

Mission To Remarry Chapter 1031

While Pippa knew nothing about the affairs between their families, Archie and Benny knew exactly what happened. Daddy must've transferred Essie because he got into a fight with Mommy! He doesn't want to let us play with Essie anymore!

Archie's and Benny's eyes reddened. They had always been obedient and composed in class, so this was Pippa's first time seeing them cry. For some reason, she found herself empathizing with them.

Pippa knelt beside them and said gently, "Don't worry. The three of you are very close, so I'm sure Essie will come to play with you two very often. Besides, I'm sure Essie wouldn't want to see you two crying like this."

Although Archie and Benny were still upset, they didn't want to cause Pippa any trouble. Archie nodded obediently and held Benny's hand as he said, "Come on, Ms. Ward. Let's head inside!"

still felt bad for what they had to go through. My goodness... These two from being a lot quieter throughout the day, Archie and Benny showed no unusual behavior. It wasn't until class was over that their eyes turned see that they were still upset about Estella leaving, but she

"What's the matter? Did you two get into a fight with the other kids?" Archie and Benny shook realized Estella was nowhere to be can have your mommy take you to Essie's house if you want to play with her." Lysa Roxanne had practically cut off all forms of communication with each other. Lysa had no idea what happened between them, let alone if Roxanne would allow that everything would be all right. Archie and Benny