

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 51

Chapter 51

The group of perverted rich people behind the scenes wanted to see her being humiliated when they saw how powerful she was.

There are always some psychopathic people who want to make a spotless person covered in mud and turn the expert into a waste."

"That group of rich people posted a bounty for the players, and the live broadcast room also went offline, becoming a private broadcast room that only targets those perverts."

"The content of the bounty is not something that normal people can think of!"

Kayden clenched his fists.

Even after so many years, when he thought about it now, he was still full of anger.

Even if that incident did not happen to him.

But when he looked at his own compatriots, such a shining girl, trampled to the point, he thought everyone would be angry.

Back then, because he was short of money, he went to participate and wanted to earn some start-up funds.

He did not expect that something like that would happen in the end!

"Originally, even if there was a bounty, with that girl's ability, those people couldn't do anything to her."

However, in order to let those perverts see what they wanted to see, the program team put her down with a poisonous gas bomb and injected her with medicine, making her unable to use her strength.

"After that..."

Kayden shook his head, as if he couldn't bear to say it, and he also didn't want to recall the dirty scene.

"Tell me, I want to hear it." Brielle's voice was very light, and there was no change in it.

However, Kayden felt that the temperature in the living room had become colder.

He pursed his lips and revealed what he had seen in the past.

They got her naked...

Tied chains around her neck...

Forced her to kneel....

If she was unwilling, they would break her knees, forcing her to kneel...

Peed on her head...

Put the snake into your body....

And...

A lot, a lot...

So perverted that it made one's hair stand on end.

I didn't want to join them, so they beat me half to death and hung me on a tree for me to watch it."

Later, a few of the perverts behind the scenes were excited and were unwilling to just watch from behind the scenes. They also came to the scene..."

"In order to please those investors, the director thought of a perverted way of playing."

"He proposed to cut the girl's tongue from the middle into two pieces, and then help them... They said in this way, they would get satisfy..."

"In order to prevent her from biting and hurting his lords, he also pulled out the girl's teeth..."

When Kayden said this, he was suddenly stunned and looked at Brielle in shock. "You..."

She just asked the director to cut his tongue in the middle. Did she know something?

Otherwise, even if a normal person wanted someone to cut their tongue, they would cut it off and not cut it right in the middle!

Kayden looked at Brielle in shock.

The girl you are talking about is my sister." Brielle smiled. There was a sunny and healthy smile on her face.

"Back then, I had a serious illness and urgently needed a sum of money to treat it. In order to help me earn the medical fees, she participated in that season's Extreme Survival."

Kayden looked at the smile on her face and only felt a sense of sorrow.

He opened his mouth and said in a hoarse voice, "Sorry, I couldn't help your sister."

Brielle shook her head. "You secretly brought her back to the country. You have already helped her a lot."

"If you hadn't secretly taken her away, those people wouldn't have let her come back alive."/

"You know?" Kayden looked at her in a daze.

"Yes, otherwise, do you think I'm an idiot to sell you my shares for only 5 million dollars?" Brielle chuckled.

Kayden: "..."

He asked, "How is your sister now?"

Brielle took a bite of the apple and calmly said, "When she woke up, she had a mental disorder and was locked up in a mental hospital. I stayed with her for a period of time."

"Her body was also greatly injured, leaving a very serious side effect. She was almost unable to walk upright and could only crawl on all fours."

Kayden tightened his grip on his knees.

So, she learned to crawl on the ground to accompany her sister?

The exercise she said was just an excuse?

"After the doctor treated her, her mental state recovered a lot."

Kayden breathed a sigh of relief.

"Then she jumped off the building."

Kayden's face stiffened.

Although she was saved, she became a vegetable.

Kayden did not know what to say.

He could only change the topic, "Back then, your sister did not get a bonus. How did you cure the illness?"

Brielle said, "Sister Nyla took me and a younger brother in the past."

"On the day Sister Nyla participated in the program, the younger brother's family found him and brought him home. He also took me away."

"His family is very rich. My illness will naturally be cured."

Brielle laughed mockingly. "How ironic. Just a little bit more time, just a little bit more, and Sister Nyla can be like us..."

Kayden did not know how to comfort her.

She did not look like she needed comfort.

Her emotions were stable, and there were no tears.

But when he saw her like this, he felt very uncomfortable.

Kayden asked, "You accepted Extreme Survival's invitation this time to want avenge for your sister?"

Brielle did not hide her purpose and nodded.

Kayden said. "Don't be impulsive. If you kill people in front of the camera, you won't be able to escape."

"Moreover, what about the group of perverts behind the scenes? They are hiding behind the screen. You can't do anything to them at all. They are the culprits."

"Don't be impulsive. I can help you think of a way to secretly kill those perverts..."

Brielle smiled and said, "My brother has been making preparations. He will find a way to send those people to me."

"You don't have to persuade me. I know what I am doing."

"Don't interfere in this matter. You just have to continue being a clean and good person."

Kayden still wanted to say something.

"Cut the crap. I have a bad temper. Don't force me to imprison you!" Brielle kicked him away impatiently.

"Don't think that you can be my boss just because I have a few words with you calmly!"

Kayden, "..."

A second ago, he felt that Brielle had treated him as a benefactor because of her sister.

At this moment, he felt that Brielle did not treat him as a human at all.

He did not leave even after being kicked away. He continued to stand to the side and looked at her hesitantly.

Brielle took a deep breath and looked up at him.

"Kayden, don't waste your time on me."

"After Sister Nyla's incident, I can't fall in love with men anymore."

Kayden lowered his eyelids and seemed to be very hurt.

"You... have to come back alive." Kayden was silent for a long time and only said this one sentence.

He knew very well that if Brielle did not take revenge, she would never be able to let it go for the rest of her life.

Moreover, this grudge could not be avenged by others. She had to do it herself.

Because her sister participated in that festival for her...

She must be blaming herself in her heart.

He suddenly understood why her emotions were so unstable and why she was so crazy.

If it was someone with a lower tolerance, they might really go crazy.

At this time, there was a sudden noise at the door of the villa.

Both of them looked in the direction of the door at the same time.

The doorbell rang.

Then, George's voice came, "Sister E, are you up?"

Matt was also there. "Kayden, are you inside? Open the door, I saw you coming over. I also saw you and Sister E crawling on the ground with a telescope!"

Kayden: "..."

Brielle: ".."

"Do they live near here?"

"Yes, the two villas on my left and right are theirs." Kayden rubbed his temples, feeling a headache coming on.

"Although the distance between each villa is very far, the two perverts built something similar to an observation tower on the roof of the villa. If they have nothing to do, they will climb up to peep at me."

Brielle, "..."

"Then they are quite perverted."

Kayden laughed. "Because they never had a girlfriend and did not get along with women, they thought it was impossible. They thought that I would hide it from them and secretly bring a woman back, so they set up a stage to peep."

Brielle: "Why don't you have a girlfriend?"

Kayden looked at her and said faintly, "If I said that it was because of the psychological shadow left behind by Extreme Survival, would you believe me?"

"I think that once people get infected with sex, they will become abnormal, especially rich people..."

Brielle: "..."

"Although you are a little extreme, it is a good thing to be clean."

"Pure love is the best dowry for a man."

Kayden: "..."

Brielle stood up and walked to the door. "Let's go see what they need."

Brielle opened the door of the villa and looked at George and Matt standing at the door. "What's the matter?"

Matt smiled. "You haven't received the prize money for last night."

Brielle said, "I'll send you my card number. You can transfer it to my account."

Matt shook his head and said, "This won't do. That is a check given by the sponsor. You need to take the check to the designated bank to fulfill it."

"Tsk, how troublesome." "How much is the bonus?" Brielle was a little impatient.

Matt said, "This is a small competition. The bonus is not a lot, only 140 thousand dollars.

140 thousand dollars was not a small amount, but compared to the most popular competitions, it was a lot worse,

"140 thousand dollars... then let's go."

Brielle immediately went out with them.

After going to the bank to receive the bonus, Brielle proposed to treat them to dinner.

This time, they would choose the place.

"Let us choose a place? Then Sister E, just wait and see. We want to choose the most expensive place!" George smiled.

Brielle said indifferently. "It doesn't matter. As long as you can finish it. you can order whatever you want."

"If you deliberately order a pile of food but can't finish it, I will let you experience the life of a human centipede for a few days and let you know how precious food is."

Everyone: "..."

Brielle said, "Let's go. I'm already hungry."

The few of them got into the car and finally arrived at a five-star hotel.

They seemed to be familiar guests here. This place had reserved a private room for them. When the manager saw them coming over, he personally welcomed them with a face full of smiles and brought them upstairs.

At this time, a black car slowly stopped at the entrance of the hotel.

Roman held the steering wheel with both hands and looked at the back of Brielle and the others with dark eyes.

There was a hint of struggle in his eyes, but when he thought of the lives of his entire family, he finally hardened his heart.

This morning, he went to visit his second brother. His second brother told him that Brielle had said in the competition. arena that she would slowly toy with Galley family to death.

In order to protect Galley family, he could only make the first move and gain the upper hand...

"Brielle, don't blame me. It was your fault..."
