

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 64

Chapter 64

Sarah sneered.

She raised her hand and slashed downwards...

Blood splattered everywhere.

"Ah--"

Brooks let out a painful howl. His whole body trembled violently and his face wrinkled into a ball.

But his dick had not been cut off.

This was the first time Sarah had done something like this. She had no experience.

In addition to nervousness, her hands were a little shaky.

Moreover, her strength was also small, and she could cut it off with a single slash.

Sarah swallowed a mouthful of saliva, steeled her heart, and reached out to grab one end, then continued to cut with the dagger.

"Ah--"

Brooks' screams became even more intense.

If she could cut it off in one go, it wouldn't be so painful.

Now, Sarah used the knife to grind and cut it bit by bit, as if he was being cut by a thousand cuts.

He was in so much pain that he wished he was dead!

"Don't... ah... spare me!"

Sarah really didn't have much strength. She slowly grinded it for a long time before cutting it down.

The entire basement was filled with Brooks' miserable screams.

After Sarah was done, he continued to scream for a long time before his screams gradually became smaller. However, his face was still full of pain and his body trembled non-stop.

His eyes were bloodshot as he stared at Sarah in anger and horror.

He did not expect that Sarah, who had always been a good-for-nothing, not only kidnapped him, but also cut his dick with a knife...

"You How can you do this? I am your husband... We have been married for thirty years, and you actually treat me like this

Brooks' whole body trembled violently, and his voice trembled like a sieve.

Sarah said angrily, "Now you know that we have been married for thirty years?"

"When you slept with Pearl, why didn't you think about how we were married for thirty years?"

"When you asked me to serve you two animals, why didn't you think about how we were married for thirty years?"

"Brooks, it's too late for you to play the love card with me now!"

She raised her foot and kicked him in the place where he was still bleeding.

"Ah

Brooks screamed like a pig being slaughtered.

Sarah sneered, "Aren't you unable to control your lower body?"

"Since you can't control it, then you don't have it now!"

"You even can reach your hand to your daughter raised by you. You are really worse than a beast!"

After scolding Brooks, Sarah turned to look at Pearl first.

Pearl bit her lips tightly. Her face was as white as paper and her body was constantly trembling.

When Sarah was dealing with Brooks, she was scared silly and did not dare to make a sound, afraid that she would also suffer.

Now that Sarah was looking at her, she was almost scared to death and her tears flowed down.

"Mom... Mom, I was wrong. You... Don't hurt me. I will listen to you in the future. I will serve you in the future. Don't hurt me... I beg you, don't hurt me..."

Sarah remained unmoved as she looked at her with a gloomy gaze.

She had given Pearl many opportunities.

Even before she made her move tonight, she was still giving Pearl a chance.

However, Pearl was a born bad seed and a lowly one. She did not have the slightest bit of regret towards what she had done.

Now, no matter what Pearl said, she would not believe it.

As long as Pearl still had a conscience or a heart of shame, after being exposed by them, she should not continue to pester

Brooks.

But not only did they not break off contact, but they also openly flirted at home.

This kind of shameless beasts was not worthy of sympathy!

Sarah said in a gloomy voice, "Open your mouth."

Pearl's face was full of horror. She asked in a trembling voice, "Mom, what... what do you want to do?"

"Pfft!"

Sarah directly used a dagger and stabbed Pearl's arm.

"Ah

Pearl screamed,

Sarah said impatiently, "Do as I say. Don't talk so much nonsense."

Pearl kept shedding tears and looked at Sarah with tears in her eyes. Her face was fragile and aggrieved.

In the past, whenever Sarah saw her expression, he would feel distressed.

Not only Sarah, but all of Galley family's people were very fond of her.

Chapter 64

But this time, Sarah was unmoved and even showed an annoyed expression.

"If you don't open your mouth, I will continue to stab you until you are obedient!" Sarah said angrily.

Pearl could only open her mouth with a trembling mouth.

Sarah stuffed the cut thing into Pearl's mouth.

Pearl widened her eyes in horror and subconsciously wanted to spit out the thing in her mouth.

Sarah said first, "If you dare to vomit, I will continue to stab you!"

"Woo..." Pearl wailed, but she did not dare to be disobedient.

Sarah was now crazy.

If she didn't listen to her, she could really do anything!

"Don't you like to this thing? Now I will feed it to you. Hurry up and eat it!" Sarah said ferociously.

"Woo... Pearl cried while shaking her head.

The thing in her mouth made her retch.

It was full of the smell of blood and a strange smell.

However, she didn't dare to vomit.

She was afraid that Sarah would kill her.

But she couldn't eat it either.

It was impossible for normal people to eat it!

Even if it was just an ordinary raw meat, no one could eat it!

Sarah said, "I'll count to three. If you don't eat, I won't give you another chance!"

'One...

"Two..."

Brooks, who was facing her, shouted loudly, "Don't... don't eat it. It can still be connected!"

"Honey, I beg you. Take me to the hospital quickly. I can still be cured!"

"I promise you anything you want. Take me to the hospital quickly. I can't become a cripple!"

Sarah did not seem to hear Brooks' voice.

She stared at Pearl.

Her lips quivered as she spat out the last number, "Three!"

Just as she was about to raise her knife, Pearl finally shook her head in despair. She cried and chewed as she looked at Sarah with fear and pleading eyes.

Sarah did not make a move and just looked at her quietly.

Pearl chewed for more than ten minutes with difficulty. She kept retching, but she did not dare to vomit.

Finally, she swallowed it with difficulty.

Brooks, who was on the other side, screamed out in despair.

It was over....

He couldn't take it back anymore.

He had become a cripple!

Pearl said to Sarah fawningly, "Mom, see how much I listen to you. Please let me go."

"I promise, if you ask me to go east in the future, I will never go west!"

"If I can't do it, I will die a horrible death!"

"It's too late, it's too late." Sarah shook her head.

"I gave you many opportunities, but you didn't cherish them."

"You wanted to kill Jordan in the past. When you came back, you had no repentance and even got together with Brooks shamelessly. Now, in order to protect yourselves, you want to harm my Roman."

"All of you deserve to die!"

Pearl cried, "I didn't mean to harm my brothers. It was all brought up by dad."

"Mom, if you want to blame someone, blame dad. Don't blame me."

"This family is ruled by dad. If he wants to kill my brother, what else can I do?"

"Mom, please let me go..."

Brooks looked at Pearl in disbelief.

How could the always considerate Pearl push all the blame on him?

Let Sarah take revenge on him?

Did she not care about his life or death?

At this time, Pearl did not care about Brooks at all. She only wanted to express her sincerity to Sarah and let her go.

But Sarah was stubborn.

No matter how sad and sincere she cried, she was not moved.

Sarah raised her knife again.

This time, she cut open Pearl's trousers.

And then...

"Ah!!!!!!

A moment later, Pearl's shrill scream rang out.

Sarah turned to look at Brooks and brought a piece of flesh to Brooks' mouth.

"It's your turn."

Brooks' lips trembled continuously, his face alternating between green and white. His chest heaved violently.

However, he still opened his mouth.

He was afraid that if he didn't listen, Sarah would stab him with a knife like she had previously threatened Pearl.

He resisted the disgust in his heart and ate the thing in his mouth.

Sarah was very satisfied.

She glanced at the place where the two were still bleeding and did not help them deal with it. She directly walked out of the dungeon.

In the end, she still could not kill them.

Let them bleed to death.

The day after tomorrow, she would come back to help them collect their corpses.

"Don't go. I'm still bleeding. Help me stop the bleeding. Otherwise, I will die!" Sarah shouted in horror.

Although he had become a cripple, he still wanted to live. He did not want to die!

Pearl also screamed, "Mom, please don't ignore me. Take me out. It hurts... Woo..."

However, no matter how much they shouted, Sarah did not turn back.

She walked out of the basement and closed the heavy iron door.

The kerosene lamp in the basement had just finished burning, and the entire basement was plunged into darkness.

"Ah..."

Pearl couldn't stand this kind of grievance and burst into tears.

"Dad, I was so miserable because of you..."

Brooks roared angrily, "Because of me?"

"Back then, you were the one who seduced me!"

"I was more miserable than you. You harmed me!"

Pearl said, "Before I seduced you, you stretched out your hand to me. I saw through your thoughts, so I took that step first!"

"When you hugged me, you deliberately touched my sensitive parts. When I wore a miniskirt, you put your hand on my legs..."

"When I was rehearsing the script at home, you deliberately touched my sensitive parts. When I wore a miniskirt, you put your hand on my legs..."

"When I was rehearsing the script at home, you deliberately touched my sensitive parts. When I wore a miniskirt, you put your hand on my legs..."

Although at that time, it had been found that she was not Galley family's child.

But at that time, they hadn't found Brielle, and she hadn't been taken home yet.

Moreover, she was still a few days away from turning eighteen...

Pearl said resentfully, "That time, I saw that you had that kind of feelings for me. That was why I deliberately hinted to you that night when I was eighteen..."

"But can you blame me for this? If you were able to sit straight and don't have that kind of thoughts about me, no matter how I tried to seduce you, I would never succeed?"

Chapter 64

"But I didn't seduce you much. I only went to the study to send you supper in my thin pajamas in the middle of the night, and you pushed me down..."

Brooks continued to cry, "Mom kidnapped us here and did not speak for a long time.

Pearl continued to cry, "Mom kidnapped us here and wanted to kill us. It was not because of what happened between us, but because you wanted to kill my eldest brother!"
