

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 61

Chapter 61

Brielle directly flew up and kicked him.

“Ah-”

Black Panther, who was more than two hundred pounds, was actually kicked away by her and directly flew off the stage.

Everyone at the scene was shocked and looked at Brielle in disbelief.

“Da mn... I didn’t see wrong, did I? Her tiny legs can actually release such a large amount of strength?”

She actually sent Black Panther flying with a single kick. How terrifying!”

“Black Panther is the champion of the Six Consecutive Crown competition. She was actually KO-ed in one move. This woman is really terrifying...”

“Ah, my money! I bet on 1.4 million dollars!”

Shocked cries and wails rose and fell from the scene.

“How... how is this possible?” Black Panther was even more shocked.

“You look so weak. How can you be my opponent”

“No... that’s not it. You are launching a sneak attack. I am not ready yet!”

“You sneak attacked me while I wasn’t paying attention. That doesn’t count. Let’s fight again!”

His eyes were filled with fear.

So many people had invested in him, so many people had placed bets on him.

If he lost, his ending would be very miserable!

He was determined to win!

Brielle curled her lips and said generously, “Okay, let’s fight again.”

“However, with your normal strength, you can’t beat me. You can directly use technology to save time.”

She was originally here to train, so she was naturally happy to see her opponent be able to persevere.

Black Panther was so angry that his face twisted for a moment.

This woman actually humiliated him!

But he still called his assistant over to inject him with the medicine.

As soon as the needle went down, his face instantly flushed red, and his heartbeat suddenly accelerated.

He felt boundless power surging madly in his body like a spring.

“Ah... die!”

Black Panther shouted angrily and immediately took the initiative to attack Brielle.

The medicine was indeed different. Brielle felt that his fists were carrying wind.

She dodged while looking for an opportunity to counterattack.

Chapter 61

Five minutes later...

“Bang!”

The technological version Black Panther was kicked off the stage again.

“Ah...! Not really, I didn’t pay attention. Give me three more doses of medicine. I didn’t lose!”

The referee looked at Brielle awkwardly and asked, “Monkey King, are you still willing to give him a chance?”

Brielle said, “If he dies, who will be responsible?”

The referee said, “In any case, it won’t be yours.”

“Then give him another chance.” Brielle nodded.

One dose of medicine had already overloaded his heart. If he injected three more doses, his heart would not be able to withstand it and he would definitely die.

She did not mind the other party using medicine.

On the contrary, the stronger the other party was, the more excited she was.

However, the premise was that she did not have to take responsibility.

Black Panther’s assistant immediately went to inject him with the medicine again.

After injecting a medicine, the assistant advised him, “Black Panther, the two medicine have been overloaded. If you continue to inject, your life will be in danger!”

Black Panther took the syringe and injected it himself.

“Ah-”

After the three doses were injected, Black Panther shouted loudly, not knowing whether it was excitement or pain.

The skin all over his body was red, as if it was cooked.

Every single blood vessel in his body was protruding high, and one could even see the flow of his blood!

It was as if he could explode at any moment and die.

It was a sight that shocked one to the core!

Everyone on the stage was endlessly excited as they shouted loudly.

Black Panther rushed up the stage.

This time, Brielle clearly felt that his speed and strength had increased by more than ten times.

This time, Brielle was even more cautious.

However, she did not blindly dodge. She was also constantly attacking back.

“Kal

Black Panther’s left hand was broken by her.

However, Black Panther could not feel the pain and continued to punch her fiercely.

“Bang!”

Chapter 61

Brielle kicked him in the chest.

This time, he stood still and was not kicked out.

But his chest was sunken.

Several ribs were broken!

But he still seemed to have no feeling and continued to rush forward.

Until...

Half an hour later.

As Brielle broke Black Panther’s last leg with one foot, Black Panther fell to the ground with a big sound.

Both of Black Panther’s hands were twisted like fried dough twist, his left leg was broken into several pieces, his chest was deeply sunken, and his body was covered in blood.

The entire dance stage was almost dyed red by blood!

However, apart from the soles of her feet, there was not a single drop of blood on Brielle!

Brielle looked at Black Panther, who could no longer move, and reached out to stroke the strands of hair by her ear.

Graceful!

Too elegant!

The audience was silent for more than ten seconds, and then they burst into loud cheers and applause.

“Monkey King!”

“Monkey King!”

“Monkey King!”

Everyone was shouting her name excitedly.

This match was too exciting.

Their blood boiled as they watched!

Even if they lost money, they felt that it was worth it!

“Monkey King, another match!”

“One more round!”

“Goddess, you are my g od!”

“Oh, please be my master, I want to be your dog and give you 140 thousand dollars every month!”

According to the rules of the Challenge Tournament, if Brielle won, she had to accept the challenge of the next player.

Although it was unfair for her to continue after the fight, she still had to have extraordinary abilities in order to win.

However, after seeing that Brielle had defeated Black Panther who had been injected with four potions in a row, no one dared to go on stage again.

Chapter 61

Especially when they saw how miserable Black Panther was, they did not dare to go up.

Black Panther was dead.

The corpse was also made into a strange shape.

It was too miserable.

He looked very cautious.

She should not be called Monkey King, but Grim Reaper.

Even the Grim Reaper was not as ruthless as her!

Seeing that no one dared to challenge him, Brielle hesitated and said, “Bring the White Tiger up.”

Everyone was shocked.

That white tiger had eaten many people!

She actually challenged the white tiger?

Kayden was a little worried.

That white tiger was an old contestant. When he was there, the white tiger was there.

Now that the White Tiger is still here, its strength can not be underestimated.

Moreover...

The main office will secretly inject medicine into the White Tiger, making it become irritable and irrational, and its strength. also increased greatly.

He wanted to persuade Brielle.

However, for the sake of earning money, the boss behind the scenes had already agreed to let people bring the white tiger over.

A huge iron cage had also descended from above the arena, covering the arena to prevent the white tiger from running to the audience to injure people.

The white tiger was quickly brought up.

Looking at it from a close distance, Brielle discovered that this white tiger was shockingly large.

Its body was nearly five meters long, its body was at least one and a half meters tall, and its weight looked to be at least five hundred kilograms.

This was definitely not a normal white tiger!

This was definitely a breed that had been created by humans after gene modification!

A normal white tiger could not grow to such a size!

This type of ferocious beast was an existence that could crush humans.

No wonder no one can beat it!

Brielle looked at the white tiger, her eyes became more serious and vigilant than ever.

“Alas, such a good figure! What a pity if she is going to be eaten by Master Tiger.”

“Although she is very strong, she is still far from Master Tiger. Master Tiger can send her away with a tiger pounce,”

Chapter 61

“It’s better for people to have some self-awareness. She is too arrogant and conceited. She wants to challenge Master Tiger after winning one. She knows nothing about Master Tiger’s strength!”

Brielle ignored the discussion of the crowd.

“If I win, can I take it away?” she asked the referee.

The referee looked at the boss behind the scenes.

Seeing that the boss behind the scenes nodded, he said, “Yes, if you win, you will still get a high reward!”

“But the premise is that you can win.”

The boss agreed to her request and definitely thought that she could not win!

Brielle curled the corners of his lips and said, “Then let’s begin.”

Following Brielle’s words, the iron cage covering the White Tiger was opened.

The White Tiger roared fiercely and immediately pounced towards Brielle.

Brielle fell to the ground and rolled.

After the white tiger missed, it immediately adjusted its direction and continued to attack.

Brielle crawled on the ground with all four limbs.

She climbed very fast, even like a monkey, and climbed onto the iron cage that covered the arena.

She jumped nimbly on the arena and the iron cage.

Everyone was stunned.

“Da mn, Monkey King is indeed Monkey King. She is as agile as a monkey!”

“She is too strong. I thought she would be eaten by Master Tiger soon. I didn’t expect her to walk Master Tiger for so long!”

This is the player who has the longest surviving time!”

“Too strong!”

“Do you guys feel that Monkey King looks very familiar? Especially when she is crawling on the ground with her hands and feet, especially like Brielle...”

“I also thought of Sister E at the first moment, but I don’t think that Monkey King is Sister E.. Sister E is a star. It is impossible for her to be so strong, and it is impossible for her to come to the black competition.”

“Yeah, it’s so easy for celebrities to earn money. How could they come to such a place to risk their lives?”

“Too awesome. I was fascinated by Sister E before. Now I want to change my love. In the future, Monkey King is my goddess!

I like this kind of woman who can kill me with one punch!”

“Beautiful and powerful. Who doesn’t love this kind of woman?”

“Monkey King, you must survive!”

“Monkey King, you can do it!”

“Monkey King. I love you!”

Kayden could not help but laugh and

Chapter 61

Brielle was really charming. No matter where she went, she could rely on her strong strength and charisma to make others like her.

He didn’t dare to think too much about her.

On the stage.

Brielle took advantage of the White Tiger’s inattention and jumped down from the iron bars, directly riding on the White Tiger’s back.

Both of her hands exerted force to wrap around the White Tiger’s neck, and her legs forcefully caught its huge body.

The White Tiger roared and rolled.

Brielle tightly clenched her fists, not letting go at all.

The White Tiger brought Brielle and rolled all over the arena.

The White Tiger’s huge body pressed down on Brielle until her face flushed red, and her face revealed a painful expression.

The blood on the stage also dyed her and the white tiger red.

It looked shocking.

Everyone’s heart was in their throats.

The scene was silent. Everyone didn’t dare to

They were all sweating for Monkey 6. reathe. They looked at the stage without blinking.

Although Monkey King was firmly lying on the back of the white tiger, the white tiger could not bite her.

But the white tiger kept rolling.

With the weight of the white tiger, Monkey King would be crushed to death by it a few more times!

“Sigh, although Monkey King is very powerful, she is still a human. How can she defeat the white tiger with her bare hands?”

“It is not easy for Monkey King to last until now. She has surpassed 90 of the human race.”

“Even if Monkey King dies, she will be a hero in my eyes!”

“Such a strong human being is going to die in the mouth of the White Tiger. What a pity...”

Just as everyone shook their heads and sighed, Brielle’s operation came –
