

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 7

Chapter 7

Brielle simply washed up and took her things back.

When she returned to her original spot, her face instantly darkened.

Because...

Her tent was gone!

Not only the tent, but everything was gone!

Even the fire had been extinguished.

Brielle's face was as dark as the night.

It was obvious who had done it!

Brielle couldn't help but scold. "Those bunch of trash, they don't do proper business, but they are very good at stealing."

[Sister E is very good at scolding, they are trash, and they are trash with dirty hands and feet!]

[Sister E scolded too gently, please use even more vicious words to scold them!]

[Sister E, don't spoil them. Go and get the things back!]

[Not only do you have to get the things back, you also have to teach them a lesson. You can't spoil them!]

Brielle put on her jacket and pants again and walked in the direction of Pearl and the others with the flashlight.

They seemed to have changed places to camp, and they were no longer in the place where they were on the day.

Brielle kept a straight face and continued to walk forward.

Not long after, she saw their figures behind a bush taller than a person.

Her tent was also there.

Everything in her backpack had been poured out and scattered on the ground.

At this time, Pearl was sitting at the entrance of the tent, holding a bottle of mosquito repellent and smearing it on her body.

As she smeared it, she complained, "There are too many mosquitoes in the forest. I have been bitten many times. I will never come to this kind of damned place again!"

That bottle of mosquito repellent was brought by Brielle.

Quinn looked at Pearl enviously. "Pearl, are you done? Give me a little too. I have also been bitten a lot."

Pearl said, "There is only one bottle of mosquito repellent dew. It is not enough for me. You can think of a way yourself."

Quinn bither lips and looked at Pearl with resentment.

This mosquito repellent was obviously not Pearl's, but she actually wanted to take it for her own use.

However, due to Galley family's status in the entertainment circle, she did not dare to go against Pearl, so she could only hold back her grievances.

"Is it comfortable to use my things?" Brielle walked out from behind the bushes and looked at Pearl coldly.

Ah...

Pearl was shocked by Brielle and subconsciously hid behind Jordan.

Jordan frowned and said to Brielle in disgust, "What are you doing here? Didn't you say that you didn't want to team up us and wanted us to keep a distance from you? Why are you here in our territory now?"

Brielle sneered, "What do you think why I am here?"

Jordan said. "I am not a roundworm in your stomach, how would I know!"

Brielle mocked, "You really can play dumb. When you went to steal my things, why didn't you act dumb?"

with

Jordan's face alternated between green and red. He gritted his teeth and said, "Don't make it sound so bad. We are a family. It's just borrowing your things. Don't be so stingy!"

Brielle: "Borrow? You didn't even ask me before you took my things away. This is called borrowing? If you don't ask, then it is stealing."

Jordan frowned and said, "Why are you so stingy? I'm just borrowing your things. I'll return them to you after I'm done."

"If you're not satisfied. I'll give you a sum of money when we get back. Just treat it as the cost of buying your things. I'll buy your things at ten times the price. Is that okay?"

"Not selling! Return my things to me immediately!" Brielle refused resolutely.

Pearl immediately hid the mosquito repellent water behind her and reached out to protect the tent behind her. She said warily to Brielle, "These things are all mine now. Don't even think about snatching them away!"

Brielle sneered, "No? Then I can only take them myself."

She continued to walk forward.

Pearl had been beaten by Brielle a few times, and she was already traumatized by it.

Seeing Brielle walk towards her, she screamed and pulled Jordan back. Third Brother, this lunatic is here again. Stop her, don't let her get close to me!".

Jordan was also a little afraid in his heart.

He had also been beaten up by Brielle, and the moment he saw her, his heart ached.

But in front of his precious little sister, he could not act too cowardly.

"You can take a portion of the other things back first, but you can lend this tent and mosquito repellent water to Pearl first."

Brielle said coldly, "I won't lend you anything. I will take everything that belongs to me."

Jordan said with a calm face, "Can you be a little kind? Pearl has been spoiled since she was a child. She is delicate and can't suffer. Without a tent and an inflatable bed, how can she rest at night?"

Brielle asked, "I gave her the tent. Why should I sleep?"

Jordan frowned. "You are different from Pearl. You grew up in the slums and are used to suffering. It is not a big deal to suffer more. You can stay on the grass for the night."

who are

Pearl could not help but smile and touch her delicate skin. "I am sorry, Brielle. I am born delicate. I am not like born with a low life and can endure hardships. So, I will trouble you to suffer more hardships and show the quality of the hard work you trained in the slums."

Brielle smiled. "Thank you. Otherwise, I don't even know what a shameless person looks like in reality."

Pearl's face sank. "You called me shameless? You are the shameless one. What right do you have to scold me?"

Jordan shook his head in disappointment. "Brielle, you are too ill-bred. Not only you hit us, you even scold us. When will you be more sensible?"

"What qualifications do you have to criticize me?" Brielle said sarcastically.

She glanced at Pearl and Jordan indifferently, and her smile became more and more sarcastic. "I have suffered hardships since I was a child, so I deserve to suffer hardships for a lifetime?"

"But don't forget, the one who is spoiled should be me. It was Pearl's mother who was so evil that she exchanged her with her. But she didn't take a good care of me and throw me to the slums, forcing me to suffer."

"Pearl's wealth, her brocade clothes and jade food were all stolen from me. How did she become a natural born delicate?"

"I suffered outside because of her and her mother. I almost died outside. Does that mean I deserve it? Is my life born to be cheap and I have to suffer for the rest of my life?"

"It's fine if she is greedy and selfish. As my blood relative, you also said such words. Do you have a brain?"

"No, you are not sick in the head. You have no brain at all!"

"All of you, Galley family, are a group of idiots who are worse than beasts. Don't touch me in the future. With such a brainless family like you, I feel bad!"

Brielle's face was full of disgust.

She only felt bad luck and did not feel sad at all.

If possible, she really wanted to undergo genetic modification and completely cut off her connection with Galley family.

She had the same genes as Galley family, and she felt bad luck.

"You... What nonsense are you talking about!" Jordan's voice was trembling. He was a little lacking in confidence and a little guilty. "When you and Pearl were exchanged, she was just born. What does she know? What you suffered has nothing to do with Pearl. You shouldn't blame her!"

"We are now on Pearl's side because you always stir up trouble when you go home. You always scheme against Pearl and make the family in a mess!"

"You've gone even more overboard recently. You've hit our parents. How can we like you like this?"

Brielle said coldly, "You deserve every beating you get. Don't feel wronged here."

"Have you forgotten what I was like when I first came home? You forced me to change my attitude to you!"

"I don't want to talk so much nonsense with you. Right now, I just want to take back my things. Quickly hand them over, or I will take action!"

She was very regretful right now.

She regretted that on the day she returned to Galley family, she did not beat them up and left directly. She even wasted so much time on them and almost lost her life on Galley family.

On the first day she returned home, Galley family took turns to find her. First, they said a few words of concern to her, then told her not to fight with Pearl, saying that Pearl was their closest relative,

At that time, she also felt that there was nothing wrong with it.

She felt that the one who made a mistake was Pearl's mother. It had nothing to do with Pearl and did not hate her.

Chapter 7

Moreover, her parents and three brothers had lived with Pearl for so many years. It was normal for them to have deep feelings.

The feelings between them were also incomparable to hers.

She also did not want to compare herself with Pearl.

She just wanted to obtain a bit of affection that she had never experienced before.

She restrained her arrogance and lowered her posture to curry favor with them.

Unfortunately, no matter what she did, in their eyes, she wanted to compete with Pearl for favor.

No matter how obvious Pearl's flaws were, they would believe her.

She should have given up a long time ago.

However, she actually persisted for a year until she was pushed off the stage by Pearl. Her family members did not care about her life. Only then did she completely give up.

Perhaps it was because she had stayed with that group of idiots with low IQ that her IQ had also dropped, so she had endured for so long.

It must be so.

Jordan remembered that Brielle had just returned home and called him Third Brother with a face full of joy.

He liked to play games, so Brielle stayed up late to take him to play games.

She also sent him a game cabin that had been bought first through some channels.

The game capsule was developed by the international technology leading company. Currently, only a thousand game capsules were issued in the world.

Although their Galley family was once the richest family in Ocean City's life.

But in the world, it was not ranked.

Even if there were a thousand game capsules, based on their Galley family's identity and status, he could not get one of them.

But Brielle actually gave him one.

She said that she drew it from the lucky draw.

Although she drew it from the lucky draw and she did not spend any money, to be able to give him such a precious game capsule was enough to prove how much she valued this family relationship and how much she wanted to build a good relationship with him,

But later on, because Pearl felt that they were too close and worried that her love would be snatched away, she was depressed.

In order to make Pearl happy, he began to distance himself from Brielle and smashed the game capsule. Only then did Pearl become happy.

Later, Brielle always targeted Pearl, and his impression of Brielle became worse and worse.

Brielle's nature was not bad. She was also kind in the beginning. Now she had become like this because they were partial to Pearl.

But he did not think that they were wrong to be partial to Pearl.

Chapter 7

Pearl grew up with them and their relationship was naturally deep. Was it wrong for them to like Pearl more?

But Brielle was his own sister in the end.

He was willing to give his own sister another chance.

Jordan sorted out his mood and said to Brielle, "I know that your nature is not bad. There is indeed a part of our reason for you to become like this, but the bigger reason is that you are jealous."

"Let's not talk about the past. Let's give each other a chance. You should change yourself and change back to how you used to be. We will try to treat you as well as possible."

"But you have to get along well with Pearl."

"After all, Pearl has lived with us for so many years. We can't give up our family love, I hope you can understand."

Pearl was very unhappy.

She did not want to get along well with Brielle at all. She did not want Brielle to return to Galley family at all.

However, since Jordan had said so, she could not object.

After all, Brielle had the blood of Galley family. She was just an outsider. If she opposed it too fiercely, it might cause Galley family to reject her.

Pearl suppressed the dissatisfaction in her heart and revealed a gentle smile. "Brielle, just listen to third brother. As long as you can change your ways, I won't argue with you about what you did to me in the past. Let's get along well and be filial to our parents. Don't let them worry."

Jordan looked at Pearl gently and said. "Pearl is a wise. A good education from a young age is indeed useful."

Then he turned to look at Brielle and said earnestly, "Brielle, you sleep in the tent with Pearl tonight. You sisters can take the opportunity to improve your relationship."

Pearl said generously, "Since third brother has spoken, then I will listen to third brother. I will share half of the tent with you and let you sleep in the tent with me tonight."

[Fuck! Angry! I don't know where to start complaining!]

[It still has to shoot in secret, otherwise you won't be able to know so many explosive news!]

www.me

[Sister E and Pearl are the real and fake daughters? Didn't Galley family tell the public that both of them were biological children? Was Sister E accidentally taken away when she was born?]

[It seems that Galley family deliberately made up a lie to protect Pearl.]

[Sister E is too miserable, She was born to be a daughter of a rich family. In the end, she was robbed of her life of wealth. After she came back, she was disliked by her parents and brothers.]

[Sister E scolded too lightly. Was what Jordan said a human language? He actually said that Sister E was born with a cheap life and was used to suffering. Is this her biological brother? Even strangers can't say such disgusting words!]

[Damn, my blood pressure is too high. If I were at the scene, I would definitely slap Jordan's mouth!]

[Sister E. is too pitiful. I feel so sorry for her. I really want to hug her. Woo...]

[Pearl is really shameless. She seized Sister E's life and even treated her so bad. Is it something a person can do?]

[Pearl really makes me sick. She stole someone's tent and even said with a tone of charity for Sister E to sleep in half of the tent? I can't understand her brain.]

[Shit! Sister E, don't talk nonsense with them! Just make a move, teach them a lesson!]
