle with a complicated mood.

She also hated Pearl, but Brooks, the head of the family, wanted to save Pearl. She did not dare to go against Brooks.

Moreover, Pearl was the daughter she had doted on for twenty years. She still had feelings for Pearl.

Sarah slowly said, "Brielle, it is indeed wrong for Pearl to push you down the cliff, but she already knows her mistake. For mother's sake, don't argue with her."
