

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 65

Chapter 65

"It's all because you wanted to kill eldest Brother, Mom attacked us in order to protect him."

"I was implicated by you..."

Pearl cried louder and louder, her voice full of complaints and regret.

If she had advised Brooks not to kill Roman, perhaps Sarah would not have tied her up.

She regretted it.

Unfortunately, it was too late to regret now.

Brooks said angrily, "Brielle said that one of us and Roman must die. If we don't sacrifice him, what do do? Will the two of us die?"

"I want to kill Roman, not for myself, but for you. You actually want to push all the blame onto me."

"You really have no conscience at all!"

Pearl roared, "You can go kill Brielle. If she dies, she won't be able to threaten us!"

Brooks said, "She sent our video to Kayden. If anything happens to her, Kayden will send the video out, and we will still lose our reputation!"

Moreover, he could not kill Brielle.

Brielle was so powerful herself, and with the protection of Kayden's connections, it was impossible for him to succeed.

Pearl cried, "Then kill Kayden together with her. If you kill him, nothing will happen to us!"

Brooks roared, "You are so capable. Why don't you go kill him for me?"

"Do you think you are killing a chicken? You speak so lightly!"

His body was injured and he was locked up in this kind of place, so he was already upset.

Now that he heard that Pearl had been criticizing him, he finally could not help but yell at her.

Pearl had also collapsed. The double torture of her body and spirit made her unable to maintain her false gentleness.

When Brooks shouted at her, she would scold him too.

Anyway, they were all tied up now, so Brooks couldn't hit her.

"You are useless. Don't give yourself so many

"Who are you calling useless?"

excuses!"

"I am talking about you! You are a waste. When Galley Group was in the hands of grandfather, Galley family was still the richest man in Ocean City. But ever since he handed it over to you, Galley Group began to decline. It was actually suppressed by a Fairfax Group who had no backer and had just been established for a few years. The status of Galley family's richest status was robbed! If not for Galley family's powerful foundation, Galley family would have been bankrupt by you. Our whole family would have to live on the streets! Why do you think eldest brother wants to open an entertainment company by himself? He was afraid that you would ruin Galley Group, and our family would have no money in the future, so he went out to start his own business!

You said that you are not a waste, who is a waste?"

"You, you..." Brooks was so angry that he gasped for breath, but he could not say a word to refute it for a long time.

It was because Galley Group had indeed collapsed in his hands.

The group of people from the board of directors had also talked about him many times.

But what right did Pearl have to talk about him?

He was the one who gave her the best life, why should she look down on him?

Perhaps it was because Pearl had been pretending for too long, but she had suppressed too much resentment in her heart.

At this time, once she opened a hole to vent her anger, she could not help but stop attacking.

She continued, "Not only are you not good at doing business, but you are even worse in that aspect!"

"Every time, you can't exceed three minutes. I still have to take into account your face and work hard to act! You don't know how hard it is for me to act!"

"You, you, you... you s lut!" Brooks cursed furiously.

Pearl didn't dare to show weakness. "Trash!"

"Bi tch!"

"Trash!"

"Bi tch! Bi tch!"

Trash You are really a piece of trash now. You even won't do it for the three minutes!"

"Aren't you the same? You are also crippled!"

"My structure is different from yours. I can still use it! But you can't. If you lost your dick, you will be a trash. You will be a eunuch in the future!"

"Ah!"

The next day, Roman was discharged from the hospital and went home.

His body had not fully recovered, and his face was still green and purple.

When Sarah saw him go home, she hurried forward to support him and asked worriedly, "Roman, why are you home? Didn't the doctor suggest you stay in the hospital for a week?"

With the help of Sarah, Roman walked to the sofa and sat down.

"Tomorrow is the third day of the deadline given by Brielle, but we have not completed her request. I can't stay in the hospital anymore. I need to come back and find a way to solve this problem."

"By the way, is Dad at home?"

"Mom, go and call him down. I will discuss with him and see what to do."

He thought that Brooks was in the study room.

Sarah lowered her eyes to hide the panic in her eyes and said, "Your father and Pearl went out. They were not at home."

They went out? Where did they go?" Roman frowned.

Sarah shook her head. "I don't know, I don't care about them now. I feel bad when I see them. I can't wait for them to go out."

Roman said, "Mom, take it easy. It has already happened. Otherwise, you will only anger your body Sarah nodded and said, "I know. You don't have to worry about me. I'll send you back to the hospital first. You have to recuperate well. Don't leave any sequelae. Galley family still needs you in the future.

Roman said, "I won't go back. Tomorrow is the last day. I have to wait for Dad to come back and discuss cou with him."

"Otherwise, the results won't be given tomorrow. Once Brielle released the video, Galley family would be completely destroyed."

Sarah said, "You don't have to worry about this. When your father comes back, I will discuss it with him. I will contact you when we come up with a countermeasure."

Roman frowned and looked at his mother doubtfully,

His mother had always been a person with no mind.

In the past, whenever she encountered something, she would panic like a headless fly and ask them what to do and ask them to find a way to solve it.

But today, why did his mother seem to be a different person?

They were still facing such a big problem, but she was not anxious at all.

She didn't look flustered at all.

It was as if she wasn't worried about that problem at all.

This was too strange.

This completely didn't match her personality and her usual style.

There must be something strange going on when things go wrong...

"Alright, then I'll go back to the hospital. When Dad comes back, remember to ask him to contact me, Let's discuss how to solve this problem."

"If it really doesn't work, I'll tell the truth about Lola's suicide..."

"Don't be overthinking!" "Don't talk nonsense with others. Lola committed suicide by herself. It has nothing to do with you!" Sarah said quickly,

Roman pursed his lips and did not speak.

"Roman, you have to be good. You and your two younger brothers have to be good." Sarah touched Roman's head and tears flowed from her eyes.

"If anything happens in the future, Galley family will depend on you."

"And your two younger brothers, they will also depend on you."

"They are too innocent. As the eldest brother, you have to protect them."

Roman reached out and hugged Sarah. He said seriously, "Mom, don't worry. No matter what, I will protect you and my two younger brothers."

Sarah showed a sad smile with tears in her eyes.

She had no chance to be protected by him.

Her sons still had a future, but she had no.

Sarah gently patted Roman on the back and said, "Okay, I'll take you back to the hospital

Roman let go of Sarah and said, "You don't look too good. Did you not rest well last night? You should rest well at home I can go to the hospital myself"

Sarah thought about it and nodded.

She did not rest well last night.

After she came back from the basement last night, she had been unable to fall asleep.

The moment she closed her eyes, a terrifying scene appeared in her mind.

Sarah sat on the sofa in a daze, constantly shedding tears.

If a person died, there would be a death certificate. As long as the bodies of Brooks and Pearl were sent to the hospital to open the death certificate, it would expose the truth that they were killed.

She could not escape.

She also had to go to jail.

Perhaps she would be sentenced to death.

But she did not regret it.

If she was given another chance to choose, she would still choose to do so.

Sarah walked back to the room.

She ate a few sleeping pills and lay on the bed to rest.

By the time she woke up, it was already evening,

She went to the kitchen to make a lot of delicious food, and then put them in three thermostat boxes.

The dishes she made were what her three sons liked to eat.

After putting the food in, she put on a mask and carried three thermostat boxes out of the door, driving to the hospital.

Roman and Robert were arranged to stay in the same ward, Jordan accompanied them and took care of them.

When Sarah pushed open the ward door and went in, the three of them were all inside.

"Mom, why are you here? Why didn't you call me before you came? I can pick you up" Jordan said as he walked to the door and reached out to take the food box from Sarah.

Sarah smiled lovingly, "I have hands and feet. I can come by myself. You don't have to pick me up. You still have to take care of your two brothers."

"I made your favorite dishes. Hurry up and eat while it's hot."

She distributed three lunch boxes for them.

Robert was not in a high mood. Ever since he woke up, he had been dispirited and dispirited.

Up until now, he still could not accept the fact that Brielle was God J. His collapsed inner world was in ruins.

After Sarah came, he gently called out 'Mom and continued to hang his head

Sarah helped him set up the dining table, then took out the food and placed it on the dining de

Robert, I made all your favorite dishes today. You should eat some!

"Mom, I have no appetite.

"You have to eat even if you have no appetite. If you don't eat, how can your injury heal? Be good, eat a hide. W you don't R it now, you won't be able to eat it in the future..."

Jordan had already started eating. As he ate, he said, "Mom, what are you talking about?" "Second Brother doesn't want to ex now, so don't force him. When he recovers and goes home, you can cook for him!"

Roman took a deep look at Sarah, then retracted his gaze and silently ate

Sarah looked at Robert with heartache and reached out to touch his head.

In the end, she did not force Robert, She quietly put away the food and let him eat when he was hungry

She stayed in the sick room for a long time

It was not until the early morning when she saw that her three sons had fallen asleep that she stood up and gently kissed the foreheads of her three sons. Then she left the ward

She was going back to deal with Brooks and Pet
