Chapter 140

Chapter 140 Gossip

Jaylen looked very manly as he attempted to protect Camila

The problem was that he was so weak from spending his entire life in clover

He was no match against the tall and muscular men who arrived to intercept the wedding vehicle. They barely used two percent of their whole strength, yet that was enough to successfully separate Jaylen and Camila

Soon, the bride-to-be was being yanked from the wedding vehicle

"Who are you?" Camila, firmly grasping the car door, resisted getting out

"You don't have to know who we are. Just go with us. We won't hurt you, but if you put up too much of a fight, we'll have to go tough with you," one of them warned expressionlessly

Camila's grip on the door remained firm, as she still had no idea who these people were

She did not remember offending anyone

So, who on earth sent these people?

"What are you doing in broad daylight?" Jaylen demanded exasperatedly, but he was ignored. As their sole objective was to take Camila, the men refrained from harming anyone in the process

"Who we are is none of your concern." A man seized Jaylen and held him immobile before turning to his companion. "Quick, take her away.

We've stayed here for too long. We must leave now!"

Thereafter, Camila was forcibly taken from the vehicle and loaded into one of their cars

Jaylen could only watch helplessly as she was hauled away. This was supposed to be an important day for him.

Just who on earth thwarted his well

-laid plans?

The group of men worked in a professional and disciplined manner. Having secured Camila, they let Jaylen go, got into their vehicles, and left

"Go and catch them!" Jaylen roared angrily

He could only take his frustrations out on his subordinates.

Only then did his men snap out of their shocked trance and set out in pursuit of the perpetrators. It was too late, though. The opposing side had also planned ahead and was actively trying to obstruct Jaylen's vehicles, so his efforts were for naught

In the absence of the bride, the ceremony could not go through

News of Camila's disappearance immediately spread like wildfire

Jaylen quickly assigned his assistant the task of cleaning up the mess before dispatching his subordinates to search for Camila, unconcerned with what others could be saying about the fiasco

The people who abducted her left the city without a trace

In spite of his best efforts, Jaylen was unable to locate them

He tried asking Aldrin if Camila had upset anyone. @

Aldrin replied, "None that I know of, but..."

"But what?" Jaylen asked anxiously

"If there was someone who wanted to harm Camila, wouldn't it be you?" @ For a while, Jaylen was at a loss for an appropriate response

"I only asked her to marry me. I haven't treated her badly in any way..." Before he could finish his words, Aldrin interrupted, "Forcing her to marry you is hurting her." @

Jaylen opened his mouth only to close it again

He once again found himself at a loss for words

Nothing he could say in response would have been adequate

After all, it was indeed immoral of him to coerce her into a marriage she did not want to be in

It was not the appropriate time to discuss this, though. As of right now, locating Camila was of utmost importance

"Since she got taken while under your protection, it's your responsibility to track her down." Aldrin seemed unconcerned. At this point, all he cared about was obeying Camila's orders

Jaylen snorted in disbelief after realizing he had approached the wrong person

"You have different mothers, but you share the same father. She's your sister Aren't you worried about her at all?"

Aldrin shot back, "You don't have the right to lecture me. You're the one who didn't protect her properly, even though you're supposed to be her future husband."

For the third time, Jaylen was rendered speechless. Not only had he failed to discover Camila's whereabouts, but he appeared to have exacerbated the situation. In the end, Jaylen left without obtaining any useful information from Aldrin.

Before he left, Aldrin added, "You failed to protect my sister, so you must bring her back safe and sound. If anything happens to her, I won't forgive you." Jaylen had no intention of inflicting harm on Camila at all. All he wanted was for her to become his wife. He also did not want to hurt her son. In fact, he even employed a nurse who specialized in caring for infants to look after her child. @

"I don't need you to tell me that. I'm going to find her, by hook or by crook." With that, Jaylen left.

Aldrin's expression twisted in worry. It was not that he was not bothered by Camila's disappearance. Rather, he was just perplexed by everything.

Camila, in his opinion, possessed a high level of intelligence.

She planned out practically everything that she did.

Was this part of her plan as well?

It was possible that she vanished after leaving the Haynes family's residence

because she did not want to cause problems for him and Rowena

Maybe she was the one who orchestrated her own capture

She did want to marry Jaylen, after all

Perhaps she only agreed to do so at first to let his guard down

The more Aldrin contemplated the situation, the more he was convinced that he was correct

After leaving the Haynes Group, Jaylen sat in his car and contemplated the situation for quite some time. Who could possibly try to capture

Camila? Suddenly, Isaac's name sprang to mind. §

Jaylen's eyes widened

"It's definitely him!" He slapped his thigh. How come he only thought of Isaac now?

Who else would have had the courage and the means to completely eliminate all traces of the abduction except for Isaac? @

Right away, Jaylen started the car and drove to the headquarters of the Paramount Corporation to confront Isaac

Half an hour later, he arrived at his destination

The receptionist stopped him midway through his angry entrance but was pushed away by Jaylen

He boarded the elevator to Isaac's office, marched up to the door, and pushed it open

"Isaac!"

Quickly, he approached Isaac's desk and demanded, "Hand over Camila!" Isaac raised a brow. "Is she not your future wife? Why do you think she might be here? Are you drunk?"

"Don't act dumb. I know you're the one who took Camila. I can't think of anyone else who would do that besides you!"

Jaylen snarled

"Do you have any evidence?" Isaac asked indifferently

Jaylen did not respond

Truthfully, he had nothing to back up his claims. It was just an assumption on his part

"You don't have it, do you?" Standing up, Isaac commanded, "Wynter, call all the security personnel and have Mr. Williams escorted out."

He was obviously not in the mood to be courteous

"Isaac, you're really ruthless!" Jaylen exclaimed in a fury

In response, Isaac shot him a condescending look

The company's security personnel arrived shortly after Jaylen clenched his teeth in frustration. Because he was in Isaac's domain, he had no choice but to leave. "Just wait.

I'm going to find evidence. I'll prove that you're the one who took her."

After saying that, he shoved the security personnel out of the way. "Move, damn it! I can walk by myself."

He swore at them indignantly

He left just as Willie was entering

Jaylen gave him a quick look and snorted

Willie did not let his rudeness bother him. Jaylen snorting at him would do him no damage at all

Besides, his mind was preoccupied with other matters

He locked the door after everyone left the office and walked up to Isaac

"Everything is done."

"I see," Isaac replied emotionlessly. @

Willie hesitated for a moment, then finally asked, "Mr. Johnston, I don't understand. Why are you doing this?" @

He was sure Isaac was hopelessly in love with Fidelia at this point and could not care less about Camila

What motivated him to abduct the bride, then? @

"You care about Camila, but you still hate her for drugging you and setting you up with Fidelia. Am I right?" «@

Willie could not control his insatiable want to gossip
