Chapter 107 Falling For Him

"When did it happen?" Isaac asked

"I just got the news," Willie answered over the phone. "It must've happened within these past days."

"We must find her back!" Isaac snapped. His anger was apparent in his tone

"Yes, sir," Willie responded

After that, Isaac hung up the phone and slammed it hard, causing a loud bang

The sudden noise attracted Camila's attention

"What happened? Why are you so angry?" she asked

It turned out that Debora was rescued, and the one who did it was her ex

"Nothing," Isaac answered with a blank expression. He didn't intend on telling her the truth

He gnashed his teeth as soon as Debora crossed his mind

Because she had pretended to be Camila, he accidentally killed his own child!

Meanwhile, Camila didn't think too much about it. She brushed it off her mind and thought it was just something work-related that pissed Isaac off. So, she continued eating like nothing happened

Once the breakfast was done, Isaac was about to go out when Stevie arrived

"Sir, Master wants to see you," he said to Isaac politely.

"Please go back to the old house with me."

Isaac nodded. "Okay."

Then, he turned to Camila and said, "Have a good rest at home." His eyes fell on her left leg

It had not yet fully recovered

Noticing his concern, Camila nodded at him

After that, Stevie followed Isaac out. As soon as Stevie crossed the threshold of the door, he turned around and threw a glance at Camila

Even though the look only lasted for half a second, it was still full of meaning

Because of that, Camila now knew why Robin wanted to see Isaac

It made her wonder if Marvin had met with Robin earlier. Did Robin want to talk to Isaac and convince him to divorce her? As these thoughts swirled in her head, she began feeling a bit nervous

She kept shifting restlessly on the sofa, feeling uncomfortable no matter what position she sat in

But what was she so nervous about?

Didn't she want a divorce this entire time?

All of a sudden, flashbacks of Isaac's recent display of love and care flooded her mind. Thinking about it now, she felt so ruthless for wanting it. @
