Chapter 86 Starving To Death Here

Camila never expected that Isaac would go to that extent. Right now, the word "crazy" was an understatement of his action.

How could he offer such a high price?

She thought of possible ways to escape from Isaac. She must not leave any traces behind. Otherwise, Isaac could easily find her location.

She must admit that Isaac was very smart. She had never thought he would take advantage of human nature.

Indeed, people were greedy.

They would do anything in front of money.

These days, the Internet was quite advanced. As long as one was willing to spend money on social media or TV, it was not hard to find a

wanted person

"Mila, what should we do? How about we leave now?"

asked Rowena. Her voice was a little bit shaky as she looked at her daughter with pitiful eyes,

Camila lifted her head and looked at her mother. She was indeed scared out of her wits, but she managed to say,

"Mom, please don't worry."

She had to calm herself down. If her mother knew that she, herself, was also anxious, nothing good would come out of it.

"Why did he want you? Didn't you guys get divorced willingly and parted ways in peace?" Rowena asked in confusion.

"I actually left him without letting him know," said Camila, as she rubbed her face out of exhaustion.

Rowena didn't expect to hear that. Camila's answer made her frown at first, then her eyes widened after realizing what was really going on. She wanted to ask why Camila did that to Isaac.

But then, she began to understand her situation. Rowena's eyes softened as she looked at the distressed Camila. The marriage didn't belong to Camila anyway, so it was understandable that her daughter wanted to escape from that.

She could put herself in Camila's shoes.

After some time, Rowena calmed down a bit. She put her hands on the back of Camila and patted her gently as she said, "This world is so big. I'm sure we will find a place to live peacefully."

Camila showed a weak smile at her mother, but deep inside, she was not convinced.

Judging from the current situation, Isaac must be extremely furious with her. He was doing everything he could to get her back.

She could see a glimpse of what would happen to her if she was caught by him, But she didn't want to think about it because anticipating the future would only bring her more distress.

Right now, she had to have a clear mind so that she could think of what she should do next. She was carrying her precious baby in her womb, and she couldn't let Isaac catch her and torture her. After pondering for a while, Camila got up and told Rowena, "I'll go out first."

Worried, Rowena reminded her, "Please be careful."

With a peaked cap, a mask, and casual clothes, Camila made herself unable to be recognized by people easily.

She wanted to see Laura, so she came there. But Laura was out on duty, and no one knew when she would come back. So, she had no choice but to leave first.

When she went to the studio, she saw many people at the door. They must have seen the bounty news and came here for her. It seemed that she had no option but to leave immediately.

She quietly took a step back and was about to leave. But since she wasn't paying attention to her surrounding, she bumped into someone.

Wanting to leave the place as quickly as possible, she didn't raise her head and simply said sorry. Then, she turned around to leave, but her arm was grabbed forcefully.

"Are you afraid that Isaac would find you?" said the person who grabbed her. The voice sounded familiar.

Finally, she couldn't help but raise her head. Immediately, fear flashed across her eyes. The intensity of the fear she felt upon seeing that person was three times stronger than upon seeing Isaac.

"You... Why are you here?"

She was too nervous that she stammered.

Jaylen smirked at that as he said, "Surprise?"

He stepped forward, making himself quite close to her, as he whispered into her ear, "I'm living here. I just went to Heinz to discuss a cooperation with Isaac, but he was too bad-tempered. He introduced you to me, but he stopped me and beat me up. I couldn't go out for half a month because of him, and the cooperation was cancelled. Now, he is looking for you everywhere. But guess what, I found you first."

Camila furrowed her brows and asked, "So you're a native here?"

"That's my family's company, Williams Group. I'm the head of the family," said Jaylen. As he spoke, he raised his chin to show her the building not far away.

Camila followed his gaze and had a look. At this moment, she was not actually interested in the identity of Jaylen. She just wanted to get away from him.

But Jaylen was holding her tightly, and there was no way she could overpower him. "Camila, I've never suffered such a big loss, except from you," he said indignantly.

Camila was nervous as hell. She could feel her mouth get dry. She swallowed her saliva as she forced a smile. "It was a misunderstanding before..."

Jaylen's eyes bored into hers, but he didn't say anything else.

Under his intense stare, Camila couldn't seem to continue speaking. After all, they had fought fiercely in the past.

How stupid would Jaylen be to believe her?

Right now, it seemed that there was no way for Camila to escape, with both Isaac and Jaylen hostile to her.

"You can kill me as you like." She had no strength to struggle, so she might as well give up right now.

"You are so beautiful. How could I kill you? I won't be able to do that," said Jaylen as his eyes explored her entire face. There was a deeper meaning behind his words. «

Camila's eyes widened at that. She could feel her heart beating faster as time went by. But she still had no chance to struggle out of his grip.

Jaylen then took her to his private house. As soon as he arrived there, he ordered some of his people to guard the entire house. #

Perhaps because he had lost quite a few times to Camila, he was on high alert this time. All the windows in the house were secured by nails.

Not to mention that there were guards outside.

The truth was Camila didn't intend to run away. Even if she escaped from Jaylen, she would fall into Isaac's hands. So, no matter what she decided to do, she would end up being a captive anyway. So, she wouldn't run. In fact, she had no strength, to begin with. #

After everything was settled, Jaylen looked at her. She was surprisingly so quiet, which made him uncomfortable.

He asked seriously, "Camila, what trick do you want to play again?" Sitting still on the sofa, Camila replied calmly, "I know I can't run away, so I won't waste my strength in struggling. But if you want to do something bad to me, I'd rather commit suicide."

Jaylen smirked. "If I can't get you, why should I bother to chase after you?" Camila took a look at him.

Jaylen didn't look like that kind of lustful man. He was tall and had outstanding facial features, but he looked unruly. He had a pair of alluring eyes under his thick eyebrows.

"You came to Skystead just to avoid Isaac, didn't you? Since you ran away, it means that you don't like him. In that case, why don't you be with me..."

"No way!" Before Jaylen could finish speaking, Camila interrupted him. She ran away because Isaac wouldn't allow her to give birth to her baby. At the same time, she knew she couldn't have another man's child while having an intimate relationship with Isaac. That might sound unfair to him.

They couldn't make their marriage work, so she came up with this idea of running away. But it didn't mean that she wanted to be with any other man. She just wanted to live her life with her baby and Rowena. So, she rejected him without any hesitation, saying, "I will never have anything to do with you."

Jaylen narrowed his eyes.

Camila was not afraid of him. This was the worst situation anyway.

With a deadpan face, she continued, "I'm a doctor. If I want to kill myself, there are many ways."

It was the first time that Jaylen was defeated by a woman, and worst of all, that woman had made him lose several times.

He had no doubt in what Camila said. After all, he had suffered a lot from her.

"If you don't obey me, I won't let you go." Jaylen sneered, "The more Isaac wants to find you, the more I want to hide you!"

He hated Isaac for beating him. So, he was determined to set himself against Isaac!

"Well, I happen not to want Isaac to find me." As she spoke, she put both her hands on her belly, as if she was protecting the child. If Isaac found her, she wasn't sure if she could keep the baby.

Hearing her say that one sentence, Jaylen felt it was the most delighted thing he had ever heard in his life.

"So, do we have a common goal?" he asked. Jaylen poured two glasses of water for himself and Camila.

Camila took the glass from him and looked at it. She then put it on the table without drinking it

Seeing her so vigilant, Jaylen sneered, "I'm not as scheming as you. There is no drug in the water."

Despite him telling that, Camila didn't drink it

Jaylen didn't care if she drank or not and just took two sips from his glass.

"Stay here. I promise Isaac won't find you." Jaylen stood up as he spoke. "Can you give me back my phone?" Camila hurriedly stopped him before he left.

When Jaylen caught her, he took her phone. Jaylen wasn't an idiot, and he said, "You ask for the phone so that you can contact someone to come save you?"

"No..."

Camila was about to explain, but Jaylen couldn't be bothered to listen to her excuses. He sneered, "You'd better give up. There is no network or communication device here." Then, he walked out. Camila needed a phone not because she wanted to ask for help but because she needed to talk to Rowena. # She had disappeared suddenly and hadn't told Rowena where she went before she left. So, Rowena must be very worried by now.

But at this moment, she was left with no options. She could only wait for Jaylen to come to her again. Only then would she be able to explain about her situation.

The house was empty, and there was no food in the kitchen.

When the night came, Camila couldn't stand it anymore. If she had nothing to eat, how could her child get the required nutrition? She must have something for herself and the child.

She got out of the room and looked for the bodyguards that were guarding the house. When she saw them, she said, "I want to see your boss." The bodyguards ignored her.

"Hey, did you hear me?" Camila raised her voice, but they pretended like they didn't hear her.

Camila was anxious as she asked, "Is your boss going to starve me to death here?"

The bodyguards remained silent.

"Mil:

" At this moment, a familiar voice came. She suddenly looked up and saw the person walking towards her.
