

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 59

Chapter 59

A passer-by took a picture of this spectacle and posted it online.

Soon, someone recognized that the person who was crawling at the front was Brielle.

The netizens were all stunned.

[Da mn, isn't that Sister E? What happened to Sister E in the middle of the night? And what happened to the group behind. her?]

[This scene is too shocking...]

[It feels like a demon invasion... ]

[Hahahaha, Sister E is awesome. She single-handedly led so many people astray! ]

[What do you mean by crooked? It was clearly Sister E who let them free themselves! ]

At this time, the barbecue shop owner sent a few passionate videos.

"Previously, because of a misunderstanding, those people originally wanted to find trouble with Sister E, but the police announced the evidence of Sister E being wronged."

"Sister E is very generous. She didn't blame them. She just asked them to pay for her."

"Sister E also drank with everyone."

"In the beginning, there weren't that many people. Later, more and more people came over, and they were all invited to the table by Sister E. In the end, they couldn't sit down. Many people stood together to eat, drink, and play. The scene was very lively."

"I don't have enough ingredients in this shop. I am very busy. I can only call the owners of the neighboring stores to help!"

"Sister E is very down-to-earth. She doesn't have any airs. Her character is also very good. She is very straightforward!"

"This is the first time I have seen such a down-to-earth star. I am so excited!"

"Sister E is so good, but she hates her family to the bone. It is clear that there is something wrong with Galley family!"

"I won't say it. I have packed up the stall. I also want to follow Sister E to climb!"

"Sister E, climb bravely! E fans will follow forever!"

The barbecue shop owner shouted a slogan and the video ended.

In addition to the video that the barbecue shop owner personally explained, the boss also released a few videos of Brielle eating and drinking with the passers-by.

In the video, Brielle did not put on any airs.

The passing dogs were called over by her and stuffed a chicken leg into it.

The netizens were dumbfounded.

[Ah, Sister E under the mirror is even more beautiful. She is so beautiful that she stands out like a crane in a flock of chickens. She is simply like a fairy descending to the world!]

[Wu, Sister E is so generous, casual, and down-to-earth! Even if she looks ordinary, she is not a star. I also want to be friends with such a character!]

Chapter 59

[I envy those people at the scene too much. I also want to drink with Sister E!]

[I want to fly with Sister E to crawl in the city!]

[Hahahaha, isn't the Barbecue Boss already in his fifties? It's too much to call her Sister E!]

[Ah, where are the investors backer in the entertainment industry? Quickly find Sister E to film a variety show. If I can't see her for a day. I'll feel uncomfortable! ]

[That's right, that's right. I beg you, Sister E, to film more scenes and take more variety shows. I have already taken out all the scenes that Sister E. had filmed. Unfortunately, they were all supporting characters. They were finished in an hour, and the drama was deliberately painted ugly. Some people could not even tell that it was Sister E. It was too infuriating!]

[I beg Sister E to give more spiritual food!]

When the directors and investors saw the comments from the netizens, they were anxious.

They were even more anxious than the netizens.

They also wanted to cooperate with Brielle.

However, they could not contact Brielle!

Brielle used to be Mount Entertainment's artist, but now she canceled the contract with Mount Entertainment.

They contacted Mount Entertainment to ask for her contact information, but the other side refused to give.

They were messaging Twitter privately, Brielle did not reply, and even the information was not read.

How could they cooperate when they could not contact each other?

They only hoped that Brielle could see the cries of netizens and see the private letters backstage.

Now Brielle was the top in the entertainment circle, who did not want to cooperate with her?

Brielle had no idea what had happened on the Internet.

At this time, she was still crawling on the sidewalk.

Behind her was a large group of people, whose heads could not be seen at all.

Brielle stood up and ran.

She wanted to shake off this group of people.

"Eh? Sister E, why are you running? Don't run, why aren't you climbing?"

"Sister E, don't abandon us!"

"Sister E, wait for us!"

Those people also stood up and ran after Brielle.

But their speed was not as fast as Brielle.

Brielle's speed was so fast that it left afterimages!

She were stunned by the people behind them.

Not long after, Brielle disappeared from their field of vision, and they finally gave up chasing.

After Brielle returned home, she fell asleep.

When she woke up the next day, she received a call from Extreme Survival's director assistant.

The assistant: "Hello, Ms. Brielle. I am Director Smith's assistant, Mike. The director asked me to ask you for the list of contestants you wish to participate in."

"After confirming the list, we will immediately make arrangements here. Then, we will announce the list of contestants to the public and conduct a program promotion. The program will start filming a month later."

Brielle almost forgot about this matter.

She immediately said a few names.

Mike memorized them one by one and repeated them to confirm that he had heard correctly.

After confirming that there were no mistakes, Mike said, "Alright, we will arrange it here. Miss Brielle, please make preparations in advance. At least, you have to reach N Nation before the shooting."

Brielle said, "Give me the money first."

This..."

Brielle: "I won't go if I don't have the money."

Mike: "..."

"I will help you respond to the boss."

Brielle directly reported a multinational account, "If they have agreed, just transfer the money directly into my card. You don't have to contact me anymore."

"Remember to pay for the service charge."

Mike: "..."

Brielle hung up the phone and went outside to stretch her muscles.

She crawled twice, ran ten laps, and did push-ups.

First, she did a hundred regular push-ups, and then she practiced one-finger push-ups.

From the thumb to the pinky, there were a hundred times each.

Then, she supported it with one hand and changed it to one-finger support.

After doing these warm-up exercises, she began to punch, fast and ruthlessly.

After punching for an hour, she picked up a few leaves from the grass.

Her fingers and middle finger caught the leaves and with a light flick, the leaves flew out like darts.

But after flying for more than ten meters, the leaves fell to the ground.

Brielle frowned.

"It still hasn't recovered."

"The medicine is really strong. It takes a long time. It has been a year and she still hasn't finished it."

2/6

Chapter 59

However, compared to before, she had recovered a lot.

After a month, she would have a chance to recover.

If her body had not been affected by the drug, her physical strength would have been greatly reduced, and she would not have been successfully attacked by Pearl three months ago.

Thinking of Pearl, a trace of coldness appeared in Brielle's eyes.

Before she went to N Nation, she had to settle the grudge between her and Galley family...

She had to wait for three days to let them kill each other, and then she would do the final harvest.

At this time, on the observation tower on the roof of a villa next door.

Kayden, Matt, and George, with a pair of binoculars in their hands, looked at Brielle who was crazily training next door and were all dumbfounded.

Matt swallowed his saliva and said in a trembling voice, "Sister E is too strong. Is she still human?"

George said, "She is definitely the strongest human I have ever seen..."

Kayden had mixed feelings.

He did not understand how Brielle could train her physique to such an extent.

And that sister of hers back then was also ridiculously strong.

Did they have any special training methods?

Matt looked at Kayden. "Kayden, why don't you give up on Sister E? Otherwise, you won't be able to defeat Sister E in the future. Every day, we will prepare to collect your corpse."

"Give me the chance. I'm thick-skinned and resilient."

Kayden's face darkened.

George said, "I think I'm more suitable. I'm a masochist."

Kayden kicked them and said with a black face, "Shut up."

Matt sighed, "Sigh, it's useless even if we discussed it. This is not the problem of which one of us wants to pursue her. It's the problem of who she wants to choose."

"She is the only one who can choose."

Kayden walked down the observation tower with a gloomy face.

"Where are you going?" George asked.

"To be her sandbag, Kayden said without looking back.

Matt: "..."

George: "..."

They originally wanted to follow, but after thinking about their weak bodies that lacked exercise and could not withstand a punch from Brielle, they finally decided to continue peeping here and not join in the fun.

Kayden quickly walked to the courtyard of the villa.

Chapter 59

Brielle was still practicing martial arts.

Seeing that Kayden was approaching, she did not say anything and directly attacked him as a target.

A high kick kicked towards his head.

Kayden's reaction speed was also very fast. He leaned to the side and took two steps back. At the same time, he reached out and grabbed her ankle.

Brielle actually directly hooked her foot around his neck. Her body rose into the air, and her other foot quickly lifted up and caught his head. She directly rolled in the air, and Kayden's body lost its balance. She grabbed his head and threw him to the ground.

He rolled twice on the ground, stood up like a carp, took the initiative to attack, and punched at Brielle.

Brielle caught his fist, and her body was actually shaken back two steps.

She was a little surprised.

This guy was quite strong!

The next second, her eyes became excited, and her eyes flashed with excitement.

After separating from her younger brother, there were very few people who could fight with her. Her fists had long been thirsty! The two of them did not say a word from the beginning to the end, they attacked quickly and ruthlessly, all of them attacking the place that could kill.

This was how a real fight should be.

The sound of flesh colliding and the sweat splashing in the air was enough to show how intense the battle was.

On the observation tower next door, Matt and George were shocked.

Matt said, "They are serious... They are too fierce. It hurts to look at them..."

George wiped the cold sweat on his forehead, "Kayden is really true. How can he fight with our Sis E? He can't chase girls like this."

"Sister E is not an ordinary girl. If Kayden dares to go easy on her, Sister E will definitely beat him to death."

George shook his head and said, "Sister E is a law-abiding person. She won't beat people to death. At most, she will cripple him."

Matt: "..."

At this time, the two people who had fought on the ground for nearly half an hour finally came to a conclusion.

Kayden was forced to retreat repeatedly by Brielle's string of moves.

Her moves were fast and ruthless, and he could only resist.

Suddenly, Brielle swept her leg.

His body lost its balance and directly fell to the ground.

Just as he was about to get up, Brielle stepped on his chest.

Brielle used the tip of her foot to rub against his chest, and the corners of her mouth curled up into a slight arc. "If I really

Chapter 59

Kayden lay on the ground, staring at Brielle who was standing in front of him in a daze.

The rising sun rose behind her, projecting a dazzling and dazzling light.

She stood with her back against the light, her beautiful face somewhat unreal.

Kayden felt an unreachable queen...

Kayden felt his heart suddenly beat very fast, as if it was going to break through his chest.

To die.

Why was he even more excited after being beaten?
