

Chapter 324 Keep It A Secret

Jaylen cursed under his breath.

Then he rushed over to Camila and stood in front of her. "That man is Isaac's man. He came to poach someone from Madeline."

Camila turned around and saw Harrell.

At this time, Jeff called Camila, "Mr. Chavez is very sincere. How about we have a talk together?"

At the thought that Isaac's man wanted to poach Camila, Jaylen's eyes widened in surprise.

It was difficult for Jaylen to believe.

"As I said, I won't agree or think about it," Camila told Jeff.

Then she pulled Jaylen away.

Jeff had no choice but to accept Camila's decision.

Looking at Harrell, he said, "I told her what you said, but she didn't agree."

Harrell was disappointed and upset, but when he glanced at Jeff, his eyes lit up again. "I believe you are also suitable..."

Shaking his head repeatedly, Jeff replied, "No, I can't."

"But..."

"No way!" Jeff refused without hesitation.

For this reason, Harrell was at a loss.

Meanwhile, Camila and Jaylen had left.

The latter looked at Camila and asked in amazement, "You learned to “speak the language here so fluently in just half a year?”

Even Jaylen admitted that he was inferior to her.

“I’ve learned to speak it long ago.”

This rendered Jaylen speechless.

“Well, what other languages can you speak?”

“French, German, and Spanish,” answered Camila.

Amazement was evident on Jaylen’s face.

“How could you speak so many languages?”

“I had no choice but to learn them,” Camila replied casually.

“What do you mean by having no choice?” Curious, Jaylen couldn’t help but ask further.

Thinking of Marvin and that man, Camila whispered, “To seduce men.”

Jaylen was baffled.

“Who exactly did you seduce?”

Without answering, Camila pulled him into a restaurant.

Unwilling to give up, Jaylen guessed, “Is it Isaac?”

Camila gave him a sidelong glance.

The look in her eyes gave him the answer.

It made Jaylen sick with jealousy.

Isaac was continually casting a shadow on him!

He was desperate to face Isaac and determine who was more powerful.

Camila sat down and asked, “What do you want to eat?”

Jaylen’s mind was racing with things he wanted to say to Camila. How

"I'm okay with anything," he said.

In the end, Camila ordered for both of them.

Perhaps it was because she was pregnant that she had an insatiable appetite.

While waiting for the dishes to be served, Jaylen finally couldn't help asking, "Your baby is..."

"Isaac's," Camila answered directly.

Isaac was her first man.

And he would be the last.

Camila would never, ever fall in love again.

Maybe Jaylen had known it in his heart, but he still didn't give up.

But now, he finally gave up.

Taking a deep breath, Jaylen said, "Why do I keep asking for answers that I know will upset me?"

Why did he ask?

He collected himself and asked again, "Why did you make people believe you're dead? Why did you leave Isaac?"

The last question was what had been bugging him.

Did she leave because she no longer loved Isaac?

"No." Camila took a sip of water from her glass.

"Then, why?" Jayden wondered. "Is it because you are disfigured and afraid that Isaac will not like you anymore?"

Confirming his thought, Camila answered, "I really don't want him to see me like this."

She didn't want to leave a bad impression on him.

The ferocious scar was the last thing she wanted him to see.

"Does he know you are pregnant?" Jaylen asked again.

Camila raised her head and looked at him.

"It's okay if you don't want to tell me." Jaylen laughed.

"He doesn't know." Pursing her lips, Camila added, "You must keep my secret."

"Well, don't worry." Since Jaylen was competing with Isaac, why would he tell him that Camila was still alive?

He wanted to hide it from Isaac more than anyone else.

It would be better to see him depressed!

"By the way..." There was something important that Camila needed to discuss with him.

She took out a document from her bag and handed it to him. "Have a look."

Without thinking twice, Jaylen took it from her hand.

When he figured out what it was, his eyes widened.

"You..."
