

Mission To Remarry Chapter 739

Chapter 739 Do Not Let Her Off

Meanwhile, in the hotel, Aubree had also caught up with everything that had happened over the past two days.

Even though she didn't know who the mastermind was, she was elated when she saw Roxanne getting questioned by the online community.

Ha! I'm sure that b*tch won't be able to recover from such a powerful online onslaught. That way, she will eventually be forced to leave the country even if I don't take any action. When that time comes, I'll have Lucian all to myself!

As a result, Aubree continued to pay close attention to the discussions online, thinking that netizens would continue to attack and scold Roxanne.

To her horror, everything took a sudden turn later that night.

The first wave of anger hit Aubree when Queen Group published its statement, causing her to toss and turn the entire night as she wondered how she could blow the matter up.

Unfortunately, the situation only worsened when Jessica issued a public apology and confessed to spreading the nasty rumors out of sheer jealousy.

Aubree knew Jessica's reputation well enough to surmise that the latter couldn't have apologized on her own. Something must have happened that forced her
