

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 53

Chapter 53

As soon as Mount Entertainment’s announcement was released, there were even more people scolding Brielle on the Internet. There were also more people who believed that it was Brielle who pushed her down.

[Brielle is really a beast. In the past, he caused Lola to miss a role that could make a popular. Now that Lola finally made it ou, Brielle directly killed her. She must be shot to death]

Lola is really pitiful. She lived with her mother since she was young. Now, her prime has been killed by someone, leaving hey seriously ill mother. I

How can her mother accept this? |

I thought that Brielle had survived the hidden broadcast for seven days. There are no black spots on her body and she is worthy of admiring I didn’t expect....)

(Compared to this, the mistakes that Pearl and the others made are nothing I (Brielle, go to hell!

[Vicious woman, you don’t deserve to live and waste air!]

Two hours after the incident, Ocean City sent a report.

[In our city, there was a accident that a female fell from the balcony at Gorgeous Hotel at 12:45 today. The deceased fell from the balcony on the 18th floor and died on the spot. Her identity has been confirmed as Lola.

Before Lola fell from the balcony, she had a conflict with Brielle. According to Brielle, she walked in the corridor normally. Lola suddenly appeared and stabbed her with a knife. After she kicked her away, Lola ran to the balcony without looking back and jumped down the stairs through the guardrail.

After Lola jumped off the building, Brielle immediately called the police. After the police arrived at the scene, they found a dagger and found Lola’s fingerprint sample on the dagger.

Because the hotel corridor surveillance was damaged, there was no way to get more evidence. At present, Brielle had been brought back to the police station for further investigation. As for the specific situation, please wait for the police’s investigation notice.

[Does this will need to be investigated? It must be Lola who wants to settle the score with Brielle. Brielle is so angry that she pushed the person down the tall building. Shot her directly. There is no need to investigate!]

The surveillance of hotel is really bad. It can’t be that Brielle asked someone to break it and deliberately destroyed the evidence, right?]

(Brielle is really crazy. Hurry up and die! J

At this time, at the police station.

Kayden and the others wanted to bail Brielle out, but the police said, “This case has a great impact and has received a lot of attention. There are reporters at the entrance of the police station now. Brielle can’t be bailed out.”

Otherwise, the credibility of the police will be questioned”

Kayden said with a sullen fare, “There is no evidence to prove that Brielle pushed someone. Just because the public opinion on the Internet, the will be detainedr

The police said, “that there is no evidence to prove that Brielle did not push anyone. She is now the biggest suspect, and it is ressonable for the police to detain her!”

Chapter 53

Kayden clenched his fists hard, and his face was gloomy.

“Let’s go back first. It is not a good thing to bail Sister E out now.” Matt pulled his sleeve.

If the netizens knew that Sister E was bailed out, not only would the police need to be questioned by public opinion, but Sister E would also be raped by the Internet violence.

George said, “Yes, she is in there now. It’s good that she can’t see the public opinion on the Internet.”

“Let’s go. We will investigate first. If we can find the evidence, we can naturally save Sister E.”

Kayden pursed his lips and said to the police, “I want to see Brielle.”

The police agreed to his request.

After all, Brielle was only a suspect now and had not been convicted.

Brielle was still calm, but her eyes were dark, as if she was thinking about something.

Kayden came in, but she did not respond.

Kayden did not know what to say and stood in front of her for a long time.

Suddenly, a policewoman ran in quickly and said to her with a happy face, “Brielle, you are fine!”

Brielle looked at the policewoman with a puzzled face.

How did she suddenly become fine?

At that time, there were only her and Lola at the scene. The surveillance cameras were broken and she couldn’t wash herself even if she jumped into the Yellow River. How could she be fine?

The policewoman smiled. “You are so lucky. A child sent a video recording of Lola trying to assassinate you and then jumping off the building herself.”

“How could it be so coincidental?” Brielle was still puzzled.

The policewoman said, “Let’s go. I’ll take you to see that child. You can ask him yourself and you will know what happened!”

Brielle and Kayden arrived at a reception room.

Inside, she saw a familiar little boy.

The boy was about ten years old, a little fat, but very cute.

‘Sister E, we meet again!’ The little boy ran to Brielle excitedly. “Sister E, Sister E, have I helped you a lot this time? Can you record a video with me? I want to take it back to school and brag in front of my classmates!”

Brielle: “...

The little boy said: “I was too excited to see Sister E yesterday. I even forgot to take pictures and videos. I said to my classmate that I saw Sister E and crawled in front of you. They don’t believe me!”

Brielle: “...

She remembered that she had seen this boy yesterday at the amusement park.

Brielle asked, “Why do you have a video?”

The little boy touched his head and said, “My classmate said that I didn’t look good when I climbed, so I wanted to practice secretly.”

Chapter 53

“My parents took me to the hotel for lunch this afternoon. Before they served the dishes, I saw that the corridor was wide and long, and it was very suitable for climbing. I wanted to practice.”

“I wanted to see how I climbed, so I took my mom’s phone to record it.”

“As a result, I just turned on my phone and put it in a potted plant. Before I started to climb, my mother asked me to go to dinner. She said that she had sweet and sour ribs that I liked to eat. When I heard that it was delicious, I forgot my phone there.”

“When I was ready to leave after dinner, my mother could not find my mobile phone to pay the bill. Then I remembered. that my phone was there.”

“I went to take the phone back and saw the video recorded. After seeing the things on the Internet, I asked my mother to bring the phone to tell the police uncle the truth!”

The little boy had a proud look on his face, like a warrior who had made a contribution.

A smile appeared on Brielle’s face as she patted his head. “Thank you. You’ve helped me a lot this time.”

The little boy looked at her with sparkling eyes. “Then can Sister E crawl with me for a while?”

Brielle nodded. “No problem.”

The little boy was so excited that he immediately wanted to pull her up.

The policeman interrupted in a timely manner, “Brielle, let’s post the video online now so that the netizens won’t scold you.”

Brielle said, “Can you not post it first?”

The policeman asked in confusion, “Why not? If you don’t post the video, you will be scolded by the angry netizens. Don’t you want to clear your name?”

“Moreover, if I don’t clear your name, and I let you leave the police station, the netizens will question the police.”

Brielle narrowed her eyes and said in a low voice, “I want to investigate something...”

She suspected that it was premeditated that Lola committed suicide in front of her...

Because Lola’s series of actions were too strange, and it did not look like a normal suicide.

If the truth was revealed and the other party was alert, it would be difficult to investigate.

But she might not be able to find out anything, so she did not tell the police that she suspected that Lola was forced.

The policeman shook his head and said, “No, if I let you go without revealing the truth, the law of the whole country will be questioned and it will cause social unrest.”

Brielle thought for a moment and said, “I can leave quietly. I will not show up after I go out.”

The policemen hesitated for a moment and finally said, “Okay, but it can’t be hidden for too long. Many people are paying attention to this case now and need to close it as soon as possible.”

Brielle nodded. “I know, thank you.”

“If there is no news of me in a week, just announce it directly.”

Brielle did not leave the police station immediately.

She asked Kayden to send someone to buy a set of men’s clothing for her and bring in some disguise tools.

In the process of waiting, she accompanied the little boy to record a crawling video.

Chapter 53

The little boy was so excited that he wanted to go up and show off in front of his classmates.

After recording the video with the child, Brielle also added his mother’s WhatsApp, and transferred the 140 thousand dollars bonus she had just earned last night to her as thanks.

She was a person who was clear about grudges.

If she had enmity, she would take revenge.

She would repay her kindness.

The mother had delayed it several times, but seeing that Brielle insisted, she accepted it.

Kayden’s assistant, Kai, quickly brought the things she wanted to the police station.

Brielle changed into men’s clothing, put on a wig, and put on makeup with a disguise.

Not only did she widen her nose a lot, but she also made two big cheeks. Her skin was also a few degrees darker, so she could not see her original appearance at all.

After she was done, she swaggered away from the police station.

She walked directly past the reporters, and they did not even look at her.

No one recognized her at all.

After returning to the villa, Brielle took out her mobile phone and checked the public opinion on the Internet.

How popular she was a few days ago, now she was scolded ruthlessly.

Brielle also saw that Roman sent a message to Twitter, saying that he would atone for his sister’s sins.

He would be responsible for curing Lola’s mother’s illness and taking responsibility for her future life.

The moment he mentioned Twitter, it immediately caused a burst of praise and praise from the netizens.

[Mr. Galley is too kind. Brielle doesn’t treat you as a family at all. She has been insulting your whole family in the past, and you even cleaned up the mess for her.]

[When I watched the live broadcast of “Wilderness Survival”, I used to have prejudice against the entire Galley family and also scolded Mr. Galley. Now I realize that I am narrow-minded. I didn’t expect Mr. Galley to be such a good person!]

[One person doesn’t like Brielle. That may be the problem of that person, but the whole family doesn’t like Brielle. That must be the problem of Brielle. Why didn’t I understand it at that time?]

[Galley family lives with Brielle every day. They must know what kind of person Brielle is. They must know that Brielle is selfish and vicious. Brielle must have done something to hurt them. They don’t like her and target her!]

[I feel sorry for Galley family... Fortunately, the vicious woman has been arrested!]

[I support Mr. Galley. Just based on Mr. Galley’s behavior, I will continue to support Mount Entertainment’s talents and works in the future!]

[Mr. Galley is very good! He is handsome and kind-hearted.]
