

Mistaken Marriage, Unexpected Love

Chapter 135

Chapter 135 What Is He Up To

"Your child has been caught, right? What can I do for you?" Aldrin didn't let her go

"I don't think you need to worry about that. Instead, you should study hard so that you can manage the company," replied Camila nonchalantly

"Camila, Joe is my nephew. Whether you like it or not, you cannot deny that I am his uncle. Now that he is caught, I can't help but be worried about him. Let me help you," said Aldrin in a pleading voice Aldrin looked so sincere, which put Camila into a difficult situation. It seemed inappropriate for her to refuse him this time, especially when he had asked her to accept him again and again.

However, she was more capable than him and could manage everything on her own, so she said, "You should learn how to manage the company. It would be the best thing you can do for me." Indeed, Aldrin's expression changed. He pressed his lips tight, looking as if he was trying to swallow back all the words he wanted to say, before he finally said, "I will try my best."

Camila smiled at him and said anxiously, "I have something urgent. Let go of me first."

Aldrin loosened his grip slowly. Even though he had agreed to study hard for the sake of Camila, he couldn't help but feel dispirited at that moment

As soon as Camila was freed, she walked away quickly. But then, she suddenly stopped in her tracks and turned to look at Aldrin. "Dad didn't leave the company to you not because he didn't care about you. But it was because he knew that you are not mature enough to take over it.

So, he entrusted with me to take care of you. He loved you and cared about you. As for your mother, she did a lot of wrong things. I hope you can let go of your hatred for me and concentrate on your study."

"Camila, what are you talking about?" Aldrin added with a chuckle, "Of course, I know my mother deserves it..."

"You know what you are thinking. Don't treat others as fools," Camila interrupted him, not letting him speak what he didn't mean. After saying that, she left quickly

Aldrin was trying his best to win Camila's favor. He even intentionally spoke ill of his own mother, Trudy

That was something that Camila was aware of automatically. She knew Aldrin approached her on purpose

He was probably thinking that he had to flatter Camila because he hadn't got full control of the company that his father had left

She told him about why his father had left the company to her just now, only to let him know that the company would belong to him sooner or later and that she would not covet it. Also, she didn't want him to hold a grudge against her because of Trudy's imprisonment

She already had many things in her hand and felt very tired thinking about those things. So, she didn't want to add one more enemy to her

list

All she hoped was that Aldrin would change his mind for the sake of family affection

Aldrin was stunned

Trudy was his mother, so she naturally was the best person for him. So, how could he feel nothing toward his mother's imprisonment?

It was true that he wanted to win Camila's trust by flattering her so much. He intended to have the company in his name first. Then, he would find a way to save Trudy. But from what Camila just said, it was obvious that she knew what he was thinking. She was too smart for him to deceive her in such a childish way. Now, Aldrin knew why his father trusted her with the company

After a while, Aldrin calmed down. He turned around and walked into the room

Seeing that Rowena was sitting on the sofa, he walked up to her and said, "Don't worry. Camila will bring Joe safe and sound."

Rowena's attitude towards him was neither good nor bad. The reason why Marvin gave all of his properties to her and Camila and also sent Trudy in jail was that he wanted them to take care of Aldrin. Considering that Aldrin was the only son of Marvin, Rowena didn't want to make things difficult for him. After all, children shouldn't be involved in adults' affairs.

Besides, Marvin was no longer here. All the grudges should be buried along with his body.

"I see. Go to bed early," said Rowena.

Aldrin said, "Well, if you need anything, call me at any time."

Rowena didn't say anything more and simply nodded. Aldrin then went upstairs. Rowena was still sitting on the sofa in the living room. She had many thoughts in her head that kept her awake the whole night. She was guilty of Joe's abduction. If she had protected Joe well, her daughter wouldn't be threatened.

Meanwhile, Camila arrived at the Johnston family's residence. Since Robin hadn't come back yet, she waited in the living room for a while.

It was until dawn that Robin came back home.

Camila stood up from her seat and was about to say something. But she had only taken two steps before she saw Stevie and stopped in her tracks

Robin looked very tired. After all, he was old and had been up the whole night

When he saw Camila, he stretched out his hand which was held by Camila

"I've checked everything. It wasn't my second son and his family." He breathed a sigh of relief

He was afraid that the family of his second son would not behave themselves

If they really did it this time, with Isaac's temper, Robin might not be able to protect them

"Jaylen Williams. You know him, right?" Robin asked

"Yes, I know him. He also has a grudge against Isaac," said Camila, nodding her head

"I see. Is he aiming at Isaac this time?" Robin observed Camila's expression carefully, trying to see if she was being honest with her answers

"I don't know," said Camila. Although she had heard everything from Jaylen, she wasn't sure what he was up to With a long sigh, Robin said helplessly, "Alas, it's also my fault. I didn't find anything wrong with Stevie, or such a thing wouldn't have happened."

Camila asked, "Was Stevie bribed?"

Robin shook his head and explained, "He has been working for me for many years. I trust him, and I have never treated him shabbily. Money can't buy him off. His wife was caught by Jaylen, and Jaylen threatened Stevie to ask me to get the divorce certificate of you and Isaac. Stevie was also forced to grab your child and make you marry Jaylen. What do you think of this matter?"

Now that Camila didn't want to have anything to do with the Johnston family, it was best for her to divorce Isaac. 4 So, she said lightly, "Anyway, you are not satisfied with me. Now, Isaac is also interested in Fidelia. So, there is no need for me to stay in this family. As for the child, I will save him myself."

She sounded neither angry nor annoyed. Since she had figured it out, she was calm

Robin didn't like her idea at all. So, he said, "Didn't you say that Isaac was the father of the baby? There is no reason for us to ignore him."

"Isaac is a living man. If you want a great grandson, he can give you a lot. As for Joe, he's mine."

Robin frowned at that and asked, "Has Isaac accepted Fidelia?"

Camila was patient and continued explaining, "He gave his most precious thing to Fidelia. He must like her very much." After speaking, Camila forced a smile despite the bitter feeling in her heart

"The most precious thing?"

"It's the thing that I touched last time and made Isaac very angry. He gave it to Fidelia easily. You can see how much he likes her." Her expression was normal as if nothing she said had an impact on her

In fact, she had prepared in every aspect, so she was calm. Anyway, even if she was unhappy, she didn't want to show it to others

Robin glanced at Stevie. He seemed to have understood the situation clearly

Indeed, Isaac had seen through that Robin wanted to make a match for Isaac and Fidelia. But never did he expect that the jade pendant was arranged by Robin too

"Mila..."

Robin was going to explain, but Camila beat him to it. "I just want to tell you that I have gotten the location of Joe. I will keep it a secret about what you asked me to do, and I also hope that you can keep it a secret from Isaac. Now that he has a new woman, I don't want to disturb him. So, I really would like you to keep the secret about Joe to yourself. Or you can just pretend that you don't know it."

Robin frowned. "How can I pretend like I don't know that Joe is the child of the Johnston family?"

"So, what do you want?" asked Camila in reply. This time, Camila didn't seem kind or patient anymore

Seeing that, Robin fell into silence. After pondering for a while, he said, "Isaac is the father of the baby. Why didn't you tell me earlier? If you told me before, I wouldn't have let Fidelia get close to Isaac." He sounded regretful

"I was lying to you. Besides, Isaac and Fidelia are a good match." Camila changed the subject on purpose. She then asked, "What will you do with Stevie?" Looking at Camila, Robin didn't believe she was lying to him. After all, she had told him that he could have a paternity test before. Was it because she felt uncomfortable now that Isaac and Fidelia were together?

Besides, he made a mistake, and a major one at that. It was all because of Stevie that he changed the marriage certificate of Camila and Isaac into a divorce certificate.

"Well, if you need any help in the future, just come to me. As for Stevie, he had a chance to run away, but he chose to come back and confessed everything to me. I will punish him lightly. What do you think?"

Camila wouldn't interfere with Robin's decision. Although she was very annoyed with Stevie, Stevie was forced to do so. It was not out of his intention.

If she pressed too much, it would seem that she was a ruthless woman, and she could not change anything.

"You can handle it. I'll go back first."

Before she left, Robin stopped her and said, "I misunderstood you."

Although he was apologizing to her indirectly and she caught his meaning, it didn't matter to her anymore.

Camila intentionally ignored him and waved her hand.

Then, she walked out of the room in confident strides.

She wanted to go back to the Haynes family home, but she thought that she still had something in the villa. So, she took a taxi to go there.

When she got out of the car and was about to walk inside,
she saw the suitcase at the door

Glenda didn't throw away the things of Camila but packed them and put them neatly in her luggage

Seeing Camila, Glenda walked out and called, "Mrs.
Johnston..." She wanted to say something but stopped on a second thought

Looking at Glenda's expression, Camila asked, "Are the things in the luggage mine?"

Glenda sighed and nodded

"Isaac asked you to do that?" Camila knew that Glenda was nice to her and would never do this to her

Glenda nodded again

Camila smiled coldly. The man was really ruthless. He changed so quickly! Just a few moments ago, they were having... Then, he drove her out of the villa

She raised her head and said simply, "I see."

"Mrs. Johnston, what's wrong with you and Mr. Johnston?"

"Glenda, did you call her wrong? She is no longer Mrs.
Johnston."
