

God, the Real Miss Hated Everyone Equally

Chapter 72

Chapter 72

Time passed quickly.

In the blink of an eye, there was only a week left before Extreme Survival started filming.

Before she left, she called out Kayden and his friends to treat them to a meal.

Because Micah went to receive the order, he went out to see patients and did not come.

Therefore, only Kayden, George, and Matt came out.

In the hotel, when Matt saw Brielle, he couldn't help but sigh.

"Sister E, you really keep your mouth shut and do big things. You actually signed up for Extreme Survival? You hid it so well that you didn't even tell us about it. We only found out about it after seeing the news on the Internet!"

Brielle tilted her head. "I didn't hide it from you. You didn't ask me."

"Moreover, when I promised to attend that day, Kayden was by my side. I didn't ask him to keep it a secret. Didn't he tell you?"

Matt immediately pointed the spearhead at Kayden, raised his fist, and punched at Kayden.

"You little rascal! You knew it all along, and yet you didn't tell us?"

Kayden dodged to the side and kicked Matt. "If you've got something to say, say it. Why are you attacking me?"

"Why didn't you tell us that Sister E agreed to join Extreme Survival?" Matt glared at him.

Kayden said calmly, "You didn't ask."

Matt said angrily. "We are so close. You can tell us even if we don't ask. Don't you have the desire to share? Don't you want to share secrets with others?"

Kayden said, "I just want to make money. I don't have any other worldly desires."

The corners of Matt's mouth twitched.

This guy had lost his eye for money.

He was already so rich, yet he still loved money so much.

George looked at Brielle and frowned. "Sister E, didn't you reject it back then? Why did you have to participate again?"

"We have already told you that the program is very dangerous, and it is especially against we Oscusian people. You will definitely be targeted by them."

"At present, the public sentiment on the web is also highly unfavorable towards you. Even before the program has begun, the web is already rife with negative comments about you."

"If you don't perform well on the program, you will be scolded even more miserably. If you are humiliated, they will think that you have embarrassed Oscus. It will be difficult for you to develop in the entertainment circle in the future."

He was truly worried for Brielle.

Brielle calmly said, "Then let's take the first place."

"If first place can't stop the mouths of those people, I will scold them."

George, "..."

Matt pushed Kayden away and walked up to Brielle with a worried expression. "We also hope that you can take first place. but that won't be easy."

"I heard that a mercenary also participated this time. That mercenary was very famous. He fought on a battlefield for ten years and often broadcasted live on the battlefield. He is very dangerous."

"I don't know about the players from other countries, but none of them are simple."

Brielle nodded calmly. "Yes, I know, but I am more powerful."

Matt: "..."

Brielle raised her hand and clenched her fist in front of him. She smiled and said, "Do you want me to punch you so that you can see my strength?"

Matt was so scared that he quickly hid behind Kayden. His head shook quickly, almost leaving afterimages.

"If you whip me with a whip, I welcome you. But don't punch me with your fist..."

Brielle pinched her chin thoughtfully. "So you are this kind of per vert. I can't tell..."

Matt immediately denied. "I am not a per vert. I am a gentleman, a gentleman!"

Brielle had a faint smile on her face, knowingly.

Seeing that he could not explain clearly, Matt simply did not explain. Instead, he chose to drag Kayden and George into the water.

He smiled and said with a face that deserved a beating, "Actually, I am not the most abnormal. Kayden and George are much more abnormal than me."

"I was originally a gentleman. I became like this because I was influenced by them!"

And then...

He was beaten up by Kayden and George.

Matt screamed as he ran to the hotel. He shouted, "Sister E, help me! They were revealed by me and they got mad. You gotta recognize the nature of these two creeps!"

"Not only are they per verted, they are also violent!"

"Unlike me, they are just pure per verts... Ow... Don't hit my face, hit my butts instead!"

Brielle couldn't help but laugh out loud.

While they were making a scene, she ordered food and wine.

The food was served on the table.

The four of them ate and drank.

With two swollen eyes, Matt poured a cup of wine and walked to Brielle, saying seriously, "Sister E, since you have already decided, then I won't persuade you. I wish you a victory!"

"Thank you." Brielle clinked glasses with him.

"Sister E looks very confident. Since that's the case, I also choose to believe in Sister E. After the opening of the game, I will definitely bet all I have on your victory. You will be the No. 1 of this year!" George smiled and clinked glasses with her.

Brielle smiled and clinked back with him. "You are lucky to have made a lot of money."

"I'll wait for you to come back," said Kayden.

Brielle was silent for a moment.

Galley family had already suffered retribution, so she might not return to Ocean City.

At first, she thought it would take one or two years to finish that family.

She did not expect that in less than two months, Galley family had completely collapsed.

It had to be said that "Wilderness Survival" had helped a lot.

Had the director of 'Wilderness Survival' not acted so flirtatiously, leading to Pearl and Jordan's reputations being tarnished and the Galley family's reputation and the business of the Galley Group and Mount Entertainment being implicated, no matter how foolish the Galley family were, they would not have fallen so quickly.

Although Roman had some ability, no one could make up for the trouble that Pearl and Jordan had caused.

If it was her, she would not be able to think of a way to turn the situation around.

She could be considered to have taken advantage of the time and place to get revenge so easily,

Brielle drank with them until late at night.

She only knew that Kayden was not good at drinking, but she did not expect that Matt and George were also bad at drinking.

She was not drunk, and the three of them had already begun to dance like a group of devils.

After Kayden was drunk, he began to run outside and picked up all the landscape stones in the hotel's potted plants and put them in his pocket.

Brielle tried to stop him, and he looked at her warily. "Do you want to stop me from getting rich, or do you want to rob me of gold?"

Brielle reminded him. "That's not gold."

Kayden sneered. "You scheming woman, you deliberately lied to me that this is not gold. Are you trying to drive me away and take all this gold for yourself?"

"Hmph. I won't fall for it!"

"Tin smart!"

Brielle: "..."

Brielle could only contact Kayden's assistant, Kai, to look after him and pay for the hotel's losses.

Matt and George were not much better.

After the two of them got drunk, they had a strange desire to win and lose in some strange aspects.

They went to the toilet hand in hand, competing who could pee longer.

The hotel staff members were horrified, but they did not dare to approach them.

They were swaying and splashing their urine.

Brielle was silent.

It was not without reason that they could play together.

Compared to them, Kayden was more normal.

Brielle asked Kai to contact Matt and George's assistants to pick them up, and she left the hotel by herself.

The next day, when Kayden woke up with a pile of stones in his arms, he called Brielle. Brielle had already left Ocean City and went to the capital.

Brielle went to a half-mountain villa in the suburbs of the capital city.

Entering the villa, she went around a few winding corridors and passed through a door, revealing a staircase leading to the underground.

She walked down the stairs.

The underground area was very wide. There were many rooms. Many people in white coats were doing experiments in the rooms. When they saw Brielle through the doors and windows, they nodded and greeted her.

Brielle walked to the door of a room and entered her fingerprint. The closed door slowly opened.

Inside was a high-class ward.

There was a bed in the middle, and a thin girl was lying on the bed. There were many instruments on the girl's body.

Brielle walked to the bed and stared at the girl on the bed for a long, long time.

The girl's skin was so pale that there was no trace of blood on it, and she was so thin that it seemed like she would shatter at the slightest touch.

"Sister Nyla, I'm going to help you take revenge."

"Fleo and I have been preparing for this day for a long time. We will definitely make those who have hurt you pay the price."

"When we return, you will wake up, okay?"

"If you don't say anything. I'll take it as you agree."

Brielle's eyes were a little dim. She reluctantly touched the girl's cheek and then turned to leave.

She did not linger. She went straight to the airport and boarded a plane to Noglia.

Seven days later, the 18th season of Extreme Survival officially began!
